GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY. Mr. Cameion moved that the Clerk be directed to request the Secretary of the Grand Trunk Railway to include among the papers to be furnished in pursual of the order of the House of the 26 March, copy of Gzowski & Co.'s lette 16th December, 1856, together with the Report of the Resident and Chief Enrineer thereon, and also all correspondence between the said term, or any member thereof, with the Canadian and London work on the Line between Stratford and

These papers, the member said, were at solutely necessary in connection with some returns moved for by the member for Argen tenil. They would be of importance to the parties interested in the construction of Road between this and Sarnia. He hoped therefore that no objection would be a to the return of these papers; as he believed the firm connected with the construction that part of the road would not object to their being produced. - Carried.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

"The Hastings' House."

We were invited, a few days since, by Mr

T. W. Hastings & Son, to look over their new house (late Ontario Hotel) situated at the terminus of Walton Street, in Mill Street, which will be opened by these gentlemen on Monday next, March 30th, under the appelation of "The Hastings House." The house has undergone an entire renovation at an immense outlay of capital. The Messrs, H. have displayed admirable taste in the selection of their furniture, carpets. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

From the New York Evening Mirror, May 25th. "Among all the Panaceas advertised for the cure of human ailments, there is none which we have more confidence than Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. We regard it as one of Nature's own preparationssimple, safe, pleasant to take, and almost certain to cure all bilious and pulmonary affections. We have witnessed its wonderful effects in cases that were regarded as hopelessly desperate, and we can conscientiously recommend it as one of the best med-

It has proved more efficacious as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Branchitis, Asthma and Consumption in its incipia stages, than any other medicine. None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.
