To give to our Jemima. And there they had a swampin gun, On a highty little curt. A load for father's cattle.

And every time they fired it off. It took a horn of powder, It made a noise like father's gun, Only a nation louder.

As Biah's underpinnin But father went as nigh agin, I thought the dence was in him. laptain Davis had a gun He kind o' clapt his hand on't.

I went as near to it myself

And stuck a crooked stabbin iron L'pon the little end on't. Consin Simon grew so bold, I thought he would a cockt it, t scared me so that I sneak'd off, And clung to father's pecket.

And there I see a pumkin shell, As big as mother's basin, And every time they touched it off They scampered like the nation,

And there I see a barrel too. Its heads were made of leather; They thumpt upon't with little clubs To call the folks together.

And there they'd fife away like fun, And play on corn-stalk fiddles And some had ribbons red as blood, All wound about their middles. The troopers, too would gallop up,

It seared me almost half to death, To see'em run such races. Old uncle Sam come there to change Some pancakes and some onions For lasses cakes to carry home
