ago. As in most cases gray hairs and bald here, and when it was ascertained this heads are both premature and unnatural, it is a duty to remedy them by the natural | morning that there was to be no landing) and undoubted means which Prof. Wood and no levee, the Moderator intimated the has invented, and now kindly offers to the presence of the deputation in a letter to the Sold by all respectable druggists.

"Oplfer per Orbem Dicor."

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 8, 1860.

PRINCE OF WALES.

Kingston Doings-OPERATIONS OF THE PHYSIOGNOSCOSPOGRA-The advent of the Prince to Canada has been the means of resuscitating an 'justi- of so distinguished a visitor, as adding antotion of our city, for which in times past the place was duly celebrated. The most Ancient Order of Anteduluvian Physiogs (so their phraseology runs) is an organization said to have had its origin in Normandrous that the place was duly celebrated. The most Ancient Order of Anteduluvian Physiogs (so their phraseology runs) is an organization said to have had its origin in Normandrous the Norman French softers of the Norman French soften in the Standing and their descendants in municated to you by His Excellency, and the Norman French soften data in the U.E. Loyalized and their descendants in municated to you by His Excellency, and the Norman French soften and affection which already bind the North American Provinces so firmly to the William In the North American Provinces and their descendants in municated to you by His Excellency, and the North American Provinces and their Lower Canada. The old French system of charivaries is considered to have been the primitive source from which the customs of the negretary indications of a ret greater. primitive source from which the customs of the numerous indications of a yet greater the most Ancient Order were derived.—
Their regular busines is limited to occasions of mesalliances and the like, and the object of mesalliances and the like object of mesalliances and the vimed at is caricatures from and ridicule at | national advancement, true prosperity canthe expense of the unincky objects. On not be enjoyed by any people, it is our case other gentlemen who accompanied you on liles were removed at the expense of the this occasion, however, the ceremonial was as a branch of the church of Scotland, from board the steamboat, and fully explaining Imperial Government to this country, then an honorary one, viz., an installation. It which so large a portion of the population to you the motives which actuate my advice an unbroken wilderness, inhabited solely an nonorary one, viz., an instantation. It have come to this new land, and it shall be to the Prince, the objections I took to these by wild animals. Soon, however, by perwas mung that the Grown France of Grown france membership of a society which pride to Brother Noah, and with pride to Brother Noah, and whilst in our own sphere, doing our part to lation was determined on, and a procession was determined on a procession whilst in our own sphere, doing our part to propose a procession which the primary of the U.E. Loyalists and the remark of the primary of the U.E. Loyalists and the remark of the primary of the U.E. Loyalists and their descendants, the primary of the U.E. Loyalists and the remark of the unit of t in honor of the event was got up. When promote the spread of pure and undefiled fellow Citizens, Protestant and Roman and productive fields. We, the clergy, not until the arrival of the regular train from engaged in shaking hands with all who board to present an address, and therefore complied at their rendezvous, and sallied thereby take the surest means of cherishing of preventing the Prince from accept. darkness had fully set in the brethren asforth with torches and flambeaux, borne by demons. The Physiog Brass Band headed the cavalgade, the Ethiopian Harmonists, Tulean forging the bolts of Jove, sea monster, and Physiogs in every variety of the may finally call tyou to the inheritance of the may finally call tyou to the inheritance of the may finally call tyou to the inheritance of the transport of their antics, returning by Union street, and who serve the Lord shall be our earnest from displaying in the presence of a young parading the different streets of the city .-- prayer. Their appearance was beyond description, and seemed form of Christianity, symbols of religious like the start Lord Lyons came into Shortly after the start L and may be briefly disposed of as being a mixture of the infernal, Judicrous, and railmixture of the internal, fudicious, and raticulous, with a good share of fun. Although not "assisted" in by the Prince and his Trace stand, which as become attached to the car, and finding the atmosphere pleasant, requested Sheriff Ruttan to explain its modus operandi. This done, he constituted himself operandi. This done, he naturedly .- [News.

frew, Lord of the Isles, Great Steward of Scotland, &c., &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS. -We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common

clined to present an Address. The Regatta

4. Glance..... Or war

WORTH KNOWING .- Prof. Wood, whose | addresses. The Prince read the reply. The | testimonials almost without number, tesy as the Synod of the Church of Eng-Those who have been bald for years are deputation came to Kingston by special ar- enough. now wearing their own hair, and appear rangement between the Doke of Newcas-ten years younger than they did six mouths the and the Moderator, to present the ad-Read his advertisement, try his | Duke, who invited them to go on board.

