him who laberously seeks and finds new Monday.

The capital and the righ man's power. We thank thus enlogium properly applied to 3 C. Aver of Lowell, the renowned chema of New England, who, spaning the trodden paths to fame, devotes his entire abilities and acquirements to the discovery of Naure's must effectual remedies for disease .--When the hidden blessing has been revealed, he proceeds to supply it to all mankind alike through our druggists, at such low prices that poor and rich may alike enjoy its benefits .- [Journal & Enquirer, Portland, lighted with the whole of the arrangements, ingly done. which, for so small a place as Coburg, were and was much pleased at being able to and dragging the Prince and Duke beneath at Kingston, the idiot riding up and down jects, as good a claim to have their opinions as they find themselves in Canada, the doubt, acted as their adviser, and not a voice Garibaldi was proclaimed Diotator at move about freely without being stared at the offensive structure. Of course their with his drawn sword shouting, no surren- and prejudices consulted as any other? United States, or, it might be,on the desert of

"Opifer per Orbem Dicor." TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 11, 1860. THE PRINCE AT COBURG AND PORT 1. HOPE.

He opened the ball with the Mayor's this idea. daughter, Miss Beatty. was superbly fitted up by one lady of this of front street. The Prince was met at the that all our hopes and feelings have, been people. If the Prince could not be allowed -or any other societies organized on the town, a Mrs. Weller.

of the Postmaster General, Hon S. Smith, orange banners, ordered them to be taken us by as strangers, from some strange po- Duke of Newcastle in the most indecent confined their factions disputes to their factory, and must there is no danger of the and enjoyed a few hours' repose.

RECEPTION OF THE PRINCE AT TORONTO.

fets, who had gone down the lake to meet the approching visitor. The Fire Fly which had gone on the same errand, came, through the eastern channel, and was soon. close to the landing place. The other island fine gentlement admitted to the platform, the Jack per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower or form their search per control of the propose is a walch tower control of the propose is a walch to walch with the prince of their per control of the propose is a walch to walch with the prince of their per control of the propose is a walch to walch with the prince of their per control of the propose is of pleasurable. In the walch was per control of the propose of pleasurable. In the walch was per control of the propose of pleasurable. In the walch was per control of the propose of pleasurable. In the walch was per control of the propose of pleasurable. In the walch was per control of the propose of pleasurable. In the walch was per control of the propose of pleasurable. In the walch was per control of the propose of pleasurable. In the walch was per control of the propose of pleasurable. In the walch was per control of the propose sizes. The light began to wane, and few save those in the immediate neighborhood could distinguish the Prince's features. It was necessary to make speed. The Mayor read and Conneillors advances, the address in his usual composed style, the shocking weather. About two Housand people were presented. The arrangements were very bad, and gentlemen in fulf dress were very bad, and gentlemen in fulf dress were obtiged to undergo several successive sion to the presence, and to the presence of the prince was told that, and they come to the prince was told that, and they come to the prince was told that, and they come to the presence of the presence o beautifully said of Howard the Philanthro- that the exact facts cannot be arrived at. | of her foul bottom. It also applies to every man who The reception at Orgoode Half is just comyment of life within the reach of persons and superbly fitted up. The Prince will the present die tars, and put into the care diess are British, the acceptance of an in- of Canada-Upper and I ower. and classes who are deprived of their ad- go at half-past nine and stay until eleven. rying trade for breadstuffs and cotton be- vitation given by City Committees, for the vanishies. Especially may it be said of "The excussion to Colling wood is fixed for tween this country and England, she might reception of the Prince of Wales, and the THIRD DESPATCH.

More about the Crange Arch-His Grace would not drive under it-It is con-equently decorated with Orange flags and bunners-Mayor orders them to be removed-lie tirace is hissed in the streets and followed to Government

Toronte, Sept. 10. and replying to it, was made a member of tor of Music, or a Doctor of Divinity; and the Law Society of Upper Canada, at Os- | if the latter, of what denomination? goode Hall, on Saturday night, and signed ! the roll. He was conducted through the The Daily British Whig. after admiring its various and beautiful rooms, opened the ball by a quadrille, in which Mrs. J. H. Cameron was his partner, lancers. The benchers danced in their ings adjoining. Loss $12,000.

