MAILS GOING EAST By Day Express Train will Close at p.m ; Arrive at 2.30 p.m. By Night Express Train will Close at 9 p.m. Arrive at 2.00 a.m.

MAILS GOING WEST By day Express Train will close at 4.20 p.m. Arrive at 5.20 p.m. By night Express Train will close at 9 p.m. Arrive at 5.00 a.m. BRITISH MAILS Per Cunard Steamers, via New York, and Boston, will close on Mondays at 1. P. M. and per Canadian Steamers, via Quebec on Fridays at 12:30 o'clock, moon. Cape Vincent, close daily at 1:30 P.M. arrive daily at 12:15 p.m. R. DEACON, Postmaster.

Post Office, Kingston, ? 26th May, 1866.

G. T. R. TIME-TABLE. Trains arrive and depart from EXPRESS THAINS GOING WEST. Arrive at b:10 p.m, and 4:32 a.m.

Depart at b.30 p.m. and 4 32 a.mt Local Trains arrive at 10:00 p.m.; depair : 6:45 a.m. BEPRESS TRAINS GOING MAST. Arrive at 2:15 p.m. and 2:55 a.m.

6:15 a.m.

MST. GRORGE'S CATHEDRAL - Morning Service

P. M. Daily Prayers at 3:00 P. M., except on Wedness ST. Jona's Chuncu (Portsmouth.) Morning

St. Aspanw's Church (Princess Street) -- Morning Service, 11:00 : Afternoon Service, 2:30. CHALMERS' CHURCH (Earl Street.) -- Morning Ser SROCK STREET PRESERVIERIAN CHURCH .- MOTRIN WESLEYAN METHODIST CHOKON (Queen son Street.) - Morning Service, 10:30; Evening PRIMITIVE METHODIST CHURCH (Brook Stree Morning Service, 10:30 ; Evening Service, 6; BAPTIST CHURCH (Johnson Street) - Morning CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH (Wellington St CATHOLIC APOSTOLIC CHURCH (Queen Morning Service, 10:00 ; Evening Bervice, 63

"Opifer per Orbem Dicor."

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 30, 1867 REMINDERS.

SHERIFF'S SALE of Lands (for taxes)

the township of Oso, to-day at noon in the Court House. Provincial Parliament.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

ON MR. GALT'S RESOLUTIONS. TO AMEND THE CUSTOMS

AND EXCISE LAWS. should have made such a speech as he had propositions as were laid down in the bud- | no intention of attacking the hon. member, get. He (Mr. Brown) ventured to say but he deserved what he had got. when that scheme went before the country Mr. Chambers wished the House to underit would produce the wildest commotion. stand that he had nothing to do with of the expenditure. The hon. Finance | New York Herald. (Great laughter.) Minister had stated he would not have ! submitted the scheme now had he thought it would threw any obstruction in the way of Confederation. He (Mr. Brown) certainly considered it most unfortunate that auch a thing had been done on the eve of the consummation of a union of the provinces. The scheme in many imports particulars was bad. He considered taking off one tax and putting on anothe was a system of robbing Peter to pay Paul, So far from mending matters they had been made worse. He (Mr. Brown) intended meet the propositions at length at another time. He held that the scheme of his hon, friend, the Finance Minister, would throw the country into a political commercion, which the Government had been formed set at rest, and that putting forward such a | Con. Stats. for Upper Canada, intituled, an | proposition at this time was little short of madness. By this, too, no one could say that the House would arise for months tender notes was an old idea of the Finance Minister. He (Mr. Brown) did not think it would work. the course taken by the member for South Act. Oxford. If there was any member whose sure the farmers of Western Canada would Bayham. approve his policy. He cared nothing for | Mr. Currier-To incorporate the Ottawa | taunts about inconsistency. If the hon. City Water Works. member would remember the financial statement of 1862, he would find it differed of Wickham into two separate municipalivery little from what was now submitted. | ties. It mattered very little, however, what his previous views or those of the hon, member had been. People would weigh both at the true value. He cared not for any to morrow, he would introduce a Bill to obloquy cast on him for inconsistency, so amend the Election Law; that, on Wedlong as he felt that the present course was | nesday, he would introduce a Bill to amend right. The important thing was to deal | the Militia Act; also a Bill to amend chap. according to correct principles with the 98 of the Consolidated Statutes of Upper present and future of the country. In order | Canada, and Act 2 of the present session to prevent any unfair speculation he would | with reference to invaders; also resolutions come. All the manufacturers in the cor position of the Government to issue of the House would consent to that course. Mr. Holton said that under ordinary circumstances he would do so, but this was | curred in the resolutions reported from Coman extraordinary case. He must refuse to mittee on the Whole on the expediency of mously chosen President of the Legislative Who did the 14th Battalien brown, commit himself to assent to the resolutions indemnifying the Government for the unas a whole. But there was this further avoidable departure from the Audit Act Attorney General Fisher had given notice And gobbeled the stuf kind peeple sent down? objection-hon, members' secret had not occasioned by the maintenance of the active of the following resolution :-been well kept. He learned by telegram | duty of the Volunteer Force which the from a leading merchant in Montreal, that Government has been compelled to call presented to His Excellency the Lieutenbeen current there, and it was generally ture to a large amount not provided for by | will be plea-ed to appoint delegates to unite | Who et and drunk and lived like kings, asserted that a firm having business relations with an agent on the treasury benches, Mr. Galt introduced a bill to give effect arranging with the Imperial Government And hams and cheese and clarit and things? short duties. In justice then to the mercantile community of Montreal and other towns of the province, he must decline assent to the resolutions now.

