SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 19.

It would appear from last accounts that a great deal of unnecessary sympathy has been expended upon Arabi Pasha. Mr. Malleret is fairly safe when he recently gently complained of misstatements. Sharon Turner's account of the disclosure by Arabi of the secret treaty that a criminal conspiracy existed against Abbas Pasha, and that Arabi was a party to it, is perfectly correct. Arabi's own statement to Colonel Stokes, as reported by Mr. Blunt, part of England's unfriendly mission to Egypt, is to the same effect. Arabi has had stolen several of Abbas' children, and had stolen several of Tewfik's children. Mr. Blunt's statement that Mr. Rivers Wilson, the late English Minister of Finance, had taken several of Tewfik's children to Europe, is also correct. Nothing could exceed the splendid projects of the fanatics whose cause Mr. Blunt has espoused. Arabi was to be President in Cairo, Mr. Blunt was to be Governor-General of India, and Mr. Gladstone was to be installed in London as Caliph. Mr. Blunt's statement that Mr. Gladstone had taken several of Arabi's children to Europe
