FRIDAY MORNING, AUG., 16, 1850.

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR.

BROCKVILLE, August 13, 1850. travagance of vulgarity. But my dear Whig, we'll let these things slide--you and I are growing too old to bother ourselves with dress. Still it annoys me.

With all due deference to the worthy steamboat proprietors, it is high time the Canada was taken off the Line, and replaced by some newer and swifter vessel. While the Mail Contractor has two fast boats lying idle, and the owners of the Canada have a new vessel ready for work, it seems odd, that this old steamer is continued. To see the contemptuons sneers which the American ladies and gentlemen's countenances expressed, while viewing the boat all around, would have donemore good, bad they been seen by the owners, than all I could write for a month.
