their lived to benefit their families by death- but they are to the exquisitely-wrong them at the present day.

and the rich man's power.' We already said, they bore it well. think this eulogium properly applied to J. Before the Prince came, dancing was

WEDNESDAY MORNING, EEPT. 12, 1860.

ARRIVAL OF THE BOHEMIAN.

19 ° 63' en 2nd September, and Nova Sco- surer of the Law Society, and Sir Allan breach of the peace.' The reason may not arch.

Philadelphia and Baltimore, 31s. a 32s. 6d. nard at work, making the building re-echo by the bulke of Newcastle? Who told him sion through the City as agreed upon at the shall return to the subject.

Wheat, moderate enquiry and advance; with their musical strains. The Prince that the demonstrations of lovalty and wel-Wheat, moderate enquiry and advance; with their musical strains. The rince white, 12s. 6d. a 13s.; red, 11s. a 12s. per smiled; evidently enjoyed the joke; the come to the Prince, by Orangemen, would muster took place at two o'clock, and there water took place at two o'clock, and there took quotations; white, 38s. a 39s.; yellow, 35s. looking at the beautiful hall in which he a 35s. 3d.; mixed, 34s. 6d. a 35s. Ashes stood—the tessellated pavement, the rich the same kind by the Lang Ruptista and St. mand at full prices. In molasses there is light. Of course, he cared not for them. It nothing doing. Consols, 927 a 93. Politics unimportant.

The Paris correspondent of the Post telegraphs that the proposal to make the city

York, on Thursday, October 17th. to state that he has not tendered his resignation and says, that although his engagement with the Government is for ten years, he has no intended in the Societantian of retaining either the office or the

The Anthion, which left Naples yesterday time occupied in the supper room. The followed to step in to regulate pleasing, and promises much more in the morning, brings nows that on Monday last the lowing are the names of the ladies he honour | made no objections to the appearance of the internal affairs of the country. He end. and unanimously resolved to advise the King | Boulton, Miss MacNab, Miss Widder, Miss Rob- | lication of the Governor's missive. They | the rights they enjoyed under the Constituto take his departure from the city at the mo- | inson, Miss Powell, Miss McCaul, and Miss | merely objected to an Orange arch, under | tion of the country, and the day of reckon-le who are in the secret know that both I treaty.

Mollowar's Pala... What is Life Insul- | arranged flags and flowers, and the artistic mental Apoplexy. &c .- Many people insume combination of colours, are beautiful truly piet. It also applies to every man who must have felt, at seeing a scarlet cloak it rings the ameliorations, comforts and en- his chair, or Chief Justice Draper at finding joyment of life within the reach of persons | his desk covered with ladies' shawle; the nd classes who are deprived of their ad- retiring-rooms filled with looking-glasses, Especially may it be said of their consulting-chambers bedecked him who laborously seeks and finds new | confused heaps of female frippery. It was means of preserving health, the poor man's enough to try their inmost souls, but, as was conducted directly from his carriage, through the beautiful corridor of white Caen deserves applause for adhering to it, we Queen street, east to Nelson-street, and having the brawny arms that wield it; stone to the central atrium, and took his cannot understand why the organ should escaped the dreaded object, got safely into Hearly and hale, in our yeoman mail, the Daily British Whig.

| Stone to the central atrium, and took his place upon a slightly elevated dais prepared for him. He and the members of the ed for him. He and the members of the suite, with the exception of General Williams, were dressed in plain clothes. Upon liams, were dressed in plain clothes. Upon liams, were dressed in plain clothes. his right hand were the judges of the Queen's Bench; on his left those of the Common Pleas. The cheers with which peace, or factions fanatics., The Duke the service was proceeding in the Church. His Royal Highness was saluted having to expressly limits his remonstrance to those When his Royal Highness left the Cathedral at the amorous muse, can anything be more some extent subsided, the band of the Royal | concerned in these preparations,' to wil the close of the service, he was loudly cheered | chaste than, The Behemian, with 116 cabin and 132 Canadian Rifles struck up God Save the son for withdrawing the Prince from all Royal carriages went cast to Market-street. steerage passengers, passed at 8 p.m. the Queen,'—a tune they are very fend of play-Canadian, arrived out Tuesday evening.—
Passed Augio Saxon lat. 56 25, long.

