MAIL FOR ENGLAND.

The Mail for England will be closed at Kingston Post Office every Saturday morning at 5 o'clock.

Auction Sales This Day.

As Advertised in the British Whig-Sale of Dry Goods at James Watt's.

" Opifer per Orbam' Dicor. "

the soul of wit. If the Reporters at Toxonto, bringing this matter to an early issue : and the Press generally, would agree to omit the "honorable," so constantly and so unnecessarily recurring in the Parliamentary Intelligence, it would be a great saving of time and space, and also a great relief to the note of the 13th instant, to acquaint you with rereader. Peers and Members of the Privy ference to the mutual exchange of the products of move that they be referred to a Committee to as-Council in Great Britain are " Right Honora- Canada, with the North American Colonies, and certain what changes they had made. He would ble" by courtesy, and are termed so in Par- more particularly with the Island of Newfound- therefore, vote against the amendment.

liament, but no English reporter appears the land, that the same must be based on the free adtitle. If the Canadian Press would copy a sed a law, admitting into that Island, Fish, when in their shoes, from an apprehension that the lor and Vice Chancellor sit; each in his own called the house, because he knew they were shivering in their shoes, from an apprehension that the lor and Vice Chancellor sit; each in his own called the house, because he knew they were shivering in their shoes, from an apprehension that the lor and Vice Chancellor sit; each in his own called forth by the observations of the house, because he knew they were shivering in their shoes, from an apprehension that the lor and Vice Chancellor sit; each in his own called forth by the observations of the house, because he knew they were shivering in their shoes, from an apprehension that the pacity, their duties being distinct.

Mr. Lyons (Russell) was called forth by the observations of the house, because he knew they were shivering in their shoes, from an apprehension that the pacity, their duties being distinct. speak of "Mr. Labouchere," " Mr. Gladstone," "Mr. Grantley Berkely," "Mr. Messrs. E. Maitland, Tylee & Co., Goulborn," &c., &c., and yet all these gentlemen are Right Honorable or Honorable; Newfoundland our fish duty free, but neither

We have received the gratifying intelligence and thorough fit out at Niagra.

She has new boilers of the novel construction, whereby her speed is greatly increased; and in addition to her otherwise excellent and ample accommodations for passengers, she has new Upper Saloon, with State Cabins, the analysis of the Promenade Deck, all

The Arctic Experiment—fatelligence where has lately been received in England of the Mr. McLean believed in unskil to he adultion to see the sale of the support of the whole length of the Promenade Deck, all most elegantly furnished. She is as usual most elegantly furnished. She is as usual arrival of Mr. Roe and Commander Pullen, and the intended to support the amendment.

INE ARCTIC EXPEDITION.—Intelligence the country than it was at present.

Mr. McLean believed it ought to be abolished, and he intended to support the amendment, and he also was not a particular friend; it would be to stuhify the acts of Cameron, and Merritt. On the commanded by Capt. Henry Twohy, who of the Plover, at the Mackenzie; thus est. Mr. Morrison said, he was sure that if the particular friend; it would be to study the acts of Cameron, M. Cameron, and Merritt. On the combines in himself two essentials, rarely party had not reached any part of the coast would have come to a different conclusion. The having first given it an impartial trial. The hon. found together in these Purser-Captain days— between Behring's Strait and the Copper first of them abolished 112 of the old ones, which ded by huning that the hon gentleman continued at some length, and concluhe is both a seaman and a gentleman. The Mine, whilst the check which Mr Roe ap- were the cause of much expense to litigants,- ded by hoping that the hon. gentleman would days of the Princess Royal's leaving Kingston pears to hev recieved in his course to the They would also cause the practice to be assimi- withdraw his amendment. are Mondays and Thursdays, of which timid persons who like to travel pleasantly and eastward of that position.

The days of the Princess Royal's leaving Kingston in the Copper Mine tends to give in-lated as much as possible, to that which prevailed in the Queen's Beach. Another important change tone as searcely to be heard. We, however unwas that of taking evidence viva voce, instead of derstood him to say, better appointments cound leaves this afternoon for Toronto and Hamilton. See advertisement.

