" Opifer per Orbem Dicor."

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 15, 1850. Express.

FIRE AT THE PENITENTIARY .- The refusal of the members of the Kingston Fire Companies to proceed with their Engines to man is hated!

next week we shall commence taking our val Office, in looking over the papers relating to advocates of the willage being unwilling to and flemans. In a succeeding quarter, perhaps, bute, and the mines, and grain fields gave not up Chief of the West India squadron, had sent a annual spring "Walk" along the Wharves, tries had not been checked by the Cashier, in the in the prosecutions attending the accusiations, the philosophy of Reid or Priestly, of Drummond gird our wharves, unlading the silks and spices of indemnity for the outrages committed on Brit Docks, Warehouses, and places of business of corner, as always is, or at least ought to be dore under cover of "the shades of evening" smug- or Dugald Stewart, and with the novel writers of distant lands, but for the return they receive from indemnity for the outrages committed on Brit Kingston. We fear we shall have to draw when the duties are paid. The goods were gone, gled in a lawyer from Montical, who was en- the age -amongst whom the author of Waverley our inland and its stupendous industry and enter ish subjects during the revolution. It days largely upon our imagination, for the facts was the order of Mr. King, the Deputy Collector was the order of Mr. King, the Deputy Collector powers of investigating—he dealt by the score of hundred.

It days the author of Waverley and the duties appeared not to be paid. Yet there gaged to conduct the prosecutions with the prosecutions with the powers of investigating—he dealt by the score of hundred. largely upon our imagination, for the facts! far between.

which have left the Canada Shore for that of the entry clerk, and gets his order; he then goes the hotel at Yamaske, when three masked standing with Moore—like almost all literary duels indiv duals seized him, smothered his cries by of the Permit or order Clerk, who signs a permit; indiv duals seized him, smothered his cries by of the nation's glory—such is its due!—N. Y. muskets and a quantity of powder. The ring—muskets and a quantity of powder. The ring sage of several large flocks of sheep. One amount of duties, and enters his initials, or some sleigh, and drove off. flock exceeding 1000 in number passed over peculiar mark in the corner, by which the Deputy Two hours afterwards Toussaint having authority. Still he held on his way as editor of on Wednesday last. Canadian farmers can- Collector knows, when he gets it, that the duties been pretty rulely treated, found himself at the Edinburgh Review till the year 1828, when horse and sleigh were seen on Friday, the not do better, under existing circumstances, final order for delivery. Now, in the present have been pretty in the middle of a flock of sheep, in a remaining years to that more lucrative calling near the head of the Cornwell Canal. The than turn their active attention to the raising mean to the Custom House the head of the Conwall Canal. The with 650 passengers.

terday afternoon, in some Stable or Outhouse duties are paid?" "Oh dear yes," replied the signal beacon to the shipwrecked mariner.— making their way to the House of Commons.— and then perhaps the sleigh. It is not known ARRIVALS AT KENT'S BRITISH AMERIin rear of the old Royal Engineers' Cffice, confidential man. The deputy was satisfied, On reaching the house whence the light pro- Lord Jeffrey towards the close of the Dake of who the individual was, nor have we heard Place d' Armes. The building was consumed Bond Clerk thought necessary to scrutinize before sidents, and endeavored to justify and explain getting into Parliament at the earliest convenient try,—Cornwall Freeholder.

Sons or Temperance. - We have been re- It is stated that Uncle Sam has been swindled and after receiving such relief as humanity unscated him on the 25th of March in the followquested to make public, that the aforesaid out of between $8,000 and $9,000 of his dues demanded, he was sent forth to shift for him- ing year. The influence of this disappointment Order had no art or part in the chiselling of appears that in every instance the Messrs. Cot- ance to convey him back, but no one would mediately he took his seat for Malton. Lord Fitz- at Milwaukee was on the 19th March. Mr. Thomas Willing. No Connexion with linet gave him checks for the amount of duty; believe his story-so he was compelled to go Williams was an earnest Reformer; Sir J. James the People opposite.

