MRS. WINSLOW,

tion of teething by softening the gums, re- | stood up, and requested me to give my opin all | ion on the subject of the resulcation.

educed as infallible, none has ever given for two years to inform myself concerning port will dress ship and salute His Royal Review of the Troops and Volunteers. the satisfaction of gained the popularity | the teaching of the University, and I cannot | Highness' Standard with 21 gons. that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative now [approve of it. I think it dangerous to the | 2. On Her Majesty's ship Hero coming has. His Restorative has passed the ordeal young men educated there, more particu- to moorings off the Dockyard, Her Majes- of innumerable fashionable toilets, and the larly if they are educated for the ministry. ty's ships in port will man yards and greet ladies, wherever they have tested it, pro- I could not comply with the request con- His Royal Highness with three cheers. * mounce it a peerless article They find, tained in the resolution, for I should thereby 3. On His Royal Highness leaving Her tern End of the Horticaltural Gardens, Ford sustained only trifling injury, but the where the hair is thinned, that it creates a encourage parties to send their sons to the Majesty's ship Hero in the berge for the thence to the Common. fresh growth—that it fully restores the vegetative power of the roots on the denuded places, and causes the fibres to shoot forth
Nor do I see any prospect of effecting a ned, and the crews will cheer His Royal anew-that it dissolves and removes dan- change in the teaching of the University, Highness on passing, and a general royal fruff, prevents grayness, restores the hair as by a recent statute the Chancellor is in- salute will be fired. to its original color when grayness has ac- terposed between the Professors and the 4. On His Royal Highness reaching the tually supervened, gives a rich fustre, im- Corporation, and power is given to suppress | landings steps in the Dockyard, he will be parts the softness and flexibility of silk to any complaint against a Provost or Profest received by the Naval Commander-inthe hair, and keeps it always luxuriant, sor, even if preferred by all the Bishops in | Chief, Naval Officers, and other Naval aubealthy and in full vigor. -[N.Y. Tribune. the Corporation.' What I intend to say in | thorities.

choapest article for dressing, beautifying, graph of the extra. the hair. Ladies, try it. Sold by all Drug- Toronto to me, written in April last, when here received by His Excellency the Govgusta & Perfumers.

The Daity British Whig. ship called the wiser and more honourable 6. From the landing place at the Dock-

"Opifer per Orbem Dicor."

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 30, 1860.

THE DIOCESE OF HURON.

this document in the same order in which | teaching of the Trinity College, | believe | whence a view of the landing or procession they are discussed in the extra. I am that my appearance to sanction it, would be may be obtained. sorry that I am thus placed under the ne- a positive evil, and would expose me to the constitute and side of the wharf east condemnation, which the Apostle says is of the landing place. but no other course remains to me; justice | respondence from which I have quoted, took | those who are to form in the procession. to myself and a regard for the interests of place in April last. From the above ex- 3. In the rear of the Guard of Honor.

of the extra, the following statement of ward a charge against the teachings of the Dockyard gate. what really did occur previous to, and at University, yet I made the charge in the 5. The Observatory Hill in the Dockthe meeting of the 24th February, 1859, most solemn form in which I could put it to vard.