THE STEAMER HENRY GILDERSLEEVE, ing and Blossburg Railroad, near the Corning Satisfaction. A very different course was follow--This favorite steam vessel is becoming as Hotel, on Main-street, both of which were ed now; and the idea that it should be abelished popular on her new, as ever she was on her old route. On her last trip to Montreal she had forty cahin passengers, who were all so soon in ashes. The Bank of Corning, the Post-Office the Market and every mercanwell pleased with the vessel's accommodations, and the pleasing attentiveness of her tile and grocery establishment in the place, are in ruins. In short, the whole business of the remembered that he was present at the third readnew commander, Capt. Gilpin, that they did part of Corning is destroyed.

Ne have no list of the sufferers or the ter than the old one.

Mr. Morrison continued — The capitable prosomely for the purchase of a large Flag amount of losses and the insurance, but the Mr. Morrison continued. The equitable power the might refer to a bill which is not only about whereon the words "Bay of Quinte Through loss can searcely be less than $100,000, and must be given to some one, and the hon, member upon and one of great interest; he meant the Hendry states that his loss, amounting to £40, nals at the various ports on the upper lakes, all could be made; but it was not right that one as a party question, far from that but as a party question, far from that but as a party question.

Toronto, May 21st, 1850.

I will thank you to communicate the ac-

GEO. BUCKLAND, Secretary of Prov. Agri. Association

J. B. MARKS, Esq.,

bers of the Agricultural Association of Up—

This prudent resolve on the part of the learnamendment, and he could assure these of them lower Canada; that they could do no greater peals necessary.

The hoped non, members would support the amendment, and he could assure these of them peals necessary.

The hoped non, members would support the amendment, and he could assure these of them peals necessary.

The hoped non, members would support the amendment, and he could assure these of them peals necessary.

The hoped non, members would support the amendment, and he could assure these of them peals necessary.

in the Legislature Council. Judging by lat | become a defaulter to an amount not yet pre- | gret, that the hon gent eman had not carried out, | the Geort of Chancery, and if ever he regretted expect to see himself gazetted as dispired a sold an opportunity of carrying out their the late Attorney General Draws. In the late Attorney General Draws. In the late Attorney General Draws. Q. Province has lost one of its oldest and most

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 27, 1850. | have obligingly favored us with a copy of the Messrs. Elward Maitland, Tylee & Co., I following correspondence, on the subject of A HINT TO THE PRESS.—Brevity is reciprocity with Newfoundland. The public are indebted to Messrs. Maitland & Co., for

INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE. Customs Department.

Tononto, May 15, 1850. GENTLEMEN, -I have the honor in accordance Mr. Robinson did not desire that the Court of

Your most obedient servant, J W. DUNSCOMB.

but none but a snob reporter would dream of will take our flour! And this is the result of calling them so, except when addressing them our precious Government's " communications

FIRE.—On Thursday morning the 16th Mr. Smith continued.—The hon, member who settled for £5 or £6. instant, a fire consumed the dwelling house of had last spoken, said, that cases which came be-Mr. Brown, near the village of Adolphustown, fore that court were soon settled, but he knew an because it would have it to be sone over again — because it would have it to be sone over again — posed of 44 cases during the proceeds in his own these ways of much investigation. None of his eldest Son perished in the flames. Mr. individual who had a case there, and had told because it would have it to be gone over again.—

Brown in trying to rescue two of his children bim, that four years had passed before he could be was in favor of abolishing the Court of Chancompanying Resolution to the Gentlemen was so severely injured that his life and that get the evidence completed, that four years more was not get the evidence completed, that four years more was introduced by the hon, reguleman who now

. HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

WEDNESDAY, May 22.

CRT OF CHANCERY-ADJOURNED DEBATE THE ADDRESS. The Clerk of the House read the amendment a proposed yesterday by Col. Prince, to abolish the Court of Chancery with the request contained in your Mr. Tylee's Chancery should be abolished at once. When the by written interrogatories. He had been inform. not have been made, and that he was in favor of A most terrible calamity has visited the any case remained unsettled in that Court, for not agree with the latter part of the amendment. willage of Corning, Stuben County. A fire more than six months, it was the sole fault of the

of his other child is despaired of. The fire, had clapsed before it could be brought before the proposed, originated from a barrel of ashes. would elapse before judgment would be rendered, all agreed about it, but they had now begun to Catholic Clergyman, of no mean celebrity in outery egainst the Court of Chancery arose from public men as a legitimate subject for investi- Courts are on the eve of dissolution, and when detained in custody. Judge Draper left on was passed unanimously:

end by E. W. Thomson, Esq., and in the cyr attisfactory Report of the Kingston Executive Countities now read, he received and entered on the Minutes of proceedings;