The south to Front-street, and thence to Government House, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and the front street, and thence to Government House, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and the front street, and thence to Government House, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and the front street, and thence to Government House, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and the first house, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and the first house, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and the first house, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and the first house, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and the first house, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and the first house, threbey again avoiding the Orange are likely to lead to religious feuds and are likely to lead to religious feuds are likely to lead to religious feuds are likely to lead to r MacNab, and the Hon. Henry John Boul- be well founded-in our opinion no such reton had taken their places opposite the sults were to be feared—but if the appear-LIVERPOOL MARKETS, Aug. 30.—Weather first gentleman with an extend- cal roll of parchment in his hand, and with Canada would have led to such results as for flour; small enquiry at former his mouth half open, ready to commence the Duke apprehended, then clearly he was was the domed ceiling of coloured glass soulptured ornament on the walls that most attracted his attention.

and the Judges, ascending the right hand | mund was not written until the subject of sion. The men marched down King-street, Hight of the broad stone stair-case, and pass-ing through the central vestibule to a dias policy approved by the Governor, and his followed by Grand Master Hon. J. H. Cam-gninity; Notices of New Books, &c., &c., Arrangements are being expedited for the in the library, opposite the door way. The babilities of the case to suppose it others. Do for the case to suppose it others. Company work, the Galway con- their wives, daughters and sweethearts in wise, and constitutionally impossible that Oeler, Deputy Grand Master. Passing -construction of the Royal American gentlemen scrambled up after him, sought the gallery, and squeezed their way in .--Hopely, the school-master, undergoing | There was much crushing of crinoline, and cribes as marked by idioms and insuffera- —was right, but there is little use generally ral and his Ministers are not responsible for Boys' on Front-street, but the District Mas- over the "Books" for the present month, served. entence for killing one of his pupils, has | doubtless the personage who observed that in proclaiming self-evident truths. The li-The Times' city article, of Thursday brary was soon full, the centre of attraction who went to compliment the Emperor on the book-shelves are placed, leaving a views will on consideration, be deemed the call. He then informed them that he tober. the occasion of his first visit to the trans- | aquare in the centre, over which is the large ferred provinces, presented the autograph | dome. The book-cases, of which there are letter from the King of Sardinia, in which | four sets, being very large, served as gal-Victor Emmanuel declared it was impos- | leries. Three of them were occupied sible for him any longer to resist the cur- | ladies, the remaining one, was set apart reut of public feeling in Italy, and that he | for Poppenberg's band. The Prince havmust lead it or be swept away by it, | ing reached the dais, Mr. Cameron told bankers despatch received late this him that it would give the Law Society sternoon, reports a fall of 10 per cent, in | boundless joy if His Royal Highness would The Great Eastern, after being gridironed | ber thereof. His Royal H ghnes consentat Milford, will leave that port for New | ed. of which important fact Mr. Cameron duly notified his brother benchers. Sir William Armstrong writes to the Times | roll was then brought, and the Prince sign-

Genote Journals of te-day publish the following been advised to take no notice of an inciwing been advised to take no notice of an inciwing been advised to take no notice of an inciturned of the continued, we had a constitution of the dent so common in Canada, and for the preand a Parliament of our own, and it was turists than the similar publication of the dent so common in Canada, and for the preand a Parliament of our own, and it was turists than the similar publication of the dent so common in Canada, and for the preand a Parliament of our own, and it was turists than the similar publication of the dent so common in Canada, and provided no
not proper that one of the law had provided no whigh been advised to take no notice of an inciturists than the similar publication of the dent so common in Canada, and provided no
not proper that one of the law had provided no pleasing, and provided no to provide the continued, we had a constitution and a Parliament of our own, and it was turists than the similar publication of the
dent so common in Canada, and provided no
not proper that one of the law had provided no
pleasing, and provided

A report was current at Naples that the officers of the army and navy had tendered their, and the dancers were in active motion when resignations on masse to the King.

stayed but a few minutes, because he very favor of Sir Edmund Head, wear the livery of Why erhaps a little loftier; in the opin- | which he and Hacter had last been seen folks a little more aristocratic; company. The prisoner will be remand on sense people call snobbish. to Canada for trial, under the Ashburt

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

THE ORANGE DIFFICULTY. (From the Globe.)