Coffege a circular, informing me that a meeting of the Corporation would be held on the 24th of Feb., at which important measures would be brought forward; but transmitted to me, and I had no intimation lancholy picture of a house divided against Dockyard until the procession has passed loss is vastly greater; Mr. Neville is in the main gate—for unless he receives supwhat these measures were. I had never itself." the morning of the 24th February, being | sion to the opinion which I had formed of occur. what the business was. He showed me a | ident of that institution. aper, on which were some recolutions; but the statute which was afterwards pass- | Corporation of Trinity College to have aped at the meeting, was not one of them. I | plied to me to state what was the teaching sett to the College; I saw the Bishop of | much more wise and honorable course, Toronto only for a few minutes that morn- | when the charge was thus made to the ing, and when the statute referred to in the | head of the institution, to have enquired extra was read by the Provost, I objected to | into it than to wait in silence until I had it, and it will be remembered by the gen- preferred the same charge, in compliance tlemen who were present, that what I ob- | with a request made to me by a member jected to was that when a requisition for of the Synod, and to publish a docume. the removal of the Provest or Professor | occupied in the discussion of a comparawas signed by five members of the Cor- | tively unimportant statute, and calculated porution, and placed in the hands of the to divert public attention from the impor-Chancellor, the option was left to him | tant subject, namely, the dangerous teachof bringing the complaint before the Cor- ing of Trinity College. oration or not, as he thought fit. 1 I do not hold myself responsible to any urged that when a requisition thus sign- for the opinions which I entertain. But, as I was presented to the Chancellor, it | have in the present instance when appealould be imperative on him to bring it be- | ed to by a member of my Synod, expressed ore the governing body. I even suggest- my opinion of Trinity College, I am preed that the number of signatures necessary | pared to submit the grounds upon which to the requisition should be increased to have formed that opinion to any of my Government House. ten ; but that the Chancellor ought not to | clergy, or of the laity of my diocese who aced in his hands. I have not, there- | ready to impart to those for whose satisface, misstated the effect of these statutes, | tion and guidance the opinion was expresas is asserted; but the writer of the extra | soci, to which I have objected. All the mem- possession a manuscript known to Trinity ers of the Corporation then present united | College by the name of the 'Provost's Catein the desire to mas the statute, and after chism;' it consists of 741 questions with antaking my objections I seessed to oppose. sweets. It is placed in the hands of every but under the circumstances, all are expected to learn it. Independ do not think it advisable to do so. I was lof the fact, that such a mode of dealing with yer assisted the institution in any way, chism dangerous in the highest degree; the was sarrounded by gentlemen who had views put forth are unsound and un-Protestontributed to the funds of the Uni- ant. The explanations of Scripture are one-They, together with the Bishop of | sided; the whole thing is esculated to inwho had done so much, and la- | doctrine the youths educated at the institu ong and so energetically to es- | tion with the views of the author of f the tablish Triulty Corlege, were desirous that | Catechism,' and to prepare them to propathe statute should pass; I therefore did not gate them amongst the members of our comto veto their wish concerning this | tution which adopts such an expedient l Had I done so, I fear the epithets | cannot regard as anfe. The minds of young

Trinity College, moved its adoption, and was HIS RECEPTION AT HALIFAX

(From the Haldas Sun, July 18.)

ADMENAL'S PROGRAMME. The Naval Commander-in-Chief begs my wish to give an opinion by halves on so Majesty's service :-- important a subject. I cannot agree with !

this letter concerning this statement will be 5. On His Royal Highness stepping on contained in the remarks which I am about the soil of Nova Scotia, His Royal High-BARRY's TRICOPHEROUS is the best and to make on the contents of the last para- | ness' Standard will be hoisted in the Dock-| yard, and will be saluted by all Her Ma- | be given. leanning, curling, preserving and restoring A passage from a letter of the Bishop of jesty's ships; His Royal Highness will be Trinity College, is quoted, and it is added, manding-in-Chief, the Mayor and Corpora-. That my refused to adopt what his Lord- tion, and other public authorities.

course, was based on this ground, that I yard His Royal Highwas will proceed i could not expect to effect a change in the procession to Government House. teaching of the University." I never stated 7. On the evening of His Royal Highany such ground for my refusal. To prove ness' armval, or on such other evenings as this I have only to quote the passage from may be selected for the general illumina-TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF my letter in which I replied to the Bishop | tion, H. M. ships will be illuminated at a of Toronto. The passage is as follows: - fixe! hour, of which due notice will be

· You say that in early life you adopt the given. rule, never, if possible, to allow an oppor- The Naval Commander-in-Chief has en-A document, emanating from the Cor- tunity of doing good to pass unimproved; deavored in so far as the limited space of wation of Trinity College, Toronto, has all who are acquainted with the history of his command will admit, to afford accompeared in the extra of the Ecclesiastical your life will acknowledge that few men modation on raised platforms for the memagette, and has been circulated amongst have more fully acted upon this rule. But bers of the Government, the Legislature of the Clergy and Laity of this Diocese. This there is another rule, having Divine sanc- the Province, the Mayor and Corporation, ment contains so many mis-statements | tion, which I feel assured you will desire | and others holding public appointments, for neerning matters in which I am concern- to observe, and which must regulate my the purpose of witnessing the interesting that I feel myself called upon to ad- conduct towards Trinity College; it is, event of His Royal Highness's landing dress you, and to state the circumstances 'Abstain from all appearance of evil.' I this Province. In addition to the raised therein referred to, as they really did occur. feel that I am bound to act up to this rule, platform, as much space as possible will I shall treat the subjects mentioned in and as I cannot in my soul approve of the be set apart for the use of the public from the escape.

