at 5 o'clock.

Auction Sales This Day.

As Advertised in the British Whig.

Sale of Groceries &c., this day at Jas. Watts. O THE ADVERTISERS IN THE DAIL BRITISH WHIG.

sereby reminded, that all Advertisements in this that by making agreements at the time of advertising, and paying cash down, a very material reduction will be made, but not otherwise, secure chesp advertising it is imperatively necessary to pay cash or its equivatent. June 1st, 1850.

"Opifer per Orbam Dicor."

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 12.

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR.

Tononto, Saturday Ev'g, June 8. DEAR WHIG:-

of the Legislature on the Tour of Inspec- of Militia Artillery. This band also came on and men change with them. Colborne, thence to proceed on a visit to the nia, there was two good Bands playing al- standing that I walked away before all the cally. As his Lordship advanced, the enthusiasm

PROGRAMME

Saturday ofternoon.

Suite, with the Members of the Legislature, will mback on board the Steamer Chief Justice at Browne's Wharf, precisely at 5 o'clock, A. M. Brenkfast on board, arrive at Port Dalhousie at 9 and St. Catherines at 10, where Carriages will be in readiness to proceed to Thorold passing Neptunes Stair Case, Mount Wellington and the Mountain range of Locks, (the most interesting portion of the work,) where a Steam Boat will be in attend. ance to emhark at 11 o'clock and proceed without delay to Allanburg and Port Robinson, where it nade deck, the absence of any loading in her before Dinner Mr. Merritt read me the list of thing, while others cursed the tardiness of His into the remote parts of the building. The that will render it necessary for the Presidents of struction in the whole work, arriving at the Aque. | beam, drove her repeatedly ashore, and ex- them. I said something about it, and Mr. failure. duct crossing the River Welland, (formerly the best Wooden and now the best Stone structure in America.) at 3 o'clock, F. M., one hour for America, at 3 o'clock, F. M., one hour for tain, pilot and crew in getting her off again. Dinner, then passing the Junction where the Dissatisfact on began to show itself visibly on ing this beforehand, I did not expect the toast, and reach Chippewa by 10 o'clock and proceed to the Falls for the night.

Que enston to I pronto in the afternoon Boat of Saturday, the day following.

Toronto, 4th June, 18.0. ing of Heads of Departments and the Government Clerks, the members of the two Houses, a good many Toronto gentlemen, and last, lordship, hecause I had conceived a strong prejudice against him, of which you, my dear Whig, have been the means of widely disbetween him and the late Lord Durham; the | ing speeches. one, the descendant of a long line of illus- I could not learn the name of the gentle- ing a just tribute to his eloquence and to his manly troupe. Their jokes are good—their here, and something better up yonder." "Now trious noblemen; and the other the first peer | man who filled the Chair, but he was an old affability. This was the first time the Press | singing better - their dancing the best we have I think (said Mr. Binney) that is a better | of his family, as his grandfather was the first and respected inhabitant of the county of of Canada had been treated as the Press of a ever seen. Mulligan, Mitchell, and Durant view of regeneration than either Mr. Gorbam's gentleman! And what a sad pity it is, that Welland. The Governor General's health free country should be treated, and he hoped the politeness of all cannot fail to secure them Acted upon by evil advisers in the Rebellion was the second toast, and I do his lordship but took place. In order to secure a simple justice in saying, that the toast was faults, the faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE Occurrence.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—A rencontre faults arising from want of disprecisely at eight of clock. ners and pleasing ways would otherwise have He had made himself so popular during the way to correct those errors was to treat the obtained for him.

