"My Dear Sir :" "I received by mail, a letter from Lord Elgin in which he expresses his very great reget that he had been d sappointed in visiting Buffalo, on the occasion of an excursion he lately made to Niagara with the members of the Canadian Legislature, by various detentions they experienced in passing through the canals. He tells me that preparations had been made by the citizens of Buffalo for the reception o himself and his party, out that unfortunately, night overtook them before they reached Lake Erie, and the intended visit had to be given up. He is auxious that an should be awa e of the sense entertained y hinself and his companions, of the kind techng evinced on the occasion by the citizens of Buffalo, and how much they regretted having been prevented by circumstances bevond their control, of availing themselves of he hospitality so handsomely proffered to hem. If you have occasion to write to any of your friends in America, perhaps you would have the goodness to express the satisfaction with which I have received an account if so striking a display of the amicable feelings which prevailed between the United States and the British Dominions. I have the honor to be, very faithfully.