The Ministerial organs of this city make a desperate effort to throw the blame of the Orange disturbance wholly upon the shoul- was given on Saturday morning, that the ders of the Duke of Newcastle. The Guy- presence of the Mayor and Corporation at ernor General and his constitutional advi- the levee would not be acceptable; corthe blood pure-is the true secret of health. fine or committal for contempt. Places reserved for learned counsellors were occuuse to 212

Served for learned counsellors were occupied by the fairest ladies Canada can boast.
Crinoline made itself comfortable in the capacious seats of their Lordships.

Concapacious seats "He remembered the Forgotten" was saidering all things, the Judges bore it well. beautifully said of Howard the Philanthro- least of their Lordships. Con- however, that they will enjoy this honour saidering all things, the Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tells the food on the New York Type Founders, "The Judges bore it well. The Colonist tell in plain language his opinion of the course dence will be published, and it will then Sangster knows his own business; and, adopted by the Duke of Newcastle as the appear clearly how little open to censure doubtless, the success of his first venture, exceedingly well written. For its typo- galaxy of causes for one simple of Royal adviser on this occasion, and then proceeds to berate him for branding the Sunday though it was, the Orange wound has emboldened him to favor his friends competition in either hemispeople of Upper Canada as a whole, as came very near breaking out afresh yesterday. I again. The volume now on "Our Table" phere, for it is unquestionably the best shalled by the high and mighty Tem Andisturbers of the peace and factious fanat. It was of course known, throughout the city, has more finish about it—we are not going printed periodical extant. Every typo who derson, or Tom Idiot, and other strange ics because a portion only of their numbers, that the Prince would attend public worship in excited by political roisenief makers, think the Church of England Cathedral in the morn fit to couple their exuberant loyalty to the ing-and King street was in consequence more careful thought, and more perfect verof New England, who, spuning the trodden slowly; the lawyers tipped the light fanto fame, devotes his entire abilities tastic toe in their long gowns, looking funny vices offensive to another class of religion-with which the loyal inhabitants of the tity and then quietly disperse. Other proous gas jets shone, bringing to view each country, choose to appear before their future king? It is absurd to suppose that the remarks. They were then marshalled into Duke of Newcastie would assume to know order of procession by Ald. Godson, who of Marine Algo: and Report of the Geo-Mr. Cameron then asked the Prince to the country, its institutions, and its people, bestrode a grey horse and acted as Marshal logical Society of Canada for 1858. proceed to the library, and consenting, he Canadian advisors. His letter to Sir Edwas conducted there by the Law Society Canadian advisers. His letter to Sir Ed- city Marshals, accompanied the proces-

> Duke's position, that it Orangemen were perse, take off their regalia, and welcome per Canada, and must, therefore, hold the motion of Mr. N. C. Gowan, the suggestion Travels in Canada, &c.; Salmon Fishery Governor and his advisers responsible for was unanimously adopted, and the Masters in Canada. taken place, as well as for those that are to their ledges relative to the decision arlikely to follow. The Duke ought to have | rived at. which they would be compelled to pass, and | ing would come for those who had surren-

and bow as gracefully as they know how, when seen, the Canadian Government could have men of Canada,

We express no opinion here of the propriety present argument that they are legal, and that the progress of the Prince cent Rationalism in the Church of England; unite in recording to Captain Wilson praise reared to be made on many, v

(From the Globe of Monday.)

THE ORANGE CONTROVERSY.

Mr. Wilson, in which it was stated that | should receive hasm. portrait of King William and substitute and acquirements to the discovery of Naure's most effectual remedies for disease.—

When the hidden blessing has been revealWhen the hidden blessing has been reveal
When the Linke was right in refusing to the discovery of Naure's most effectual remedies for disease.—
When the hidden blessing has been reveal
Why did they not put on hoops?

In McLear & Co., Teronto. 4 cents, arch, with King William upon it, was standing to the discovery of Naus, wholly unfounded charge against the deflantly in the way!

The Happy Harvesters, and as it appears to deflantly in the way!

The Happy Harvesters, and as it appears to deflantly in the way!

The Musical Review for September.