sies the Untario entrance to the Welland Ca. In his reply, Lord Elgin was peculiarly hap- | Such, my dear Whig, was the speech I | Mr. Entron:-Yesterday's Whig directs nal, at ten o'clock, and the locks here being py. His speech was reported at length by made, or rather ettempted to make, for half attention to the "Regimental General Order" large, the vessel proceeded up to St. Catha- those who took notes, and will be published. of it was not listened to ;-this however was of the 1st Battalion Frontenac Militia, for the at Port Dalhousie, and presented an Address cularly pleased to see his health drunk so ed, the Governor and his Suite took carriages Militia training, but the following day, the the charge of embezzling £40,000 from a bank in similar testimonial of respect was paid at St. lature, intending to sink or swim with them. board the Britannia, to pass the night in the Church, but is not so considered according to keeping in Wall Street. Catharines, by the Mayor and Town Coun- He was pleased to hear the people cheer the hest way they could. I cannot trust my pen law, unless you find it in the following list tacil. These Addresses and Replies will doubt- Legislature; for the labors o' the latter were now with the recital of the serio-comical ken from 12 Vic. Cap. 10. Clause 5, and less be published in the Globe, thence to be solely for the benefit of the former. He said events of that night—these I reserve for my which comprises all holidays legally binding transferred to other papers-and in due time, a great deal more, and he said it more elo- next letter, which I will despatch on Mon- in this portion of Her Majesty's Dominions. my dear Whig, you will do the amiable. quently than I can quote from memory. His day. Au revoir.

Grand River Route branches off to Dunville and board, and those who looked far enough ahead and was away when it was proposed and suf-Port Colborne about 5 o'clock, P. M., thence began to go off in small groups to the Falls, fered to pass sub silentio. When I did hear walks. Thus ended the reception with distin- the process, which really falls upon the conpassing Point Abino, call half an hour at Buffalo, as carriages and other conveniences could be of it, I had to make my speech, but the com- guished honors of an English Lord who did'nt sumer, is almost who ly abolished. Oswego Arrangements will be made to return from falo, the hope of getting to Merrittsville, Band of the Rifles was playing bonnily a short what a parade of sycophancy he has escaped, he (where a pic nic dinner was known to be rea- distance off. It would be a pitty that the dy,) was substituted, and that hope was none mighty effusion should be comparatively lost, Governor General had arrived, quietly and without Accordingly, on Friday morning was early of the most fervid. Still a good courage, and therefore I make it over again in your for the truth of it on board the " Chief Justice," Capt. Col- with the help of a few haskets of Champagne, sheet-here it isclengh, which by seven o'clock was densely was kept up, and on we went. At six laden with about three hundred souls, consist- o'clock--by means of great shoving, and the Press of Canada, felt gratified. The much polling, the good steamer Britannia ar- Press without distinction of party, had been rived at Merrittsville, where the canal crosses generally invited to accompany the three the Welland River by means of a strong and Branches of the Legislature on this auspicious though on this occasion, by no means least, a elegant Stone Aqueduct, and here His Excel- occasion. For this attention on the part of vast array of Publishers, Editors and Report- | lency and Followers were received by the in- the Government, he begged in behalf of himers. The Press turned out in a goodly style | habitants of the village and surrounding coun- | self and his younger brethren present, to reand of all political creeds. Just as the boat try in a really enthusiastic manner. The turn his sincere acknowledgments. The escorted by our gallacion made by the Governor General local pound of French blue, and onewas ready for a start, the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincere. bappy allusion made by the Governor General, cheers were loud and seemed to be sincered to Col. Bruce, and two Aides-de-Campcame on board. His Lordship was received politely, whole company at table, much not board. His Lordship was received politely, whole company at table, much not board. Freedy lor a start, the Governor General, and proceed in procession to the spot. As the made by adding one half pound of sinna, and sink or swim in the same boat, might be amone-fourth pound of Venetian red.

