LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS. J. W., Montreal.

The times are most awfully dull, and there is nothing doing; no business whether from the lake or the country. There is little or no grain coming down, and as for the country people, the sight of one in the streets would be good for sore eyes. Every one in the country is busy putting in his grain, and a most glorious time for sowit he has had. In politics we are just as dull. Altho

Parliament is to assemble within a week two, no excitement is caused, and no thought taken of what will be done .--Confederation seems laid on the shelf, to be taken up in the Fall. In short not only in Kingston, but all over the Province, with the exception of Quebec, a perfect lull, both of business and politics, is now