On Sunday morning, instead of going down King street to the cathedral, and again) passing under the Orangemen's arch, the The Prince danced last night until four Duke ordered the royal carriage to drive ners of all the lodges in Toronto, and talked are not understood. Of course, we condemn | side with one party more than another? | they can be relieved, as they pretend, from | Governor, Sir Edmund Head, and the Royal | Royalsts have again been defeated in Cul-The Prince was in plain citizen's dress about taking the horses out of the carriage most strongly, the exhibition of Her Majesty's sub- Government and party tyranny, and as soon party whom he had in charge, and, no abria. better sense prevented their carrying out | der, should have been put in the stocks. Then why should the adherents of Rome, Zahara, they proceed at once to revive old to have a look at the arch too. The people | torty years has ruled England and her de- ed. Friday, Sept. 7th.

At six o'clock the Kingston was seen returning all the way to Government House.

At six o'clock the Kingston was seen returning all the way to Government House.

At six o'clock the Kingston was seen returning all the way to Government House.

At six o'clock the Kingston was seen returning all the way to Government House. from the platform, outside the island, and The Prince did not ride or drive out on Sun- ple of her eye, and very heart of her heart, dict of public sentiment. The Kingstonians for insult, they richly deserve the rebuke feelings of that noble hand of Protestants, be maintained. She laments the atrocities at half-past six she was approaching the day. On Saturday afternoon he went to letter from her leyal Canadian subjects, acted indiscreetly in the first place, and shore—which course was denied them—with the Gov- and leave behind heart-burnings, dissatis- rudely, disloyalty afterwards. They will shore—which course was denied them—with the other powers of Europe in assistofy was graciously given, and the Prince side of the piers are shields with the com- moment that loyal old Kingston would have Province.

AND RESIDENCE PROPERTY [From the Globe.]

THE GRANGE ARCH AT TORONTO.

Another account of the affair states that to this country that if she had been com-made available for commerce.

The Prince, after receiving an address Doctor of Physic, a Doctor of Laws, a Doc-Kingston, Sept. 10, 1860.

Early on Sunday morning, the Second and danced until exactly midnight, when Congregational Church in Medford was the party broke up in the muddle of a set of destroyed by fire, with two wooden build-

Opinions of the Press.

From the Leader.

Milliond Haven from New York, vis section of the British Empire, should not sity; whilst many other highly respectable by of action tastes, without interfering with the rights | ecclesiastical organizations so distinguished improvements in and privileges of their fellow subjects, no neil; and it is machinery and shipbuilding, and this, too, matter of what creed, or of what political second editon states that the Mayor and and as fool as that of any ship that ever those in authority to the Romish Church in disease, tory coor me oreon and equatize second constant to attend the levee, erossed the ecean. This fact, we think, Lower Canada, the disagging of a Protestant Society, were deemed unworthy of inspecand but were informed they could not be pre- fully establishes the mechanical success of Prince through Romish Colleges and Nunserve say excurate in a round conduction and the condition of time which the blood pure-is the true secret of health. sented as a body. This was before the the mouster ship. We have been teld by neries, the complimenting and extelling the to warrant the expenditure of time which they could not be presented, because they manded by such a man as Captain Nye or they could not be presented, because they manded by such a man as Captain Nye or they could not be presented, because they manded by such a man as Captain Nye or they could not be presented, because they manded by such a man as Captain Nye or they could not be presented, because they manded by such a man as Captain Nye or they could not be presented. the amelierations, comforts and en- mencing. The rooms are magnificently the hands of practical managers, instead of among a people whose feelings and preju- and indeed throughout the whole Province I be made to pay. Her reputation for speed acceptance of that invitation by certain and safety is established, and the next | parties, would have been the means of problem to be solved is how she is, to be creating a difficulty which could only be bouled by a total surrender of a might which every man, having an appreciation of his Sin, -Among the attaches of H.R.H. the declaration of the Duke of Newcastle made time, met with an unpleasant check in his ed in Canada, they should have laid down ARRIVAL OF THE CITY OF WASHrights, should uphold. No sooner was the Prince of Wales, I observe the name of Dr. their boast that they had triamphed, and party, for reasons which every right-think-Acland. Can any of your numerous read- that their opponent had been discomfited. ing person will appreciate, declined to land suitable programme throughout the Pro- in Kingston on Tuesday, and thus openly vince, and by issuing a proclamation for Protestants hear of it than they urged on the signified their determination to discounten- the due observance of the same, that no 29th, Queenstown 30th passed Cape Race Orangemen to stand fast, and maintain their | ance a demonstration of a partisan and of- | party colors, emblems or banners should be | at 2 p.m.

