Ayer's Sarsaparilla

For many years my principal business was preparing and selling Sarsaparilla. During that time I have had opportunity to observe the effects of my own and other preparations of Sarsaparilla upon many thousands of persons. I have noted the cases in which it failed to benefit, and those in which it produced the most satisfactory results. I have thus been led to form a pretty correct estimate of the value of Sarsaparilla as a remedy for blood diseases. I am convinced that it is the best blood purifier we can use, and that, when taken in large doses, it is a powerful invigorator. It is the only Sarsaparilla that I can recommend to my friends, and the only one I take myself. Its composition is such that I can vouch for it, and I do not hesitate to do so. I have no secret process for making it, and no one is authorized to manufacture it for me. It is made of the best drugs I can buy, and I know that it contains the full medicinal value of the roots of which it is compounded. I have no interest in any other Sarsaparilla, and I do not wish to be understood as recommending any other. I make this statement because I am frequently asked to do so, and because I wish to put my friends in possession of the facts, so that they may not be misled by the false statements of others.
