ARTEMUS WARD IN LONDON.

of for some time to come.

MR. PUNCH, MY DEAR SIR,-I skurcely need inform you that your ex- | day I'd made of it. celient Tower is very pop'lar with peple from the agricultoorel districks, and it was chiefly them class which I found waitin at the gates the other mornin. I saw at once that the Tower was cetablished on a firm basis. In the entire history of firm basis is I don't find a basis more firmer than this one. 'You have no Tower in America?' said a man in the crowd, who detected my d nomination. "Alara! no, I ansered; "we boste our enterprise and improvements, and we are devoid of a Tower. America my onhappy country! thou has got Tower! It's a sweet Boon.

The gates were opened after a while, and we all purchist tickets, and went in waitin room. " My frens, said a pale-faced little man, geance on the Canadians.

in black close, 'this is a sad day,' Insamuch as to how ?' I said. I mean it is sail to think that so many peple have been killed within these gloomy walls. My frens, let us drop a teat * No.' I said, 'you must excuse me

Others may drop one if they feel like i but as for me, I decline. The early managers of this instituotion were a bad lot, and their crimes were trooly orful; but I can't sob for those who died four or five hundred years ago. If they was my own relations . The delegates at present in England from HENRY THE THERE, ' Let us be cheer | North American Association.

showed us the Trater's Gate, the armers, attention of the Government," and things. The Trater's Gate is wide enuff to admit about twenty traters abrest, I should jedge; but beyond this, I couldn't | commencing thus see that it was superior to gates in gen'ral Traters, I will here remark, are a onfortnit class of peple. If they wasn't, they wouldn't be traters. They conspire bust up a country; they fail, and become statesmen and heroes. a sour apple-tree. But Mr. G. succeeded, Maritime Provinces, and became great. He was slewed by Cor. Richmond, but he lives in histry, and his equestrian figger may be seen daily for a sixpence, in conjunction with other em'nent persons, and no extra charge the Warder's able and bootiful lectur. hand grasping a barber's pole. I didn't ed in Montreal from a passenger on board, learn his name.

The room where the daggers and pistils and other weepins is kept is interestin' Isle Light at 6 30 p.m. on Tuesday, the 2nd | Colonel Lynch, has been found Guilty and Among this collection of choice cuttlery; October, where we were fairly out of sight sentenced to be hanged. Hanged of land, At about midnight a strong S. W. should be, but will be be hanged? heded old chaps need to conduct battles | breeze set in, and on Wednesday when I with. It is quite like the bow and arrer rose, the sea was running high; Thursday false compassion may spare his life, but used at this day by certin tribes of Ameri- worse, and on Friday still more so, the 'Si. should his life be spared, every murderer or Gen. O'Neil of the Fenian forces. can Injune, and they shoot 'em off with | Andrew' pitching heavily. At 3 a. m. on | such a excellent precision that I almost | Saturday, the storm had increased to a ter- | and robber will have an equal right to have sigh'd to be a tojun, when I was in the rife gale, and at 8 a.m. to an awful hurri- his life spared. Rocky Mountain regin. They are a plea | cane; seas apparently as high as the tops of | sant lot them Inines. Mr. Cooper and Dr. | the towers of the French Church, breaking party was stopped on the plains of Utah a band of Shoshones, whose chief said Brothers ! the pale-tace is welcome Brothers! the sun is sinking it the West and Wa-na-bucks-she will soon cease apeakin. Brothers ! the poor red man belongs to a race which is fast becomin ex- port bulwarks having been stove in. He then whooped in a shrill manner, stole all our blankets and whisky and but as a last resort Capt. Scott, who was fled to the primoval forest to conceal his lashed to the ship to prevent his being wash-

of Injune, that they are in the main a very | might atrike the starboard side, in the hope shaky wet, with even less sense than the that another similar to the one that sifted the Fonians, and when I hear philanthrophians | cargo might send it back again. This he did. bewailin the fack that every year ' carries | and with success, and with head about, going | the noble red man nearer the settin sun, I | back the way we came, the St. Andrew | in the place whar he was riz. (), Baldinasimply have to say I'm glad of it, the' it is | rode out the storm, which, about 3 p.m | ville ! Baldinsville ! how often have i larough on the settin sun. They call you by abated slightly, when she was put about bored to elevate your mind and inspire you my father's horses, slaughtered four of his

At one end of the room where the wep- | Capt. Scott says he never experienced such a | pine is kept, is a wax figger of Queen storm in his life. own. But a very interresting drammer is Troo to the Core, notwithstandin the eveen-

THR WERKIN BRITISH WHIT

KINGSTON, CANADA, THURSDAY MCRNING, NOVEMBER 1, 1866.

The Fen ans were about 800 men strong.

did not see the prisoner in the afternoon.

Indiana, I belonged to a Femun circle.

was sworn in on this side. I was sworn give evidence for the Queen. I told and a low felt hat. He had a revolver.

the United States Government will think | mind is totterin. It's really wonderful didn't drive. you into the Thames.'

