Auction Sales This Pay.

. As Advertised in the British Whig. Sale of New Furniture by William Ware, at II o'clock.

TO THE ADVERTISERS IN THE DAILY

McMillan, at One o'clock.

hereby reminded, that all Advertisements in this Every corner was taken up, and every place paper are charged the full rates allowed by uni- where a man could stow himself away was sequent insertion. Parties who think these rates dirty as it was, was strewed with sleeping high for a Duily paper, are respectfully informed. that by making agreements at the time of adver- human beings. I was getting savage and tising, and paying cash down, a very material re- spiteful, and threatened all manner of directul duction will be made, but not otherwise. To things; but, I recovered my equanimity of sary to pay cash or its equivalent. June 1st, 1850.

The Dailn British Whig.

" Opifer per Orbam Dicor."

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 14, 1850.

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR.

WEEK, HOTEL, HAMILTON, ? June 10th, 1850.

MY DEAR WHIG,e main body of the Expedition to return to Nia- man!

taken time by the forelock, and had left the jammed into one mass, and upon which had to stand upright in. Preparations were how- wards to drink, to rinse the glass out with a another part of the vessel, and amused them- for his eloquence and good companionable of a more ambitious character, and aimed at champagne for himself and friends. After the tender and pathetic. One chap, quite a discussing the contents of one bottle, it was lady's man, amused me greatly by warbling proposed to keep the other for a bonne bouche "while I view those scenes so charming," in the morning; and the parson, having by and another chap who stood six feet high, good luck got a berth, took the champagne to sang with a gruff voice, the love-sick ditty bed with him, and fell asleep with it under in the Bohemian Girl, ending with the refrain his pillow. It chanced that Mr. Sheriff Jar-ple had come into Port Colborne, and the piers of Buffalo harbor, and my spirits rose Parliament, in reply to humerous addresses from towards the people of Buffalo for their cordial hose ment, retiring and modest in his address. He 1st insertion and one penny per I ne, every sub- hilled. Even the main deck itself, wet and temper when I found so many men, older and less able to bear fatigue than myself, in a much worse plight. Never shall I forget to my dying day the rueful countenance of his Worship of Toronto, and that of his Reverence the Vicar General Macdonell. As for Cabinet Ministers and honorable members of the Legislative Council, I don't believe there was one on board that night, who would not have exchanged condition of life with a petted baboon, so woe-begone did they look. There was no distinction of persons-the humble reporter for the press was on a par with the Head of a Department, and being a younger In my sketch of "the Royal, Progress" to man, he fared the better. Such a night-Buffalo, I ended with the Rustic Dinner near such a scene-such filth-such noise-and the junction of the Canal. When this affair such a tout ensemble I never before teheld was over, the Governor General and as many and I hope never may again. I feel morally as could get carriages to follow him, left the sure that next day I was by five years an older gara Falls, while the semainder of the com- Were I writing to the London Times inpany, with tired foot, having stood or walked stead of your chaste columns, Mr. Whig, about the live-long day, proceeded to the I should stand on no ceremony but say plain Steamer Britannia, which by this time had things in plain language; but your fair readprogressed some mile or two further on her ers are so much more modest, so much more crawling journey. When all the company refined, and so much more virtuous than Enghad re-embarked, and the vessel was again lish women, that I must be cautious how under weigh, the weather, which up to this I transgress and offend their deficate sensibilitime had been most delightful, underwent a ty. I have a few anecdotes to relate which I melancholy change. It began to rain cats must tell, and I know not how. An honoraand dogs, and pitchforks with their sharp ends | ble member of the Legislative Council was downwards! The Britannia, a freight steam- asked next morning how he liked the evener, without cabins, chairs, or conveniences of ing. "Pretty well at first," says he, "I got any kind whatsoever, soon began to be very into a snug corner of the boat, where I thought uncomfortable. How two hundred and fifty no one could find me out, and where I had souls, for to that number was the Expedition about three hours' sleep; but I was awakenreduced, were to pass the night, in a boat ed this morning by a gentleman standing over where there positively was no convenience me, but what he was doing to me I am for sitting down, much less sleeping, your ashamed to tell." A Cabinet Minister, missreaders, my dear Whig may imagine, but I ed his hat, and searching all the bye places could not. The