For the British Whig. a statement respecting the pardon of Doctor before Justice Lothrop, and swore an affidavit, as blackbetries, I will give you the result of age. my interrogations. It seems that this Dr. Keys has been loafing about the Penitentiary for some months past pretending to be insane, The Examination of Mr. Clements, the proseand there is no doubt he has succeeded in making the officers of that Institution believe He entered the army at seventeen, with an allowthat he is bereft of reason, by which means ance of £300 a year besides his pay, which allowhe has succeeded in getting a representation | ance was afterwards raised to £400; but when made to the Government to that effect, which this trok place he could not say, it having made! very likely, backed by a little Yankee Radi- so little impression on his memory, that he could cal influence, has been the means of his being not tell whether it was two years or one year before allowed to go free.

time ago in your paper an account of It wo something like Ss, a day, but what it was when he distinguished success at the commencement of Commons of England; and though he was heard mad, or supposed to be mail, Convicts in the Before he came of age he found it necessary to Penitentiary, a man and a coman, the circumstances attending which seemed to be in much he had borrowed he could not say, but he that establishment. The man I believe still did not get much Out of £3 000 in bill engageremains in durance vile, as it has not been sa- meats he might have had £1,000, and his whole ; tisfactorily ascertained that he is a fit subject deb's he reckoned at £6,000. He purchased first, in the year 1802 to Cathmine, daughter of In the formation of Lord Grey's government such for a Lunatic Asylum, and the lady had per- jewellery, some of which he swopped away again the Rev. Dr. Wilson of St. Andrews; and sec- a man as Mr. Jeffrey could not be omitted. He haps have better remained in the "Splendid to the parties from whom he received it! but with ondly, in the year 1813, to Charlotte, daughter of was already in Parliament; he was one of the To. Palace for pampered villainy," as old Tom some he in part paid bills; he gave rubics and Mr. Charles Wilkes, of New York, and grand- most consistent politicians that the old Whig Dalton used to call it in his radical days, for diamonds to a creditor in part payment of his bill, niece of the well-known Alderman John Wilkes, school could produce. He and his powerful jourthe last I heard of her was, that the Police taking them out of their settings to make this use of London.

were in search of her to teach her the differ- of them, like the hero of Monte Christo. We A very short time only elapsed after he fixed his principles that the British Dominions contained. ence between meum et teum. Had the late Board of Inspectors continued in office they would not have allowed themselves to be hum Merry short time only elapsed after he fixed his political predictions became developed quite on the popular side. In the debating societies which were then learned gentlemen who usually make thei appear
A very short time only elapsed after he fixed his political predictions became developed quite on the popular side. In the debating societies which were then would not have allowed themselves to be hum- bearing her Majesty's commission : bugged by Mr. Keys, who owes his liberty "I took the diamonds out of the settings, partly Britain and; not least, in the metropolis of Scot- Advocate, and after a few years retire to Edinaltogether to the improved state of manage- to amuse myself by weighing them, and partly to land, the solution of the great political problems burgh to assume the judicial ermine.

other you see a hit of a smash at the great over to him to melt, and I know that he had a Select Society, in which Lord Brougham and onage, assuming in compliance with the customs ENQUIRER. Ringston, March 14th, 1850.