Some people put salt into the received politely, whole company may aland in the course of a short halt hour before creased by the addition of gentlemen residing plifted by the additio breakfast, he made himself quite at home, in the vicinity who had been invited to meet which was fully represented literally and and was conversing cheerfully and familiarly his Excellency. The tables were laid in an symbolically, and whose endeavors to advance the beneficial.—The sulphate of with all and every body. His manner is orchard, and a temporary covering ornament- the interests of Canada, humble though they pleasing in the extreme, there is nothing lord- ed in rustic taste extended across and along were, yielded in zeal and sincerity to those fit occasion for public Societies to give this is important, - Scientific American. ly about him, and he certainly has the happy the whole length of the dining apartment. of no other. It was pleasing for the Press to faculty of making every one forgetful of the These tables were abundantly loaded with a witness and experience the hospitality of the difference of rank which exists between them. very excellent cold collation, and the wines farmers of the Niagara District, who on so the Mistic Tie especially, the occasion seems I was a careful observer of the manner of his and liquors were of the very best quality, short a notice, had so substantially entertain-The only deficiency was in the matter of ed so large a multitude; and it would be the seats. There were no chairs except for the duty of the Press to make that generous hos- FISHER'S NEW YORK MELODISTS,-This ing anecdote :- I think I heard Dr. Leifchild favored few who dined at the small table of pitality universally known. It was also celebrated and popular troupe have arrived once say, that he was travelling in Ireland he seminating. In the over-crowded boat there his Excellency. This was a sad omission, for pleasing for the Press, the guardians of the said, "My boy, what are you was little respect of persons; the Governor the company had been either standing or people's liberty, to see the Representative of audience at the Theatre Roya! to-morrow crying for?" and the boy held up a New General was elbowed with as little ceremony | walking about the whole of the day, and Majesty throw off the shackles of his high evening. They have had a long run of sue- Testament, all over dirt, and said that he was as a junior clerk, and he bore the elbowing | were greatly fatigued by the time they got to rank and the following, cut | reading the book, and the priest came by and much more patiently. He went down to the dirt, and he was cleaning it.

The members of the Press from the Montreal Pilot, shews how much Dr. Leifchild said, "Can you read?" "Yes," breakfast with the crowd, and in every re- tite made some amends for the want of a rest- might and would differ among themselves, as they were appreciated there:spect appeared and conducted himself like an ing place, and the viands disappeared in don- to the propiety of that distinguished indivi- FISHER'S NEW YORK MELODISTS.—We un- pointing to the third chapter of St. John. The ordinary passenger. What a striking contrast ble quick time. Now came the time of mak- dual's political conduct, but he felt assured derstand that this evening will be the last op- boy read it, and Dr. Liefchild asked him day, that all the company joined in the toast, Press with respect, and thereby teach it to The Chief Justice arrive I at Port Dalhou- and his health was drunk with all the honors. respect itself." rines, a flourishing town of some ten thou- To that I refer your readers. His Excellency more my misfortune than my fault.