The real important question at issue in this barbaric display.

war threatened this or any other at the Levee held by the Prince, in this of McGill College, and the Natural History

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant, J. PLIMSOLL, M.L. Moutreal, Sept. 7, 1860.

From the N. Y. Sun. THE PRINCE AND THE OBANGEMEN rights. But no scoper did the men, who lensive character. An Irish Protestant or allowed to appear by any party forming a The Australasian arrived out on the 27th. had lauded the course pursued by the Or- ganization, widely known as the 'Orange part in the general procession. Had this The Canadian steamer from Quebec arrivangemen of Kingston, find it unpopular, Society, had erected characteristic arches, course been adopted, no doubt it would ed on the 28th. than they denounced those in Belleville for | mottoes, and insignia in the streets of King- have prevented all this trouble, and thereby | London 30th Aug. - The reported flight taking the same course. They were quite stee, and upon the arrival of the Prince, avoided all unpleasant feelings that have of the King of Naples is still unconfirmed. willing to have their neighbors deprive they proposed to march in procession, with unfortunately arisen, either in Lower or Up- Nothing important from Syria. themselves of an enjoyment, in the main-tenance of a right, and the setting of Romish pulation would have considered an insult all had been allowed to pass quietly off in readiness to agree to the Italian confederainfluence at defiance, but were not willing to themselves and to their faith. In these Lower Canada, and at the grand reception tion. to submit to anything like a deprivation circumstances the Prince very properly re- of His Royal Highness at Quebec, every A revolutionary authreak at Salerno was fused to land or to sanction in any matter this: What right had the manner in which It is singular that Irishmen, wherever were allowed to take part in the procession, a loyal people desire to welcome their fa- their lot happens to be cast, cannot act and displaying their party colors, banners and ture king, to be questioned, so long as it behave themselves like other people. At emblems-were they ever so offensive, and But to speak very seriously, a spirit is flowed from the heart, and no insult intend- home they are divided into two great pol- in which none were more conspicuous than the King of Naples had quitted there on the o'clock and expressed himself highly de- round by Queen street, which was accord- going over Canada at this moment, which ed? Why should Roman Catholies ano- itico-religious bodies whose earnest desire ingly done.

During service, the Orangemen, as if in probability. Men are angered.—They have certain people shall welcome royalty?

And principal ambition is to see each other ledge was also extended to Montreal, and, but pied the forts. Not confirmed. pronounced superb by His Royal Highness retaliation, decorated their arch with ban- no desire to offend, and they feel that they And why should the Duke of Newcastle | native island in Search of a country where they were not offend, and they feel that they But we would be untrue to our duties if we alone be consulted! The fact of the not grievances, and their first act is one of hos-Returning from the Cathedral, the Royal failed to speak of the deep disentisfaction | landing, was taking sides with the Roman | tile organization - not against strangers -The retiring-room of His Royal Highness party drove to Government House by way which penetrates all minds. Is it for this Catholics, and an insult to the Protestant but against each other. The Irish societies door by Bishop Struchan, the two architeas encouraged, that they are to be ignored and to ride under an Orange arch, or to receive same basis - never will agree to differ on Several retiring rooms were also arrang cons and the other clergy of the Cathedral, chilled for an idea ? Who was there in the congratulations of Orangemen, certain questions of Palice and the other clergy of the Cathedral, chilled for an idea ? Who was there in the congratulations of Orangemen, certain questions of the Cathedral, chilled for an idea ? Who was there in the congratulations of Orangemen, certain questions of the Cathedral, chilled for an idea ? Who was there in the congratulations of Orangemen, certain questions of the Cathedral, chilled for an idea ? Who was there in the congratulations of Orangemen, certain questions of Orangemen, certain question question question question question question question questio ed for His Royal Highness' suite, and for the general public.