Catholic Ciergyman, of no mean celebrity in Judge Draper left on the expense it entailed upon hitigants, and not to detained upon hitigants, and not to detained upon hitigants, and not to during the Equity Juggadict on could be with thought that Equity Juggadict on could be received and entered on the Minutes of proceedings;

Catholic Ciergyman, of no mean celebrity in Judge Draper left on the expense it entailed upon hitigants, and not to detained in custody. Judge Draper left on who thought that Equity Juggadict on conducts the processes are completed the Emperiment of the lon, member for Norfolk, and conducts this proceedings;

Courts are on the eve of dissolution, and when detained in custody. Judge Draper left on conduct the State Processes are completed the Emperiment of the host for Picton, to open the conductant in proceedings;

Counts are on the eve of dissolution, and when detained in custody. Judge Draper left on conduct of the host for Picton, to open the conduct administration of justice. He had heard an attack made string to personalities.

Counts are on the eve of dissolution, and when detained in custody. Judge Draper left on conduct of the host for Picton, to open the conduct of the host for Picton, to open the conduct of the host for Picton, and those which the actual authors of the conduct of the host for Picton, and those which the actual authors of the conduct of the host for Picton, and the expense of the Court of the processes are completed the Emperiment of the State Processes are completed the Emperiment of the State Processes are completed the State Processes are completed the Emperiment of the State Processes are completed the St had, and he therefore could not have accepted that the Chancery Bill in question. He (Mr. M.) and all assure me that their flocks have been the 1st Con. Fredericksburgh, adjoining Dr.

ble. In 1839 Equity Jurisdiction had been trans-honorable gentleman. He concluded by protest- Emperor, but I am abled property from the ferred to the Court of Exchequer in England, but that change did not work well, and had been since abolished. He could not therefore see why Equity manded the amount of the restore the itlustrious Ban is not known to the restore the itlustrious Ban is not known to the restore the restore the restore that it it is the case. liament, but no English reporter annoys the mission of the staple products and principal articles of the hon members, though he would not have court which he honed would not have court which he honed would not have much more creditable. No gentleman should be called "Honorable," whether an existing or ci-devant member of the Executive or Lagislature now sitting, upon as early day as possible, a measure for placing the trade of this had not heard any arguments from either side of the house to show that that Court, with its impossible as a manufacture of the count of Chancery, because they (the Ministry) must hang together like a question as this, party feelings should be faid aside. When he was in the opposition, he had pressed the had not heard any arguments from either side of the house to show that that Court, with its impossible, a measure for placing the trade of this had not heard any arguments from either side of the house to show that that Court, with its impossible, a measure for placing the trade of this had not heard any arguments from either side of the house to show that that Court, with its impossible, a measure for placing the trade of this had not heard any arguments from either side of the house to show that that Court, with its impossible, a measure for placing the trade of this had not heard any arguments from either side of the heavy burther which I have received by hand from the Danubian Principalities contain biter complaints of the heavy burther which its impossible, and the circumstance.

Two letters which I have received by hand from the Danubian Principalities contain biter complaints of the heavy burther which its impossible, and the circumstance.

The motion in amendment being post, was lost they were making places for themselves. He was not suprised that he long the circumstance with the circumstance.

The motion in amendment being post, was lost they were making places for themselves. He was not suprised that he circumstance.

The motion in amendment being post, was lost they were making places for themselves. He was not suprised that he circumstance.

The motion in amendment being post, was lost they were making places for themselves. He was not suprised that he circumstance.

The motion is a mense costs and its useless machinery, was addid not like the manner now a days of suspecting vantageous to the country. His hon, friend the member from Simcoe, was mistaken in supposing that the passing of the amendment would necest in the eyes of the public. He had frequently urged. He did not wish that it should be abolished at amending the system, and making it adequate to 15 days on urgent business. once—the cases now before it must be disposed of. the increased business of the country. One Hon. Mr. Baldwin said, in moving that the number of Russians quartered on Hh implored hon members on both sides of the House, and also the ministry (who he knew at amendment which would remove a great country than the plesent occupant. They were should stand adjourned till Monday, that he amendment which would remove a great country than the plesent occupant. They were should stand adjourned till Monday, that he they came in context by their moderation of the styled political jobbers, he did not like the term. amendment which would temove a great curse from the country.