Mr. Galt said that after the very extraordinary statement made by the member Chateauguay, he was bound to furnish the authority on which the statement was made. Of course it was impossible that such charges mental officers, as well as members of he was confident no one in his department had revealed it. No one knew in fact, what they were till within the last 48 hours. The resolutions were only sent to the printers this morn- Mr. Cartier was surprised at the member The Bill suspending the Habeas Corpus ing with the sums in blank. He repeated Mr. | for making such a comparison, remember | had been agreed to. Holton was bound to turnish authority for his Jing the troubled state of the country, pro-

Rumors were prevalent that Messrs, erham and Worts had been speculating

one water of the House ought to other lightly; . Mr. D. A. McDonald hoped if anything | a shough , orthy figure and charming face; THE BREAK OF PERLANDER -] it. He was never in any way connected with ship was dissolved before he became a member | proposed, of any government. . He he remembered right.

ramp telegraphed to a leading member of the Legislative printing. was prevalent in well-informed circles here. | to have been made to the Romad Catholic As for the explanations of the Postmaster. Chaplain of the Penitentiary for back General they were perfectly satisfactory, he services. He thought such payments should was sure, to every member of the House and ;

thority was now furnished for it, and their attention should be drawn from grave question before the chair, by personal recrimination, yet for himself, he was strongly suspicious of what hon, gentlemen intend ed doing. He was quite sure, however, that the Postmaster * General was utterly incaps ble of communicating a fact which he got a member of the government, but his h friend (Mr. Howland) was quite wrongassuming that such stories had not got abroad as that mentioned by the member for Chateaguay. He (Mr. Brown) had himself heard to-night, with the understanding that they | time after his return he wrote to the Bish agreeing to the resolutions to-night. from Montreal it amounted to very little.

non, gentlemen for saying that this telegram from Mr. Cramp was worth very little. (Mr. Holton) said it amounted to a great deal. The intentions of the government had been allowed to leak out, and it became known on the streets of Montreal that changes in th excise were to be made. That was his (Mr. Holton's) statement. His authority was challenged and he gave it, and he challenged any hon, gentleman to doubt that authority Mr. Cramp was a merchant in Montreal, and what more natural than he should ask for was supported by the 'statements of several bon, gentlemen. He (Mr. Holton) never intended to make any charge in reference the Postmaster-General, but because these rumors had been circulated he felt himself justified in taking the responsibility of opposconcurrence in these resolutions

Further discussion followed. Mr. Chambers bitterly attacked Mr. McGee or connecting his name with the New York ! Herald, and endeavouring to injure him i loyalty. He believed his (Mr. Chambers') loyalty would compare favourably with that

He was greatly surprised at the magnitude | concecting of the speech as it appeared in the The resolutions were agreed to; the committee rose and reported them.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Ottawa, June 27. Mr. Morris moved that the time for receiving petitions for Private Bills be extended to the 9th July, and for receiving Private Bills to the 16th July .- Carried.

NEW BILLS. The following Bills were introduced and read a first time ;--Mr. Dennis-To provide for the erection of a new Municipality in the County Mr. Morrison-Bill to amend chap. 19] Act respecting witnesses and evidence. Mr. Morrison-To amend the Railway Act so as to prevent railway companier from shunting railway cars or running rail-try would come. flocking down with periway trains on the Sabbath day. tions, &c., against the scheme. The province; to Marine Insurance Companies not | guished lawyer. igreorporated within the limits of this Pro- Mr. McKenzie said it was evident that the

Mr. J. B. Dorion-To erect the township

GOVERNMENT NOTICES. Atty. Gen. Macdonald gave notice that, roved of. He trusted the hon, gentlemen such grants heretofore made. INDEMNIFTING THE GOVERNMENT. On motion of Mr. Galt, the House con-

COMMITTEE OF SUPPLY.

