The Daily News.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 19.

Appearances indicate that the Grand Trunk and Great Western railways will shortly be amalgamated, as strong efforts are being made in that direction by the G. T. authorities. The G.T.R., in such a case, will control every mile of railway in Ontario save the Canada Southern and C.P.R. and, possessing a practical monopoly of western and local traffic, will be able to charge such rates as it pleases. The $20,000,000 due by this line to the Government is a small item compared with the loss which is sure to follow the destruction of competition, and we will be disadvantageously affected in common with the western peninsula.

Mr Mackenzie's masterly ability as a "practical" Minister of Public Works is shown to great advantage in the report of the C.P.R. commissioners, where is dealt with contract number 4 awarded to Oliver, Davidson & Co. The conclusions arrived at by the commission on which favor slightly inclines are not passed over without being allowed any specified time for furnishing the requisite security; that the contractors got a higher price than was offered by others; that the work for; that the department had the opportunity of getting it done for $18,0.0 less than they really paid; and that Oliver, Davidson & Co. perfumed chair in a very discreditable manner. This is one sample of the manner in which the money of the people was expended under the auspices of a "practical" man.

The nice discretion possessed by Mr Arthur Stagnes Hardy, the Knight of the solemn, as to what is relevant matter and what is not, is quite apparent from a perusal of some of the passages which that worthy suppressed as "irrelevant" in the report of Mr John Smith, immigration agent at Hamilton. These are supplied by the Hamilton Spectator. One paragraph which fell before the gleaming shears was that in which Mr Smith, in the course of the United States land agencies have been withdrawn from the district, owing to the superior attractions of the Northwest territories and the system of measure is adopted by the Department." The department whose activity is here eulogized is the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, and its head has received literally hundreds of unmerciful sentence of ten years' penal servitude in the Kingston Penitentiary. But to dwell on the crime or consequences derived therefrom is not in the duties of Judge Robinson; it is simply to console with the afflicted parents whose hearts are ready to break over the misfortune that so sadly and unexpectedly overwhelmed them, and to say a word on behalf of the unfortunate female judge with whom all his acquaintances symtoms. The unfortunate young man is but 18 years of age, and I have known him for a number of years and always found him an upright, honest and industrious young man, one whose innocence caused others to guil him; and up to the time he left Ottawa he never went to dannonque to work, I don't think a citizen in Kingston can say W. Reilly was ever known to do a single dirty action. Therefore his character in Kingston was unimpeachable. Although he was guilty of the crime, he was not the only one. I am informed that the whole of the Ottawa gang were implicated in the robbery, and were willing to take the whole responsibility on the shoulders of one young man, who had fallen from the path of virtue, and who, if counsel in time, will be saved from earthly misery.

Thanking you sincerely for your kindness and indulgence in giving publicity to this letter, which is written out of pure charity, and to save a poor young man from the unjust censure that always attends the unfortunate misguided.

I remain, yours, etc.

They do Their Work

To the Editor of the Daily News.

DEAR SIR,—In your report of the proceedings of the last meeting of the City Council, a statement appeared to the effect, that the city horses "were not doing half a day's work." Now, I say that this is not true. I am the driver of one of the said horses, and wish to tell Dr. McCammon that the work is done regularly. Each day from ten to eleven loads of stone are placed on the road, by each horse. If the statement made at the meeting were true, the City Engineer would be the first man to find fault with the horses, and deduct said loss of time from the account. It does not require to quote carefully into a case before he makes public statements, that could reflect injury on a person's character.—I remain, yours etc.

A Sad Affair

Toronto, April 19. A fatal accident occurred yesterday morning at the house of Mr W R Henderson, 267 Sherbourne street. His sister, a Mrs Hasar, from Buffalo, was staying with him on a visit to the city. She retired to her bedroom in perfect health on Monday night. Yesterday morning the servants rising noticed a strong smell of gas in the house. She shortly after entered Mrs Hazard's room, and found the lady on the floor dead, and the room full of gas Dr. Wright was sent for, but he gave it as his opinion, that death had occurred some days, saying some hours before. The gas jet was found half open and the gas escaping, and it is supposed that Mrs Hazard on retiring must have inadvertently turned the gas on after going to bed that night. How could well have happened, as the tap works very easily. The deceased will be buried on Mount Pleasant cemetery, on Thursday.

Flooding the Sahara

Paris, April 19.—The Cabinet Council has approved of the scheme of De Lesseps for a canal through the neck of land dividing the Gulf of Gabes from the Lake of Triton, the low lying parts of the desert of Sahara south of Tunis. It is expected that the work will in virtue of this cutting, once more ill up the Sahara. The political advantages of the scheme lies in the insulation of Algeria and Algiers by creating a water barrier between them and Tripoli, the property of the canal is estimated at 65,000,000 francs.

ADDINGTON NOMINATION

As was to some extent anticipated, Mr B. M. Britton, Q.C., of Kingston, has been nominated as the Reform candidate for Addington at the next general election. Mr Britton a ambitions of parliamentary honors, having made several unsuccessful attempts hitherto to enter the House of commons, but there has been a determination on the part of the public to accede to his wishes, and we have good reason to believe that this attempt will be successful, as he has work out out for him in contesting Addington.
