Permanently established for the cure of all the various diseases of the Head, Throat and Chest, viz.: Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, Catarrhal Ophthalmia (Sore Eyes), and Catarrhal Deafness. Also, diseases of the heart.

Our improved system of medication with improved inhalation apparatus, which propels the curative agents to the very seat of disease, is the only method by which these, many and obstinate diseases can be successfully treated. Ayer's
Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the glossy freshness of youth, faded or gray, hair, and red hair, to its original color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the gland are not decayed, while to brashy, weak or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vinon cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff, and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair
The Vinon is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

Practical and Analytical Chemists,
Lowell, Mass.

FUNNY FANCIES

Compiled from Texas Siftings.

A gentleman is Washington, D.C. writes in to know if we would like a few lines on tobacco. The last line on Guiteau was tied around his neck. If our correspondent can send a few inches of that last line, we would be obliged to him, to add it to our museum of curiosities.

The Marquis of Lorne boasts that his ancestors had their feet under King Arthur's round table. Ah, in all probability, the ancient ancestors of the Marquis were under there nor stocking under the table was just the place for them. Their feet wouldn't have looked pretty on top of the table.

The Republican office holders are shaking their heads ominously, says a New York exchange. The Republican office holders fear. In fact we are afraid to shake their heads for fear they will drop off.

HIS TRUE COLORS.

A little Austin boy became confused, and got his catechism mixed up with his lessons, for when he was asked what the Jews were, he replied:

It is a plain where the wicked are punished and everlastingly fry.

The teacher thought the reference to Satan was quite plain in character, and as a good boy was soon able, from actual personal experience, to testify to the correctness of the definition.

A SERIOUS DOUBT.

The sheriff of a county in Northern Texas, while on his way to serve a writ of ejectment on a woman, went off on a short trip. A few days after he left, a lady friend met him on the street and asked her if she was going to the ball that evening.

"No, I reckon not. I haven't got any body to take me. My husband is absent."

"Why, is that so?" was the dignified sheriff's reply. I thought it was their business to attend to the duties of the sheriff when he was absent or sick."

AN AUSTIN MOTHER-HUBBARD.

A little Austin girl, about ten years of age, attended a child's party not long since. When she came home her mother asked her how many little girls there were at the party.

"Guess again.

"Twelve."

"Now you are not your usual self, mistress. There were no little girls there at all, but there were a number of young ladies present, replied the young lady, with dignity. The female is said to be in favor of the expression precisely which has become epidemic among the ladies and cook ships.

"Waiter, send an elegantly dressed gentleman to an Austin restaurant. This plate has been licked.

Why the mischief, then, don't you wipe the fly off the table cloth, and not disturb the company with your remarks. Send up a new hand at the business.

Wait the table cloth or shorter than the plate.

Well, you needn't wait for my pocket handkerchief. I'm not going to lean it to you. You might go off with it.

The Stranger in London That the great city will ere long be hardly recognizable by the former denizens, all the world has heard. The visitor passing up the Thames now finds his way guided by the many handsome edifices recently erected. As he sails by the famous Victoria Embankment, there rises on his right hand the new Times office, and on the left hand the new house-ornament works of Messrs. JAMES EPPS & Co., both phases of Italian architecture. It may be said that these two buildings are types of the far-reaching business principles of the two firms. Both are known the world over as the purest and most delicious articles of their kind. Their cocoa and chocolate essences are the standard of excellence, and their name is a household word.

Rural Notes

Last fall Mr John Cook, President of the Lansdowne Agricultural Society, purchased five heads of Black Siberian wheat, at 10 cents a head, and sowed it along the side of a field of mangolds. The yield has been remarkable. A measly stalk would be showed or had 25 heads with 1,000 large plump grains of wheat, all from one kernel. The crop from the five heads now will be about one bushel, the ground on which it was sown was not considered very good wheat soil, and no extra manure or other fertilizer was used.

Mr James Richardson, of Lansdowne, has just returned home from Scotland, where he went some time in search of a big hair native horse. Mr Richardson paints in glowing colours the wretched condition in which he found his native country. He informs us that the working classes are in great destitution, and nothing is enough to keep from starving. Many poor people—and even in America, but there seems much to blame from do-nothing ladies who are making from four to five shillings per week, and board themselves out of that small pittance. Think what would Canadians think of this kind of wages. Upon the whole Mr Richardson thinks that Canada are fully worse now than they were 30 years ago, at which time he left Scotland. He says that on several occasions while reviewing some of his boy days he was quite prepared to pack his duds and say naught the hare, the rabbit and other small game, he was confronted on all sides by gaunt starvation, poverty and destitution. He also says that where there were some 8 or 10 families living in a small house at present, they plainly showing that even that state many people in some altogether free from destitution. A most average size had an attack of lung-ache fever, and was not expected to live, but by the kindness of a comrade I that were a number of kind hearted ladies with such happy results.

THE MOST WONDERFUL CURATIVE HERMITAGE of the present day are those that are made from pure, old, and tried ingredients. Their most recent preparation placed upon the market in this country is the famous German Invigorator, which has never been known to fail in curing a single case of impotency, spermatorrhœa, or weakness, the direct cause resulting from self abuse, as nervous debility, inability, mental anxiety, languor, lassitude, the whole system is shaken and functional derangements of the nervous system. For over 50 diagnosis, or send free by mail on receipt of stamp for pamphlet, or call and consult personally. Dr Van Buren, 24 Adelaide St. E. King, sole agent for Kingston, Ont. Send for circular.

Holloway's Pills. The stomach and its troubles cause more discomfort and misery than any other organ. Indigestion is suppressed. The thousand ills that settle there may be prevented or dismissed by the use of these well known purifying Pills, which act as a sure gastric and acid aperient, without stirring up the bile, and are the most unequalled for imitating the moist delicate organization. Holloway's Pills will restore comfort and confer relief on every headache, dyspepsia and sick sulky sufferer, whose tortures have been aggravated by the use of calomel and bugbear to his friends. These Pills have long been the popular remedy for a weak stomach, faulty, for a disordered liver, or a paralyzed digestion, which yield without difficulty to their regulating, purifying, and tonic qualities.

If Catarrh has deafened your sense of hearing, and hawking, Dr Sage's Catarrh Cure will cure you. 75 cents per bottle. Sold by J. G. King, sole agent for Kingston.

DRAWN AND DANGEROUS, particularly in Kidney Diseases, so take at once Dr Van Buren's Kidney Cure and obtain relief from all kinds of sufferings. Sold by J. G. King, sole agent for Kingston.
