A Freshly Enriched Egyptian
Camp Discovered

LONDON, Sept. 1.—A Madras despatch says:—At the time of Col. Gosswein, the Indian match will be held under the popular officer, Lieut. Col. Kirkpatrick, President of the Council of the D. R. A.

COBROO CAMP

Major W. D. Gordon left the camp on Tuesday last, Sept. 3. The grounds are nearly ready for the opening of the camp, which will be in the neighbourhood of 1,000. Several well-known officers have been whilfully shot by the men and horses were supplied with abundance of water.