San Francisco, brought by the splendid steam- tet of 1847 his movements are all matter of im- more vigor, possibly a more logical constitution entertained of his judicial powers. It is general- County of York; Thomas C. Dixon, Coun ship Georgia, gives us full files to the 31st of pre-sion, not of memory One of the few tran- of mind, but in the quick and acute detection of the few tranprogressing rapidly in public affairs, and in shaping society by law and order. The newspapers give a very encouraging protraiture of papers give a very encouraging protraiture of on the ract for £85. But this is very curiously told, accordate the colloquial champing been the colloquial champing to the report of the Times; for first Mr. Clements appears to say he supposed he had had punities which excite the admiration of clubs and order. The newspapers give a very encouraging protraiture of on the ract for £85. But this is very curiously told, accordately be regarded as having been the colloquial champion of Great Britain. In the conversational for £85. But this is very curiously told, accordance for £85. But t papers give a very encouraging protraiture of on the heels of this supposition, he adds to he knew bors of well considered arguments and set orations. Scotch metaphysics with such airy elegance, such Commissioner of Small Causes for the Parish the growing State that is to be hereafter .- he took the stones out, and sold them to Water- But the great distinction between Francis Jef- sparkling plenitude of illustration, may well be of Saint Hyacinthe. sciences, theatres, concerts, and all the fea- When he came of age " he had some general quarter of a century he conducted the Edinburgh ence he led inferior intellects back into the narrow and the winter floods it is believed will result and Sydney Smith. It was by the last of these we shall soon have pouring into our city, from respectable and honest farmers, and his wife p and the winter floods it is believed will result Clement's dealings were chiefly with jewellery. that the great Review was originated. He proin rich returns of the "dust" when the of the value of which he says he had no idea at posed to the noble and learned persons just ment ing the past winter. From the regions skirting waters have subsided. In the streets of Sacra- upwards of twenty years of age. He could not tioned that they should unite with him in starting Lake Champlain, lumber, wood, iron, and a vamento city, the inhabitants have been en- swear that he had not a diamond ring made ac such a publication, and of that journal Sydney ricty of products of forest, field, mines and forges, gaged, with some success, in washing for cording to his own pattern, and broken up by him Smith was the first editor. Mr. Smith, in the pre- will seek their transit hither through the Northern

THE COURT OF APPEALS .-- The Court of Appeals, established by the Act of last session, of his head by an adroit cheat,

HOUSE-CHEATING UNCLE SAM-

into his pocket, instead of paying the Custom hus his hat, boots, and process. House. Such is the loose manner in which busi- The guilty parties have not been or are not ness is done in that department. Telman ab- likely to be found. - Minerve. Sir,-I notice in your paper of the 8th inst. seconded on Monday, and has not been heard of since. Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Cottinet went

From the Lond in Examiner.

A FAST YOUNG MAN. I recollect Mr. Editor to have seen some llis pay for three years he deposed to have been ment in operation at the Penitentiary, where see how they looked out of the settings. I don't then at issue was discussed with an earnestness. Mr. Jeffrey's promotion followed in due course now, it is said, the world of a Convict goes know what became of the settings. Captain and fervour of which the continental movement In the summer of 1834 the death of Lord Craigie, Holton, an officer of the regiment, had a little in 1848 produced in England but a very imper- created a vacancy in the Court of Session, and Don't be surprised Mr. Editor, if one day or cracible, and my impression is that I handed them feet image. The Speculative Society, and the Mr. Jeffrey became successor to that learned per-has an impression that he did this, or did not do even the more elaborate and better considered pro- what is called the second division, to which, from their respective Counties, viz: January, being seventeen days later than our sactions, however, about which he emid speak fallacy, the readiness of debate or dialogue, he bouch, he held a high position, although he often His Excellency the Governor General has thence, headed by the Band of the 20th more distinctly, was the payment of one jeweller had scarcely a competitor; and ever since the embarrassed a tedious advocate by too closely con- been further pleased to revoke the appointment Regiment, through the principal streets of the Little change has taken place on the Paci- for £85. But this is very curiously told, accord- be regarded as having been the colloquial cham- which Lord Jeffrey himse f entertained doubt or the County of York: by diamonds taken out of a ring bought of another death of the late Sir James Mackintosh, he must fining him to those points in the case respecting of George Playter, Esquire, as a Coroner for city, to the Roman Catholic Cathedral, where his minority, but he had not the least idea of he was the known and responsible editor of that tiny. The prospects, health and prosperity at the their number." For one £500 bill he was to celebrated journal. Amongst the earliest of his