Mr. Galt stated that, with one or two ex- | er Canada to be considered as separate ceptions, the salaries were the same as Provinces.

in Canada East, increase in the sum since 1863, amounting | would be referred to the Legislature be-

On the itim for penitentiary, reformatories and prison inspection, $24,415, being arisen from the removal of the Government Berkhampstead, they intend to visit the con-

Mr. Holton drew attention to a payment which appeared from the public accounts

Mr. Galt said that at the distance of two vears, he had only an indistinct recollection the Bishop of Kingston; enclosing the resignation of Vicar-General McDonellior many years the respected Chaplain of Kingston Penitenthem. The Finance Minister proposed that we with His Excellency the Governor General, in should agree to these resolutions, pro forms, his first official tour to Upper Canada. Some should be open to further discussion; and that he could not recommend his Lordship (laughter), yet they were entitled to the sup- fixed by statute, £250 currency per annum, port the opposition would expect if they were | instead of £400, which the late incumbent had ! on the ministeral side. If any parties had | enjoyed, and that it was his intention shortly | obtained unfair advantage it was well to pre- | to enquire loto the salary received by the vent any one else doing the same thing by Protestant Chaplain, with a view to its reduction. It might be interesting, perhaps, to the Mr. McGee strongly condemned the insin- committee to be informed by what process the nation of the member for Chateaguay that a terms of the statute had been violated, and the self by communicating knowledge obtained | num. The ingenuity, no doubt, of the Atat the Council-board. As for the telegram | torney-General West suggested that the Chap-Mr. Holton was exceedingly obliged to addition to his salary; and £100 per annum was accordingly added to cover this expenditure. Shortly afterwards the committee would recollect 10 percent, was added to the amount all, causing salaries to cover the increas d living, some time in 1857 and 1858 and, at all events, the salary of both chaplains appears about that time to have be increased to £600 per annum. For this would not feel authorized to interfere pondence; but during that time he was the appointment; nor was any portion of the Chaplain's salary, to his knowledge, drawn or applied for during that period. No early hour, according to the taste of the Alabama doubt the venerable Bishop had good reason to leave the matter in abeyance, seeing that from the tenor of his letter no hope, of getapproaches, while others remain until after ting more than £250 need be entertained. It was well known that the retiring Chaplain s constituency by throwing doubts on his | had a written agreement by which the Bisho' their mirthfulness. At last they also depart bound himself to pay him the sum of £20/per year after his resignation, which would of the member for Montreal West (Mr. only leave £50 per annum to the Bishop, as his nominee for the discharge of the Chap-Mr. McGee, ine replying, referred to the lain's duties. This was the position when which the occupier has to remove next report of Mr. Chambers' speech in the New he (Mr. Macdonald) left office in 1864, it York Herald. He (Mr. McGee) believed no was now discovered that the gentlemen on day. And this is the Pic-Nic nuisance! member of the House, Reform or Conserva- the treasury benches had not only continued live, would have made such a speech in to pay the original salary of £400 a year, Brockville without having a deputation wait- | but had paid it to cover the period during ing on him next morning requesting him to | which he (Mr. Macdonald) remained in office. resign, Mr. McGee also referred to the arti- | Although at the present time no cles which had appeared in the New York | had been actually appointed, no doubt they Herald. Any one who had gained such a had good reasons for doing so. The pere- ask leave and other folks do not, but this is notoriety was not the man to represent grinations of the Attorney-General West and certainly a very bad time to submit such Brockville. He (Mr. McGee,) however, had the Minister of Agriculture through the County of South Leeds were fresh in the recollection of the House; and so was the fact that, found heading these Pic-Nic parties. out of four clergymen of the Catholic Church who had promised their support Mr. Richards before his appointment, three afterwards, during the polling day, suddenly

> Richards, which 'led to his resignation, and | the restoration of the hon, gentleman oppowho remained true to his pledge was shortly afterwards sent out of the diocese. Mr. Galt said the hon, gentleman had charg-corrupt bargain with Vicar-General McDonnell. He was sure a statement so injurious to one who occupied a high position in the estimation, not only of his co-religionists, but of all who knew him, would receive a contradition before many days passed over. Mr. J.S. Macdonald complained that Mr. Galt should put words into his mouth. He had said a bargain was made, and he repeated that statement.

turned and gave their support to the connected with the Leeds election, and denied that the Bishop had interfered with it. divided-one was for Mr. Richards, a second Mr. Morrison-To extend the Act in re- Richards but subsequently had his sentiments was for Mr. Jones, the third at first for Mr. lation to Fire Insurance Companies not in- | changed, not by arguments from the Bishop corporated within the limits of this Pro- | but by conversation with a layman, a distin-

Mr. Galt confessed himself surprised at vince, and otherwise to amend the said salary was far too large, and the proper course for the Government to take was to in-Mr. M. C. Cameron-To legalize by-law form the House what they proposed to do support he expected it was his. He was 116 of the Corporation of the township of with it. It was clear that more money had been paid than should be paid. The item was adopted. The Committee then rose, reported progress, and asked leave to sit again on Tues-House adjourn until Tuesday next at half. past seven o'clock. Carried. The House then adjourned.