The number of persons who (waited on the speech was received more rapturously if poswhatves and in the streets to welcome the sible than even his health, and loud and pro-Kingston Post Office every Saturday morning Governor General and the Legislature was by longed cheering prevailed. Judging from no means great, and the cheers were none of what I know and what I have heard, I foot, and dragoons the Fire Department with Saint's Day and Christmas Day." the loudest; but if the approbation was not should say that this was the first time his excessive and enthusiastic, there certainly Excellency received a unanimous expression the Governor General of Canada. We hold that was not elicited the slightest mark of discour- of public feeling in his favor. He looked our citizens should not only entertain, but manitesy or political ill-feeling. The stay at St. highly delighted and doubtless he felt what strangers, when they come among us, but to de-Catharines was but momentary, for as soon as his countenance indicated. A great many mocrats, Lords and peasants, Kings and laborers, the long array of coaches, carriages, buggies, other toasts followed in succession, all having and waggons were loaded with the company, connexion with the object of the Expedition Adventison in the Daily British Whig are the Expedition proceeded by land to Thorold, and the successful completion of the Canal. on the top of the mountain, passing by the To all these toasts long replies were made by tion so brilliant, or a welcome so devotedly hearty, form custom, that is to say, four pence a line the | side of the numerous locks which from their | Messrs. Caron, Lafontaine, Morin, Baldwin, regularity have obtained the name of " Nep- Merrit, W. B. Robinson, Thorburn, Killaly, tune's Staircase." As I am not writing a &c., &c., &c. Mr. W. B. Robinson made description of the Welland Canal, but simply eulogistic harrangue in favor of Mr. Merritt, a slight sketch of this particular, I shall to whose almost Herculian exertions, the ong us. This no doubt will be a source of prid not detain your readers by aftempting to give | Welland Canal owes its projection, and com- with the Governor General-when he hears of a picture of the triumph of art over nature, in pletion. He also took occasion to compliment carrying a navigable canal over such heights the Governor General for his splendid oratory Chief Magistrate and his colleagues, in anticip as those of Thorold; suffice it, that it has and his general bonhommie. Such was the been done, and after much labor, anxiety and kind of Governor wanted by the Canadian Thorold, on the long level communicating Mr. W. B. Robinson read an apologetic letter with Lake Erie, the steamer Britannia, Capt. from Chief Justice Robinson, in which the the wharf to await the arrival of his Lordship and Gordon, was in readiness to proceed to Port latter spoke of Mr. Merritt's zeal, his in- suite. At this time the Perk was surrounded by Colhorne and Buffalo. The vessel was gaily dustry, his honor, his integrity, and his dis. the beauty, fashion, and gallantry of the town, decorated with flags, and an excellent band of interestedness in the most unqualified terms tient hearts the appearance of his Lordship—eagmusic, (that of Dundas) was on board. This of praise. It looks very ominous thus to see er to listen to the burning elequence of an Amer reminds me to say, that the Band of the Ca- the Chief Justice and his brother travel out In my last I mentioned that I had received | nadian Rifles came on board the Chief Jus- of their way, the one to compliment Lord | card of invitation to accompany the tice at Port Dalhousie, when a Royal Salute Elgin, and the other to praise a distinguished However, at dark the Governor General had not Governor General and the two Branches was fired in good style by the Dundas Corps member of his Cabinent! But times change

Friday, the 7th inst. 1850, and returning fully apparent, that the Expedition to Buffalo town, with the like success. This was pewhere the greatest preparations were there culiarly unfortunate, for the Press had re- arrived. Bonfires followed-such as are usually the Canadian Legislature, as became the in- ment on this occasion, and some acknowledg- Time wore on and 9 o'clock came, but his Lordhold, and the strong breeze blowing on her Toasts, and there was no "Press" among

"Dr. Barker, in rising to return thanks for that all present would join with him in payof witnessing the performances of this gentleing a just tribute, to his closures and to his

to the Governor General, which was gracious- unanimously, as he was embarked in the and returned to the Falls, distant 13 miles; 29th. THE EDITOR.

RECEPTION OF LORD ELGIN. From the Buffalo Express.

should appear alike-all enjoying the attentions and kindness due from a republican, simple minded people; but none exciting us to worship or adoration. The Governor General could scarcely anywhere in his own realm, hope for a demonstraas awaited him in the Queen City of the Lakes. The City authorities took the matter in hand with a zeal becoming any great American occasion, and carried it through in a style, such as | would scarcely have been expected by the President of the United States, were he on a visit -and certainly we have occasion to believe, that it afforded unmitigated pleasure to our municipal tion, to welcome to the hospitalities of our town so distinguished a guest.

who were waiting with longing eyes and impaa royal acceptance.

The display throughout was grand and exciting. any man.