Mabeing the Cathedral by King Street with the links was right in refusing to when the nieden blessing has been revealed and his refusing to out passing under the portrait of the greatest wrought out. What can be prettier than the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance, about half-past nine of the proceeds to supply it to all mankind his appearance. en, he proceeds to supply it to air marking his appearance, about half-past nine or alike through our druggists, at such low prices that poor and rich may alike enjoy pect, and it became evident work would prices that poor and rich may alike enjoy pect, and it became evident work would be allowed to this rule? Now, if the its benefits. -[Journal & Enquirer, Portland, soon be commenced in earnest. The Prince be adhered to this rule? Now, if the are other streets besides King-street in Toronto.]

From the Globe.

is deserved, be laid upon the proper par- the men uncovered and cheered most lustily. No party tunes were allowed in the

[From the Montreal Gazette.]

Our readers will remember that a person no one in this country is armed with authority should be marred by no party feuds and de- Recent Theories in Meteorology, Recent for his great bravery and daring throughout. services, by the solemnity and peculi a semi-circular house, while they hesitate named Doxtater, of Parmelia, has been not to go to one in an oblong room; who will go to a dance if it is called a reception and by the name of Harter, the brutal conduct of Tom Anderson' and his to prevent them. Neither must it be inferred to prevent them. that a young man by the name of Harter, that a young man by the name of Harter, that the lawyers are among these that the lawyers are among the legal fraternity, and taken to Watertown jail for the same feeling which induces if the same feeling which induces in the box in the same feeling which induces in the s ing that it would have looked much better jes is remarkably well written; and, al- ered. All accounts represent Milwankie and the men of Toronto had not telegraphed scheme of withdrawing all the Queen's no surrender, and incited the Kingsto- land forces from the Province, yet it is but v spot. It and then backed out of their position justing Church of England" is also a capital arems that on his arrival at the Govern-I time to secure their own bald for year and the form bigotry, consider their own bald for year and the form bigotry, consider their own bair, and at those on Friday evening, after pass- favor. The Kingston people feet them. The subject of his Lordship's Charge to the low wearing their own hair, and at

The Editor's Table-No. 169.

HESPERUS, AND OTHER POEMS, AND LYRICS.

Mr. Sangster has ventured upon the pub-

And then, again, when Mr. Sangster wees warm religious light."

a 35s. 3d.; mixed, 34s. 6d. a 35s. Ashes dull; pots, 28s. 6d.; pearls, 29s. Smaller demand for sugar at former prices. Tea dull, and rather easier. Coffee in good de-dull, and rather easier. Coffee in good de-dull de-Animal-Potsdam Formation; Coal Fields | Henderson, Esq., for respondant. the numerous associations, in connection they would make a procession through the Nova Scotia; A Specimen of Menobranchus with which the leval inhabitants of the tity and then quietly disperse. Other prolateralis-London, C.W.; Topils of Point having unlawfully and maliciously cut course is obvious. Therefore, in conclu Levi; The Oil Wells of Mecia; Specimens | down a white oak tree.

> Contents :- On Intermittent Fever ; Uterflight of the broad stone stair-case, and pass- it had been thoroughly canvassed, and its headed by the Credit Instrumental Band, inc Hemorrhage; Marriage and Consanbabilities of the case to suppose it other- Dr. Lett, Grand Chaplain, and the Rev. Mr. Peterson's Ladies' International Ma-GAZINE for October. C. J. Peterson, Philadelphia. $2. "Peterson's," of all Lady Books, as ever No one can say that the Governor Gene- procession; the fifer struck up 'Protestant first in the field. Long ere we have looked that written by the Duke. In that letter his | Cheer, was substituted. After marching | give an epitome of its contents would fill a Excellency assumes that the Orangemen of down King-street to the Market, they turn- column—the chief articles are :--Lindonsatisfactory. This is an endorsation of the wished the men under their charge to dis- THE LIVING AGE. No. 850. Littell, Son wick Williams, Commander-in-Chief, as sent of her mother who resides in Hamil-& Co., Boston. $6. allowed to join the procession to receive his the Prince as private citizens. They had Contents :- The Ireland Forgeries ; Tra- Ministry had better to be on the look-out Oakville, in the County of Halton, and that breaches of the peace would be the couse- city as agreed upon, and he wanted that Macaulay and Dundee; Little Mrs. Hay- going. A very stout and strong one will this city, determined to have a girl (as he quence. We do not think there is any rea- they should further fulfil the agreement of ner; The Informer; A Visit to Charles be needed. son to apprehend such consequences in Up- dispersing and taking off the regalia. On Dickens; Syria, Past and Present; Koal's lodges assemble with fife and drum, with ist. An insult had, however, been put upon Farmer's Journal" was scarcely thought of, lerday. According to the programme His Royal emblems and decorations, in every village them, and then dropped. Now, the work before d of the French Government for of H for B I It should read, his keyat High- far more content of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for, it is supported to give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discoved that Davis returned for give an account of the local discov Neapolitian Generals assembled in council, ed with his band—Mrs. J. H. Cameron, Miss Orangemen in the procession until the pub- hoped those present would not surrender L'Agriculteur Journal Officiel de la paddle box. The steamer kept on her course, Chambre d'Agriculture du Bas Canada Numero 1, pour Septembre. $1.