Kingston, Sept. 5.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS, -The Synod of the Presbyterian Church son, Weyms, Yates. of Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland, beg to approach your Royal welcome on the occasion of your arrival in about 12 o'clock, noon, this day, which was the United Empire. this part of the dominions of our beloved | read. Sovereign the Queen. We hail with the most lively satisfaction the appearance Royal Family as the Heir-apparent to the Throne. Regarding, as we do, the presence

this Address on the Prince's landing at the Market Battery:

To His Royal Highness Albert Edward, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Prince of Wales, Duke of Saxony, Prince

This afternoon, the Heir to the British

THE ACTIVE FORCE.

ther, and it is our wish and desire that the connection now happily subsisting between the North American Colonies and the United Kingdom may be perpetual.

The visit of your Reyal Highness to Captage American Colonies and most useful addition to the Active Force and an avent unprecedented in the history of Wales this letter without an area of the property of the continue of the commonly well. Fraser's Band, attached the which has been prepared for him, assuredly incommonly well and the commonly well and the commonly well. Fraser's Band, attached the the commonly well. Fraser's Band, attached the which has been prepared for him, assuredly incommonly well. Fraser's Band, attached to commonly well. Fraser's Band, attached to the the commonly well. Fraser's Band, attached to commonly well. Fraser's Band, attached to commonly well. Fraser's Band, attached to the the commonly well and the continue the mand to attach the would with spirals of the world so start the well and the commonly well. Fraser's Band, attached to the the commonly well and the commonly well and the commonly well and the common with the world so start the well and the common with the world so start the well and the common with the world so start the well and the committed to the world so start the well and the common with the world so nada, an event unprecedented in the history of Aingston. During the two days, and disease, and hurried the several Troops and Companies were on expression of regret that the Corporation last night. Early this morning their dearly to about five thousand people who filled the expression of regret that the Corporation last night. Early this morning their dearly to about five thousand people who filled the expression of regret that the Corporation last night. of the interest felt by Her Most Gracious duty, forming gnards of honor, escerts, did not accept the offer which I made them cherished hopes were crushed by the ap- street in front for a long delayed. Sir George was per-Majesty in this part of her widely extended dominions, and it is to us a source of the last two days at Kingston and board the steamer, an offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, an offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, an offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, an offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, an offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, an offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, an offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, an offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, an offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer, and offer readily acceptance of the Lord board the steamer and the steamer tle would not let the Prince land.

els of other Regiments in the County were The Boats were started at 1:07 p.m., and also at hand, and in full uniform. A New arrived at the winning buoy at the under- | York Company of Militia, the Gainsfoort Guards of Rome, accompanied by a good The Wershipful, The Mayor of Kingston. band, paid a visit to Kingston during the 1. Rivet...... 4h. 37m. 20s. P.M. excitement, and were the guests of Major Allen. all observers," and "gained golden opin- reported forthwith to the Council.

lons from all sorts of people." drill on Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m. | Livingsto tiary and Rockwood will be illuminated very partial kiml, and as no one from this no regulation on the point, and the dispersion was disproved. The Inwas therefore declared winner of

FIRE FAUIT .- A great deal of the finest A word to the wise

> CITY COUNCIL. Thursday, 7.50 P.M.

Kingston, Sept. 6, 1960. The Council met this evening. Present:

The Mayor stated he received a despatch Highness with our respectful and cordial from His Grace the Duke of Newcastle

The Clerk then read the letter as follows:

Off Kingston, 5th Sept., 1860. Sin,-It is with the utmost regret the I now find myself compelled to take the

of Cuburg and Gotha, Duke of Cornwall, ing God and honoring the Queen. I beg the great mass of Englishmen are also ers for your return in health and safety to your Duke of Rothsay, Earl of Chester, Earl of Corrick, Earl of Dublin, Baron of Renparty processions are not illegal in this | country, as they are in Ireland. This is a conclusive answer if I asked you as Mayer During the two days of the recent great | to exercise your authority, but, it is no an- up the Bay last night, it was hoped that the upon their decision. I am, Sir, Your very obedt,s ervant,

