CAN BE CURED

(OPPOSITE THE METROPOLITAN CHURCH),
Toronto, Ont.

M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M.D.,
(Graduate of Victoria College, Toronto, and a Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario),
PROPRIETOR.

The only Institution of the kind in the Dominion of Canada.

Permanently established for the cure of all the various diseases of the Head, Throat and Chest, viz.: Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, Catarrhal Deafness, Hay Fever, and Catarrhal Deafness. Also diseases of the eye.

Our system of treatment is entirely new, and the proved medicinal properties, combined with proper Dr. Williams' Inhalers, Respirators, Syringes, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples Blotches, Boils, Carbuncles, Humors, Tetter, Itch, Ringworm, Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases, Erysipelas, Sores, Ulcers, Rheumatism, Mercurial Diseases, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervousness and Irregularities, Jaundice, Dizziness, Female Weakness, Sick Headache, Constipation, and General Debility.

By its searching, and cleansing qualities, it purges out the foul corruptions which lurk in the blood, and expels every trace of impurity from the system. It "stimulates and enlivens the vital forces, restores energy and strength to nerve and prostrate health, and sets the whole system in motion, and kept throughout the whole system, and suffer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood, or from a low state of the system, to a fair trial.

Be not discouraged with the numerous cheap and worthless preparations, which are flooding the country, but use only the best. Your blood purifier, which disease becomes more and more obstinate, and resists the power of medicine, and which concentrated ointments, and other local applications, are used in vain. Blood purifier known to the world for its wonderful cures, is Dr. Williams' Sarsaparilla, which has been used for forty years, and is now sold by all druggists.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Chicago Novelette

"You do not doubt me, Myrtle—Never!" exclaimed the girl, putting in her lovelithe net as she spoke and placing her handsome bottle where she would be sure to see it in the morning

The sun had glared down fiercely all day upon the parched earth, and now that night had come the heat was even more oppressive than ever. In some the cool wind that had been wafted from the lake during the day had died away. It was a dreamy, sensuous, one gaze enchanting and lovely evening, such as one often not so often travelling in Dakota.

"You have great faith in me, have you not, little one?" Ah Myrtle said tenderly, leaving the girl a off hand to his.

"Yes, regular Myrtle. I believe in you with a childlike faith such that which no one shall ever be able to take away in the dark, and I love you with a deep fervor and fair loyalty that can never die.

And would you believe anything I told you?" Years succeeded, leaving the girl pallid hand that lay on his.

Looking at him with her starry eyes, in which there gleamed holy love light, the girl replied slowly, and with finite pathos in her voice, "I would believe nothing, no matter what you told me."

Then Ah Myrtle, while a baleful light shot from his near eye, "There is no use in my going to Chicago."

Then quickly the clock, Myrtle's head did not speak. But presently the—and the girl's head was on his breast.

"I can never leave you now, she whispered, "and I intend to do all in my power to let the wife, with all its charms. Chicago Tribune

An Almonter Robbed

A week ago Friday Mr James Walker, a grain merchant of Almonte, left home for Detroit. He sent back a carload, as he was a light and progressing favourably. The next week he received a letter stamped and addressed in the handwriting of his wife, stating that she had been found dead in bed on the morning of the 17th, and that her husband was in a state of insensibility. Mr Walker at once started for home, and on arriving at Almonte was met by his son-in-law, Mr Wm. Bowman, and Mr. Gunn, who broke the sad news to him. On reaching home he found that the letter was a forgery, and that his wife was alive and well. Mr Walker then discovered that his pocket book, containing $130 in bills, and a number of valuable papers, was missing. He had evidently been drugged and robbed while on the cars.
