THEIR ANNUAL DINNER.

St. George's Society Meet at Old Sam's and Spend a Pleasant Evening.

Last evening the members of St. George's Society held their annual dinner at Old Sam's hotel. The dining-room was neatly decorated with flags and bunting. The table, which formed three sides of an oblong, were literally laden with edibles of the very best, and cooked in the style for which the host is celebrated. The bill of fare, which was discussed for fully an hour, was as follows:—

Soup—Ox tail.
Fish—Boiled Rock salmon, new; Cod's head and shoulders, with oyster sauce.
Entrees—Fillets of beef, with horse radish; Lamb, with mint sauce; Mutton chops, with mushroom sauce; Corned beef.
Game—Wild duck and lemon jelly; partridge and currant jelly.
Roasts—Corned sirloin and mushrooms; giblet pie and sweet bread.
Vegetables—Potatoes, creamed; green peas; sweet corn; parsnips; tomatoes.
Pastry—Lemon meringue tarts; custard; fillet of veal, stuffed.
Cold Joints—Ham; tongue; round of beef.
Pastry—Lemon cream pies, with lemon centres; fruit pies; strawberry, gooseberry and pine apple tarts.
Dessert—Mushroom catsup; tomato catsup; West India pickles; Worcestershire sauce; mixed pickles; ice cream; jellies; tea; coffee; Dewar ale.

The Secretary, Mr Lelliebeck, read the following greetings:

From Mr R. W. Barker—Continued prosperity and a bumper all round for "Merrie England."

Toronto Society—Hearty and fraternal greetings, J. E. Bell, Secretary.

Oswego Society—Hearty greetings, Mr P. Neil, Secretary.

Hamilton Society—Hearty greetings.

He also read a telegram, accounting for the absence of Mr Gordon Forest, by which stated that he was unable to be present through illness.

The chairman proposed the toast of "The Queen," which was heartily responded to and the National Anthem sung with an enthusiasm.

Mr Brendon, 1st Vice President, proposed "The Queen and Princess of Wales," which was responded to with three cheers.

Mr W. Platt, 2nd Vice President, proposed "The Governor-General and Princess Louise." Three cheers.

Mr LeRoboux, Secretary, referred to the army, and said that its members were always well represented around the festive board of St. George's Society. He spoke briefly of the volunteers, and the gratifying review on the 24th of May, and then proposed the "Army and Navy." The toast was duly honored, and Mr S. Phippen gave in fine style, "The red, white and blue," the assembly joining in the chorus.

Sergeant McGuire, 8 Battery, rose to respond. He said he was pleased that the world always be willing to do their duty. Of late they had met with disasters, but he thought it was more from bad management than anything else. However, the society had renewed some pretty bad knocks.

Major Smythe responded very briefly on behalf of the volunteers, and said that they emulated the British regulars.

Mr W. Pipe returned thanks on behalf of the navy.

The chairman proposed "The day and all the honors it," and in doing so referred to British connection. Length of days had in nowise weakened it. The toast was duly honored.

Mr W. Hinde sang "An Englishman am I," with great effect.

Dr. Smythe said that at banquets the beauties of Ireland and Scotland are often cited, but no matter how much may be spoken of, no matter how much may be sung of the looks of Scotland and Ireland, there is that in the history of England which is distinctively worthy the epithets of harde and the glories of that great land. England's struggles on the battlefield have done much to command the attention not only of the British isles, but of the whole world. Who Britain bleed, but of the whole world. Who was it that solved the problem of monetary government? It was England; and wherever that liberty is enjoyed it is enjoyed after the model inspired by Englishmen. It had been reading of the trial of some Nihilists by jury, which led to the remark that trial by jury, which led to the remark that trial by jury was born. It was Alfred the Great who instituted trial by jury, which makes another proof how that England has given to the world. Where did "home," in the real sense of the word, originate? In England; and it is peculiarly instinctive to Englishmen. Home enlarged becomes patriotism. When Napoleon sent a despatch after a battle he always referred to glory. It was the thought of glory that inspired the Frenchman. Wellington never issued a despatch after a battle without using the word duty. It was the saying of duty that inspired Englishmen. He hoped all present would remember "home and duty."

Dr. Saunders, in proposing "Canada our home," said that Canada, young as it was, had a history, and that it now nearly covered half the continent. All should feel proud of Canada as their home.

Mr Grout responded very briefly.

Mr C. Smith, proposed "Our sister societies." After referring to the merits of the national societies, and stating that they were all engaged in the same good work of advancing the welfare of brothers, he as an humble representative of one of them, Englishmen, thought there were no better men in the world than Englishmen. St. George's Society extended to sister societies the same cordial feeling she hoped they extended to her.