prospect was gloomy in the he found it, but it felt mighty heavy and it extreme, and the countenances of the company smelt abominably, so down he dropped it like corresponded with the prospect. There was a hot potato. Some facetious gentleman, unno flying from this evil, for no carriage could able to worship in a temple to Cloacina had be obtained for love or money, and there was mistaken the Executive Councillor's hat for a no hotel to fly to, nearer than the Falls, 15 close stool. Another gentleman also lost his miles off. To grin and bear it was the only hat, and looking about for it, he disturbed a remedy. The Governor General at the din- heavy Lower Canadian lying on the cabin ner table had said, that we, that is to say the floor, who asked what he wanted. Being told four estates of Canada, were all embarked in the Frenchman tose himself upon his elbow, met again on board the Chief Justice, while we the same boat, but egad his Excellency had and producing one of six hats which were all other two branches of the Legislature, in had been lying, very quietly enquired, cluding the Fourth Estate, in the lurch. He "whether that hat was the gentleman's?" did not extend his allegory to the passing of A member of the Legislative Assembly, who a miserable night in a filthy boat, crowded had early drowned his sorrows in Chamwith miserable souls, who had no place to pague, got under the table to sleep, and it belay their heads on, and with room scarcely came the amusement of all who came afterever made to get through the night with as little water, and to chuck the rinsings into the little misery as possible. A large party of sleeping member's face. No one escaped the Governor General and the other absentees these old speeches were certainly terrible things. gentlemen ensconced themselves in the fore some practical joke, and none escaped some at the Falls, were re-embarked in the Chief Caroline and the killing of one of the men on lineators of Negro character, gave their first part of the main deck and began to sing, if mishap; even the worthy Speaker of the As- Justice for Toronto, where about half-past board had set the frontier on flame like the match shouting loudly all manner of songs in all sembly himself was sufficiently unhappy to seven in the morning we arrived; after passing to the coat. The shops were all shut—the bells Concert last evening. The house was re-vertiser. manner of keys and all manner of voices fall into the water while stepping ashore at a couple of days, in the most exciting, if not could be called singing. This species of en- Port Colborne, and it was a full hour ere he in the most enchanting manner. Thus ender tertainment they industriously continued for could find his valice to change his clothes. the Expedition of Lord Elgin, and in the hours. Another, and a smaller party, in- but the richest of all the anecdotes was the words of Cowper, let me end with a distich. cluding a few ladies, posted themselves in following. A reverend gentleman celebrated selves with singing also; but their songs were qualities, had procured a couple of bottles of "that you loved me still the same." A party vis, prowling about in the morning, discoverof French gentlemen got into the small ed the reverend gentleman asleep, so finding cabin intended for the crew, and took to out Mr. Robert Baldwin, he entreated his comdrinking champagne, of which some baskets pany to see the settlement of the Clergy Reto gather together the crumbs that I could no still remained on board. This was the more serve question. "There," said the Sheriff, rational mode of gettingthrough the night, but a behold a Clergy Reserve, and see how soon the relief was but momentary, for the cham- we will settle it," so taking the bottle from pigne soon became exhausted and the op- under the pillow of the sleeping parson, and pressive heat of the small apartment drove breaking its neck, in spite of all the remonthe occupiers to cooler places. All this time, strances of Mr. Robert Baldwin, who said,

The numerous lights ashore induced a vast told, but I have said enough, to convey an many passengers to make the attempt to ob- idea of the night on hoard the Britannia. tain beds and refreshments. But heds there Next morning about 4 o'clock, the Britar were none to be had, and the only refresh- ma moved out of the canal towards Buffalo, ment was whiskey. Accordingly, after a distant twenty miles. It was raining heavily while, the company came back one by one to still, and the lake was hazy and misty. the boat, as being the lesser evil of the two; chanced to overhear the Captain tell Mr. for expecting the Expedition, the country peo- Merritt, that he hoped to be able to find the by twelve o'clock arrived at Port Colborne, lights," distributed the sparkling contents be-ostensible object of the Expedition. Port man's head. This latter anecdote formed the two miserable cabacets in it, but with nothing the Chef Justice next day, and at which the approaching to a comfortable country Inn .-- Governor General laughed heartily. I could