THE TORONTO ORANGEMEN.—All who Literature; La Verite sur la Russie; Re- some lumate or employee. All the survivors jacent railway. A deep

of King William III. His Grace | zeal of the Orangemen at Kingston and | its 60,000 subscribers, while due in part to | 4 SADDLING THE RIGHT HORSE." gard to expense, and then to make it wide- | Sin,-It would really be a charity for present circulation of the "Agriculturist," | they speak, ought to exclaim-" Save t By Charles Sangster. J. Lovell, Mon- it may be remarked, is greater than that of from our friends," for the friendship is cer treal; John Creighton, Kingston. 12mo., the entire agricultural press only a few tainly placing them in a more ridiculos years ago. When this journal started there | position than all the efforts of the most wi were but two or three agricultural papers, jent enemies. In the issue of the Dail nal, containing articles of general interest, tants-John A. Macdonald Here is

We have to thank the publishers for causes is madly abused, without due pro-

Each number of this work contains a sheet of Music; that in the present number, is "Tearless Sorrows," by G. Stigell. THE VOICE OF MASONRY for September. Rebt. Morris, Louisville, Ky. $1.

QUARTER SESSIONS

Tuesday, Sept. 11, 1860. The County Court and Quarter Sessions opened to-day at 12 o'clock, noon.

Kenneth McKenzie, Esq., Judge. Thomas Wilson, Robert Sellers, James Woods and M. P. Guess, Esqrs., Associates. The Court is at present engaged in disposing of the numerous appeals which con- | the world ! What simplicity. They forget tinually flood it.

George Cummerton, Thomas Cridiford laws of Great Britain. That, though the laws of Great Britain. That, though the Orange' may be as good a color as Green, Of the poem which gives name to the little from the conviction of Jacob Scauten, Esq., abstractedly speaking, yet that the one re-The Orangemen of the city and surround- our praise should be deemed eulogy; but for having broken the Sabbath by selling presented but a party, containing some > by the Court. Samuel Longmore, Appellant, against

D. Macarow, Esq., for appellant; Jas. A.

Mr. Henderson took objection to the recognizance not having the offence of which

The learned Judge reserved his decision on the point. But on Mr. Henderson's raising another objection to the serving of the notice, the appeal was dismissed.

For there being three convicting magis trates, each should have been served with a copy of the notice, one only having been

The Court adjourned at five o'clock. ----

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL.

er three minutes afterwards, just about the port | Assizes. - Hamilton Times. countenances of them all. In the first ward of generation wiser than the children tation on Tuesday, in Holywood Church, Those who have been bald for years are been obtained as to which is the real Simon paths to lame, devotes his entire animes tastic toe' in their long gowns, looking funny and acquirements to the discovery of Na- enough. Why did they not put on hoops? The Canada Law Joranal for September. Can find a real cause for anything others ists.' This singular, and as it appears to arch, with King William upon it, was standing somethings more beautiful and more position. Pure. But a fanatic never did nor never have found the real cause, which is not in any of the persons named, nor the massmeeting -- whether it were a meeting of hun dreds or thousands-but sumply and truly Orangeism. This is the horse which should be saddled, and God knows he has been radion often and hard enough schemers in 'this Canada? Putting the saddle con the right horse, is a vulgarism but the Duke of Newcastle, in his letter to the Mayor, did so faithfully, truly and logically, and to the satisfaction of all proper thinking men. The Orangemen of Kingston, and in fact of Upper Canada, were astonished at this missive; no doubt they thought that Queen Victoria on Dictator Garibaldi, of whose countenance they put a bad representationon their areh-depended on them alone for the liberties of and other people forget, that they were but easier for flour; small enquiry at former quotation. Western Canal, 30s. a 31s.—

Philadelphia and Baltimore, 31s. a 32s. 6d.