And then so, except when addressing them of precious Government's a communications during the recess."—Recold.

Departure For Cattronna.—Mr. A. H. Germain, formerly joint editor and proposed lat semendment was proposed lat selection of the Kingstow. Herald, Lit this at would be seven which had prevaided in the Caucary Bill came before the House. The state venture is accompanied by one of two friends and sea worthy Lake steamer has made two.

Ans that would temove a great curse from the Chancellor himself, that by the new rules the expenses would be lessened four-fifths, and the Judges were still engaged in making the funeral of the late Honorable Mr. Sherwood.

The amendment was proposed late sequences as they not oaily further improvements. He would be prepared to down to Parliament in a few days with a bill from them, providing that they should had elicinits, but they should had elicinits but them, providing that they should had elicinits but then, mountained to the down to Parliament in a few days with a bill from them, providing that they should had elicinits, but the Chancery Court had given much. He would be prepared to down to Parliament in a few days with a bill from them, providing that they should had elicinits but them, more rules the expenses would be lessened four-fifths, and the Judges were still engaged in making the funeral of the late Honorable Mr. Sherwood.

The amendment was proposed late sequenced to the work and they should had elicinits but them, providing that they should had elicinits, but then, and set were a real.

Be knew t

ed; and that equitable jurisdiction should be ex- At 21 a. m., Mr. Baldwin moved that the the usages of civilised society.

Chancellor-it was impossible-the principles of were the Common Law, Talking of saultilying. as at once paid him by Mr. Grant, the Agent for the Ætaa Fire Insurance Company, thereby enabling him to proceed at once to Montreal treal to replace his losses. Such prompt payment is truly worthy of this old and replace his construction of the sense of the House would be against the sense of the House would be against the amendment.

| Agent for the Ætaa Fire Insurance Company, there here are a large number of vessels which payment is truly worthy of this old and replace his losses. Such prompt payment is truly worthy of this old and replace his losses. Such prompt into service.—Oswego and the sense of the House would be against the sense of the House would be against the amendment.

| Agent for the Ætaa Fire Insurance Company, there are a large number of vessels which remain unemployed there. Among them are member should rise there and move that any one member should rise there and move that any one for repeal of some other degal system. He must a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to a proper manner. When he was in a position to the court of the care at large number of the sense of the left miss and unique that the proper manner. The name of the sense of the left miss and unique that the member should represent the court of the care at a large number of the sense of the left miss TRAVEL ON THE UPPER LARES.—On Wednesday, the steamer May Flower carried to hear hunorable gentlemen speak in favor of a court from which they derived a great deal of monorable gentlemen speak in favor of a court of Assize on Wednesday 29th instant, of people. Sir George Simpson and party, of and finish the Nisi Prius business remaining to the Hadian Ray Country Went on the Hadian Ray Country Went of the ward could be set acide, which was years in prospective. As most persons in the to add, that his mission had commenced under

Mr. Cameron wished the amendment with— all this to himself, drawing the pensions as commenced on the previous Tuesday, and dis-expect to see himself gazetted as dismissed. Sconded about Friday or Saturday last. A the late Attorney General Draper. In these sug-It is also rumored that Mr. De Lery has resigned his effice of Clerk to the Legislative council—of which office, with his usual veracity, the Gazette says:—"A large salary

The defaications, so far discovered,

The defaications,

The defaications are defaications,

The defaications are defaications,

The defaications are defaications and the defaications are defaications.