Here the vessel was to remain until the day- relate anecdote after anecdote without end, light would enable her to proceed to Buffalo, some stranger and dirtier than those I have

Colborne is a small dirty village, with one or topic of conversation at the dinner table been expecting the of xpedition, intending to pay its members all the honors, beheld the two hundred and fifty wretched looking soul were making the best of their way. "some on foot and some in carriages to the Mansi House Hotel (to which word was passed) they would have taken up the stones of the city to pelt them with, for presuming to visit it in ble change for the better took place immediately on entering this most excellent hotel. Hot baths were called for and obtained-all got rooms to wash and dress in, and everybody sat about in downright earnest to make himself once more appear clean and decent, and we all of us succeeded, for when we came dear Whig, you must have published the achorribly unpropitious for any outward display, had enough of the good steamer Britannia, men sat down to a sumptious entertainment, the with Tickets and calling loudly for our bill, hearty welcome to his guests, and had regretted we found to our agreeable surprize, that the that they were not present on the preceeding Mayor and Corporation of Buffaio with that evening, to witness the display of good-will on the generosity peculiar to the American people, health of the Queen, for whom three times three had previously paid the shot and bore the Ex- were given with true British emphasis, the Ameripedition chargeless. And here let me stop to all. Mr. Hincks returned thanks for the honor House Hotel, about fifty or seventy-five of the Parke then proposed the health of Lord Elgin, for party thought that at that high priced hotel which Mr. Drum nond returned thanks, quoting they would be taxed enormously; so resolv- from the speech of his Excellency delivered the ing my best to second your exertions. ing not to be shaved by the Buffalonians, they column. He concluded by returning thanks for to this country, and it does honor to the early onsaving and prudent gentlemen when they all prosperity within her palaces." congratulated them upon shaving themselves. bind them to us, we will try by social intercourse Let me hasten to a conclusion. At Buffalo to bind them to our hearts." Mr. Chauveau recity; some went down to Lewiston in the cars, and among them, myself; some stopped ply; and though we may give a sketch of the ment. at the Falls, and crossed over to Drummond- words, it is out of our power to give an idea of the ville; while the main body returned to the said that there were not wanting several persons Britannia which soon proceeded to Chippewa. in the city, who, when it was talked of giving a About 4 o'clock in the afternoon the major public reception to the Governor-General had said To the Hon. W. H. MERRITT. part of the company, including his Excellency he | Mr. S | had made durteen years ago, and "And when again he rides abroad. May I be there to see."

THE EDITOR.

P. S .- I am staying at Nr. Weeks's Hotel who has resumed husiness in Hamilton. keeps one of the first class Hotels of Canada his house is decidedly the very best in Hamilton. Hotel keeping is vastly different in the western from what it is in the eastern parts of Canada. The usual number of persons who sit down to table here is one hundred or by the end of the week. In order to illustrate these two long letters of mine, I have cut out from the Globe of June 10th, a few particulars which I could not get at with my means of information.

