DAILY EVENING, MAY 14.

TELEGRAPH.

CABLE NEWS.

May 13.—The Times, to-day, has a leading article on the rejected Alabama claims, wherein it is asserted that the Government of Great Britain, in submitting to arbitration on the question of Alabama claims, conceded everything that was originally demanded or expected by the American Government, and everything that it was possible to concede.

May 12.—Menabrea, President of the Council, has retired in favour of Cialdini.

May 12.—The mail steamer from Halifax has arrived. She brings advices to April 3. President Johnson is reported to hold a strong position in the interior, with nine thousand men and forty guns. The allied force was on the point of marching to attack him.

May 12.—Despatches from Madrid state that the political discontent in the provinces has culminated in serious disturbances in the capital. A plot against the Government is on foot. It has been discovered, and the conspirators have been arrested by the garrison of Lisbon.

May 13, midnight.—In the House of Commons this evening Earl Russell in reply to a question from Mr Gladstone, said that the Government proposed to adopt measures for putting a stop to the outrages which have been so frequent in Ireland. After his inquiry with some remarks, in which he deprecated the land scheme of Mr Fenian origin as likely to unsettle the Irish mind, and called upon the government to devise some more visionary schemes and practical measures than what it intended to do.

Mr Cardwell, the Colonial Secretary, replied to the continual recurrence at the present time of this topic. He said the Government were not prepared to state its policy, but were authorized to give an opinion on the subject.

Mr Gregory urged that an exposition of the Government policy and a disavowal of Mr Fenian opinions by the government as essential to the best interests of Ireland.

A sharp passage between Lords Granville and Kimberly, the discussion was closed.

At the close of the sitting this evening the House adjourned until the 27th May.

In the House of Commons to-night, Mr Gladstone, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, said Spain had declined to submit the case now in the Tornado case. The reasons assigned by Spain for declining under the consideration of the Law Officers of the Crown.

Mr Cardwell, Secretary of State for War, in reply to some intimations which had been thrown out, said the government had no intention of countermanding the orders for the evacuation of the troops in Canada, under existing circumstances.

The Church Bill was reported from Committee. Several amendments were made and the Bill was recommitted to-morrow, understanding that the vote on its third reading shall be taken on the 31st inst.

Mr. Reverdy Johnson took formal leave of the Queen to-day, and at the interview presented Mr Moran as Charge d' Affaires on the arrival of Mr Motley.

May 13.—The following is the complete list of the Cabinet:—President, Mr Menabrea; Minister of Foreign Affairs; Minister of Education [illegible]; Minister of Justice—Filippo, Ireland, May 13.—The steamship Hibernian from Portland for Glasgow, has put back.

The Percheron stallion imported for the Agricultural Society of the county of St. Hyacinthe died on this passage to New York. Two stallions imported for several parties in Ottawa by Mr Joseph Perrault has died. Two had died and two were dangerously ill.

The batteries of Royal Artillery ordered to remain in Canada have been filled up to their complement of horses by selections made before the recent sale at London. Seventeen horses belonging to that battery arrived here the other day, a part of which will be used to complete the strength of "H" Battery, 4th Brigade, ordered to remain here. The remainder were forwarded to Kingston to make up for a decrease in the number of effectives belonging to the battery stationed there.

The making the 1st of July a legal holiday by statute is merely a question of time. That it should be so enacted is the desire probably of nineteen-twentieths of the people of the Dominion; but it is not a matter of importance that it should be declared a holiday either to-day or to-morrow, and therefore we think that Mr McConkey was wise in offering to postpone the consideration of his bill in reference to this matter to a subsequent occasion. There may be some few persons in the Dominion who would not rejoice on that day, but would feel disposed to slight it or even something more. We rejoice to know and believe, however, that such persons are few, and we still more rejoice to believe that the time is not far off when every one from Sable Island to Puget's Sound will rejoice heartily and unitedly in celebrating Dominion Day as the point of time of a great and memorable advance in the history of Canada, and of free British institutions in America.—Ottawa Citizen.

Montreal, May 13.—At the Diocesan Synod to-day a protest from Mr A. H. Davidson against the ruling of the Synod yesterday, was ruled out of order. The House of Bishops submitted the names of the Rev. Dr. Tranes Hessey, Vicar of St. Barnebas, Kensington, and Rev. A. P. Cust, Rector of Cheddington, from which to choose a Bishop. Dr. Hessey received 38 clerical and 20 lay votes, and Dr. Cust one clerical and no lay votes—and as a concurrence of both orders is necessary, no election was made. The Bishops afterwards submitted the names of Messrs. Merrick and Twills, which were also rejected. A proposal was then made for a conference with the House of Bishops to endeavour to decide upon the names of some parties known to the Synod. This, after a lengthy discussion, characterized by considerable feeling, was lost, the lay vote only being in its favour. The Synod then adjourned. Many of the lay members believe that the only way out of the difficulty would be to elect the Dean; but the Bishops seem indisposed to send down his name. The names of the Bishops of Rupert's Land and Huron also met with a good deal of favour.

Well, said I, if that's not the funniest thing of all the funny things. Were you aware that my Flour and Hams and Kiln-Dried Oatmeal are constantly used in many of the best families at Ottawa? Did you suppose but the Governor General knew where to get good things as well as humbler folks? 100 barrels Thistle Mill Flour expected Monday. 200 bags best Family Flour do. 25 barrels Kiln-Dried Oatmeal on hand. ART OF ADVERTISING.—Horace Greeley, of New York, says:—The most successful business men in this city are those who have advertised liberally and constantly. A small advertisement constantly appearing is better than a display column occasionally.