On sunday we published an account of the we hope that some inquiry into the common places Smith, and Brougham, in its earlier years, or balm, gives also a new life to trade. Winter nur- Switcher Mussen, a private in the , the scene of conflagration on Wednesday swindlings Uncle Sam in the Custom House, of prudence and conduct is not thought beneath Macaulay, Hallam, Brown and Playfair, in its see the earth to shoot forth a fresh world of beauty; 23rd Regiment, committed suicide this mornevening last, is a great fact. Should the Go- without mentioning the name of the definquent the dignity of the scrutiny of the scrutiny if Mr. Cle- more recent days, have contributed the weight of it also nurses industry, that it may through the ing, by shooting himself with a musketvernment order any investigation into the ori- We were then in possession of the name, as well ments of the learning and cloquence. Amongst their learning and cloquence. Lakes, Rivers and Verdict, "Mental Derangement," as the facts, but we did not think proper to publish had bourne it no better than he did his examina- most favored productions, however, we look in Canals—shoot forth to the sea-shore, fresh garners . A deputation from the Quebec and Mel-

ceeded to the books and found the duties had not | So far, all went well, and the principal been entered as paid. How could this be ne- witness a man named Toussaint, was congrat-SHEEP FOR THE STATES .- In addi- counted for? . The following is the solution of the ulating himself and the advocate on the ceraffair. When a merchant's clerk wants to get his tain success of their cause. But hardly had The prophecies of its editor with respect to Lord country, and every honor to the noble toil which government troops had a battle with the Intion to the numerous droves of cows and oxen goods out of the Custom House, he first goes to he wished the advocate good night, on leaving Byran, were in no respect fulfilled; his misunder. gives it prosperity and power. May the broad, dians near Lebanas in which the latter were

with his entry sheets, got them signed by the Hyacinthe On quitting the barn quite unof Stock. A money market is always sure. Entry Clerk and Permit Officer, but took growt concious of where he was transported to, and Lord Rector of the University of Glasgow in 1821, care not to go to the Cashier. Overleaping him, surrounded by a wood, he made the best of and Dean of the Faculty of Advocates in 1828. FIRE. - Another Fire took place yes- he went to the Deputy Collector The deputy his way towards a light he descried at a dis- As the lawyers of England, Scotland and Irecollector, putting confidence in him said-" The tance, which shone bright in his eyes as the land usually work their way, to the bench by first then the legs and boots of the unfortunate man, ere the Fire Engines could get to the spot. delive ing the gools. The e papers are all kept in his strange appearance, bareheaded, without opportunity. To the first Parliament of William IV, which met in Sentember 1820, he was returned the naval office, and on looking over them the stockings, and otherwise half clad; but his cheat was found out. Had the cheeks been stockings, and otherwise half clad; but his ed for the district of Burghs that includes Forfar. THE INDEPENDENT ORDER OF THE bly the secret would not have been discovered. The large of the district of Burghs that includes Forfar, wanted at Mil- cuse—J. C. Mayer, Montreal—Mr. Filmore, bly the secret would not have been discovered. The bly the secret would not have been discovered. The large number of passengers and a fall of the district of Burghs that includes Forfar, wanted at Mil- cuse—J. C. Mayer, Montreal—Mr. Filmore, bly the secret would not have been discovered. The bly the secret would not have been discovered. by Mr. Talman in the course of a few weeks. It self. He then endeavoured to hire a convey- was, however, of short duration, for almost immebut it appears he put the amount of the checks hack on foot, and arrived a day too late, mi- | Scarlett, afterwards Lord Abinger, represented the

LORD JEFFREY.