the steamer was slowly moving onwards, and it it was cruel to deprive the clergy of their LORD ELGIN'S SPEECH. LORD Exgin rose for the purpose of expressing the Lake Erie entrance of the Welland Canal, tween himself and a few bye-standers, and his gratitude for the very cordial manner in which | changes proposed in our law system, of and to the lating signs was passed with some triffing paid for my trouble in writing the above comthe toast had been received; but before saying dangers to be apprehended from them, and propo- amendments; and lastly, the bill regarding to open which communication had been the replaced the empty bottle under the gentlegentleman who had brought him a favorable ac- Mr. Seymour returned thanks and expressed the improvement of Montreal Street, introducount of the poor man who had been accidentally his hopes that for their own sakes the Canadians ced in accordance with the opinion of the injured; (loud cheers) for he felt that if he had would not follow the example of the State of New City Solicitor, was passed and ordered to be of his power to address them. This friend who the good old law of Blackstone to adopt a code engrossed. It was also resolved unanimously had led him to his seat, had, very unnecessarily, they would surely soon cry in the language of the that Mr. Kirk's claim against the City | vided, and he regretted that he had not interrupt. | A number of volunteer toasts were given and reed him, as he was on the point of doing, for he sponded to by Mr. Scott of Bytown, Mr. Drumhad so often experienced the hospitality of the mond, Alderman Beck, Mr. Hincks, and others, people of the Ningara District, that he was con- and hilarity and good fellowship were kept up for | vinced they would give him a good dinner, and some hours, when at the invitation of the Mayor the event had proved that he was right; but the guests adjourned to the theatre where private | A CHANCE.—The springfield Republican Balsam, he is now, greatly to our surprise, enthe dinner, good as it was, scarcely gave him as boxes were in readiness. On entering the band contains an advertisement for a wife. The joying most excellent health. New England much pleasure as the hearty cheer with which struck up "God save the Queen," and the im- gentlen an describes himself as of good repu- Washingtonian, Boston. they had greeted him. For, on several occasions mense audience cheered most enthusiastically. | tation, well educated, and intelligent, with | None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the

The Mail for England will be closed at the lady to state and poor as they were, were with the agreeable information. After mak - the inhabitants of the District, and although that pitality. We trust soon to have an opportunity of wishes the lady to state of her age, her com-The Mail for England will be closed at the laverns, small and poor as they were, were with the agreeable information. After man cheer told him they needed no apology from him they need not need to be not need to be not need to be not need to be not needed not need to be needed not need to be needed not need to be nee how the folks got through it, I cannot tell; out of her course, the Steemer did make the had one, and but one to offer and that was, that THE LETTER OF THE CHIEF TO ME-MERRIT for about one o'clock, I contrived, by dint of piers, and about half-past seven o'clock made on this occasion, at least, he and the two other immense perseverance and great management, fast at the wharf. This was a happy end to cally and most undoubtedly in the same boat. to get my careass deposited on the hinder; all our troubles and wexations, for we had ar- they had nothing for it, but to sink or swim to- great pleasure to me, if I could have accompanied leaf of the cabin table, where I slept for a rived where we could obtain water to wash gether. [Renewed cheers.] He took that to be you and your large and distinguished party in a most suspicious token of the peace and prost | your tour to-morrow through the western canal, couple of hours or so, until firet, I came and make ourselves look decent, and we penty of the country, for they might depend on it | and I do really regret that it should have been Sale of Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., by Wm. down by the run, some maticious vagabond, greatly stood in need of it. Such a pack of without peaced illay could her have prosperity, rendered impossible, by the circumstance of the envying my good luck, having quietly 1e-, dirty, squalld, begrimed, chopfallen creatures the same tout. Some impatient spirits might, term. I have seen but little of the Canal in its moved the supports of the leaf. Before I never paid asyisit of ceremony to a friendly and not be delightful was done beyond the presentation of a few BRITISH WING.

Advertisers in the Daily British Whig are the boat for a chance, but work could I find.

BRITISH WING.

Obtained this resting place, I looked all round city. Fortunately for us, it was raining in that they were embarked in a most excellent should have taken particular satisfaction in availthe Buffalonians, who the preceding night had out either tashing the waters into a tourn, or being ing myself of any opportunity that might have cheeked by the difficulties of their course,-(Cheery.) His Excellency resumed his seat amid trainendons cheering, the "one cheer more" manded, being responded to by half-a-dozen.

