Financial Secretary... PEALE'S COURT OF DEATER-We call attention to the advertisement of the Enother column. If what the Press say of is only half true, it is the cheapest and most desirable work of art ever introduced to the publicat The N. Y. Observer, a religious paper, after an elaborate description of it says: 'Such is a brief outline description of this great work. To appreciate it fully it must be studied in detail, and the train of thought which is suggested followed out. No printed description can fully realize the conception of the Artist, or come up to the requirements of the imagination in its MISCELLANEOUS ANOTHER BALLOON FAILURE. - We learn from the Watertown Nosthern Journal that Mr. Keenan, the ambitious would be mronaut made an attempt to rise to the upper regions of air in his balloon, called for the time when here the 'Prince of Wales, from Brownville, the village which has the honor to acknowledge him as a resident. The ascension was to have been one day last week, but the balleon seems to have been too heavy, or the gas too light, or the air was not dense enough, or something else was the matter. The machine utterly refused to take to the clouds with a man in it But the people were bound to receive as fully the worth of their money as lay in Mr. keenan's power, and so he let the balleon go on its awn hook, regardless of consequence. Our centemporary says the balloon arose to a fine height, then moved ma-

The fate of the balloon was not ascertained at last accounts, but the probability is it came down in Oneida County. A navigable Balloon, called the 'Flying Fish, has been exhibited in Paris, at the Exhibition Palace, and was lately taken to the Emperer. His Majesty, leading the Prince Imperial by the hand, inspected the apparatus, and the Empress examined it from one of the windows. The balloon, which is somewhat in the form of a whale, is provided with paddle-wheels worked by a small engine, and made to act in any direction by means of a rudder placed at one of the extremities. The whole was kept We three are the first of the Irish Bri- captive at a height of some yards, and ex-