Mitty as the Corporation of Trinity College, do evil that good may come." The corporation of Trinity College, do evil that good may come." The cor-tract it will be seen that though I did not, 4. Two spaces in the centre of the Dock-With reference to the fourth paragraph in my place in the Corporation, bring for- yard on each side of the road from the esirous to know what the important busi- Trinity College, had I not, previously, in On His Royal Highness leaving Halifax, to diminish his loss. The fire company was presented a most magnificent pano- play the match, but let that pass!

Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief. In my opinion this was the time for the P.S .- Any information which may be required will be readily afforded at the Naval accompanied not the Bishop, but Mr. Gras- to which I objected. It would have been a Commander-in-Chief's office in the Dockyard, any day before 12 o'clock.

MAJOR-GENERAL'R PROGRAMME.

His Royal Highness.

have the power of refusing to bring the re- may desire it. I am in possession of ample yard to Government House by H.M. forces, both of the scamps have been caught before before the Corporation when thus information apon the subject, which I am in conjunction with the Volunteer Compa- this. - (Brock ville Monitor, nies and the various Societies

THE EXECUTIVE MANAGING COMMITT'S

PROGRAMME. have pronounced my vote on the student entering the University, and Royal Highnes the Prince of Wales on stated, that on the day of the murder, the at this city. board, being signatifed, the squadron will 17th of April la t, he was on a visit to one be met by the Yacht Club, and accompa- of his cousins at St. Eugene, East Hawkes-order of their semiority, as follows, viz :

The North British and Highland Socie-

The Charitable Irish Society. The St. George's Society. The Carpenters' Chantable Society. The African Society.

On the morning of the following (being Woon's Hats Responsive.—Among all ated sulogium which he has pronounced on ro, Arisdus and Flying Fish, arriving at miral, with other distinguished persons, roofs of the two houses just mentioned and Captain Stevenson - I Montreal Pilot. repurations for the hair that have been in- Trinity College. I have taken every pains (iverge's Island, Her Majesty's ships in will proceed to the Common to a Grand all the outbuildings were completely des-the corner of the old Burying Ground, Western to the extent of £400 on each thence by Spring Garden Road to the Wes- | house. The dwelling occupied by Captain Fire-works on the Common, and a is unknown .- [Globe.

Grand Ball will be given in the Province Building of which a seperate notice will be ! His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will hold a Levee, of which due notice will will trust to the good feeling of the public | give to the inhabitants of Kingston a lucid 6ms-1-62 | we had a correspondence on the subject of ernor and Staff, the Major-General Com- to co-operate with them in carrying out the second on your good city, arrive at the ancient capital. foregoing Programme, and in strictly pre- on Wednesday last, in the balloon Europa. serving the order of arrangement, and parfiticularly request that the spectators will reprocession, as any interruption will militate against the general harmony which all parties are interested in maintaining.

> Secretary. Halifax, July 18, 1860.

ACCIDENTS AND OFFENCES.

P. CARTERET HILL,

or horse stealing, scaled the jail-yard wall, about hulf-past six o'cleck, and made his escape into the fields behind the town, rested. The Counties' Conneil neglect to make the wall properly secure and hence of some unknown person. fire last Saturday afternoon. The flames

tively,--fGalt Reporter.

adel and George's Island on the landing of Jearned that the regues were subsequently pearance, and I commenced gradually to are more in the habit of giving than taking rate in the Queen's name, that supendon in Perth; or, at least one of them, who, on attempting to pass a had bill, similar to His Royal Highness will be received by attempting to pass a bad bill, similar to Guards of Honor furnished from the 62nd | those circulated in Brockville, was detected farm of Mr. Charles R. Boothe, Township | Club will play eleven of the Kingston Club, foundation-stone of the breakwater for the and 23rd regiments, at H.M. Deckyard and in the act, but managed to fly before he of Orleans, Jefferson Co., distant 40 miles in September next, for £100, provided they barbor of Cape Town. What vast considercould be arrested. A constable was sent from Kingston. After my descent, I was do not import men from Toronto and Belle- ations, as regards our country, are brought to The streets will be lined from the Dock- after him in hot pursuit. We hope one or assisted by the jovial farmers, who, in a lary in the Garrison for support.

