The Daily News.

MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 28

Hon Mr Mousseau has been elected in Jacques Cartier County by a majority of 400. Mr Mousseau resigned his seat in the Commons to become leader of the Quebec government.

The Canada Gazette of Saturday contains the announcement that His Excellency the Governor-General has been pleased to appoint and commission the following gentlemen, who are entitled, with having been entitled, by virtue of the recent troubles, were suddenly ordered off to another country, their request for a day's grace before leaving being refused. They upon they promptly resigned, and a meeting of the members of the force was held on Saturday night to consider the matter

Respecting the sentence upon Mr Sifton, M.P., editor of the Dublin Freeman's Journal, it was stated that Mr Sifton had been sentenced to two months imprisonment. A. This is an error as regards the amount of the fine, which is £500, not £5,000. The period of imprisonment was stated correctly. Mr Gray was likewise declared to find security to keep the peace himself in £5,000 and two sureties of £2,500 each, or in default three months further imprisonment.

Which the Dublin Journal was to be bound to keep the peace has been attributed to a misstatement for the fine we suppose.

REMEDY FOR SEA SICKNESS

Another theory has been advanced for the cause of sea sickness which, if correct, sufficiently suspected, will be of benefit to those who, like Artemus Ward, for the first half hour at sea are afraid they are going to die, but afterwards are as lively as any one. It is called the "New Style" remedy and is neither applied externally nor taken internally, it simply consists in voluntarily flopping when the ship rolls and rolling when it rolls, in other words identifying one's self with the motions of the ship, and thus avoiding the nausea he has learned and steadily practised, unison with the ship's motion until it has become an unconscious and automatic movement.

Who would escape that feeling of giddiness caused by the sensation that the foundations are being taken from under his feet, must take an active interest in the motion of the boat. He must consider up his mind that he is an important part of the machinery which is causing it to pitch and toss. He must voluntarily, with body and mind, shake the boat from side to side, and pitch it up and down, and help it up when it is on the rise. This is the unconscious secret of the steady headed passenger at sea who is totally unconscious of the fact that he has a stomach. Children riding a rocker are not affected with sickness because they supply the motion to the board they are riding and, it is argued, the effect would be the same if one of the parents would voluntarily identify with the boat's motion. The theory sounds plausible and is at least worthy of a trial.

A PROHIBITION PARTY.

A new party has been launched upon the political sea of the United States by some of the advocates of Prohibition, but the manner of its birth does not augur well for its success. A Prohibition convention was held in Chicago last week at which the infant party was hatched. Three separate halls were issued by which temperance workers were summoned to attend the convention, but after they got to Chicago the latter consisting, "they were consolidated by a sort of legerdemain that was beyond the comprehension of sober people, and the people who went to put in some honest work for the cause of temperance. A large number of those who took part in the convention attended as temperance workers in the cause of temperance and, it is understood, would certainly not have been present had it been understood that they were to take part in the organization of a political party. Others again were made delegates, not by the States which they were supposed to represent but by the convention itself. In the composition of the convention and the manner in which it was convened may be seen the hand of the political wire puller who has objects in view other than the laudable one of temperance. The main party plank of the new political platform, the first plank in which is "The prohibition, as public crime, of the importation, exportation, manufacture, sale, and supply and possession of all alcoholic beverages." The entire abisement of women; the abolition of polygamy Civil Service reform; the abolition of monopolies, class legislation and special privileges from the Government; and the control of railroads and other corporations are also planks in its platform. These although good in themselves are, under the circumstances likely to take the party into power and the manipulation of the spoils of office which accordingly the wire-pullers have in view.

Mr Vanhorn, Superintendent of the Toronto and Watertown Railroad, and other American railroads, is now in the city by rail.

Prof. J. Mavillivray, B.A., the new Professor of Modern Languages in Albert College, Belleville, seems to please the faculty well.

Mr John Macalister, of Ashton, son of Mr A Macalister, of Kingston, preached yesterday morning and evening in Chalmers Church.

Rev. A. Spencer, Clerical Secretary of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, preached the services in St. George's Cathedral yesterday morning and preached the sermon in the evening.

The appointment of Mr H. S. Jones to the Chancellorship at Oxford very seems to be creating quite a sensation along the frontier. Mr Jones is a Yankee out and out.

Hon. J. H. Gray, Chief Justice of Prince Edward Island, the only surviving Father of Confederation, died at Charlottetown, N.B. He was 69 years old and represented Kings County in the Local Legislature for twelve years.

The old-fashioned New York of Diedrich Knickerbocker, and the Dutch Governors, is now the theme of the Central Home circle of Mr. S. Hopkins, the former Richmond & Hopkins, the city. Mr Hopkins is one of the Directors.

Mr Robert Fagle, an old Kingstonian, who has been for late years carrying on a flourishing business in Picton has sold out and is about to start for the Northwest to open a new banking business there. We wish Mr Fagle success.

Rev. Philip Wood Lessenden, formerly assistant minister of St. George's cathedral, appears at the Holy Trinity church at eleven o'clock, and at St. Paul's at seven o'clock in the evening. Mr Lessenden is a favorite with all his many friends in this city, who will bid the greater welcome on being his subsequent locations.

FIGHTING.

The Indian Troubles

Omaha, Aug 28. The letter of Red Cloud and other chiefs to the Secretary of the Interior regarding the troubles at the Pine Ridge Agency charges Agent McGillreadily with gross misconduct, and says that they have been unjustly and harshly dealt with by tyranny and insults. The Indians say that the Agent is not rationed within sixty days they will take upon themselves the responsibility of politely escorting him out of the Agency, and the consequence what they may. Presidents feast and Hayes assured the Indians that whenever they became dissatisfied with the agent and found out his misdeeds, and he could not himself hasten obnoxious, all they had to do was to report the facts to the proper authorities and he would at once be removed. The charges against the agent they say they can fully substantiate, and he positively still refuses to act, they must act for him.

Sillmans, who was confined in the Tombs on the charge of having embezzled $1,000 from the Asylum for three months and discharged on a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that he was sane, intends bringing the matter before the legislature. He says that the prisoners are treated like dogs, that are given miserable food, are forced to do manual labour, and are not allowed to see their friends or hold any intercourse with them.

A lawyer of Troy who he asserts was confined in the Tombs for libel and subject to shocking indignities also asserts that there are eleven men now confined in the asylum who are perfectly sane with insanity in the least. He also charges that the sanitary accommodations are beastly.

The Mohammedans' houses were burned and the principal mosque is already razed. Dead pigs were thrown in the wells with the view of defiling the Mohammedan infants. The troops are still patrolling the streets. The Mohammedans are a small minority of the population.

Pyke, who made such a hit as Archibald Grosvenor in "Pinafore," in Canadian, hailing from Halifax, and has been, during the last ten years, gained an enviable reputation on the operatic stage, and as a great favourite, both in the United States and Canada. He is decidedly the best singer in the company.