His Excellency the Governor General and ceived unwonted attention from the Govern- lighted in honor of some great national victory, or upon the anniversary of our Independence .ship came not. The Common Council with their retinue of gorgeous equipages—the Military—and the Firemen were brought into relief by the habitants of such a city, must be a failure. ment of it was expected. But the omission ship came not. The Common Council with their The Britannia would not steer, and could not arose from some misconception on the part of retinue of gorgeous equipages—the Military be made to steer. Instead of proceeding at Mr. Merritt. Believing that such a toast lighted fires, presenting a scene of peculiar beauty feet in size and will hold about 100,000 bush. however, that our military friend was already on the rate of some six or seven miles an hour, would be proposed, and thinking that I and grandeur. The people were wandering a- of grain. This is also located directly on the his return home, and passed his pursuer on his she did not go one mile in two hours. The might be called upon to respond, I had actual and many sorely vered at the loss of their supports. As he happened to have a wife in New and many sorely vexed at the loss of their suppers. the very bowels of a Canadian schooner, and England, and as the Spanish lady has a husband immense number of passengers on her prome- ly bottled my thoughts up. But about an hour Some laughed at the rididulous folly of the whole from thence take up the grain and carry it in Mexico, we can hardly think the case in one Excellency, and declared this experiment of a demacratic people to glorify royalty, a decided soon after left—the Firemen first on a run, and caused a decided revolution in the wheat the military afterwards in regular order. The trade. It not only saves a vast amount of multitude followed in solid column on the side- | time in the transhipment, but the expense of come. We have no doubt when his Lordship, Times. procured. Instead of expecting to reach Buf- pany had partly broken up, and the Brass who is said to be a sensible man, understands will congratulate himself upon his good fortune.

> THE WATERWORKS COMPANY .- At the evening, the City Fathers resolved to honor | water enough to bring it to the consistency of consequence of their great public utility, and salt absorbs moisture and is therefore more upon the public health, we think this a very of the best known; the use of it, therefore, enterprise their countenance and support, by attending the procession. To the brethern of peuliarly appropriate.

For the British Whig. MILITIA TRAINING.

day, New Year's day, the Epiphany, the Annunciation, Good Friday, the Ascention, Cor- An accident occurred on the tailroad at East harse, pus Christi, St. Peler and St. Paul, Festival of St. Peter and St. Paul, a recogni- which was regularly thrown out for him. zed holiday in all christian Churches, and Last night, the faithful messenger, fearing ap-several Battalions) has correctly been ordered unable to check his speed in due season. The to assemble on Friday, the 28th.

Yours, June 12.

STORAGE OF GRAIN -The facilities which this city possesses for the reception and storage of Grain, are not surpassed, if equalled are enormous and the most ingenious mach nery is used in taking grain directly from the at Holyhead. vessels in the dock and transferring it into the various departments of the building. It is was confidently predicted. But with the em- loudly called for, but no one responded to falo and a brilliant moment for our authorities of the kind and an examination of a Grain do. Of an Excursion from Toronto through the barkation on board the Britannia, all that sort the appeal; then "Mr. Scobie" was demand- the display is so like the reception that would Warehouse excites surprise as well as curi- The other instant was that of a friend in New Welland Canal by the enlarged and direct of thing was at an end, and it became pain— ed, and afterwards, "Mr. Harris," of By- have been given to the Governor or any one of thing was at an end, and it became attached, after a fachion, the Sovereignities of this Union. ous and convenient Grain Warehouse on the to a Spanis's girl in the city of Mexico Since Night had set in but his Lordship had not yet harbor, admirably situated, where yessels lay his return, a Mexicon gentleman has unexpecalong side and discharge their freights directly todly paid him a visit for the purpose of having a into his lofts. This is an older establishment, better understanding or settlement of the matter. but we believe it embodies most, if not all the Our friend - having some time since thrown a-

> old, complicated and expensive system of the two republics to interfere in the matter-se far, shovelling up wheat by the bushel, and re- at least, as that one shall make a requisition upon Ten o'clock came, and no Governor General, moving it in small quantities, has been abol- the other for the fugitive from matrimony .- The

> > TO MAKE WHITEWASH .- As this is the time for cleaning up door yards and whitewashing buildings and fences we give a receip for making whitewash, which is said (in the) Horticulturist) to be one of the best and most durable character.