The Orangemen of the course he took at Kingston, and then baltimore, 31s. a 32s. 6d.

The Orangemen of the course he took at Kingston, and then public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he took at Kingston, and the public district assembled yesterday in Clarker of the course he to The several convictions were confirmed any Orange simpleton, if it would be politic for the Prince of Wales to acknowledge color, and mere society that would be offensive, not alone to six or seven millione in Ireland, but seven more scattered through the world; and who would not, in an emergency, be likely to forget the insult. It is needless to ask an answer to The above appellant was convicted of such a question. The policy of such a sion, I would simply tell the Protestants and Grangemen in this city, that the cause they look for is not any of the personage mentioned, nor the mass-meeting of Cathothe appellant was convicted fully stated in | lies hald at the College-but lies with the Catholics of the British Empire, whose sentiments must be respected-the destruction of a dozen antiquated fanatical secret societies to the contrary, notwithstanding.

I am, Sir, Your obd't Servant.

Kingston, Sept. 10, 1860. By telegraph from Toronto we learn that the Rivet was the winner of the first prize at the regatta yesterday, and the Glance carried off the second prize .- News.

IMPORTANT ARREST .-- Abduction of a evening, says that the weather is comparatively favourable. English funds to-day have been steadily maintained at previous funds to display splen lid hall, will product the sides of it tall the Grand Master summoned the Masters of New Books, Horticultural, Paratively favourable. Excensency assumes that the weather is comparatively favourable and I; Antecedents; Redman's Run; Harry and I; The Globe says; we congratulate our blems and decorations' belonging especial-blems and decorations' Young Girl.-Edward Davis, a colored quotations.

The Times' correspondent, Paris, of Wednesday, reports that Signior Farini, corated ceiling, between which columns to the recollect that along about the sides of it tall the Grand Master summoned the Masters of Lodges to Council, and forty-two obeyed his Grace's reasons for expressing these corated ceiling, between which columns to the recollect that along about the sides of it tall the Grand Master summoned the Masters of Lodges to Council, and forty-two obeyed by false representations, she being upder to the call. He then informed them that he Administrator of the Government. The ton. It appears this man Davis lives near Royal Highness, religious feuds and made, he said, a procession through the vels and Adventures of Dr. Wolff; Lords for a new prop, now that Sir Edmund is he lost his wife last winter, and came to said) to take care of his child. He presented himself at the House of Refuge, and THE BELLEVILLE RECEPTION .- The peo- | stated to the authorities that he had the conple of Belleville are intensely mortified at | sent of the mother to take the girl away. The the unfortunate occurrences that have since requested to inform the brethren belonging THE FARMER'S JOURNAL for September. De the recent event in their town, and have mother having heard of the matter, went Montiguy & Co., Montreal. $1 a year. | sent up a deputation to present an address to Davis' residence and took back her Nothing can be more agreeable to the to the Prince on the subject. The Mayor child. On examination, it was proved that illegal in Canada; that it had only a year past few days Orengemen had been taunt- lover of his country, than to see the daily has already arrived, and a special train will he had seduced the girl, while living with or two since been officially recognized by the representative of the crown in full regalia; that on every twelfth of July its loyal class than the Orangemen did not ex-I sidence, and learned that he did not live in emoluments any longer than his service may be required for perfecting the system of artillery which he has been the means of introducing.

**According to the programme His Royal resented it in some and the house, but was in the habit of conceal and then dropped. Now, the work before the Particulars.

**According to the programme His Royal Highness then declared the Hall opened. Highness then declared the Hall opened. What was meant by the phrase is not perfectly clear. Osgood Hall was opened long ago. A when the French Government for the demand of the French Government for the first of the following estimate is nearly correct to the programme His Royal High phases then declared the Hall opened. Now, the work before and town of Upper Canada, and that high places. It was not, however, the proper and then dropped. Now, the work before the following estimate in the following estimate in the following estimate in nearly correct in the following estimate in nearly correct in the following estimate in the following the house, but was in the habit of concealon its Ambassador, cannot be viewed otherwise than us a lift to Garibaldi and the receipt tion.