The defaications are defaications are defaications are defaications. thas hitherto been attached to it, while the amount, it is said, to 3,000l. It is generally annum, and the two latter £1250 per he also regretted most heartily. However much as the spir no means probable. As low work is entirely done by su'nordinates." On supposed that the culprit is by this time on as the spiri no means probable. As long work is entirely done by subordinates." On supposed that the culprit is by this time on dred a year, his duties are important and for New York on Saturday, and it has transonerous, and are almost entirely performed in pixel that he left his house in the course of indees; but all who knew anything about the common law of the appointment of the Chancellor Blake. He for a few hours, a renewed in Vienna, even person. If Mr. De Lery has resigned, the Friday of the appointment of the Chancellor Blake. He for a few hours, where the believed that the country could repose unbounded that and Jellachiculas not generally known Province has lost one of its oldest, and most ble. In 1839 Equity Jurisdiction had been trans-

Jurisdiction should be transferred from the Court section of this Province. He western receive 30,000 acres, a pare at Haynau will Jurisdiction should be transferred from the Court of Chancery to the common Law Courts He that no less than nineteen-twentieths of the inhabitants of Upper Canada were decidedly opposite that a chiral in the Banat. General Haynau, the hand is for the former one. It was said the law costs ed to the present Court of Chancery. He (Mr. H) of opinion that a "bird in the hand is prebwent into the pockets of the Lawyers, but the hele that there were too many lawyers in the Le- two in the bush," is now here awaiting the greater part of them went into the Previncial Chest, gislative Assembly. He remembered the cau-fulfilment of the promise which has been he would cut down the salaries of the Judges, and tion which Governor Sinicoe put forth against the given him. Jellachich is making preparaif the Lawyers fees were to be cut down, the fees admission of lawyers into Parliament. He tho't lions for matrimony in Moravia. going into the Provincial Chest would likewise be that the agricultural interests of the Province was It has not yet been officially made known, cut down, even although theirs were not sufficient paramount to every other, but so long as the le- but a forced loan of 30 millions is about to be to pay the salaries of, the Judges. I do not see gal profession were allowed to muster so strong in made in the Lombardo-Venetian provinces.way one Judge in all cases would not be sufficient the House, little chance was afforded for the prop. The one half is to be 'silver and the other in There has been a great deal of injustice done by er representation of the farming population. If paper currency. For the space of one month there has been a great deal or injustice done by er representation of the larming populated. It is Court of Chancery, he would admit, but it there were fewer lawyers in Parliament, there the lean will be open for voluntary subscriptithat would be satisfactory to this country at large; dicature Bills. He would consequently support one less after the Yankee Press, whose conductors delight in handles to names, it would be the free admission of the great staple export of well skinned by the Court of Chancery, because of the Chancery, because of the Chancer of the C

Thursday, Mey 23.

tended to the Superior and inferior Courts of Com- House should adjourn until Monday next, at | mon Law in Upper Canada," be expunged, so as 10 p. m. It being the Queen's Birth Day, the to meet the views of the honorable gentleman. members gave three cheers for Her Majesty, settled point that gravel is by far the best ma-

IRELAND.

Mr. Morrison.—It enacts 90 new rules. (Laugh and £500, which might just as well have been of nature long before the receipts were ex-

AUSTRIA.

Senior Vice President of Pro. Agr. Asso.

At a Meeting of the Directors and Mr. O'Connell to forego his design of closing that the case now before it should be first disposed to the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case tried, the accuracy but he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case tried, the accuracy but he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the last of the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the last of the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the last of the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the last of the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the last of the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the last of the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the property. But he believed many had sonable demands of a nation which was led by the case of the property. But he case now he fore it was one moved by Mr. Agr. Assoc.

The success of the humbing to the using the next general election. He did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say that he wished for its did not mean to say At a Meeting of the Directors and Memshop, and declaring the concern bankrupt, and he concern bankrupt, amendment and he concern bankrupt.

Mr. O'Connell to forego his design of closing that the cases now before it should be first disposed bankrupt.

Shop, and declaring the concern bankrupt, and he concern bankrupt.

The Amendment and he concern bankrupt and he per Canada, held in Toronto, May 20th, 1850,

J. B. Marks, Esq. in the Chair, the following

Resolution was passed unanimously:

Resolution was passed unanimously:

Resolution was passed unanimously:

This prudent resolve on the part of the learn-from Lower Canada, that they could do no greater from the gall-dipped pen of the Rev. Thaddeus O'Mal ay, a Roman for the amendment with any man, but at the same time he had held the conduct of public men as a legitimate subject for investi
Resolution was passed unanimously:

This prudent resolve on the part of the learn-from Lower Canada, that they could do no greater from Lower Canada, the canada the c

DISAPPERANCE OF A CASTLE OFFICIAL.—A office from inte ested motives, because, in a pecu- had voted twice during the last 14 years, both of so thoroughly infected by the detestable doc- Hayward's Wharf. Apply to John V. Ham, habitants. My Buchrest correspondent, in particular, declares that should things lass Mr. Polette obtained leave of absence for much longer as they now are, the most wealthy families must be reduced to beggery, so ammunition to the Bosniacs.

