DISREPUTABLE CONDUCT.

We beg to call the attention of the proper authorities to the disgraceful conduct of a number of men in the uniforms of volunteers. last night. On passing the palace of the Roman Catholic Bishop, there was a very disgraceful hooting and shouting, interpersed with such expressions as to " hell with the sons who are wearing the clothes and taking the pay of the public, is in the last degree discreditable, and deserves to be visite with exemplary punishment. The matters ought to be inquired into, and such measures taken as will prevent the repetition of so gross an outrage in future,-Leader.

POLICE COURT, Friday .- (Before Mr. Creighton.) - There was quite an unusual stir of business, for these dull times, in the Court this morning. Hugh McCullock and James Cannon, brought up for being drunk and acting disorderly, were fined $2 each; a similar fine being inflicted on Charles Owens and George Holt, confined for drunkenness. Mr. P. Clint appeared on a summons from the Clerk of the Market for forestalling, in buying some fowls before eleven o'clock in the morning. Proving satisfactorily that the fowls were for his own use, and not to be re-sold, charge was withdrawn.

The largest sailing crafts now on the lakes are the Cream City, of Milwaukee, the Great West, of Buffalo, and the Champion of Chicago. The capacity of these is about 30,000 bushels of wheat. The Western Metropolis which was lost several years ago, had a capacity of 40,000 bushels of wheat.
