SPRINKLE.
Pick of the leaves and boil in plenty of salt water. Drain, chop upon a board or in a tray; put into a saucer with a tablespoonful of sugar, pepper, salt, nutmeg, and a few spoonfuls of milk or cream. Stir and heat until bubbling hot; pour upon small squares of bread.—The Gastronomer.

sun salts.

Half pound of butter, two pounds of flour, one pound of brown sugar, one pound of sal-tine raisins, one ounce of cinnamon, one ounce of nutmeg, one ounce of cardamom seed, one ounce of tartaric acid. Rub the butter and sugar together, and the soda and spices well into the butter; add the tartaric acid must be added the last thing, and the cakes must be instantly put into the oven.

Shrewdness and Ability.

Hop Blitters, so freely advertised in the papers, secular and religious, are having a large sale, and are supplanting the old virtues of the Hop blitter, and the proprietors of these blitters have shown great shrewdness and ability in compounding a blitter, whose virtues are so evident, even to the most casual observator. The tartaric acid must be added the last thing, and the cakes must be instantly put into the oven.