> On arriving in the city, a number of gentlemen of the party, the Speakers of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Lafontaine, Mr. Merritt. Mr. Drummond, Mr. Gurnett, Mayor of Toronto, Mr. VanBrocklin, I first heard of your project and if your modes such unseeming guise. However an agreea- Mayor of Brantford, Mr. Foley, Mayor of St. propositions, that a private company would be al-Catherines, and some other gentlemen called upon the Mayor, Mr. Snoth, to express their warmest acknowledgments for the hospitable preparations that the delay in their arrival had prevented their taking advantage of them. The fellowing note was also sont by Mr. Merrit to the Mayor:-Honorable the Mayor and Common Council of some were suspicious of you, as a person wholly down to a Special Breakfast, we really were the city of Buffalo, and on behalf His Excellency, governed by private interest; a little communia jolly set of good looking and well dressed the Earl of Elgin, Governor General of British | cation with you convinced me that your views first reading. individuals, determined to forget the troubles of North America, the members of the Frecutive were pure and disinterested; but I confess I did Government, the Hon! Speakers of the two houses | entertain the feeling that your scheme was a mad the passed night, and resolving to make the of Parliament, the Mayor and citizens of Toronto, one. I could soom see, however, that you were most of things as they were. We called and many of the other public authorities of Canada | infinitive y better able, than I was to judge of the about us in jolly good style, and made the Buf- begs very greatefully to acknowledge the hospita- placticability of your designs, and as my own inble and very kind attention which they were formation improved, I became more willing, and I falonians jump. After partaking of a most pleased to offer to His Excellency and the other may say anxious to give you everything in my capital breakfist, in which all made ample Canadian authorities, upon the occasion of their power. Expedition, se I shall not go over that tale. Governor and the people of Canada, will not be how would the question be decided? His Excellency did not come with us, so there forgotten or remain unappreciated by His Excelwas notody to receive. Besides the day was lency and the Canadian Government and other jections, difficulties, that with the present Welsubjects of Her Brittanic Majesty."

The great majority of the party having taken had the Buffalonians chosen to make any. breakfast at the Mansion House, at the expense of The order of the day was therefore to go on the city, returned by the Britannia to Chippewa; board the Britannia at ten o'clock and pro- a considerable number having however remained were invited in their unwearied hospitality by the ceed to Chippawa, and then take the cars to authorities, to ainner at the Mansio, House i the Falls and Queenston. But many of us had the evening. Between thirty and forty gentleand preferred/taking the cars to the Falls and acting as Vice-President. After the Chairman Lewiston at once. So providing ourselves who is one of the most finished speakers we ever tell a tale. When the word was passed on conferred upon them, and the kind hospitality board for the Company to go to the Mansion which had been shown to them, and concluded by sought other and cheaper houses. It was the reception the deputation had received, and by terprise of its inhabitants. pleasant to look into the countenances of these proposing the "Queen of the West, the City of Buffalo; may peace be within her walls, and General Verplanck then proposed, "The People of the Canadas; if we cannot by political ties that you would allow my brother, or any one who The case of the steamer Emerald which for the company departed; some stopt to see the turned thanks, and proposed the Mayor and Common Council of Buffa o.

Mr. Smith made a most a nusing speech in reinimitable style in which it was delivered. He tolled—the body of Durfee was placed on the spectably filled, and the performance was steps of the Church-Rev. Dr. Hawks, now Bishjop of Wisconsin, said the prayers of the Church over it - and I [said Mr. Smith] played the part of | Melodist Concerts. The Dialogues and Bur-Mark Anthony. My speech was full-not of in-nuendoes-but of war, pestilence and famine! lesques, were more chaste and original, than lord, the lineal descendant of an eminent nothing less would satisfy me then to go over and anything of the kind which we have wit- statesman, and his lady, the latter being the take possession of you, and then ask whether it nessed, and most of the Songs and Glees scion of a noble house, which derives its title was right afterwards. To compare that with the present time, conclusively proved, that now, as in deservedly received much applause. Where counties. - Villmers Times. the times of Virgil, times change, and we change all are good it would be invidious to select, He with them. Mr. Smith then proceeded to sp. ak of but we cannot help remarking that this Comother circumstances connected with the rebellion, pany possess a trump card in Master Mitchell. with the hatred which then existed, to prove how His dancing is exquisite, and his personation thoroughly intercourse between men broke down of "Lucy Long" alone is well worth the price what seemed the most inveterate prejudices, and concluded by proposing "the social and commercial connexion between the two countries, and give their Farewell Concert this evening, and duals, that I had for some time had doubts of the success to all well-directed efforts to promote it." we trust that none who are partial to this Mr. Foley; Mayor of St. Catherines, proposed, the average, and I am told the present season with a very short speech, which he said was won- species of entertainment, will miss this last is dull. I shall return to Toronto to morrow derful, as he had been in the company of members opportunity of seeing a Negro Extravaganza by giving in my testimony in regard to its mediof Parliament for two days, the "Army of the United States," to which Colonel Vielie the Vice | done in perfection. pick up during my first sojourn, and be home President, gave a very able and eloquent reply. The last part of Mr. Vielie's speech, who is a lawyer, would have had a most salutary influence upon some of our law reformers. He pronounced

The Mayor, who is also a lawyer, was heard to that day, he had been obliged to assume a great We cannot close without repeating again what fair prospects, hetween 30 and 40 years of age, wrapper.