NEW BRUNSWICK

The New Brunswick Parliament adopted the Address on Saturday last. In the Asask that the resolutions might be imme- on the subject of the local governments of sembly the vote was 31 to 7. In the Upper diately passed, subject of course to the re- Upper and Lower Canada; also a Bill to House an amendment 'praying that no funding of duties collected, if the bill em- authorize Municipalities to make grants for measure for Colonial Constitution be subbodying them were not subsequently ap- the relief of volunteers, and to make legal mitted to the Imperial Parliament until the details of such measure have had the deliberate consideration of the Legislature of New Brunswick,' obtained only three votes against twelve. Mr. Saunders was unani-

'Resolved That an humble address be I with delegates from the other Provinces, in | On roast beef, radish and chikens' wings, for the union of British North America, upon such terms as will secure the just rights and interests of New Brunswick, The House then went into Committee accompanied with provision for the imme- Who boalted the turkeys I needn't tell, of Supply, Mr. Street in the chair. Several diate construction of the Intercolonial Rail-

On the item for Administration of Justice | the delegates would receive instructions | Who dined the 47th Mess, from the Government, but he 'did not think | Good fellows and jolly, I must confess;

THE ROYAL MARRIAGE. The marriage of the Princess Mary to Prince Teck, was a genuine love affair .--After the ceremony was performed, the face rons. The greater portion of her unwedded | And their tricks at Cornwall to excuse?

bound to add no believed he (Mr. Holton) Court of Chancery would be swept away (his " old court suburb," (as Leigh Bunt | His Lordship the Bishop of Brooklyn gave would call it,) as the Princess Victoria used cositive orders that the churches of his dios steamship Moravian on the 7th of June, to be to the good leiges of Kensington - dess were not to be desscrated by any reli- after a delightful passage of ten days, and The Princess Mary married for love f. Why glous ceremonies therein for the unhappy should she not? Prince Teck may be as men, spostates from the Church, who lost in excellent health and spirits. poor as a church mouse, but he is a hand- their lines during the late Feulan raids in some, fine-looking fellow, a man of amiable | Canada. In consequence of this injunction, character; and every inch a Prince. Although | admittance to the church of St. Vincent getting out the public accounts for the year he is an Austrian cavalry officer, and might, Paul was refused to the body of a man name interest in the business of a firm in spirits. - | ending 30th June, 1865, which last session | therefore, be called out to the wars, you may | ed Engene Corcoran, who died of wounds by que sure that the Princess will restrain his him received at Ridgway. From this act martial ardour; hotwithstanding that, after Protestants may learn in what esteem Mr. Gult explained that the delay had a formight spent at Lord Brownlow's sent at lians are held by the Catholic Church. offices and of the establishment which did | tipent and adjourn a while at Vlenna.

THE PIC-NIC NUISANCE.

among other amusements of the Canadians Pic-Nics are the most common, and the The merchants are indignant over it, and it was intimated that the examiners were of the circumstances of the payment in most acnoying and troublesome to everyquestion. He agreed that, as a general one but the actual Pic-nickers. The is destroyed both as Mayor and member competitors. rule, such payments should be brought down | Kingston custom is, for parties of people | bell, who is in charge of Mr. Magili's busi-Mr. J. S. Macdonald gave a narrative of the cir- | sometimes respectable and sometimes not ; been made. Shortly after he the Macdonald some with married women to chaperon the of whiskey, all he could get from our largest took office in 1862, he received a letter from young women, and some without, to pro- the fact that the duty had been increase ceed, either by boat or carriage, to some | 30c per gallon became known, and a very pretty place in the vicinity of the city, and shy beeling that all was not right prevailed. tiary, and requesting that he, the Bishop, there, without leave or license obtained, $15 on one lot. The contracts in both proceed to enjoy themselves a la Pic-Nic. some time unanswered, in consequence of his sometimes with music and dancing, and sometimes without. They are sure to select some place that the owner or occupier takes pride and pleasure in keeping pretty, although he (Mr. Brown) thought they were appointment, as requested, but that he would for the peculiar solace and recreation of his by the parties, stating as a reason that the dash, gave a severe blow to them; but revery grave be was disposed to agree with be happy to recommend to His Excellency any own family and that of his own friends. The party for whom he purchased could not inforcements arriving, the Brazilians finally by a large majority, perhaps not so large if | for the appointment, and added that the salary | first thing these trespassing Pic-nickers dos confederation support were withdrawn - would in future be restricted to the amount after landing and making fast their boats, is to pull down the branches of the trees blossom, the wild Plum, the Black Cherry, Hawthorn, &c., &c., to make boughs fo, the ladies; the next thing is to throw down and break the fences, that the ladies member of the government had perjured him- salary increased from £250 to £400 per an- may trespuss, easily on other grounds. These fences are never by any chance relain should have a house outside the walls in placed! A fire is next in order, and that invariably is lit against the side of some the rebellion, is so great that the people majestic oak or elm, a tree whose life the cannot pay the taxes due to the Federal owner values more than he does that of any one of his trespassing termenters. the place is kept very clean, there is brush wood lying about to feed this fire crease of salary no authority or law existed, but that want is readily supplied by the nighest fence rail. Then the fire is never the calaries that had been paid so long, naless | put out, but allowed to smoulder of itself? n case of a vacancy, and he felt it to be his and in dry weather, if it does not run along that might be appointed within the limit fixed | the grass, get into the fences, and thereby by the statute. He continued in office for burn down a hundred pannels, that is owlog more to good luck than good managenever requested to recommend any person ment. Dancing comes after the repast, which is kept up to a late, or rather an