Genoa, August 23.

Take that is what he did. Room for dancing on an occasion like present. All of the steamer of the st her engines in full motion. The Augusta fell | The Bishop of London has commenced into the trough of the sea, and all her head | series of open-air services. At one of them gear, Jibboom, and stanchions were carried on a Saturday afternoon, there were pre-Sommaire :- Chronique Agricole; Eco- | away. We took in sall and cleared away the | sent between 1500 and 1600 working men. He nomie Rurale; Zootechine; Genie Rural; anchor, supposing the vessel would fill. After and children. The place selected was one The short evening passed pleasantly away, and the dancers were in active motion when the approach of Sauday gave the signal to stop. They had just reached the point in the Lancers where the gentlemen separate from the ladies without any vice-regal interference.

If his difficulty would have been reconciled to the description of the out-without any vice-regal interference.

If his Grace had persisted after such represents the foresail, without any vice-regal interference.

If his Grace had persisted after such represents the foresail, without any vice-regal interference.

If his Grace had persisted after such represents the foresail, we succeeded in getting up the foresail, have an interview with the Prince without any vice-regal interference.

If his Grace had persisted after such represents the clearing the wreck and getting up the foresail, without any vice-regal interference.

If his Grace had persisted after such represents the clearing the wreck and getting up the foresail, we succeeded in getting the wreck and getting up the foresail, being situated become an interview with the Prince without the second and state of the metropolis, being situated become and the intervention of the base of the second mate of the state of the metropolis, being situated become an interview with the Prince without any vice-regal interference.

If his Grace had persisted after such represents the foresail, we succeeded in getting up the foresail, because the wind and state of the metropolis, being situated become the intervention of the base of the wind and state of the metropolis, being situated become the intervention of the base of the wind and state of the metropolis, being situated become the intervention of the THE BALL AT OSGOODE HALL.

The Ball AT OSGOODE HALL.

Strangers who were at the ball given in bend was left unfinished, the band struck up 'God Save the Queen,' and the company separate impression that Toronto lawyers are ther getting conscientions, or that they in the west wing of the Ball and own as graceity as they ago in the east of word of the Canadian Government could have was nothing and the clock struck twelve, the music ceased, the washed their hands of the whole matter; or, if the Governur General, repeating of his recognition of Orange processions in 1858, had been was left unfinished, the band struck up 'God Save the Queen,' and the company separate of the Ball on Saturday night are under the impression that Toronto lawyers are ther getting conscientions, or that they were laid by Mr. Webb, in his usual excellent the opposition of Orange processions in 1858, had been was been the constitutional course. The room in which supper was provided was in the clock struck twelve, the music ceased, the washed their hands of the whole matter; or, if the Governur General, repeating of his recognition of Orange processions in 1858, had been was left unfinished, the band struck up 'God Save the Queen,' and the company separate for the Prince of Wales, are more then given for the Burner of the Governur General, repeating of his recognition of Orange processions in 1858, had been was been the close of the goal of the whole matter; or, if the Governur General, repeating of his recognition of Orange processions in 1858, had been was left unfinished, the band struck up 'God Save the Queen,' and the company separate for the Prince of Wales, are the close of the goal of the whole matter; or, if the Governur General, repeating of his recognition of Orange processions in 1858, had been was left unfinished, the lower the given for the Governur General, repeating of the whole matter; or, if the Governur General, repeating of the close of the goal of the whole matter; or, if the Governur General, repeating of the close of th Contents:—Recent Discoveries in Astronomy; Dr. Brown's Life and Works;
Scottish Nationality—Social and Intellectual; Colonial Constitutions and Defences; office was thronged all day with relatives and by, and there put on his Episcopal robes.—

The Bishop selected for his text—Luke xvi.

sented despatches in tears; and the utmost excitement and anxiety was manifested in the Consulate and the Empire; Imaginative house or place of business that has not lost voice, and now and then a train on the act Literature; La Verite sur la Russie; Re-We begin to like this Review better than | carnest for the safety of his passengers. He | the Doxology was sung, and the Bushop

WORTH KNOWING .- Prof. Wood, whose THE BISHOP OF DOWN AND CONNOR AND | seen testimonials almost without |