The Daily News.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 15.

"You can't make a country prosperous by act of Parliament" is a standard maxim of the Reform party, but such nonsense does not go down with Mr C. F. Gildersleeve. Under Conservative rule, it seems, Kingston lost ground, but even the very fact that it shows a Reform representative was sufficient to send it forward on a new career of progress. Probably it was that Normal School, which Kingston didn't get, that shows the tremendous influence wielded by Mr Robinson on the destiny of the city.

Seventeen Conservatives elected by acclamation, and only one Grit! and that Grit pledged to support Sir John Macdonald! It will be useless for the Opposition is swept out of existence altogether, out of the corporal's guard which supported Mr Blake during the past Parliament, a remnant with greatly diminished numbers; and yet the result of the nominations seems to show that there will not be enough opposition for the purposes of respectable criticism. Impending disaster stares the Grits in the face, and they know their doom is approaching.

In the House of Representatives at Washington, on June the 11th, Mr Parker, of New York, introduced a joint resolution authorizing the construction of a bridge across the St. Lawrence River near Wellington by the New York and Canada Bridge Company, which, for this purpose, is permitted to unite with the Ottawa, Waddington and New York Railway and Bridge Company. The resolution directs that the location and construction of the bridge be under the supervision of the Secretary of War, to whom all plans and specifications must be submitted for approval.

Mr David W. Allison is a great patriot, and waxes indignant at the thought of Ontario being given over to French domination. Mr Allison is a distinguished and loyal Canadian. On the 24th of June, A.D. 1866, he made the following declaration in the Circuit Court of the county of Saginaw, in the State of Michigan — Mr. David W. Allison, solemnly swear that it is my fixed purpose to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to each and every foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty whatever, and particularly the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, of whom I have been a subject." David W. Allison is a Grit and seeks the suffrages of the loyal men of Lennox.

Deathnote of any solid grounds on which to appeal to the people of Kingston for their votes, the Grit organ has discovered a bonanza in the expression which dropped from Dr. Sullivan in a heated moment on nomination day. It is true that gentler language might have been chosen than that some of the Opposition had, but a man cannot always remain cool and collected when he hears a statement made about himself which he knows to be false. The Whig says that Dr. Sullivan may possibly improve with years and may reach the full standard of a statesman of the gentlemanly order. It must take Richard Cartwright who recently absented across the platform at Dr. Orton "You're a liar." There is little fear of Sir Richard being recalled in this gentle recreation by anyone, however much the Whig may admire him as a "statesman of the gentlemanly order."

The Hon. David A. Wells and Mr Horace White have started a Society for Political Education in New York city, which has for one of its avowed objects "the awakening of an intelligent interest in government methods and purposes." and furtherance of this and other kindred aims it is proposed "to circulate, at a low price and in cheap form, sound economic and political literature in maintenance and illustration of such general principles as are believed to be sound." The end that this society has in view is a very commendable one,and the more so as it will attempt to cultivate a knowledge of the importance of the machinery of Government, and of the special conditions of the United States and of the country with which it has most of its dealings. At the advancing stage of civilization it becomes essentially necessary that as many as possible should be able to pronounce an intelligent opinion upon the public affairs of the country in which they residee, for the people are now the arbiters, the judges, the jurors whose duty it is to decide what course shall be pursued by their Government.

Mr C. F. Gildersleeve is splendidly regardless of the principles and theories of that party of which he has distinguished ornament. "Let every industry stand on its own bottom" says the Globe, so Mr Gildersleeve bounds to the front and lifts up his voice for a $300,000 bonus to the Kingston & Pembroke Railway, and for bonuses to different manufacturing establishments in the city. And then he turns around again and denounces the National Policy, and winds up by saying that the Reform party has adopted, in only subject to a more readjustment in particular items. The representative Grit evidently thinks that in order to gain your point you may be anything and everything, and he is the leader of the party that would ascertain the true facts by calling at the factory and examining the books. We have done this and have given figures copied from those books, showing precisely the wages paid in the first fortnight of June, 1878, and June, 1887, respectively. We are therefore in a position to say that the statements contained in "Pacemaker's letter" are false.

There will be a meeting of all the Ward Committees at the central committee rooms, Princess street, this evening.

Wire-pulling has an irresistable attraction for a class of people. The public often resents what is done from the practice of only the day the recently appointed County Attorney succumbed to the seductive influence, and now has a position worth $1,500 a year, with the Magisterial bench does not ensure exemption from the charms.

The band did not play on the dock last night, being prevented by the rain, which fell heavily.

The agents of the Globe Tobacco Works, of Windsor, were distributing cigarettes around the city to-day, many of them falling into the hands of very young men.

The Whig claims for Reform Councils the credit of the satisfactory state of the City Corporation. This is rather nonsense. The sound financial condition of the city, as all events, is due to the present Mayor.

What use, people ask themselves, would there be in electing Mr Gibson. He would only be in a hopeless minority in the House of Commons and without any influence whatever.

Why did not Mr Gunn and his friends start milk and other industries before the N.P.? Why did they not "antedate" their enterprises and show it when it was most needed?

The Grits of Kingston should make the most of the time still remaining to them for boasting. They will only be able to do so for one day longer.

Mr Gildersleeve antedates the progress of Kingston by about seven years, the election of Mr Robinson acted like a charm in advancing the municipal property. Mr Gildersleeve has a great head.

Every Heart Knoweth its Own Sorrow

This statement appears to contain much truth. In some cases, however, it is the heart of a many hale person which, though small, is capable of much feeling. This form of heart-ache is very common, and can be remedied. PUTNAM'S PAIN-LESS EXTRACTOR gives peace to the throbbing sore. Don't forget that - Sold by druggists everywhere. Sold by N. C. The "Post's" Libel Suit

Montreal, June 15—The counsel for P. J. Whelan, Manager of the Post Publishing Company, lodged this morning an amended plea in the libel suit brought against him by F. B. McNamee. The defendant supplies the names of a number of men whom he alleges Mr McNamee received into the branch of the Fenian brotherhood established here by him, which he succeeded in obtaining from Jabez O Mahony, the head centre in New York, and to these men administered the oath of the society. That Mr McNamee acted as President, he asserts, for several years. That he subsequently introduced Freemasonry into St Patrick's Society in the city, and that he thereby brought the late Hon Darcy McGee expelled from the Society. The names of a large number of Irishmen are given whom Mr Manning is charged by Mr McNamee to get into the American army from 1861 to 1865, while he was acting as a bounty crimp in Quebec. The charges of betraying his Fenian duties to the Government and refusing to give up his charter, from the Supreme Service Fund, are reiterated at much length. The name of Michael O'Reilly is given as the name Rogers McNamee is alleged to have offered $500 if he would get daylight through Chase & Bridgens, then acting as General Manager of the Grand Trunk and did McNamee, he alleged, not succeed in the plot, his reward was a profound secession as it elaborately details the subsequent acts in the series of charges delivered against Mr McNamee by the Post, the Irish Catholic organ here.
