

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Mr A. Simmonds, Prince street, wants to know if he is not the local leader of the Conservative party.

All the steamer's tail. A woman recently confided her fears to me about the safety of the steamer.

Is there any reason why a man should vote for Mr Grey because Alfred Simmonds is foolish enough to bet money upon a horse race?

Mr Mowat is said to be very angry at Grit talk about gerrymandering. He is the father of the practice in this country and is proud of his offspring.

Birch Richard Cartwright says that protest is "legalized robbery." Mr Blake is a dead ender to incidental protest.

Therefore Mr Blake is a dead ender.

John Grey, Q.C., has received $10,000, 47, in four years for doing legal services for the Ontario Government; and is making a fortune.

The Gris talk about gerrymandering.

That he is liable to a fine of $5,000 and incarceration for "defeating the measures of the United States," where there is a dispute between that Government and a foreign power.

The fact, which is now in opposition censuring for the sake of the cause, the same cause of setting out against

"French domination" was the cry by which we were brought almost to the verge of war prior to secession, and the same cry is being made use of now to stir up sectional hatred

in order that Britain may reap the acts of the Conservative party for the prosperity, sound and harmony of the whole

Dominion. Surely public-spirited and patriotic citizens, who have the welfare of the country at heart, will trumpet open the mouths of a decayed party to save the cause of disunion.

At a magnificent meeting held in Toronto

last night, Sir John Macdonald delivered a masterly and exhaustive address on the issues of the day. While speaking, Sir John was received as follows:

A Vote—What about the Redistribution bill?

Sir John Macdonald—I am asked what about the Redistribution bill.

Mr Plumb—I think it is a bad idea.

Sir John Macdonald—The Grits

complain that they do not like the association.

(Laughter.) I told my constituents the other day—Well, I hope, indeed, I know they will be my constituents—(claps)—a story.

When Reform Club-house was built in London

the club room was really a magnificence under-structure, a great wit, and the editor of a paper, was taken into the place. When he showed the place to the club-room, the friend said, "Well, how do you like our room?" Bad hook! "We'd wish you had more room."

He did not like such other's company,

he liked to associate with Conservative gentlemen such as you.

You're with them, rather gives such to you.

Your being with them rather gives such to you.

It is a glorious subject.

The editor was a fruitful subject of disquisition in the Grits, but now we have no more about it than we do about the names of the children of Israel. And yet there is an erudite proceeding rapidly which demands attention and criticism. It is not the departure of the sons of toil to build up a foreign nation, however, but the flight of leaving and abandoning the native land, and throwing groves at short distances to prevent further encroachments.

It is expected the work will be commenced in a few days.

Losses at Sea.

St. John's, May 31.—The schooner

Doris was lost off Magdalen Islands on Friday. It is feared that all on board perished.

The sailing brig Fearless is missing with a crew of seventy-five. A Governor the schooner Venture, post master, was last on Wednesday with all hands on a voyage from Fincastle Bay to St. Pierre.

Irish Items.

Dublin, May 31.—Earl Conyngham told a deputation of the corporation of Limerick that he trusted shortly to be able to return to Ireland.

London, May 31.—It is reported that

Gladstone and Harcourt have been warred against by the Conservative party.

It is reported that Gladstone's position is to support the Conservative party.

As far as I can see, he is not to support the Grit party.

Willington accepted him.

Attempted Suicide.

Vancouver, May 31.—Last night a man attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself.

Mr Oliver was found

in bed.

After having been brought home, it was found that he had cut his wrists.

He had been drinking heavily.

He is reported to be a member of the National Party.

I hope he will be successful in his attempt.

As far as I can see, he is

not to support the Grit party.