In amen iment, first :

ed the landing of His Royal Highness in Measure hill the Orange bands are playing The Prince arrived here at two p. m .--

Your faithful and obedient servant, GEORGE OKILL STUART,

THE ADDRESS. The Archdegeon of Kingston and Clergy of the Archdeacoury within the Diocese of day. The Orangemen after walking in pro-Toronto, with sentiments of loyalty and as- | cession through the streets, disperse conderful remedy, and give the Prof. a new | Several ministers of the Church of England | O. S. Strange, Mayor; Aldermen Alexan- surances of attachment to our most gracious | quiet and orderly manner. A gloom went along with the deputation, and were der, Allen, Berry, Bowes, Campbell, Liv- Queen for her government over this Pro- ence seems to pervade the entire commi ingston, Meagher, Macarow, Wilmot; the virtues that give distinction to your roy-Conneiller Brophy, Chown, Creighton, Fee, al station and dignity to your pre-eminent town made have proved fruitless-Hyland, Kilduff, Parker, Pidgeon, Richard- rank, heartily welcome your Royal High- visitors from the country and elsewhen ness on your arrival to this continent and | have remained in town all day, and thou your gracious and condescending visit to sands still continue to fill the streets this interesting portion of Her Majesty's occupy the stands erected along the route dominions, constituting an integral part of from the wharf to the station. The gloom

The site of the City of Kingston, the of 200 Phaiogs, mounted on horseback Queen of the Lakes, in her infant state, and | dressed in the most fantastic style. the adjacent settlements on the banks of the procession passed up Main street to the St. Lawrence and the shores of the Bay of Grand Trunk station, which has been very Quinte, were peopled in the year 1784 by tastefully adorned by an arch, &c., and His Gracious Majesty George the Third, of where a quantity of fireworks were disof so distinguished a visitor, as adding anextreme course contemplated as possible propriated to them and granted by his sucilluminated by a host of coloured lumps,

Prince of 19 years of age, the heir to a sceptre which rules over millions of every which we here publish, was not presented. from your own lips that the ministers of of dress. I wished the Prince to see them, high station which in the Divine Previdence of high scientific authority, he would not en-It was part of the programme to present | your persuasion are training their people in | but not to give countenance to a Society | God you are destined to fill; that the Author | ter it unless supports were put in beneath. this Address on the Prince's landing at the the paths of piety and virtue, and in habits which has been disapproved of in the of all good may give you richly to enjoy His He would, however, stop for some time in

THE PRINCE AT BELLEVILLE.

Belleville, Sept. 6, 9.30 a.m. As no steamer save the Kingston came journey through those parts of North America which may be honored by your predience to regimental orders, were on foot tence.