Highness, a Review of H.M. Troops and the McNulty, in the State of Massachusetts, town called Plesset, where I remained all has kept out of siew that provision of them | Amongst other documents I have in my | Volunteers will take place on the Common. and his extradition to Canada, under the finding of the Coroner's Jury who investi- night; from thence I next morning repairgated the case. McNuity, in the usual ed to Alexandria Bay, where I secured course, underwent an examination before passage on board the steamer "Bay State," On Her Majesty's ship Here, with His Mr. Coursel, Superintendent of Police, and arrived at 1 o'clock on Friday morning then for the first time, at a meeting of the men is unheard of in any University at nied by them to the Dockyard.

Corporation of Trinity College. I had home, I consider the teaching of this Cateyard gate by the various Societies in the Montreal, and slept on the same night at present to the public a minute detail of one order of their semiority, as follows, viz:

St. Andrews, at the house of one William The Union Engine and Aze Fire Com- Corrigan, and left on the following day, of the most interesting ascensions I have 18th April, and proceeded to Muntreal, ever made during my eleven years experi- $1,075,000 in specie. where he arrived on the 20th. Mr. Conrect ence. To the people of Kingston, I return very properly deemed it his duty to investigate the truth of this statement, and, with his usual promptitude, proceeded with Mr. | confidence I am sure they will never deny A. M. Leftiste to Hawkesbury and St. An- | me, so long as I am able to act worthy of it. | ing. drows, where he ascertained beyond any doubt or question that McNulty had told | Kingston, July 28, 1860.

troyed. The houses were owned by Mr. The following will be the route taken | W. R. Harris, merchant, King-street. The by His Royal Highoese, namely-from damage done to them will amount to about Government House by Barrington Street to $1,000. He is, however, insured in the i furniture was all removed as at one time the After the Review, public sports will take | house seemed to be in great danger. place on the Common, under the super- addition to the loss sustained by breakage in removal, Mr. Watson and Mr. Rodden A Regatta under the management of the lost nearly all the familiare in the third of the Yacht Club, will also take place on | stories of the houses which they occupied. They are both fully insured in the Royal The Prince of Wales-Attendance In the evening there will be a display Insurance Company. The origin of the fire

MR. STEINER.

[To the Editor of " The British Whig "] DEAR SIR,-It will, no doubt, be expect-The Executive Managing Committee ed by your numerous readers, that I should

The unpropitious state of the weather, as frain from pressing upon the lines of the you are aware, caused not less than three Royal Highness. days disappointment; but on the fourth day, I succeeded in making good the pledge haif given to the public. I left the Tete du Pont Barracks at 5.45 p.m. by my watch, with the wind S. S. W., and in ten minutes I attained an elevation of about 4000 feet; and still ascending, I now east my eyes about me in order to obtain a view of the containing rather severe strictures on the them developed a state of feeting among BROKE Jath .- On last Thursday morn- surrounding secucity, and here a sight met British Whig, for the favorable notice given leading members of the House which will ing, a Lower Canadian, in Brockville Jail, the view, splendid beyond anything I have to the performance of the Hibernian Cricket not soon die away. Lord John Russell ever experienced. To the north spread out on Tuesday last. I regret that One of the resolutions. Mr. Gladstone, with the a boundless country, studded with thous- Kingston Eleven' should have been so ex- polished sarcasse of which he is so great a where he managed to conceal himself .- ands of small lakes, which, at the hour re- ercised by the remarks of the Whig as to master, taunted the Tmy section of the We are not aware that he has been re-ar- ferred to, looked like as many sheets of permit his temper to get the better of his House, who exulted over their success in ferred to, looked like as many sheets of judgement. His letter is exceedingly in- Committee, with want of courage in not discreet and not at all creditable to him, coming out boldly and opposing even the magic, the dark majestic forcets. To the either as a gentleman or a true cricketer; muld censure which the resolution passed THE WINDSON MUNDER CASE. - The per- east, stretched, as far as the eye could reach, the object of the writer evidently being to upon the Lords. son taken in custody, has been released, the mighty.St. Lawrence, studded by count- cost ungenerous reflections upon a young and the verdict of the Jury to the effect that less islands, each standing out in beautiful pen to be Irish I or perhaps the writer had powerfully with the people than the arisforth by a body of such high respecta- the just portion of those who say, Let us 2. On the Careening Wharf, except the killed by the shot from a pistol, in the hand relief, as if a monument of unknown an another object in view,—to explain away tocratic element in Parliament, showed that tiquity. I have frequently heard a doub! the shameful and disgraceful defeat of the resolutions were weak and spiritless. The village of Morriston, in the Town- cast on the authenticity of the number of Kingston Eleven in the recent match with and did not maintain the rights of the Comship of Puslimeh, was nearly destroyed by these islands. The Thousand Islands are, the Montrealers. were first observed in the rear of the store- in this country, a household word; yet, few generally at provided and sustained the King- in her history, etrenously contended, house belonging to Mr. Morrison, and they can realize the fact. Verily, I believe, ston Club for a number of years past should But the debates in Parliament gave scarcely soon enveloped the whole of that building however, that there are at least two thous- be displeased at the result of the late match any indication of the violent division of opinin destruction; thence they took their way and of those Addison paradises; and were the meeting of the 24th February, 1808, and the President of the Corporation, and as I the President of the Corporation, and as I the President of the Corporation, and as I to the Morriston Hotel, and to Mr. McKen-placards marked Public. The Naval Commander-in-Chief will be atore, all of which were consumed, and their effect and panoramic grandeur, I to the Morriston Hotel, and to Mr. McKen-placards marked Public. The Naval Commander-in-Chief will be atore, all of which were consumed, and their effect and panoramic grandeur, I received from the Bursar of Trinity as to what opinion I might entertain of the much obliged to those who may visit the some children in Mr. McKenzie's were should feel not only my pen, but my powers their own ground; the victory obtained prevailed. It was urged that a break up of the > very short time, gathered around me from THE ST. ATHANASE MURDER. -- We men- all parts of the country; and after securing On the day after the arrival of His Royal Liuned a few days ago the arrest of John my balloon, I had it conveyed to a little

