And apart from this, there is much of a most satisfactory nature, on which the Directors can congratulate the Shareholders. The past twelve months have brough many and important changes in the position of all classes of the community, which have favorably affected the Bank in all'its business. The main element in producing the charges referred to was the abundant harvest of 1865 and concurrently there was an active demand from the United States for all kinds of agricultural produce, at high prices. The approaching termination of the Reciprocity Treaty stimulated the export of grain to the utmost before the close of navigation. The combination of circumstances, thus very briefly alluded to, caused an increase of exports, hitherto unknown in Canada, and the result was, a return in cash, which affected every branch of business.