The Bishop preached from Psalft 17, verse 1st. The Mayor After the ball the Prince went to the house on hearing of the decoration of the arch with down, and just as this was being done the litical dogma, which although right in itself haste left, thereby depriving the councils, selves and never let them offend the public Societies; but this did not suit Sir Edmund general peace of Europe. She believes that Duke and his Secretary, who had been is discourteously communicated and harsh- and other bodies, of presenting their adstrolling up to the university, walked down by enforced? Would that Queen who for dresses, which slight was felt, and resent- how they were carried on or whither they doubt, His Grace the Duke of Newcastle disficulty, the tranquility of the other stafes tended; but when the Grangemen of Kings- | and his Royal charge were advised not to | will remain undisturbed. She hopes that recognized their features and several hun- pendencies among them these Provinces The London Free Press is rather severe; ton and Toronto select the occasion of the land, test the Prince of Wales should have in any negociations which may take mot supposed that he would be permitted to the should be made and attended to be made of the presumptive to the this frace, which was a longth but visiting our Provinces, as he dose, as the heir presumptive to the this frace, which was a longth but visiting our Provinces, as he dose, as the heir presumptive to the this form of the word in the position of being unable to land and accept the heir presumptive to the through our supposed that he would rivisiting our Provinces, as he dose, as the heir presumptive to the this form of the words and and accept the heir presumptive to the through our supposed the position of state, but visiting our Provinces, as he dose, as the heir presumptive to the through our supposed the position of state, but visiting our Provinces, as he dose, as the heir presumptive to the through our visiting our Provinces, as he dose, as the heir presumptive to the through our visiting our Provinces, as he dose, as the heir presumptive to the through our visiting our Provinces, as he dose, as the heir presumptive to the through our visiting our Provinces, as he dose, as the heir presumptive to the through ou with the members of the reyal family in all | copies of the Duke's letter and reply for state and western a shade firmer, with fair deour Services and in all our churches. Our general distribution. The reply will thus mand; superfine state $5.80; extra state 6,05 contemporary says 'it is not his place to be made public when it is ascertained that a 15; round heep Ohio 6.20 a 20 , superfine

The parade of the Rifte Companies,

[To the Editor of the British Whig.]

perform their duty as they ought to have and did caress some of the children. The Prince of Wales has for the firs | done. When the Royal party were expectsociety of that city and the country around, eminent. be they of what party or creed they may, those of the Roman Catholies, this privi- previous evening, on board the frigate or a murmur was raised against those par- Polenza. A large number of Calabrians ty societies there; but when the Prince ar- | are joining him. rived at Kingston-one of the principal and The Emperor Napoleen and the Empress most loyal cities of western Canada-whose | Eugenie were at Chambray. people have devoted their time and money | The Great Eastern averaged nearly 14 to receive their Prince in a becoming man- knots an bear on her passage home. ner, whose loyal hearts and anxious eyes | The British Parliament was prorogued Work, the Cataract, the Zimmerman, and that in a Protestant country which combined them by the Northern Railway for Colling wood.

Shore—which course was dented them—and that in a Protestant country which combined the Province, and that in a Protestant country which combined them and that in a Protestant country which combined them and that in a Protestant country which combined them—by the Northern Railway for Colling wood.

Shore—which course was dented them—and that in a Protestant country which combined them—by the Northern Railway for Colling wood.

Shore—which course was dented them—and that in a Protestant country which combined them—by the Northern Railway for Colling wood.