> It is utterly impossible for the owner or occupier to know whether the parties who have trespassed on his premises are respectable or not. It is true that gentlefelks no invariable criterion to go by, for many persons of high respectability, are too often may be thought that respectable peoply would not willingly be guilty of going other people's property and behaving as we ing candidates, thereby defeating Mr. allege. And yet it is of daily committal during fine weather. Any intrusion upon site to the treasury benches. The clergyman | their own lawns or gardens they would bitterly resent, and yet they have no feeling of compassion for those who live in the the Bishop of Kingston with making a country. It looks snobbish in Canada for the owner or occupier to stick up a notice forbidding persons to trespass, and mos, men would rather put up with the nuisance than appear singular, yet what other remedy has he? The late Dr. Sampselves on their gentility and their observance of the conventualities of life, will deprive him or his family, or his friends, of Tuesday, the 2nd of August next. the use thereof, thereby creating much annoyance, and putting him to trouble and leaving behind them their debris

SOME MORE DOGGEREL. A FU VARSES BY A YOUNG POAT. All, - My Mother.

Headquarters !

Headquarters ! | Voice in such delegation. Upper and Low- | And to rank and file gave ne'er a smell ?

Mr. Derien called attention to the great | the scheme of union agreed to in England | On the Volunteers' stuff, the " devil a less ?"

Who did, when the news went suddenly round, That the 14th Battalion was homeward bour

[Conclusion in a fu moar days.]

THE INCREASED TAX ON WHISKEY -A NICE TRANSACTION.

Hamilton, June 28. The purchase of a quantity of whiskey by hir. Magill's business man on I This is the season of Pic-Nice, and strength of information that the duty was to be increased, has caused great commotion there cannot be any doubt that Mr. Magill | very much gratified with the papers of all the ness, purchased some two hundred barrels wholesale houses here. On Wednesday, The purchaser had made a deposit of some cases were sufficiently clear, and there apbear it. Later in the day, however, Mr. C went to one of the establishments an offered if he was paid $10 to forego the advantages to be derived from the purchase; | confidently expected, awaited the approach raise the money to pay for it. The general impression, however, with the trade is that a nice thing was intended to be made, the Paraguayans early in the fight. The as he had during the afternoon of Tuesday | fight was a very severe one. More than a called on every house in the city and endeavored to buy what was on the market The above facts have been obtained from two of the leading houses in the city.

THE POVERTY OF THE SOUTH.

The poverty of the Southern States, consequence of the exhaustion caused Government. Attempts to enforce payment have in most cases failed. The people do not oppose payment, but are really so poor they cannot pay. In consequence of the difficulties which the Federal Coller tors have met with in the discharge of their duty, the subject has been laid before Congress by the Secretary of the Treasury, to its consideration. From the report of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, submitted to Congress, we extract the following figures showing the amount of direct taxes imposed on the several Southern States the Act of 1861, and the amount collected under that Act :---Pic-nickers. Some go home when night Louisiana midnight, making the woods resound with Florida the Government have been able to collect. shape of broken bottles, glasses, bones only under forced sales of lands; and so small was the competition among buyers that the officers of the Government had in many cases to bid off the lands or they could not have been sold at all .- Ottawa

> ----PROVINCIAL NOTES.

t happens that this year a sum of $2,570, 500 of the public debt will fall due. Owing to the heavy charges coming upon us on account of Feniauism, amounting to $1,150,000 and the very high rate at which money is held in England, Mr. Galt proposes to issue 0:0.000 of Government notes, instead of co across the sea to borrow. These notes it is proposed to make redeemable at Montreal and Toronto, one or other of the chartered banks giving circulation to them at a charge of five. er cent, foregoing, at the same time, irculation of its own paper. Well, the country is good for five millions, we think, and the scheme by which we may become partially be well received. The government notes ome a popular portion of the circulating medium, and the Bank of Issue -for that what it will become, in fact-a powerful fund

NEWS OF THE DAY.