it was an ill-judged piece of lenity, to set this has been issued for his arcest, and te egraphic des- learned and distinguished personage, whose death returned for Edinburgh, and remained the repreman at liberty, for the atrocious crime of palcees have been sent after him in all directions. we announced yesterday, was the cldest son of the sentative of that city for more than two years, his The District Attorney also applied yesterday to late Mr. George Jeffrey, who held the office of an | colleague being Mr. Abereromby, now Lord Dunwhich he was convicted. As I have made Alexander Gardiner, Erq. U. S. Commissioner, "under clerk" in the Court of Session in Scotland, fermline. some enquiry into this matter from some of the for a warrant on the part of the Custom House, and whose wife was Henricita, daughter of Mr. The four years during which Mr. Jeffrey had a THE ROCHESTER KNOCKINGS. - The mystalents became strikingly apparent, and few young | noviciate, nor was he able to overcome in Parlier and hereditary connexion wigh the profession of own rearing, and to that rule Mr. Jeffrey certainly law. Mr. Jeffrey was admitted an advocate at | found no exception. His mineing tones and methe came of age, which was so lately as in 1847. the Scottish bar in the year 1794, and for furty tophysical reasoning were anything but acceptable. rears he pursued that profession, with no very to an assembly so popularly constituted as the viz: his career, though he lived to fill the office of Lord | with a certain degree of patience, he disappointed Advocate and to attain the dignity of the boach. | the expectations of these who conceived that the or professional career of Mr. Jeffrey it may be lily wield in Parliament an authority analogous to convenient to dispose of some of the less public to that of Burke, or other great literary men who incidents of his life. He was married twice; have had influence in the councils of this country rife throughout many of the towns of Great ance in London clothed with the dignity of Lord establishment of Reform; so Reformers look little martle of gold. I am sure the settings were Francis Horner took active parts, witnessed also of Scotch judges, now three centuries old, the The word impression runs through Mr. Clements' In the debates of those associations his speech. way connected with the hereditary honors which tures of civilization, receive due attention idea of the amount of bill he hed acepted during Review. From the year 1828 circle assigned to them by their nature and des-left Chief Justice Macaulay, Vice Chancellors | under a Radical Governor of a colony might, as sole responsibility and much of the fame of Jameson and Esten, and Mr. Justice Burns - member of a court martial, have been empowered Review fell to the share of Francis Jeffrey. It is 1 to which these in land roads all point. - The shore Mr. Justice McLean being absent. The to administer martial law. Imagine what the still a publication of the highest class, but towards of Ontario, Etie, Michigan, Haron and Superior Court adjourned immediately to meet again justice would be of a court composed of gentle- the close of the reign of George III. and through- are growning with freightage for that glory of our on Wednesday, the 20th inst. - Toronto Daily men of the Regency, it was, in North State, the Erie Canal, for which the Ge men and things. They want nurses to take care Britain at least, 'itself a Phissance.' Mr. Jeffrey Chaton so long and nobly battled. And in a fer men, and occasionally to perform the functions in the politics of the Edinburgh Reviews in its pouring its huge and exhaustless current apon prope ly belonging to the sages of the law: philosophy and metaphysics, its taste and into our warehouses. Spring, which menced to-day. The business was commenced It is well that an examination in test of quali- cism, its light literature and poetical dogmas, than infuses a new life into the elements, cattsing the by the swearing in of the Grand Jury; at 2 fication for a commission is now established, and in those weighty affairs to which Mackintosh, | earth to throb with vegetation, and the air to drop P. M. the Court adjourned till to-morrow. gin of the Fire, it would be as well to ask the reason of this neglect in performing an ordinate reason of this neglect in performing an ordinate reason of this neglect in performing an ordinate reason of the affair, and forgery of five names is a cornetcy.

Since then, a very incorrect vers on has been too in court at 23, he never should have obtained vain for the infinite variety, aeme criticism, and source in performing an ordinate reason of the affair, and forgery of five names is a cornetcy.