Shortly after other Lodges arrived, and the Warden, that of the United Counties; ampled in malignity and utterly indefensible. It is no justification of the conduct of the Britannian with the members of the Church of Scotland. It is impossible to believe that of the United Counties; ampled in malignity and utterly indefensible. It is no justification of the conduct of the Britannian with the warden, that of the United Counties; ampled in malignity and utterly indefensible. It is no justification of the conduct of the Britannian with the warden, that of the United Counties; ampled in malignity and utterly indefensible. It is no justification of the conduct of the warden, that of the United Counties; ampled in malignity and utterly indefensible. It is no justification of the conduct of the Warden, that of Victoria College. A gracious reply was refurned by the tion were influenced by sympathy with these men, that insults were offered in Low-dience to regimental orders, were on toot the conduct of the Counties. Then the Presidents of the Counties of the Counties is not in the Street order. The Counties is not in the Street order of the Counties of the Counties is not in the Street order. The Counties is not in the Street order of the Counties of the Counties is not in the Street order or the Counties is not in the Street order or the Counties or the Countie The University of Queen's College de- and in full uniform on both these days, with the conduct of the Protestant portion of the will be much regretted by a large circle of Col. Corbett at their head; and the Colonried the day, and Orange colours bearing after veciferous and evidently most enthu- of the Province are responsible for these > place which the Prince has yet visited, of gracefully acknowledged by him, he enequal size to this, have decorations been tered the ball room, the floor of which had gard to Orange Societies was in direct op-Mr. Creighton moved, seconded by Mr. so numerous or in such excellent taste. been meanwhile strengthened and suport- position to the settled policy of the Provin-Ten arches are erected, all of a very large ed, and engaged with his usual spirit into cial Government, and ought not to have been and said the British Consul had been in the frames covered with flowers, evergreens the best. Further on were companies of provocation been a hundredfold as great, recognized by Europe. Mr. Wilmot moved, seconded by Mr. and ribbons. Every verandah is decorated | Cavalry, Col. D'Arcy Boulton and Kingston | nothing could justify the gross personal afand the view along the streets is hidden by Artitlery, Captain Jackson. The only So- front offered to their future Severeign by the to roof. Thousands of farmers are pouring note was sent to His Royal Highness, ask- on his track along the coast to repeat the Creighton, Livingston, Meagher and the into town, some of them having come from ing what hour would be convenient to pre-mover, be a Committee to draft a reply to a great distance, necessitating travel all sent an address. Major Teesdale in a few We have no fear that the scenes of Kingsthe Duke of Newcastle, and report to the | night long. Many are on horseback, but | minutes, waited upon the President, Mr. | ton and Belleville will be repeated in To- ples and pears, E. H. the greater number in the largest waggons | Morgan, with a message from His Royal | route. We trust there is not a man in the Sin,-Be pleased to insert in the British | Mayor has made a proposition to the Duke | The reason at the Prince's going by steam for the Prince's Table during his stay Wales prepared by a committee of the such of the citizens as choose to appear that he might have a good view of the fir which picturesquely dot which pictures and picturesquely dot which picturesquely dot wh ean be no the ground that the Synod of the Church of here by Mr. Heury Dumble; but as His clergy and intended for presentation, but there without party decorations, and His covered islands which picturesquely dot We have Scotland was as much entitled to the cour- Royal Highness was not permitted to land, withheld from delivery by a second circular Wership would have issued a proclamation the lake, and also of the beds of wild rice from the Archdescon to the clergy to that | calling upon all loyal citizens to wait upon |

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Belleville, Sept 6. 10 P. M. All has passed off quietly during the has been partially dispelled by a turn out

THE PRINCE'S PROGRESS.

Coburg, Sept. 6.

cedar posts underneath the floor of the ball- | Throne will make his formal entry into the room, and drive wedges in to keep them city of Toronto-and it must be the earnest. Nicholson fell in the water from the wharf firm. The town is handsomely illuminate heartfelt desire of every leaf-hearted Cansion that the place might be left in dark- dimmed by the slightest incident of an in- and would have been drowned but for the ness, as the gas house, has been on fire, harmonious character. The citizens of To- assistance of the High Bailiff, who happenbut it has fortunately been extinguished.

9.30 A. M .- The game is ever. The over the bridge which is three miles long.- THE MAYOR OF KINGSTON CALLED aren had been erected by the Mississaga cative of resentment on the part of tribe of Indians, who stood by the landing | Catholics. It was wrong, however/for the Kingston left the harbour about half-past place, fired guns as the Prince approached, Catholics to meet and get up a feeling and played God Save the Queen with their against the Orangemen; the best planbrass band as their chief Pandosh, who is | would have been to await the result of the 100 years old, presented an address to H. communication with the proper authorities. R. H. signed with both his English name | But still we cannot see that there is any and Indian totem. Then a number of birch | justification of the course taken by the Orbark baskets filled with Indian work, and langemen of Kingston in preventing the having labels with the names of the Prince from visiting that city as was intend squaws who had made them, were given | ed. Surely it would not have been asking to the Prince, and in the midst of a parting | too much that the intention of marching volley the royal train moved away. fine the in almost everyway. The train | Toronto Orangemen have decided to remove drew up so that from the Prince's car there | the emblems from their arches, and in dowas a fine view of the street along which ing so have acted judiciously. Would that the procession was arranged, and up which their Kingston brethren had done likewise. the party passed. As soon as they had taken seats in the carriages set apart for that purpose they went through the principal copied for the Press, saying he does not streets of the town, every one of which was think it prudent, which is a sample of his handsomely decorated with arches, flags timidity and want of judgment, which have and evergreens, to a platform below the been in a great part the cause of the present Courthouse. There the city and County Councils presented their addre ses, to which gracious replies were returned. The place was well chosen, for the green sward, shaded by pine trees, sloped upwards from it, tion, appointed for the purpose of carrying on so that the six or seven thousand people their decorations, met and determined not who were there assembled had a good view | erect an arch, or make any Orange demonst boards, only on the crest of which a hun- | be repeated at London. dred red-shirted stalwart lumbermen were standing and shouting welcome to the Prince. Some of the carriage horses took fright at this unusual display, and some confusion and a little injury to a few of the carriages resulted. A curious incident oc- | visit, in stating that I (among others) desiastic man, who was running by the side culturalists on board the steamer. of the Prince's carriage, put out his hand to ! in it, enjoy all the blessings of an excellent repaired to the wharf. The town is very of dislocation or not, he turned towards the

