QUEBEC, Aug. 25.—A most brutal and uncalled for attack on the Salvation Army took place here to-night. The members resident in the city and a large number of brothers and sisters of the order arrived here yesterday for the purpose of taking part in their fifth annual festival. They came from Halifax, St. John's, N.B., the Eastern Townships,

Montreal, Ottawa, and other places west, probably about 100 devotes in all. Last evening in the usual way they paraded through the streets, headed by a brass band, and did not interfere with anyone.

A few ill-disposed ruffians, who professedly detested religious worship in any form, threw a few eggs at the procession, slightly injuring passers by as they were members of the Army. No particular notice was taken of this and the assailants desisted only to renew the attack to-night with reinforce-

The procession had just reached the Place d'Armes square when a well-known Quebec bully, backed by 300 or 400 others, rushed out of the ranks, shouting and poured a continual fusillade of rocks and an occasional thump of a stick. They were not stoned in their murderous assault even when men and women stood after the fall on the ground.

In a moment a crowd went to the assistance of those injured. One man was given a summary reception. The injured ones were rescued with great difficulty and taken to the hospital.

In the meantime the mob followed up the army, but behind the fence which encloses the Jesuit grounds, opposite the Basilica.

There they opened fire again and caused a general alarm throughout the city.

A young lady who had been at Simons & Poulin's dry goods store, on Fabre-street, during this attack, escaped death by a hair's breadth. A rock weighing about two pounds struck her hat, glanced off it and smashed a $100 piece of glass.

Farther down the street a lady member of the army was struck by the back of the hand with a stick. The young girl ran home alone, alighted from a store on Fabre-street for protection, but was rudely ejected and again attacked.

The army were making as fast time as possible and reached the barracks, where it was found that some fifteen or more were seriously injured.

COLOR Sergeant Morris of Quebec was up upon the temple and is suffering from concussion and brain. He is now delirious and the doctor cannot pronounce his case.

Adjt. Vanallen of Montreal and McHardy of Ottawa, split heads.

Batemans, and a young man of Montreal, injured in the head and body.

Miss Lloyd, a captain of Waterloo, was kicked in the ribs and almost prostrated.

Commissioner Coombes was set upon by a handful of the mob and would undoubtedly have been stoned to death if he had not the assistance of a man named Low, who mixed up with the row and exchanged blows with the Commissioners.

Commissioner Coombes states that he demanded police protection for to-night, after news had last night come in that only awarded four men who only arrived in the usual way after the storm was over.

Dr. Gale, who is in attendance, has refused to allow several of the injured ones to be removed to safety.

There is great indignation felt over this outrage. The ring-leader was fully recognized by several persons and it is said will be arrested.

Commissioner Coombes will remain over and push the prosecution.

A Sportman's Grievance.

OTTAWA, Aug. 25.—Farmers down the Ottawa, especially on the Quebec side, are seeing some aneconomy to sportmen by setting up a claim to the waters of the bay pointing their lands and charging for the privilege of shooting. This, it is claimed, they have no right to do, as their land only extends to high water mark. The farmers go up claims to the banks in the river and for some time as much as $25 is said to have been charged as rent.

There are a number of little ways which are much frequented by duck and other wild fowl in the fall which Ottawa sportsmen have been accustomed to visit, and some trouble may occur if the farmers persist in their present course.

A Schooner Ashore.

WATERFORD, N.Y., Aug. 25.—The large

Minnie Francis, consort of the steam barge

Fremont, sprang awake when about ten miles from Stony Point, on her way down Lake Ontario last night. She became human again.

The crew was taken off and she was cut adrift. She went ashore at the mouth of Sandy Creek.
