PARLIAMENT OF QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY.

From our Kingston despatches we learn that there has been lost in setting in motion the machinery for a thorough canvass of the city on behalf of the endowment of Queen's University. It is quite right that as Kingston has derived so much benefit from the University it should come forward first in the hour of trial, and show its readiness to support that institution financially. The good old city has responded nobly to the appeal of the friends of higher education. Notwithstanding the reverses which so many of the citizens have so lately experienced, owing to the failure of the Commercial Bank, the handsome sum of $20,000 has already been subscribed, and $3,000 to $3,000 more in smaller amounts may still be looked for. These facts augur well for the ultimate success of the movement in favour of a permanent endowment, and the good example of Kingston will be a stimulus to the liberality of other cities and towns in Ontario, and may nothing of the commercial metropolis of the Dominion, from which great things are expected.

The Church of Scotland deserves all credit for the vigorous stand which she, along with her Presbyterian sister, has taken in this matter. We have no doubt she will receive considerable assistance from the friends of higher education in the Church belonging to other communions. The largest subscription, indeed, of which we have yet heard ($8,000), was given by a member of the Church of England. There are many faithful men who, while not wishing to see the Arts Professors or Students by demanding adherence to some theological formula, would have young men at the most critical period of life placed under the supervision of truly religious men, who will, directly or indirectly exercise a good influence in the formation of their character. Those who take this matter to heart are ready to lend their hearty support to the institution which has for nearly thirty years afforded to a large section of country facilities for obtaining a sound literary training, which has been, religiously, on such a broad and catholic basis as to draw students of every creed freely within its walls.

The appeal, we trust, will do its share. We have already heard of subscriptions to the extent of $1,000 from three individuals, and we understand one to be in a position to state that the amount has been doubled.—Peterboro Review.

THE WAY THEY DO THINGS IN PARIS.

The Paris correspondent of the Morning Post writes on Sunday:—

"I began to think there must be many more people, very serious people, in fact, than merry people, who go to grand opera balls on Saturday nights. Here is an example. An acquaintance came into my room this morning with a letter, and placing it in my hands, said:—"Monsieur, I have promised to leave your apartment without your consent. Louis, a pair of trousers, and money." It has been raining all day long and a wet November in Paris is not pleasant to the feet. I requested Louis to give him an alpaca coat, and keep him in the kitchen. I opened the damp letter, when lo! I recognized the handwriting of my friend Bob——, who came over to Paris on Monday last "on business." The epistle runs thus:—

"You never came to the box, you old fellow, or, I should not have got in this fix. I do not know at this moment where I am, even the street. I am walking up and down a small dirty room in one of Mr Mabille's dressouts, and no lower garment. Send on your servant with this porter fellow, and give him a pair of your trousers and some money, and send immediately. Oh! horrors! Eliza and the children are at the church and I am . . . . . fainting! You remember that I told you the other I met with a most ladylike person, a Russian or Polish countess ——; she is connected with some of the highest families of Europe. Between you and I, she is I suppose, a perfect spy. Well, I took her to the bal de l'opera last night with her aunt, a baroness, related in some way to the Empress, and early this morning, with two other ladies and a gentleman, we had an excellent supper at the Cafe de Paris. We were very merry, and the wine was excellent; but I am sure now it drugged me. After partaking of the crême en buisson, I fell asleep, and knew nothing of what occurred until I woke up in this dirty small room. I'm a fool, M——, a big fool! I had slept in my coat and hat, but the most indispensable portion of my dress was gone, together with my watch and purse. I thought the gentlemanly friend a queer fellow from the moment he came into my box. Why did they not help themselves with taking my coat if there was no bell to ring, so I made myself free after a long time from the top of the house. At last a dirty old woman came and opened me roundly for making a noise, declaring ten francs, and requested me to leave the room instantly, as it was let to a gentleman waiting below. 'Don't stand there like a fool,' said I, half dressed; this is a respectable establishment, monsieur, and we have ladies in the apartment, and young girls. The English have no modesty.' It was no use to explain. At last I got her to send me to the commissioner. Now, M——, without a moment's delay, your servant, trousers, and some money. What an ass I am!—Thine,

"R. HODDON."