The Address of the City of Kingston, the Word of God. She will rejoice to learn but to farl a flag and abstain from an article Highness may long be preserved to adorn the room steelf had been pronounced unsafe by was no party display of any kind, and The pernicious advisers of the Toronto

adian, that the auspicious event may be un- | in front of Morton's cottages, King street, ronto and the surrounding country have long looked forward to the day, when they might welcome the eldest son of their beloved Mr Channonhouse at once plunged into the Connect of the citizens, beg leave humbly to greet of the eldest son of their beloved of the eldest son of their beloved threat made in the connection of our deepest attackment to your Royal of the eldest son of their beloved threat made in the connection of our deepest attackment to your Royal of the eldest son of their beloved threat made in the eldest son of their beloved threat made in the eldest son of their beloved threat made in the eldest son of their beloved threat made in Kingston. The whole people of Belleville, save those in connection to guide the leave at the eldest son of their beloved threat made in the made in the leave threat made in the law to the leave the eldest son of their beloved threat made in the law threat made in threat made in the law threat made in threa of our deepest attactment to your Royal Person and to the person and government of our Most Gracious Sovereign the Queen viz., Col. Jackson's Artillery, Major Flaniof our most tracious sovereign the queen of these realms.

They wished the prince to land upon welcoming your Royal Highness to the an Troop of Loborough Cavalry, Major Shaw's welcoming your Royal Highness to the an Troop of Loborough Cavalry, Major Shaw's welcoming your Royal Highness to the an Troop of Loborough Cavalry, Major Shaw's ches. A troop of Volunteer Cavalry and a welcoming your Royal Highness to the an Troop of Loborough Cavalry, Major Shaw's ches. A troop of Volunteer Cavalry and a welcoming your Royal Highness to the an Troop of Loborough Cavalry, Major Shaw's ches. A troop of Volunteer Cavalry and a welcoming your Royal Highness to the an Troop of Loborough Cavalry, Major Shaw's ches. A troop of Volunteer Cavalry and a welcoming your Royal Highness to the an Troop of Loborough Cavalry, Major Shaw's ches. A troop of Volunteer Cavalry and a welcoming your Royal Highness to the anwescoming your royal riignness to the ancient City of Kingston, where the standard Company of Rifles, No. 1, Major O'Reilly's by my sauction, if he were now to mand was brought to bear upon the address. company of Rifles followed His Royal eyes of the whole world are upon us. Neof our country was first planted in Upper Company of Rifles, No. 2, Capt. Burleigh's pass through such a scene as was prepar
It was, therefore, with great satisfaction, Highness, and a great concourse of people, ver before did an Heir Apparent of the as this is the second life that efficient offi-Company of Rifles, No. 3, and Capt. Litchlocal Company of Portsmouth Rifles.—

Only Company of Rifles.

Only Company of Rifles.

Only Company of Rifles.

Only Company on Rifles.

Only Co Canada a century ago.

