LEGE AND THE TORONTO | their colleagues consider the SCHOOL OF MEDICINE.

It appears from the affidavit of the Rev. George Sanderson, the Secretary of the College Board, that "at a meeting on the third of October, 1854, Dr. Aikens, claim ing to be the representative of the Toronto School of Medicine, proposed in its name and behalf, that it should be incorporated with or merged in Victoria College and become its Medical Department."

This proposition was discussed, and "the Board with the consent and in the presence of Dr. Aikens unanimously adopted the the opinion of the Board of Victoria College it is highly desirable on many accounts to extend the operations of the In- October, 1854, in Toronto though, in stitutions by the addition of a Medical De- wholesale style of his affidavit, just flatly partment, be it therefore resolved, that the requisite means be forthwith adopted secure that end; that the Toronto School of Medicine be and is hereby constituted the Medical Department of Victoria Col- | veracity of the individuals than upon lege-and that the following gentlemen be | merits of the case. the Professors, viz., the Hon.
