What it was then it remains to-day-without a rival in size, in sumptuouspess, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guest including 100 complete suites of apartment for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nething that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details.