Toronto, June 6, 1850. My dear Mr. Merritt-It would have been a should have taken particular satisfaction in availpresented of saying something which bught to be said in justice to you, on this interesting occa- mittee was appointed to confer with the com-

It was in 1823, I believe that you made your | Houses. first move, which resulted in procuring Mr. H | A message was received from the House of Sibbett's first survey, and his assurance that a Assembly, bringing up a bill which had been for something like £10,00

In the next session of the Legislature, 1842 lowed to undertake the work, with the necessary read a second time to-morrowt powers and facilities commonly granted in A second message was also received stating such cases. I had not long before returned that they had concurred in the amendments made for their reception, and their sincere regret from England, and nor had before, and heard lit. which had been made in the Legislative tle said of your sheme; but when you began to, Council, to the bill to prevent unnecessary push it into the Legislature, with an ardour that multiplication of La v Suites, on Actions, on never abated for 15 years -- if it has cooled yet - Bills of Exchange, Bonds, &c.; and they had I found many regarded you as a wild visonary passed a bill for rendering a written memoran-"Mr. Merritt presents his compliments to the whose judgment it would be unsafe to trust, and dum necessary for the validity of certain visit to the city of Buffalo, and deeply regrets that You may look back to many anxious struggles Price's resolutions were referred till Tuesday amends for the deprivation of our supper, we circumstances which were entirely unforescen in the beginning of the work, in which some next. began to think of retiring. Of course my and irremidable at the moment, should have pre- who will now be with you bore a part. How hard vented His Excellency and other Canadian visi- a battle was to be fought before a loan of £25, the Bill regulating Assessment in Upper Cators from meeting the Hon, the Mayor and Coun. | 600 could be obtained from the province under tocounts of the preparations for the reception of cil of Buffalo, at the period indicated for their ar- lora to secur ty for repayment. If it were propose-His Excellency the Governor General and the lival. But, Mr. Merritt assures His Honor, that ed now to close the canal, unless the province this kind and friendly demonstration towards the | would contribute £25,000 a year, to keep it open | I think we can tell some ancedutes of early ob-> land Canal before ones eyes are amusing. You know that I had for some years, when the difficulties were greatest, ample means of judgi of everything connected with the work, and of Musical Association, at the Theatre Royal, your position in respect to it and I must repeat on Tuesday evening last, elicited much aphere what I have often remarked, that while all plause. just and reasonable, so as far as you can aid them dience, and the Programme of the evening you were always in a position to carry into effect furnished a rich treat to the lovers of true the final decision of the directors, without being harmony. The gentlemen who compose the decabarrassed by pledges, or understandings, and Society are not only professional, in the ordiwithout being exposed to reproaches of violated nary acception of the term, but, by careful promises. When those who are to pass through cultivation of the art, and a long devotion to their return, they cannot fail to consider, while they see the foam and hear the thunder of the cataract

Can there be printed out on the globe an in- and popular. stance where a more valuable result bas been ob-exceedingly gratified, if in the course of your pro- effect .- Montreal Pilot. readings, any fit occasion should present itself, can manage to read a handwriting, bad at the a long time, traded between Chippawa, in best fand worse now than usual from the haste Canada, and Buffalo, and which, last fall, was in which I am unavoidaby writing to you, this, seized by an American Custom House Ofas my slender contribution to the sayings and ficer, as forfeited to the United States, for the

My Dear Sir. Yours very sincerely J. B. ROBINSON

FISHER'S NEW YORK MINSTREIS lineators of Negro character, gave their first very superior to the ordinary class of Negro of a Box ticket. Those gentlemanly Artists or less certificates from real or imaginary indivi-

