THE CHOLERA IN ENGLAND.

A fatal case of Asiatic Cholera is reported to have occurred at Bristol. The person attacked was a sailor who had just com over from Rotterdam to London, and, doubt less, brought the seeds of the disease wi him. The papers insist on the necessity taking immediate measures to avert the danger of its introduction. One of the most important of these measures is that recommended to the local authorities of the seaports by the Privy Council. Unless procould be practically enforced would be sufficient to repel it. We think it would be difficult to find any man who was ever acquainted with him, who would not instantly acquit him of complicity with conspirators for the murder of President Lincoln. It is infamous to insinuate such a charge against Mr. Porterfield, and his arrest for such a crime is a contemptible persecution on the part of the United States officials, which will no doubt be set aside by President Johnson .- Montreal Ga-