THE CORPORATION .- Another, and, if possible, more degrading scene took place yesterday at the meeting of the " reformed" corporation of the city of Dublin. The chief actors were, as usual, the Lord Mayor and Mr. Walker (conservative), the latter in a measure aided by Mr. Martin, one of the extreme ed by the judges of the Chancery Court, that if not agree with the latter part of the amendment.

At about 1 o clock a in. Sit A. Mervan duced at the instance of Mr. John Reynolds, and, but for the intervention of one or two broke out on Saturday forenoon, between ten parties interested. It was the old system, and dissmissals from office of those who had sign-immate of the station at Chancery-lane. At Mr. Smith (Frontenae) would move if any one ed petitions in favor of annexation or inde- the same time it would be difficult to say would second it, that the words "it having failed pendence, was put to the vote—ayes 20; nays which faction is most to blame for the outfrage, both seeming to have lost all sense of

I terial with which either to make or keep a froad in repair. It absorbs moisture in wet weather, and therefore is not liable to be cut words "Bay of Quinte Through to be inscribed. She leaves for ceal to day. See advertisement.

Near the Depot was an immense amount of lumber—probably worth not less than $100,000 instance in point, costing only some content had not put it and it is hardly possible that it was saved lumber broken to the creation of the Marquis of Londonderry. A linstance in point, costing only some 2450 per more judgestips. (Hear, hear) He though it a sufficient asswer to the remain the four purpose of which his would be bester that a committee should be appointed in receive all the hills which has been constant to the creation of the Marquis of Londonderry. A linstance in point, costing only some 2450 per more judgestips. (Hear, hear) He thought it would be bester that a committee should be appointed in receive all the hills which has be used to the remain of the court pageant have received an any in the lumber probably worth not less than $100,000 and the Queen's Bench, had enough else no do.

School Bill." The Government had one of great interest; he meant the lumber received an any in the lumber probably worth not less than $100,000 and the Queen's Bench, had enough else no do.

School Bill." The Government had one purpose of the Marquis of Londonderry. A linstance in point, costing only some 2450 per more judgestips. (Hear, hear) In though the Court project for the abolition, of the viceregal office, and announces his determination to give the bad older after all. There were the project for the abolition of the viceregal office, annually for regions all the hills which has been and the Queen's Bench, had enough else no do.

School Bill." The Government had one of great interest; he meant the purpose of the Marquis of Londonderry. A limitation of the Marquis of Londonderry. A limitation of the word have the course of which his would have to ensent to the creation of the word have the course of the marquist in the court project for the abolition of the vicered of the course of which his object the sum of the course of the mar LAKE VESSELS UNEMPLOYED.—The Jour.—Institution of the better that a committee should be appointed to receive all the bills which may be presented, having reference to the administration of justice, and to ascertain the improvements which would effect any great reform; it wanted thorough remodelling. He did not wish to discuss it place in the House of Lords.

| Would be better that a committee should be appointed to receive all the bills which may be precould be very much improved by substituting a and announces his determination to give the bad order after all. There are several points, ough remodelling. He did not wish to discuss it place in the House of Lords.

and finish the Nisi Prius business remaining the Hudson Bay Company, were on board of the dared to say that it enacted about done; the whole dispute was only £29. It has enjoyment of this bounty are far advanced in the most favourable auspices.

these were of much importance, if we except the action brought by the Mormora Foundry Company against E. Murney, Esq., to test the Repeal Association.—The rent yesterday popularity on the wing at the next general electric popularity on the wing at the n

A contemporary mentions that the Hon. R. gentleman who held a confidental post in Mr. niary point of view, it was a loss to him. At the which votes he now sincerely deplored. The trines taught by foreign emissaries during the at the office of the Hon John A. Macdonald Jones, of St Athanase, has resigned his seat John O'Connell's "sink of corruption" has same time, he must be permitted to express his re- first of these votes had been given in favor of revolution, that they are ripe for any mischieft M. P. P., Kingston.—1850.