Source then, a very incorrect vers on has been too in court at 23, he never should have obtained vain for the infinite variety, aeme criticism, and bourne Railway Company, consisting of Mr. Source Ra SINGULAR ADVENTURE. The Municipal knowledge seemed maccessible. He is at one longs to lts forests, mines and farm-fields under Burstall, Mr. E. Ryan, Mr. G. Beswick, and to one, the arbitrary and Ayrannical conduct the blundering of the Custom Council of the guidance of sturdy toil, when we contemplate Mr. E. Mackey, of Quebec, Mr. W. Chap-House, who were bambeozled with their eyes open ated by the laudable desire of endeavoring to taste, next the miscellaneous works of Jonathan. | the tide of treasure they pour forth at periods to man and Mr. R. Carter, of London, had an of Mr. Commissioner-Inspector Brown will Pierre Courtenay Talman has been for some years be given as the cause. How cordially that Custom House Clerk of Messrs. F. Cottinet & Samuel Richardson, or Victor Alfieri, and the life fivity to factories, artizan shops, and labor of every at the Colonial Officer. Co., French importing merchants, Broad Street. ance as much as possible, have lately appoint - Samuel Richardson, or Victor Alfieri, and the life tivity to factories, artizan shops, and labor of every February at the Colonial Officer Co., French importing merchants, Broad Street. ance as much as possible, have lately appoint of Christopher Co'umbus; then the dramatic conceivable kind. What would our city—our led an Inspector of Taverns, who had made works of John Ford, the characters of Shake—proud metropolis of commerce and capital—be, if ers running from Albany to New York. Notice of "Our Walk."—Early Officers. On Friday one of the clerks in the Nawith selling figure without ficense and the Crabbe, Rogers, Moore, Southey, Wordsworth,

Were cut off; if the forcet refused to send its trithat the Earl of Dundonald, Commander-in > which attended the Edingburgh Review as a lite- | by valorous toil in the lumber wood, the wheat | the town of Laguayra bombarded. rary journal, it escaped not altogether unscathed. field, the mine and the forge. Success to the Late advices from Yucatan report that the Lake school of poetry added little to his fame or through which he eventually seculed a position

Perth. Dundee, Cupar, and St. Andrew; but a a large number of passengers and a full freight. Montreal-S. R. Shaw, Picton-J. S. Armpetition having been presented, the committee The lake is entirely free from ice, and at the strong, Montreal-J. Whiteford, do. Fitzwilliam borough of Malton in a portion of the bia arrived at New York on Tuesday last, Parliament elected in 1830, and as Sir James had from Hudson, being the first boat from that resolved not to support Lord Grey's measure of place this season. Those on board report that reform, he felt bound in honor to resign into the the ice is apparently very weak beyond Hudhands of its patron the representation of the place son, and that boats from Albany will probably CEALED TENDERS (in Duplicate,) adfor which he sat; hence the vacancy in 1831 by make their way through it by the next day. O dressed to the Respective Officers of Ord-Keys, and his departure from the Penitentiary; stating he had given him a check of $4,200, to In the 77th year of his age one of the most emi- which Mr. Jeffrey was enabled to become the nomand I think with the public of the West, that pay the duties on the 20th of January and chargeners of the "republic of letters" has linee of Lord Fitzwilliam. This seat he continued in the latter end of 1832, when he was > university education his industry as well as his House of Commons he was too old to enter upon a men can be said to have entered life with a higher | ament the adverse influence of great fame acquireputation or brighter prospects. He at once took red out of doors. It has grown into a proverb he course natural to a man'of his conscious pow- | that the House will have no favorites but of its Before proceeding to notice in detail the literary | editor of the Edinburgh Review must necessarnal had been amongst the greatest allies of liberal James Johnston, Gentlemen.