TOWN COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS. a brilliant culogium on the common law of Eng- ing of the Town Council took place, to take WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, up the unfinished business, when the Superin- I am happy to say that I am almost free from the say, that he wished some of their bastard lawyers tendant's Report on Common Schools was ta- above troublesome disease had been there to hear his friends speech—those ken up, and it was decided to memorialize the of my fellow beings from that most troublesome Hon John Ross spoke in reply, referring to the Government on the subject. The bill regu- and painful disease, [Bronchitis] I shall be fully certain work done shall be paid.

cil it adjourned till next Monday week.

responsibility, by speaking not only in his own cannot be repeated too often the strong sense of dark eyes and dark hair, with a correspon- For sale by E. W. Palmer, Market Square, name but also in the name of the two Houses of obligation which every member of the party felt ding complexion, gentlemanly in this deports and by Chas. Brent, Princers Street, Kingston, plexion, the color of her hair, and eyes, what is her pecuniary condition, and whether possessed of a good scholastic education."

Provincial Parliament.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Monday, 10th June.

Tuesday, 11th June.

Several petitions were presented. A comsinn; and which no one could say "with a better mittee which had been appointed by the means of information, or with a firmer conviction | House of Assembly, for the purpose of establishing a joint Library between the two > passed by that House, to survey the shoals on the North, shore of the River St. Lawrence and the bill amending the Montreal Registry Act. Both read a first time and ordered to be written engagements. The latter past the

The House then adjourned.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY:

TUESDAY, June 11th.

The House was engaged last night in matters of little immediate importance. Mr.

nada. A debate ensued, after which the motion was carried without a division, and the bill referred to a committee of the whole on Tuesday next.

The House then adjourned.

THE GERMANIA MUSICAL SOCIETY. The performance of this accomplished

those employed up in the canal looked to you with The Theatre was well filled with an atconfidence for protection and support in all things tractive, and, we feel assured, gratified aulits higher excellencies and refinements, have acquired that celebrity which has rendered how fremendous an obstacle has been overcome. their performances so universally attractive

It would be a difficult and perhaps delicate tained by an equal expenditure? I think not .- | task to single out the individual efforts of Every year I know, convinces me more and more the several performers of the evening. The of the importance of this Canal-and the reflec- | Fantasia with variations, so admirably exetion has often occurred to me how inadequate a cuted by Mr. Schultze, the able leader, was, notion I had really formed of its immense impor- with the " Sounds from Home," we think, tance to Canada, even while I was cordially do the gems of the evening. The Overtures were over most of those accidental efforts which we You will I know derive much pleasure from have witnessed in those associations, which the scenes you are about to witness, and I shall be time and chance produce only for temporary doin s at the opening of your last great improve- smuggling through her by a young man employed on board as a bar-keeper, by the lessees of her Saloon, of two small pieces of cloth, of the value of from six to eight dollars, subject to an ad valorem duty of twenty per cent, was brought before the United States Courts and was finally decided in Rochester on the 23rd inst.; and a verdict rendered asel did not violate the Act of Congress on which the seizure was founded .- Kent Ad-

> SEPARATION IN HIGH LIFE .- We regret to state that a separation has taken place, under > > Remedy for Bronchitis.

Mr. Soth W. Fewle. Dear Sir :- There are so many quack medicines at the present time, and cach one has more properties of giving any testimony in favour of your medicine. But being assured that I have been benifited by its use, and feeling satisfied that cal qualities. I may, perhaps, he the means of . saving some one similarly afflicted, I therefore cheerfully add my testimony in favour of the medicines that I know has done me great good. have been afflicted with the Bronchitis for a num-On Wednesday evening an adjourned meet- ber of years, and by the use of a couple of bottles of

B. COVERT, Vocalist, Firm of Covert & Dodge,

We take pleasure in transferring the above certificate of Mr. Covert, in favor of the curative properties of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, to our colums. Mr. Covert fof the firm of Covert & [Dodge, vocalists] have been long and favorably known in this city and vicinity as a vocalist of This being all the business before the Coun- rare attainment. We have watched with painful anxiety his declining health from the disease of which he speaks and have almost dispared of