A discussion ensued on this petition as to which of the gentlemen of the Council had most interest in the "French Village." Petition presented from Jas. Montgomery for the office of Policeman .- Laid on the table for after consideration. The great business of the evening, the Report of the Special Committee, was then taken p. It was moved that the Resolution of last Meeting should be reconsidered, and that the Council should go into a Committee of the whole upon it. On this there ensued a regular row. The Mayor lost all command, and was quite unable to maintain order. To add to the graphic scene, a burley Irishman standing by, took " the responsibility" upon himself | would soon he in such a flourishing condition. to call one of the Aldermen to order, who was making a noise. The Alderman retorted by threatening to take Paddy by the scruff of the neck and pitch him out of the window. "Och be Japers" says Paddy, " let me catch you in the Market to-morrow, and I'll be the boy who will whip the scruff off your neck, and if I can't catch you, I'll lick your brodder for adopted by a large majority-so that there you." The Alderman having complained to the Mayor of this breach of privilege, his Honor requested him to bring Paddy up in the morning, and he would much him in a few bushels of potatoes, for the benefit of the City debt. This scene was put an end to by a Resolution that the City Council go into a Committee of the whole. The Mayor then ways employed. called Mr. Anglen to the Chair; he refused to take it. He then called Mr. Bartliff, who two at £10 each, and one at £12 10 .. - Adopalso refused. Afterwards Mr. Butler, who was more amemable to the Rules, took the Chair, when the Report was taken up, Clause
