WAYSIDE NOTES.

BY THE EDITOR.

Fent Horn, March 1:th, 1857. Port Hope is one of the most flourishing villages in Canada-it goes ahead of every thing east of Toronto, and yet if the monied men and land owners were a trifle more liberal, it would go ahead still further than is has done. The difference between Port Hope and Coburg, (rival towns) is, that Man has done every thing for Coburg, and Nature every thing for Port Hope .---Thange inhabitants and see what a and Lumber Trains are running or part of it. It opens a fine country and should it ever be completed to Lake Simeon, and thence to the Georgian Bay. it must prove of the utmost importance to this fine section of the Province.