Mr T. H. McInnes, President of St. Patrick's Society, in responding said that national sentiment had another object in view besides that of charity—to keep alive the national feeling, which no man should forget, no matter with country he might emigrate. If St. Georges day were allowed to pass by without being celebrated, the Englishmen of Kingston would feel a blank, as if something had cut bond fide. There was one thing that Ireland could boast of that neither England or Scotland could claim, and that was, that her patron saint lived and laboured on her own green soil.

Dr. Smythe—He was a Scotchman. (Laughter.)

Mr McInnes—That is a great mistake, and it is also another mistake that England gave the jury system to the world. Alfred the Great was the only author of it. He was there learned of the jury system and then introduced it into England. In looking around the room I see emblems dear to Englishmen, reminders of a round of roast beef, and St. George killing the dragon. The last picture referred to was that of King William the 1st, on horse back, and the gentleman's remarks created much amusement.) All nations feel England's influence, and beneficially, too, and if there were any men who could feel proud of anything, possessed most substantial claims to public confidence.

Real Estate Agent.

such good effect that he received an encore. Sergeant McGuire recited "The Charge of the Light Brigade," and was loudly applauded.

The toast of "The Ladies" was responded to by Mr C. Smith, Mr G. Brand, jun., Mr Richardson and Mr. Storey. Mr Smith's speech occupied about twenty minutes. There was no toast that he knew of that gave life greater pleasure, notwithstanding that he only represented the smallest possible number of them.

Mr S. Phippen proposed "our host and hostess," which was drunk with a neat little speech and cigars all round.

The assembly then dispersed after enjoying a pleasant evening and a most excellent supper.

Fear Not.

All kidney and urinary complaints, especially Bright's Disease, Diabetes and Ifear troubles Hop Bitters will surely and lastingly cure. Cases exactly like your own have been cured in your own neighborhood, and you can find reliable proof at home of what Hop Bitters has and can do.

BERNETT'S COCOAINE.

It allays Irritation, removes all tendency to dandruff, and invigorates the action of the capillaries in the highest degree, thus promoting a vigorous and healthy growth of hair. Its effect upon the glossiness and richness of the hair is such as cannot be surpassed.

BERNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS are the best.

John Hays, Credit P.O., says: "His shoulder was so lame, for nine months that he could not raise his hand to his head, but by the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil the pain and lameness dis appeared, and, although three months has elapsed, he has not had an attack of it since."

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you distracted at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle.

The Saddest of Sad Sights

The saddest of sad sights—the grey hairs of age being brought with sorrow to the grave—is now, we are glad to think, becoming rarer every year as the use of Gingsleus Hair Restorer becomes more general. By its use the beauty locks of age once more resume their former color and the hair becomes soft, glossy and luxuriant as ever; with its aid we can now defy the change of years, resting assured that no grey hair at any age will come to sadden us. Sold at Wale's Drug Store at 50 cents per bottle.

A Prolific Source of Disease.

A trifling indiscretion in diet may lay the foundation of confirmed dyspepsia, and there is no fact in medical science more positively ascertained or more authoritatively asserted than that dyspepsia is the parent of a host of bodily ills, not the least of which is contamination of the blood and the maladies of which that is the direct consequence. Their original cause is, however, thoroughly eradicated from the system by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, a medicine which only requires regularity and perseverance in its use to cure dyspepsia and the many ills that arise from it. No deleterious mineral ingredient is contained in it, and though its action is thorough in cases of costiveness, it never produces griping pains in the abdominal region, nor weakens the bowels like a violent purgative. It invigorates the stomach through the medium of the increased digestive and assimilative activity which it promotes, and is also a most efficient remedy for kidney complaints, scrofulous and all diseases of the blood, female weaknesses, &c. &c. Price, $1.00. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Ask for Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. The wrapper bears a facsimile of their signature. Sold by all medicine dealers.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

—Health or Wealth.

No sane person would hesitate an instant in the choice between these two conditions. Now is the season to secure the former either by restoring or confirming it. These Pills expel all impurities from the system which fogs,foul vapours, and variable temperatures engender during winter, this medicine also acts most wholesomely upon the skin by disgorging the liver of its accumulated bile, and by exciting the kidneys to more energetic action; it increases the appetite for food and strengthens the digestive powers. The stomach and liver, with which most disorders originate, are fully under the control of these regenerative Pills, which act very kindly, yet most efficiently, on the tenderest bowels.

There is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, a specific monoke of acknowledged efficacy. It cures lameness and soreness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claims to public confidence.

HEAD, THROAT AND CHEST.

During which time we have successfully treated over 5,000 cases of Catarrh, which is one of the most perfect remedies and application for the cure of Catarrh in use, and is endorsed by many in this section of

MEDICATED INHALATIONS.

Head, Throat and Lung affections have become so rapid in their progress of late years that the Proprietor has found it necessary to establish a branch office for the convenience of those from all parts of the country who cannot visit the Institute personally.

Those who cannot visit the Institute per sonally, for a consultation and examination, but, if by letter, will receive the same attention. Send for List of Questions and Medical Treatise.