Of course I responded to my friend's request, and when Louis came back he told me that Monsieur H——had gone off to the British Embassy to find out who this Countess W—— could be. How often I ask—Why does the English wife permit her husband to come over to Paris in Carnival times alone?

One of the happy fruits of Rev Dr. Norman McLeod's visit to the missionary field of India is the attempt now made by him and others to raise £20,000, the income of which is to secure a pension of £150 for life to every missionary of the Church of Scotland on his return home, after spending twenty-five or more years in that country. Dr. McLeod recently addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting in Glasgow on this subject, and a number of large subscriptions are already announced.

A newspaper is published on board the steamer Richmond, one of the huge passenger palaces which ply between Louisville and New Orleans. It is called the "Richmond Head Light." It has two compositors and one editor, and is published six times a week. It is intended to be a faithful exponent of river life, affording racy entertainment for the passengers, as well as an advertising medium for hotel proprietors and merchants.

Special Notices.

The Great English Remedy!

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS,

Prepared from prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M.D. Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS well known remedy is no impotion, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and though a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the constitution.

To MARRIED LADIES it is peculiarly suited; it will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, and all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed.

These Pills have never been known to fail where the directions on the 2nd page of pamphlet are well observed.

For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the agent

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Sir James Clarke's Female Pills are extensively counterfeited. The genuine have the name of "JOB MOSES" on each package. All others are worthless.

N.B.—One dollar and 12½ cents for postage, enclosed to NORTHROP & LYMAN, Newcastle, Ont., General Agents for Canada, will insure a bottle of the genuine, containing Fifty Pills, by return mail. Sold by all Druggists in Kingston, and medicine dealers everywhere.

HORSES SAVED.—The lives of thousands of horses have been saved during the past year, and the credit is due to "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." This preparation is being extensively used, and exacts from all the highest praise. Nothing of the kind has ever before been half as successful or given such universal satisfaction; it cannot be equalled. We can confidently recommend it, and would advise all who own horses to keep a supply of it on hand—it may be the means of saving your horse's life. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

The efficacy of Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers in curing Coughs, Colds, and all Bronchial affections, and cheering the afflicted, has passed into a proverb. In the United States, where these marvellous Wafers are known, they bear down all opposition and eclipse all rivalry; the demand for them has steadily increased for the last twenty years, until now the sales average over one hundred thousand boxes a year. Eminent members of the medical profession without number admit that they know of no preparation producing such beneficial results as these wafers. When taken in season they effect a permanent cure. Sold by every druggist and most of the respectable stores throughout the Province, at 25 cents per box.

Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever.

Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

Be sure and call for

"Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup," having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Perkins" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

ART OF ADVERTISING.—Horace Greeley, of New York, says:—The most successful business men in this city are those who have advertised liberally and constantly. A small advertisement constantly appearing is better than a display column occasionally.

TO PHYSICIANS.

New York August 15th, 1867.

ALLOW me to call your attention to my PREPARATION OF COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU. The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.

Buchu in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement by liquor obtained from Juniper Berries, containing very little sugar, a small proportion of spirit, and more palatable than any now in use. The active properties are by this mode extracted.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists generally, is of a dark colour. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the colour of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exists. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favour it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,

With a feeling of confidence,

I am, very respectfully,

H. T. HELMBOLD,

Chemist and Druggist of 16 years' experience in Philadelphia, and now located at his Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, New York.

[From the largest Manufacturing Chemists in the World.]

"I am acquainted with Mr H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favourably impressed with his character and enterprise.

WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN,

Firm of Powers & Weightman, Manufacturing Chemists, Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

For weakness arising from indiscretion. The exhausted powers of nature which are accompanied by so many alarming symptoms, among which will be found Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory, Wakefulness, Horror of Disease, or Forebodings of Evil; in fact, Universal Lassitude, Prostration, and inability to enter into the enjoyments of society.

The Constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which invariably does If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity ensues.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

In affections peculiar to Females, is unequalled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence in, or the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

Use HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU in all diseases of these organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odour, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.

Sold by all Druggists everywhere. Price $1,25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6,50. Delivered to any address. Describe the symptoms in all communications.

Address H. T. HELMBOLD, Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, N.Y.