We are deeply sensible of the unlimited freedom which we enjoy under the benign There were all well dressed, mustered very be could not be a party to such an exhibitation and that the Orangemen had agreed so far by the side of the procession as far as the bidden by the Colonial Legislature), and by the side of the procession as far as the bidden by the Colonial Legislature), and that the Orangemen had agreed so far by the side of the procession as far as the bidden by the Colonial Legislature), and that the Orangemen had agreed so far bidden by the side of the procession as far as the bidden by the could a member of the Royal new City Hall. Arrived there, as beautiful a party to such an exhibitation and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such undentable claims to the love and freedom which we enjoy under the benign to stand by the arch they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed with such underliable claims to the love and they erected, and that sight was presented as has been witnessed. rute and government of your august Mo- they would not stir from it. The Prince's journey. The hall was gratitude of all classes of the community. It is our wish and desire that the numerously, and marched and looked un- they would not stir from it. The Prince during the laws of his count they would not stir from it. The Prince during the laws of his count they would not stir from it. The Prince during the laws of his count they would not stir from it. The Prince during the laws of his count they would not stir from it. The Prince during the laws of his count they would not stir from it. The Prince during the laws of his count they would not stir from it.

ed by the Moderator and Synod of the with fite and drum, flying colours and dusty road. The Mayor, John Beatty, jr., Esq., driven the Royal party away from these krew that his end was near. This morn-We earnestly nope that your moyal rings | use would not set the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness may have a pleasant and prosperous | In addition to the Active Force, the offilong to an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness the offilong to an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness the offilong to an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness the offilong to an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an outrage unexness of the Corporation; towns have been guilty of an ou siastic cheers had been given for the Queen, doings in Lower Canada, and there will be so faithfully served for so long will find it It is really pitiable to see the disappoint- the Prince Consort, and for His Royal a fitting time hereafter to settle that account. ment of the people of Belleville. In no Highness the Prince of Wales, which were Neither is it any justification to aver that space for the Prince to pass. The Cobourg cur hereafter for settling that controversy.— and explained the position of the Savoy Rifles, Captain Smith, formed a guard at But whoever was responsible, and had the question—the cession having not yet been The windows have been taken out and Rifles, Captain Smith, formed a guard at But whoever was responsible, and had the

OVER THE COALS.

with badges, and decorating arches with The reception at Peterboro' was a very party flags should be abandoned. The

The Pilot says :- The Mayor refuses to

OBANTE MEETING AT LONDON .- On Thursday evening the Committe of the Orange Associa tions whatsoever. This action redounds t Leaving this the Royal party went to the | their credit, and shews that they are will-Port Hope railway station, passing under a ling to consult the feelings of others. The lumberer's arch on the way, made of rough | ridiculous fuss at Kingston will not, therefore,

(TO THE EDITOR OF THE BRITISH WHIG.)

Sin,-You have fallen into an error, amid curred too on the way. Some ultra enthu- | clined to present the Address of the Agri-

The Address, as you know, was framed

Your Obedient Servant, J. P. LITCHFIELD, Pres. Electoral Division Society. Kingston, Sept. 7, 1860.

GRAND MILITARY PIC-NIC.

The 3rd Volunteer Rifle Company of this not "assisted" in by the Prince and first suite, the doings were viewed by an immense number of delighted strangers and townspeople. The crowd presented a fine field for pickpockets, and the cry of their presence was raised more than once.—

The prince and fine that can promote the engine of the maspicious event to offer our presence of the anspicious event to the following programme was arranged:—

The prince and fine that connection with the views and feelings of the discord and heart-burning, but riot and bloodshed. I never doubted the loyalty of the individuals composing the Orange body. I have also gracious Queen and devoted attachment to her prince of that loyalty and good feeling.—

The presence was raised more than once.—

The prince would land at ten to-night, proceed to the town hall and receive addresses, and the cry of their good feeling.—

The presence was raised more than once.—

The prince and which, in one portion of the Regular and Active Ambassador Extraordinary to His Royal Highness' gracious visit to this factor and heart-burning, but riot and bloodshed. I never doubted the loyalty of the individuals composing the Orange body. The following programme was arranged:—The follo of those who devote themselves to teaching I did not ask them to sacrifice a principle, It is our earnest prayer that your Royal then go inside to the ball, but as the ball at Toronto last night about 8 o'clock. There the retired list, will have an epportunity of ral holiday. It is expected the Pic-Nie will take place not later than Thursday next, on Horse-Snoe Island. We hope to see all the different arms of the Service in uniform and well represented. When arrangements are complete we will say more of it.

DEATH OF SIR GEORGE SIMPSON .-- About