At this hour it is impossible for me to the second) day, His Royal Highness, ac- removing their furniture, but as usual a Royal Highness was made by our French

J. H. STEINER. I am, &c.,

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE, L. C .-- At a fall, the Previncial Agricultural Exhibition, which was advertised to take place on the 17th of August. At the same meeting it was decided to hold on Exhibition for Agricultural Implements, held and dairy produce, in one of the Departments. of the Exhibition Building during the Prinof Members.

honor the Speaker, to request the attendance of members of the Legislative Assem- | ed this action as an encreachment upon bly at Quebec, on the 18th day of August their privileges. proximo, on which day it is expected His A Committee of the Commons was ap-Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will gointed to consider, and report the proper ers that both Hosses of Parliament are to were in favor of taking a decident stand present congratulatory addresses to His

Cricket-The Hibernian Club and

The Kingston Cicket Club-(To the Editor of the British Whig.) Sin,-My attention has been called this morning to a communication in your paper, signed, One of the Kingston Eleven, was almost nuanimous, the debute upon

That the people of Kingston who have greatest statesman bad, at different periods is quite natural, and many of whom now | ion in the Palmerston Cabinet. At one time believe that the leading men of the King- It was feared that Mr. Gladston and Lord John ston Eleven showed the white feather, Russel would secode from it-a step equivaand were afraid to meet the Montrealers on | lent to breaking it up. But calmer counsels no report of resolutions of committees was than by a public protest to exhibit the me- that no person will leave their places or the Mutual, and $300 on his furniture, but has been given that the strife what these measures were. I had never attended any meetings at Trinity College I should not even, when called upon by port and assistance from those who are preup to that time. I went to Toronto, and on a member of my Synothave given expression and disappointment might pathies of his neighbors are aroused, and on them, coloring the picture to a degree their way to Montreal, and were rather nerthey are raising a handsome subscription beyond description. To the southward vous, when they went on the ground to ness was which was to be brought before the meeting, I inquired of the Rev. H.J. Grassett what the business was. He showed me a lident of that institution.