Take a barrel and slack one bushel of freshly burned lime in it, by covering the lime with meeting of the City Conneil on Monday boyling water.—After it is slacked, add cold the Waterworks Company to-day, with their good whitewash. Then dissolve in water, presence at the ceremony of breaking ground zinc.) To give this wash a cream color, add Str. Northciner, Sacketts Harbor—a general carfor their proposed reservoir, near the head of one-half a pound of yellow ochre in powder. Colborne Street. It is intended that the mem- To give it a fawn color, add a pound of yellow bers of the Council, headed by the Mayor and one-fourth of a pound of Indian red. H. Buer.

To make the wash a handsome grey stone co- Brig Ruscius, Oswego-in ballast, B. West.

zinc is an excellent drier-it being about one Barge Quebec, 600 bars railway iron, D. Mela-

DEFINITION OR "REGENERATION," FOR THE BISHOP OF EXETER AND MR. GORHAM. -- At a meeting in behalf of the British Missions in connection with the Congregational Union, the Rev. Thomas Binney related the follow- ston. said the boy. "Then read me a bit of this,"

one of the editors of the District Whig and Mr. Thomas Cocke, in which the latter commenced the attack, and the former, in defend. from a very successful trip to Montreal, and ing himself with a revolver lodged two shots the principal towns in the lower province. in the body of his assailant. The wounds are announce to the citizens of Kingston, that they not supposed to be mortal. - Norfolk Hevald.

purpose of shewing that the 28th of Jure Ormsbee and Connolly, arrived in the ship Yorkinstant, being a holiday in the Catholic shire, at New York, on Tuesday, and tuck rooms sand inhabitants. A Deputation from the made use of an alleg my that he carried out | Eight o'clock being now arrived, all idea instant, being a holiday in the Catholic shire, at New York, on Tuesday, and took rooms Council of the Niagara District came on board very felicitously. He said that he was parti- of reaching Buffalo this night being abandon- Church, is therefore not the proper day for Wednesday evening, when both were arrested on Cork, Ireland, in which they were engaged as open of 7 o'clock, to commence at 8. ly received and a suitable Reply given. A same boat with both branches of the Legis- and the rest of the company re-embarked on The 28th may be a holiday in a particular amount of money, which they deposited for safe

> COLONEL FITZGIBBON. - This gallant and veteran officer's numerous friends in Canada FITHE Mail Steamer CANADA, CAPTAIN will rejoice to hear that Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint him one of her Wharf To-morrow Morning, at half-past 5 "The word " Holiday" shall include Sun- | Military Knights of Windsor.

VALUABLE DOG KILLED BY THE CARS.-Lexington last evening, which is truly lamentable. A fine Newfoundland dog, belonged to Mr. L. C. Childs of East Lexing-Now, none of those days falls upon the 28th | t n, has been accustomed to run to the cro instant, but the 29th happens to be the sing, on the approach of the evening train from Boston, to get his master's newspaper, consequently not a proper day for training the parently that he was behind his time, and that the cars would pass before he had reach ed the spot where he was wont to receive his The 2nd Battalion of Frontenac (miss printed charge, ran with so much haste that he was consequence was that he went on to the rack just as the cars were "presship;" and we regret to say, was run over and literally cut to pieces. Mr. Childs says he would not have sold the dog for two hundred dollars .- Bostor

The Admiralty have disposed of the two any where. Some of the Grain Warehouses iron steampackets, Llewellyn and St. Columb for £20,000 each, and both have been paid of