BALL PRACTICE. - No. 4 Company, Royal Canadian Rifles, has been camped out for son had a pretty place at the west end of the past week on Barriefield Commons the city that during his lifetime was daily near the Rifle Ranges to the west of Fort Threshing Machines, &c., &c. Mr. McGee gave a detail of circumstances trespassed upon, much to the worthy doc- Henry, undergoing the annual course of tor's annoyance, but what could be do? musketry instruction. As soon as the ball There were only three Catholic clergymen in The present occupier, (Mr. Stewart,) has practice is concluded, they will be relieved striven to prevent the continued nuisance by another company from barracks, which by public advertisement, but whether he in turn will be relieved as soon as its course has succeeded, we know not. The roughs is concluded. By this means the whole of and rowdies of the thity care little for news- the Regiment will receive the necessary paper articles, and our present remarks instruction, without putting more than one will have no effect upon them; but we do company under canvas at a time. While hope, that the more respectable portions of in camp the men are not required to perthe community, those who pride them- form any garrison or regimental duty.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.—In accordance Tavern Stand. think over this matter, and not obtrude with the orders from the Adjutant General themselves where their presence is not de- of Militia, the Board of Officers to examine Mr. John A. Macdonald then moved that the sirable. To reflect, that by going, without candidates for commissions or appoint. permission asked, upon some man's pretty ments in the Volunteer Militia, which point, bush or green, they in all likelihood | meets quarterly, will sit in Kingston on |

> A FREE Figur. - James Scott, the Captain of a roow, was charged before the Police Magistrate on Thursday afternoon with assaulting a hand belonging to boat, named George Hough, whom he beat and kicked in a shocking manner, bunging up one of his eyes and inflicting some severe bruises. The defendant was haed $5 and costs for his Lrutal conduct. 11.

A Cock Fight .- Another disgusting exhibition, a cock fight, came off on Sewell's | I RESPECTFULLY beg to acquaint the afternoon, between a party from this city way Pianos without extra profits to other and another party from Brockville. Ten | Dealers or Agents, and at 20 per cent. less birds were pitted on each side. Out of than any Dealer or Agent in Canada. First eleven battles, Brockville won six, and were declared the winners, having acted this Fact. more fairly than their brethren from Coburg. I who held a match here on the 24th of May, I and on getting on the safe side of the score, fluncked, and refused to proceed any further. The raising of fighting cocks is get. STRAWBERRIES! ting to be an important item with sporting characters, but the Kingston cocks have not the notoriety of being as plucky as those of other cities-witness the recent

AND A. PITCHED BATTLE .- A challenge fight took place on Thursday afternoon between Young Bendigo, the professional buffer, and a farmer named Abrams, both large, stout, able fellows. Though there. was little advantage on either side, the latter is reported to have got the best of the game. He showed real pluck, and therefore made a good show against the science | Price $300. of the ring displayed by his opponent

Bismor LEWIS, - His Lordship the Bishop of Ontario reached England sately in th

Scholarship appeared. The Scholarship, which is of the value of $80, was founded by | T. Greek, Euclid, Algebra, Arithmetic, and English Grammar, the competitors were found to stand as follows :-- : 1. T. B. McGuire, 6. J. T. Kerr. 2. A. H. Ireland. 6. Irvine Ross.

3. George L. B. Fraser. 7. George Elhott 4. John B. McIver. Announcement was accordingly made by Principal Snodgrass at the Grammar Scho to day that the scholarship would be award

At Bath Grammar School on Tuesday last stock includes almost everything required to keep the shop going for about twelve scholarship, founded by the Hon. Alexander Campbell. After a lengthy examination the above-mentioned subjects, the scholarship was awarded to Mark Rouse .- News.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

New York, June 29 .- The Herald's Rio Janeiro correspondent gives the details the battle of Estara Bellrio between the Paragnayans and the allied army. It appears that the Paraguayans, instead of falling back from Humaila, as the allies retrieved the day, not, however, without the loss of a battery of artillery captured by thousand wounded allies had arrived at. Gorrientes from the field. The Paraguayans still resolutely held their Fort, and a severe battle was anticipated. All their war vessels had been converted into floating batteries, with the exception of five, which are kept as transports and despatch boats. The Brazillian fleet had left the Parana, and taken up its position above the Tres Bocas, in the Paraguay River. Financial matters in Brazil were uni

THE NIAGARA SHIP CANAL SCHEME SUPPORTED IN CONGRESS.

New York, June 29. The morning papers state the discussion on the Ningara ship canal bill has proved PARTMENT as may be required, comthe measure to have more friends than it | meneing on the EIRST of AUGUST next, was previously supposed to have. It will and continuing in force until the THIRTY pass. The committee's amendment making | FIRST day of MARCH, 1869, at Montreal the consent of the State of New York ne- including Hochelaga, Longueuil and St cessary will be stricken out.

DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP

THE Copartnership carried on by the L Subscribers, as dealers in Flour and Feed, Kingston, under the firm of Elliot & Mounstephen, is this day dissolved by mu-B. ELLIOT,

JOHN MOUNSTEPHEN. Kingston, June 29th, 1866. COOD NEWS

For Farmers. wor LIARVESTING MADE EASY by the Pipes, &c. I use of good Tools, which may be had at

Sign of the Cross Cut Saw, No. 7 BAGOT STREET. Most improved Mowing and Reaping Machines, of various patterns, at Maker

Wheel and Revolving Horse Rakes, do., Horse Pitchforks, for Hay and Straw, the at the Station. The Tenders to state the rate per cent. Hollant's Patent Pea Harvester, &c. Blood's and other superior make silver cast steel Grass and Grain Seythes, Improved Patent Snaths of different kinds, Grain Cradles in large variety, Hay, Barley and Manure Forks.

Scythe and Grind Stones, assorted kinds, Steel and Cane Weaver's Reels and Shr Hoes, Spades, Shovels and Rakes,

HARDWARE, Iron, Steel, Paints, &co., &c.,

ARTHUR CHOWN, Agent for the 'Hall's' Oshawa Celebrated Mowing, Reaping, Clover and Grain

Repairs supplied and orders promptly at-

Kingston, June 29th, 1866.

WANTS EMPLOYMENT. YOUNG MAN, an Englishman, well In recommended, who would be willing to make himself useful in any way. Would do a few days gardening until some other employment turned up. Apply at this

Kingston, June 29th, 1866.

TO LET ILLAGE OF WATERLOO, The Well-Known Tavern

UNION HOUSE. There are good Stables and Driving Sheds attached, and the House is in the Immediate possession given. For Terms apply to the Subscriber, at J. NORTHMORE. Kingston, June 29th, 1866.

TO.PURCHASERS

Piano Fortes.

farm on the Montreal Road, on Thursday | A public that I can supply the well-known Class Pianos of Canadian Manufacture at Moderate Prices. The public should know

W. BURROWS, Piano Forte and Music Dealer, King Street, Kingston. Kingston, June 28th, 1866.

STRAWBERRIES

Call Early. Kingston, June 27th, 1866. 151&26 Fancy Silk Parasols, PIANOFORTE FOR SALE.

In three rows of moulding, in a splendid house of John C. Fox, Kingston. The warranted to stand any climate. Original cost $650. Must be sold immediately .- | Store, King Street,

HAT STORE FOR SALE. D. CHISACHI,

Examination of the Kingston Grammar School On ACCOUNT OF ILL HEALTH, is under the necessity to give up by

EN BLOCOR RETAIL,

HATS, CAPS, FURS,

Comformateur, Shop Fixings. &c., AT A LOW FIGURE.

The above would present a first-rate chance for a young man to start business; as the months. The assortment is extra good, and was Purchased in the Spring for Cash, D. Chisachi seeing the impossibility of being again able to attend to business is willing to make a great sacrifice by disposing of the whole Stock in Trade at once. TERMS CASH-Or 12 month's credit, with 7 per cent. interest, good endorsed paper. The Store is situated in the most business part of the city, is doing a good business, which the sale books of the Subscriber will show, and is generally known by the Public as

"Chisachi's, the Hatter,"

ON PRINCESS STREET, KINGSTON, C.W.

All applications to be made (if by mail prepaid) to Box 229, P.O. If application for the whole stock en bloc is not made shortly, everything will be sold wholesale or retail until all is disposed of, for cash only, but at a bargain. D. CHISACHI. Kingston, June 29th, 1866.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

MENDERS in doplicate (marked on the envelope "Tenders for Works and Repairs for the Royal Engineer Department") will be received by the SENIOR and the west half of Lot 15, in the Second COMMISSARIAT OFFICER at Montreal, Concession, of the Township of Oso, not until TWELVE O'CLOCK NOON, THURSDAY, the 12th JULY next, the performance of such, WORKS and RE PAIRS for the ROYAL ENGINEER DE-Helen's Island.

CHAMBLY. ST. JOHN'S. ISLE AUX NOIX. KINGSTON, PRESCOTT, Kingston Division. OTTAWA, Ist. Excavators, Masons, Parers, Brck-layers, and Plasterers' work. 2nd. Carpenters and Ironmongers' work 3rd. Smiths, Iron and Brass Founders' Ith. Plumbers' work. 5th. Siaters, Metallic and Gravel composition roofing. 6th. Painters, Glaziers and Paper-hangers' 7th. Supply and repair of Stoves, Stove Separate Tenders are required for each Repairs required to be performed by the Purveyor's Department to be executed at the same rates as for Engineer services. The Tenders may be made for each the seven divisions of Trades in the Printed Schedule, but preference will be given to any one offering for the whole of the Trades below or above, or at the printed prices (for the whole of the services under each Trade) at which the party is willing to execute the Forms of Tender, and Schedules of Contract, together with any other information required, may be obtained at the District Royal Engineer Office at Montreal, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. No Tenders except those on the Printer Form will be noticed, and none will received after 12 o'clock on the day fixed. Commissariat Canada, Montreal, 27th June, 1866. [News to copy."