will develope new scenes in the golden re- Strange to say, the case of forgery upon this important legislative changes which have taken Lake theorge and the Schroom, which find their afforded by the use of DR. WISTAR'S BALgreen-horn was proved; strange to say, we observe place since that periodical was hrst sent forth to way over plank roads, and through the Feeder, SAM OF WILD CHERRY, deems that it is A LL persons having claims against the The news was only thirty-six days in because it seems marvelous that a rogue should the world, and with no inexcusable self-love im- linking the Mohawk from Glen's Falls to the but an act of justice to say, that but for the use coming from California—the actual running have recourse to forgery with such a subject for putes a considerable portion of that valuable remedy, his wife, him affected by notified to forward statements thereof duly dupery as this, the pillage of whom to his last six- sults to the influence of that which he regarded as rich tribute through Champlain, and of all that with what she and all others considered con- authenticated, to the Office of Mr. John pence might not irrationally have been counted the greatest world. But in and out of Parliament will come sea-ward through the beautiful Lake, sumption, would have probably been, ere this, in Mauren, Accountant, Toronto, on or before upon by the regulalar means of licensed knevery. there were few men who assisted in accomplishing its Canal, and the Hudson, no adequate estimate her grave. But all the dangerous and unpleasant the First of April next. The very eyes surely might have been picked out those changes, in greater numbers, if not with can be formed. Thousands of humber mills, stone symptoms have been removed by the use of a few consisting of the Judges of the Court of ChanThat such mon go at large without tumbling who contributed their labors to the Elimburgh borders of the great Northern route, and their tions as usual. superior vigor, than the noblemen and gentlemen | mills, furnaces, and forges, lie nestling on the bottles, and she now attends to her daily avocacery, Queen's Beach and Common Pleas, met into wells is marveilous, but it is a serious con-Chief Justice Robinson presided, having on own risk, but possessed with a serious conown risk but and Justices Draper and Sullivan, and on his for example, bore her Majory's commission, and latter soon followed Smith to London, when the gathered in the past winter inland, on the lines of Char. Brent, Princess Street, Kingston.

DROWNED AT THE LONG SAULT .- A man, man seemed to be entangled with the sleigh and harness, as they all appeared to be going down together. At one moment the horse would appear, rolling along the troubled at eam;

The steamer Detroit arrived at Mil- cuse-J. C. Mayer, Montreak last accounts as favorable for navigation as it

THE HUDSON RIVER. - The steamer Colum-

recently discharged officers of the Peniten- which was accordingly issued. It is supposed he Loudoun, of Lanarkshire. Lord Jeffrey was born seat in the House of Commons form a period du- terious knockings at Rochester are, in my to has gone to Baston, to sail by the British Mail in a portion of the Old Fown of Edinburgh, called ring which his reputation was rather diminished opinion, a similar imposture to what took tiary, who are walking about Town as thick steamer for England. He is about 24 years of the Lawn-market, on the 23rd of October, 1773, than augmented; at all events his fame with the place in the year 1756, in the county of not far from the spot where Hume the distorian with the public became very little extended at Norfolk, England, and there known as the was also born. Mr. Jeffrey received the early that stage of his career. True he mingled much | ghost of Cock Lane. The knockings were portion of his education at the High School in his in London Society, and rarely entered any circle | then similar to this; I have no doubt that from native city, and in the year 1787 went to the Uni. in which intellectual conversation was esteemed, it this has been copied. The heroes in this Toro versity of Glasgow, where he remained till 1791, —where wit and lively repartee, brilliant disquiin which year he was admitted of Queen's College, Oxford. In the course of his school and out exciting unqualified admiration. But in the > ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE. Toronto, 8th March, 1850.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER:

His Excellency the Governor General has been pleased to make the following promotions and appointments in the Militia Porce of Canada.

Sixth Buttallion Leeds.

To be Captains : William S. Macdonald Esquire; and Lieutenants William Taylo, John In the matter of JOHN H. GREER, a Bank-Notall and Jas. Parmenter and George McKelvey. Esquires.

To be Lieutenants: Ensigns George White, and William Birmingham and John L. Macdonald, Thomas Darling and James Kuker, Gen-

To be Ensigns: Asa Webster, Joseph Mo. by auction the outstanding book debts due th Kelvey, William Dean, Christopher Young and estate. To be Adjutant: Lieutenant John L. Mac-

To be Quarter Master: Lieutenant James

First Battalion Middlesex. To be Major: Lawrence Lawrason, Esquire. late of the 4th Middlesex, taking rank and precedence from the 17th January, 1850.

