LAW REFORM.

The greatest humbug about the people now in power is their name--" Reformers." That they are more liberal in general policy than frankly admit; but that they, are Reformers in the common acceptation of the word, we wholly deny. What reform have they proposed? What retrenchment have the effected ? Their leaders still enjoy their extravagantly high salaries, and their pet man, Lord Elgin, still remits home the greater portion of when the session is ended. his £7777, odd money!