Arrived This Day

EX SHIP SARANAC

FROM LONDON.

English

Floor

NEW PATTERNS.

CORNER KING AND PRINCESS STS.

Kingston, 27th June, 1866. JUST OPENED OUT Glasgow Warehouse. R. WADDELL & Co. FANOY

French Grenadine, Shepperd Check Wincey for Travelling tf 152 | Black Norwich Barege for Dresses. Black Mantle Barege 14 and 2 yards wide, Plain and Fancy French Delaines, Black Glacie Silks, Black Gros Grain. LOOR Preserving and Table Use, to be Black Silk Parasols, Brown Silk Parasols, Green Silk Parasols, Blue Silk Parasols, > Drab Cloth Jackets. Light Barege and Mohair Jackets. R. WADDELL & Co. Kingston, June 27th, 1866.

Purple Silk Parasols,

Small Silk Umbrellas,

Black Silk Jackets,

d 1491

Sheriff's Sale of Lands for Taxes. THE Purchaser of Lots 10, in the 7th Concession, Lot 14, in the 5th Concession complying with the conditions of sale of lands for taxes, the said lands will be resold at my office on Saturday, the 30th June, 1866, at noon. THOMAS A. CORBETT

> 20th June, 1866. NOTICE

ELECTORAL DIVISION AGRICUL-TURAL SOCIETY, CITY OF KINGSTON.

ing, on King street, the day previous to the placed in their respective classes. Entries may be made with the Secretary, the day previous to the show. Subscribers who have not paid their subscriptions are requested to do so, and persons desirous of becoming members can enter their names with the Secretary

ROBT, HARDINGE,

FOR SALE CHEAP. TWO DETACHED Double Cottages, nearly new, Consisting of Four Comfortable Dwellings, on two lots; large Yards and nice Gardens and are in a healthy improving neighbortd 152 hood, near Princess Street, Eagle Foundry and Duff's Farm. Always rented to respectable tenents. This is a first-rate opportunity for Mechanics to secure a Freehold Property, instead of paying rent. One

A. public in general that she is

MANUFACTURING, ALL ITS BRANCHES, WITH DESPATCH.

AT MARTIN'S HOTEL, Princess Street, or AT R. MAKINS'

Farmers Attention!

NOW THAT THE William Ferguson & Co. The War is Over W.E would advise each Farmer in the VV adjoining Counties to put by his Rifle, and arm himself with a Grain Craille, Fork, Hoe, &c., &c., all o

GIBERTON& YARKER'S. BROCK STREET,

NEAR THE MARKET. Sole Agents in the Canadas for Dulorn & Co.'s Old Anchor Brand Bolting Cloth A. GISERTON. JAMES YARKER

THE SUBSCRIBER will sell, without A reserve. 14 FARMS

tle, a lot of Sheep, 5 Span of Carriage Horses. with all new Implements for Farming. Terms ... Siz years credit, payable in an-Also a few Farms near Kingston, Kingston, June 22nd, 1866.

TO-DAY.

aeriff 's Office, City of Kingston,

A LL articles entered for the show of the above Society, on the 6th of July next, are to be placed in the Skating Rink Build-Show, in order that they may be properly street, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Positively ho entries will be taken after 4 o'clock on

The Band of the Royal Canadian Rifles will perform during the evening of the day

Kingston, July 24th, 1866. Houses and Lots to each, fenced off; Wood Sheds and good Well of Spring Water. Lots are drained or the two lots will be sold. Terms easy Apply at the British Whig Office Kingston, June 26th, 1866. 1ed&w149

PREPARED TO EXECUTE CUSTOM CARDING

RECEIVED AND RETURNED

MRS. L. BOOTH. Odessa, June 18th, 1866.

which can be bought at a small advance or COST PRICE.

without any incumbrance, and Talle unquestionable, well known as ...

best Berns in Upper Canada are on the Island, with Stabling and Dairy for 250 Cows. The Land is not equalled by any in this at the office of Messrs. Kirkpatrick & Son, Cotario street, from this date up to four o'clock on Monday, the second of July next, after which all entries must be made at the Skating Rink Building, on King

ODESSA WOOLEN MILLS. THE Subscriber begs to acquaint the

ORDERS & WOOL

ONTARIO STREET, KINGSTON.

Kingston, June 20th, 1866 FARMSFOR SALE.

SIMCOE ISLAND. Four miles from the City of Kingston, with wood enough on it to pay for the Farms. with Seven Good Dwellings; Nine of the

Apply to the Proprietor,
WILLIAM BREDEN

TWOCASES