By Command.

D. MACDONELL, Lt. Colonel Dy. Adjt. Genl. Militia.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Toronto, 9th March, 1850.

evidence He seldom remembers anything or es were almost as much distinguished by brillian- it bears so close a resemblance. On his appoint- pleased to remove the undermentioned Gentle-His Excellency the Governor General has been has an impression that he did this or did not do ey of in agination and felicity of expression, as ment to that dignity Lord Jeffrey was placed in men from the Commission of the Peace for ARRIVAL OF THE GEORGIA—STILL LATER that; he has an impression that he has been here ductions of his middle age. Many men amongst the moment of his elevation to the bench, busi
George Perry, United Counties of Northum— Saint by a grand PROCESSION, on MONDAY

George Perry, United Counties of Northum— Saint by a grand PROCESSION, on MONDAY PROM CALIEORNIA.—The latest news from and there; but up to so late a period as the win- his rivals of that period possessed greater weight, ness largely flowed in, so great was the opinion berland and Durham; Abraham Farewell, next the 18th instant.

RELIABLE TESTIMONY.

enjoys good health. Very respectfully yours, WM. A SHAW, M. D."

Beaufort County, North Carolina, Chocowinity, near Washington, Aug. 12, 1847.

By Magnetio Telegraph

Last Night's Report.

MONTBRAL, March 14, 7 P. M. The Criminal Term for the District com-foreign lands, compass princely fortunes, and what which period, if a satisfactory answer was Notwithstanding the almost unparalelld success activity and splendor are given to this great mart, not given, the coast would be blockaded and leaders had implored pardon of the Government, and offered to unconditional surrender

The Str. Georgia sailed to-day for Chagres

The Cherokee and Empire City will leave for Chagres with full 800 passengers.

Arrivals in this City.

CAN HOTEL.

March 13th .- P. Ranger, Montreal-II. J. Burdock, Oswego--William H. White, Syra-

Ordnance Notice.

The River Thames at Chatham will TUESDAY, the 26th instant, at 12 o'clock nance, will be received at this Office until soon be clear of ice, and we observe that our at noon, from persons willing to enter into Steam boat and Ship owners here are begin- a Contract for the purchase of the Wood Ashes ning to prepare for the opening of navigation. which may accumulate in the several Barracks at this Station, for a period of three vears, from the 1st of April 1850, to the 31st

The Ashes to be removed from the Barracke at the expense of the Contractor, and to be maid for in money on delivery. The Tenders to express the rate per bushel offered, in Cur-

Two sureties, in the sum of £20 each, will ". The he required for the due performance of the Contract, whose bona-fide signatures must be

Further information may be obtained at the Barrack Office, Tete du Pont, during Office

Office of Ordnance. Kingston, 14th March, 1850. Argus and Herald to copy

IN THE COURT OF DANKRUPTEY.

IT is ordered that a meeting of Creditors be held on the 20th March, at 12, noon; to receive and andit the accounts of the assign nee, and to consider the propriety of selling

STAFFORD F. KIRRPATRICK Kingston, 7th March, 1850.

Sale Postponed.

FIFTHE Sale of GROCERIES, &c. advertised to take place on Thursday, March 14th, is postponed until to-day, Friday, March 15th, At Two o'clock, P. M.

March 15 h, 1850.

S!. PATRICK'S DAY.

J. O'REILLY

JAS. WATT.

March 15, 1850.

CAUTION.

HEREBY FORBID all persons from

I trusting my wife on my account, as I will not be accountable for any debts contracted b

JAMES E. HAWLEY-Bath, 19th Feb., 1850.

NOTICE.

ADAIR ROY.

his right hand Mr. Chanceller Blake and authority, at the risk of others. Ifr. Clements, hands of Lord Jeffrey and Lord Brougham, The Ard the great West, what wealth has been For sale by E. W. Palmer, Market Square, and Canada West. Canada West.