The Liverpool Times says that as he has a nost magnificent panolistic pano BEWARE OF FORGED BILLS .- During the little towns and villages ; Oswego, Og- in Bombastes Furioso style, challenges the 'settlement in life,' there is wisdom in his efpast week two strangers succeeded in passing several bad Four Dollar bilts on the good judge will at once detect the counter-Bity Bank of Montreal in this town. A ing distinctly visible. The atmosphere be- Club for any amount the Hibermans can The younger members of the Reyal Family feit. The paper is coarse and thick, and ing almost perfectly clear, I could see ob- raise.' Now, Sir, I am a lover of the game are rapidly growing up; the Princess Royal the Engraving of the vignette very poorly jects at a distance of 60 or even 100 miles, of Cricket, and have been one of a good team has already become the founder of a new On H.M.S. Here, with His Royal Highness the prince of Wales on board, being signalled, three guns will be fired in quick instead of Workman. The men remained succession from the Citadel, and the Union in the town for the best part of the day, and nery. My course was due east, and I tra- that there are two or three 'professionals' plete at the sister University. Cambridge. Jack will be hoisted on the Staff on which operated chiefly in the small greceries on veled at the rate of thirty-five miles an in the Kingston Club, who would like that (cheers); while his younger brother has, by the Mail Signal was usually displayed, as the back streets. They left in the evening hour. I left the course of the St. Lawrence President of the Club would sanction the ing as a midshipman, and serves zealously as on horseback, and passed into the back. a notice of the approach of the Prince.
Bity Bank of Montreal in this town. A

As the Hero passes up the Harbor, each Battery will fire a Royal Salute.

Salutes will again be fired from the Cit
Since the above was written, we have the landscape presented a more fertile ap
On horseback, and passed into the back at French Creek, and after passing over a proceeding. However, the Hibernians thickly wooded country for some ten miles, to enter the lasts in any manly sport—they be a few weeks hence, though almost at the opto enter the lasts in any manly sport—they be a curione to enter the lasts in any manly sport—they a few weeks hence, though almost at the opto enter the lasts in any manly sport—they be a curione to enter the lasts in any manly sport—they a few weeks hence, though almost at the opto enter the lasts in any manly sport—they are the last in the fleet. (Cheers.) It will be a curione the country for some ten miles, the country are the last in the fleet. ville for the occasion, or lean on the milli- our minds in this simple fact! What present

In the meautime, I would most respectfully suggest that, in the event of the the part given to the Royal family of England Kingston Cricket Clab desiring to make this match, that they do not ' pass round the hat' among the generous citizens of Kingston, as they have been in the habit of a | doing for several years past.

Yours, &c., A FRIEND OF THE HIBERNIAN CLUB. Kingston, July 28th, 1860.

New York, July 28. The steamship City of Bultimore sailed the purpose of taking soundings on the profrom here to-day for Liverpool, with 196 jected route of the North Atlantic Telegraph passengers and $520,000 in specie.

The Vanderbilt also sailed for Southampton. She took out 223 passengers and of July for the same destination.

Halifax, July 28. There are more visitors in town than was expected. The City is already overflow-

THE GALLANT GREENS.

Nothing like sarcasm to fetch out facts. casion of the Prince's wise, the gallant meeting of the delegates of the Board of Major having received orders from Head Agriculture held in the Board Rooms yes- | Quarters to turn out his Company and act terday, it was decided to postpone until the | as a Guand of Honor to his Royal Highness.

A MINISTERIAL CRISIS IN ENGLAND.

almost silent regarding the danger which threatened the Palmerston Mississy, it is a fact that it came near being diarupted upon the question of the rights and privileges of the House of Commens, in the matter impesing, reducing or abeliahing tames. is already known that the Commons passed We understand it is the intention of his a bill in which was included a provision abolishing the duty on paper. The Lords threw out this bill, and the Commons resent-action be be taken. The laberal members of the Committee, including Mr. Bright, against the action of the Lords, but after much discussion, the Committee was nearly equally divided, and Sir James Graham having the casting vote, gave if against the strong resolutions of the liberal section and in favor of the milk-and-water resolution subsequently reported to the House by Lord Palmerston, and adopted by large majori-

But though the vote on the resolutions mone of England for which some of her

SPEAKING FOR HIS CHILDREN, Some of the Eaglish journals are poking fun at the Prince Consort, on account of his recent 'puffing, at a public bunquet, of the Royal Family.

wishes it, the eleven of the Hibernian in Canada, while Prince Alfred will lay the hopes! And how important and beneficient i to act in the development of those distant and rising countries, who recognize in the British Crown, and their allegiance to it, their suprembond of union with the mother country and

> Of course the Prince's modesty would not permit him to allude to the great obligations under which he himself has laid the people of

> The British steamer Bulldon had sailed for Cable. The late Arctic cruiser Fox was expected to leave Southampton about the middle

TORONTO MARKETS.

Flour. There is very little movement flour, and the market is very dull, with light stocks. Superfine may be quoted at $5.20 No important incident has occurred, ex: 5.25 a sale of 200 barrels having been report cept the notification that the Prince will ed yesterday at the latter figure. Fancy is of-