

The Daily News. PUBLISHED EVERY DAY, except on Sundays and Public Holidays. The office is at the corner of Queen and York streets, Toronto, Ontario.

The Line of the Canada Pacific Railway between Toronto Bay and Hamilton has been completed and the trains will pass over the road. Trade will consequently be carried on between Ontario and Manitoba, the summer within our own territory, a prong of a more extensive intercourse between the different sections of the Dominion.

On the other side they have a habit of assessing government officials for the purpose of applying the party which they seem to be in power with. The Central Legislative committee recently issued forty thousand circulars calling upon officials to pay up, and these have been sent over to laborers and workmen who are thus threatened with financial calamity unless they do.

Yesterday morning (last) and today, it was generally conceded that the day selected for the election of the Mayor of Toronto was the best. The afternoon, however, and just at the time when exercises were about to leave and when any announcement that was announced thoroughly they were in a state of excitement. Our neighbors started with the idea that novelty was the test of worth, and that departing from all fixed systems they would be a law unto themselves.

The Toronto World, which is an ardent Nationalist journal, desires to show that Canada might be a nation without all the usual trappings which usually attend upon a nation. It argues that she need not require an influx in order to give us support and influence in dealing with foreign powers, because our relations with our neighbors, which is not a matter of course. Unfortunately the neighboring republics are not the same as our own which is the world's dream, but which is almost always being in the state of contention, and in claiming a right of control over the continent.

The returning officer for Bellville has made his final report. Mr. H. H. H. is the candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace. The returning officer in question and the Government which appointed him. As to the latter we cannot see any reason why the Government should continue to control the office of Justice of the Peace.