Shore—which course was dented them—and that in a Protestant country which combined them—by the Northern Railway for Colling wood. d. so. We cannot believe so causaless, so that the tiny tempest in their little teapot will form a humiliating era in their history, and find lavor in her eyes. The great mass of the population of Western Canada congretul fraces that no section of the community only object was to keep alive paintal remembers. They were specially enacted for the purpose. They were the failure of the negociations with specially enacted for the purpose. They were the failure of the negociations with specially enacted for the purpose. They were the form a humiliating era in their little teapot will suppose nine-tenths of its inhabitants; but specially enacted for the purpose. They were the form a humiliating era in their little teapot will suppose nine-tenths of its inhabitants; but specially enacted for the purpose. They were these proceedings, I fervently hope, will the demand for a fall and faithful exercise only object was to keep alive paintal remembers. gated in Toronto to-day desire that he should | will be allowed to distant in Canada what | brances of past troubles and dissensions, which | that bear sule over Canada, this conduct | the Parliament fee the appropriations for This arch, which has caused so much come among them-desire to welcome the shall or shall not be, much less to force a generous people would naturally strive to and the deprivation of the in- fortifications, and congratulates the country steamer was near, and a number of yachts talk in the city within the past few days, mother's boy, as it will cheer her heart to upon the attention of an illustrious visitor obliterate. Their only effect was to create riot habitants and of Canada generally, will on the efficiency of the Rifle Volunteers. with flags displayed lay at their moorings, stands at the corner of Church and King read the welcome he obtains. If any in- recollections which it were better had been tumult, and bloodshead. For a long time they long be deplered, as it was understood that She concludes by expressing the heartfult neighborhood of the wharf. The water as neighborhood of the wharf. The water as well as the hand was gay.

As the Kingston approached, the Royal party were visible on the fore promonade deeps, the Prince, a conspicuous object, which the Duke of Newcastle and Sir Edmand Head by his side, and agag group of the gand land, which is placed Kingston, while to the solution of the celebrated Bishop's Gate of Derry. The structure is covered with personal to the fore promonade deeps, the Prince and the superssion of the celebrated Bishop's Gate of Derry. The structure is covered with personal to the fore promonade the superssion of the control that the Prince of Wales has meet in her provinces.

The Montreal Pitot has a little banter; and were can hardly wonder at it. The contract the expression of the carbon to the control the prince and the Prince's activate the provinces.

The Montreal Pitot has a little banter; and were contact of the superssion of the carbon to the control the prince of Wales has meet in her provinces.

The Montreal Pitot has a little banter; and were contact of the superssion of the carbon to the control the prince of Wales has meet in the Prince's activate the prince of Wales has meet in the Prince of Wales has m while numerous row-boats darted abunt the streets. It is said to be a correct representation she has experien-waving their national particles and the series and confessed, the welcome guest of the pass and square, the level, the cornucopia, refused to receive the eld at son of Queen Vic The Quebec Morning Chronicle says :-- Prince of Wales sojourning among us, his Mr. Campbell moved that the draft reply greater number passed through than ever bev, at which only the day before it was the mailet and trowels, and other Masonic toria nules on certain conditions. The excess this year up to not supposed that he would be permitted to emblems. The shields are surrounded Those conditions our readers are aware of the people of the ed by as little ceremony as in England; be adopted, signed by the Mayor, and for the people of the ed by as little ceremony as in England; be adopted, signed by the Mayor, and for the people of the ed by as little ceremony as in England; up the whole affair, and represent it as a four and a half hours—the shortest time Royalty, in the way best suited to their is far more scriptural and erhodox than the the Colonics, we enjoy. Listening to the save those who called to see him on board vin for the accommodation of Mr. Youmans' young pupils, and in it they went down to meet the Prince, and welcome him to Kingston. When the "Kingston" anchored off the Battery, the "Hercules" ranged *He remembered the Forgotten' was deeply mysterious in their conversatious, and the proclivities are to deeply mysterious in their conversatious, lantic in a week, with all the disadvantages of her foul bottom.

PORT OF QUEBEC.

If the Great Eastern were now put into that when His Royal Highness came but prevails to a great extent in Montreal, brought His Royal Highness on deck.— The children sang four pieces of music Ma. Enrue,-Why was all this fuss very prettily, and the Prince seemed much made about the landing of His Royal High- gratified with this welcome from the juveness the Prince of Wales at Kingston? niles, the only welcome he received at This question is asked by thousands, and Kingston. The "Hercules" was so close the reply is generally this: because the to the "Kingston," that the Prince could

St. John's, N. F., Sept. 7th, 1860.

Disturbances at Naples were eminent .-Appeals to the people to resist were publicly distributed.

It was reported at Paris on the 29th that

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Flour receipts 23,052 bble; sales 20,000 bbls.