CONNUBIAL INCIDENTS OF THE MEXICAN WAR. carried up into the highests lofts, by the pa- The Editor of the Lowell Courier, who had our-At 6 o'clock the town was literally alive, and tent elevators. Then taken through long ved in Mexico with credit both to his award and experience, done properly and profitably. At people! In the course of his long speech, the streets swarmed with one vast moving multi- square tubes by the aid of spiral screws and has pen, relates some anecdotes of a "breach of tude. The Common Counci', Military and Fire placed in the different bins, either in the treaty in Mexico, matrimonially considered." men, and a large body of citizens, proceeded to higher or lower portion of the Warehouse. It lie says the officers of our army, though they well requires an extensive stretch of ingenuity to withstood the bullets and valor of the Mexican accomplish all this, especially when one sees men, did not defend themselves so effectually a-3,000 bushels an hour taken from the hold of gainst the bright eyes and reducive forms of the a vessel at the dock, and carried through va- Mexican women. Some of them were married t rious ramifications to the upper part of the Mexican girls, and some others it appears, ought er to listen to the burning elequence of an Amer- rious ramifications to the upper part of the lican welcoming speech, and patronizing to e of building, more than a hundred feet distant, lowed their false lovers to Vera Croz, expecting and all this without the immediate agency of to be taken to the United States, and others have pursued even across the Gulf the men who never The largest Grain Warehouse in this city, retreated in war, but who faithlessly deserted arrived, and as the anxious multitude waited his or perhaps any other, and one which perhaps their others in love. The Courier mys, we have approach, the imagination wandered after his is the most complete in machinery, because recently heard of two very interesting instances Lordship, and pictured him upon the deck of his the most recently built, is Carrington & Par- of this character. The one was that of a daughttion through the Welland Canal to Port to Thorold, so that on board the Britan- The day was hot, and I was so tired with gallant vessel, with the flag of Britain fluting dee's Ontario Warehouse, directly on the er of a Mexican merchant, who followed he proudly above him, approaching our shore majesti lake, at the foot of First street. It is over American lover—an officer in the army—to him city of Buffalo, and to return by way of the Falls of Nisgara. The official Programme with their enlivening strains. So far every-the Press of Canada was toasted from the accompanying the Card was as follows, thing went well, all were as merry as Grigs choing to heaven from thousands of democration and all sorts of labyrinthian looking to the harbyr to well. and a happy termination to a day's festivity fession in attendance, "Dr. Barker" was ic mouths who had rushed to the harbor to wel-

June 10. Schr. Ludy Bagert, Bear Creck-9883 pipe ateves and 1543 West India staves, Calvin Cook. Mayflower, Wellington-1500 bush. com, 47 bbls, flour and 200 bush, rye, Jas. Morton. . Duke Darlington-813 bble flour, II. & S.

Str. Chuton, Oswego-2 casks lard oil and 9 burges in tow, M. W. Lester. .. New Era, Montreal-18 cases goods, W. W. Barge Hope, Montreal-1 hhd. wine. J. B. K.; I hhd. wine. I butt wine, A. F. K.; I case goods, W. W. K.

go, W. Rudstone and others.

Bay State, Ogdensburgh-I Lox varnish

ashes, 30 bbis perk, Moffatt, Gillesp'e & Co.: 1070 bush, oats, James Corgill. Some people put salt into their lime, but we Brig Brecze. Hamilton-15800 staves, 103 pieces timber, Calvin Cooke & Co. Schr. G. Moffatt, Port Stanley-6500 pipe staves, Calvin Cooke & Co.

> Shannon, Quebec-650 bars railway iron, D. McIntosh.

DIED. In Hamilton, yesterday, Mrs. Smiley, reliet of the late Mr. Samuel Smiley, formerly of King-

Theatre Royal.

FOR TWO NIGHTS ONLY BTHSHEET BERS ORIGINAL

This celebrated troupe being on their return will have the honor of giving two of their inimitable ETHIOPIAN CONCERTS, com-Evenings, June 13th and 14th.

Boxes 2s 6d : Pit and Gallery, 1s 3d. Doors LP For particulars see Programmes. 136

ROYAL MAIL RIVER LINE.

THROUGH BY DAY LIGHT.

O'Connon, will leave the Commercial Kingston, June 12th, 1850.