

THE DAILY NEWS. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24. THE BOUNDARY AHEAD.

The boundary question is more likely to avoid the death knell of the conspirators who have tried to foment a rebellion by means of this issue.

It was still open to the Nova Scotia Government to have the matter brought before the Supreme Court, the Privy Council, or an arbitrator.

It, however, failed to file the first report submitted to the arbitration board.

Mr. Herdick said that any measure submitted should not be regarded as a precedent.