I asked the onhappy man what his no ber was, so I could redily find him I should want him again, and bad him bye. And then I tho't what a rolicksome Respectively, &c.,

ARTEMUS WARD. minutes () a special and THE BEIGHT OF IMPERTINENCE PRAYER FOR THE REPRIEVE OF

New York, Oct. 27. The news of the conviction and sentence of Lynch has created the greatest excitemen among the Irish citizens of New York. The requesting the President to use all his efforts ! to obtain the same. The Tammeny Hall | $250. Well done, Mr. Carruthers! Democracy also held a meeting, and passed resolutions of a less pacific character, denouncing British instice and calling for yea-

CONFEDERATION

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT NON-COM KITTAL .- EFFECT OF MR. BOWE'S PAMPHLET.

Among the news by the China telegraphe to New York, but not sent on to Canada, we find the sollowing important item couldn't. It's absurd to shed sobs over the British North American Colonies have prize. things which occurred durin the rain of | been entertained at a banquet by the British ful,' I continued. 'Look at the festive speakers were strongly in favor of the Con-Warders, in the red flannil jackets. They | federation scheme. Earl Carnarvon, Secreare cheerful, and why should it not be tary of the Colonies, declined, however, to for securing barrack accomm dation for the very ospitabil, and won't take pay. Mr. commit himself on the subject. He promised | several companies of the 100th Regiment, | russel didn't charge me a sent, neither for | A warder now took us in charge, and the matter should have the full and careful shortly to be sent thither. The steamship licker, nor boord nor lodgio. I say logland civilian's dress. I do not think I would know object was to encourage others to follow up believe, to whisper consolation in the ears has a long article on Mr. Howers pamphlet, days out from Malta.

"A pamphlet has just appeared from the pen of the Honorable Joseph Howe tone confederation; which we have read with deepest interest, and, we frankly conless with both instruction and correction certainly were amongst those who strongly | murder, James Campbell, manslaughtr. overcost-take Mr. Glostes sease. Mr. | wholly insuperable. The confederation, it | fine of $50. G. was a conspiriter of the basist dye, and | now strikes us, would be an injury rather if he'd failed, he would have been hung on | than an advantage, more especially to the

HURRICANE AT SEA.

as the following extract from a letter receiv- City and Township.

"Had flue weather after leaving Quebec all the way down the Gulf, and we passed Belle Our | the port side with such force as to make her tremble like an aspen leaf and her cars sifted, thus throwing her on her beam on which account she refused to rise will the waves, which broke over her, smashing in the akylights and flooding the saloon an state-rooms with water. Everything seem ed to point to our immediate destruction this predicament the boats were got ready, ed overboard, resorted to an experimen I will remark here, while on the subjeck | he veered the vessel about, so that a sea

MOVEMENT OF MINISTERS.

ON CONFEDERATION.

could have kissed the dear child. the Catholic minority in Upper Canada now, as my stile of ritin takes amazingly the afternoon that I visited the camp. I do of saying so.

Regiment-about ten o'clock on Barrieffeld | insensibit The distressed Lady (they cal and advancing, telieving skirmishers, pre- I tressed female in a back slam, just shed the paring for cavalry, &c., when the Brigade | pearly teer of some thee and pasre-formed, the Royal Artillery proceeding to boller for the perfecte, but niver ventur their quarters at the Fort, and the Royal verself. Society is very demoralized in Canadian Rifles, headed by their band, back slum. marching back again to the Tote de | Leav agin Ingland an Ameriky agin th Post Barracks. General Michel expressed | world. I think the relashous between

THE QUEBEC FIRE -- Our reporter met the Sydenham Ward Collectors before noon yesterday, and their list already contained upwards of Six Hundred Dollars Subscriptions. Well done Old Sydenhau Carrothers of this sum contributed

CENTENARY OF METHODISM .- A Report The aggregate income will exceed $50,000. | mite yet be grate an go hand in hand in that city, from Montreal, for the purpose lickers in grate variety. The british peeps The London British Standard, of Oct. 12, is already due at Quebec, being about 16 relaishuns between the 2 countrees is satis-

NORTHUMBERLAND AND DURHAM Assizgs -The Court of Queen's Bench opened in Coburg on Tuesday. The Grand Jury found true bills against Edward Finten for advocated the federation of all our British | Robert Crozier, felony, Delos Brummell Take the case of Grosten, afterwards | North American colonies; but, after hearing | and Samuel Yarrow, larceny, and Henry Old Dick tur Thurs, who may be seen at | Mr. Howe, we feel we were in error We | McDonald, misdemeanor. The latter the Tower, on horseback, in a heavy tin | see difficulties to the way which to us seem | pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to pay a

ANOTHER RIFLE MATCH. -- The City of Kingston was shamefully beaten last year | THE TRIAL OF THE FENIAN COLC by the Township of Pittsburgh in the great Rifle Match. But the City is not contented to stay besten ; their Riffe Shots have had a good deal of practice recently, and they The steamship 'St. Andrew,' which left | think themselves some pumpkins. So Quebec on the 29th ult., arrived at trlasgow all probability we shall soon hear of another on the 12th inst., after a very severe passage, | Challenge and another Match between the

FOUND GUILTY .- The first Fenian tried, I think it was about three o clock on

THE LETTERS OF ARTEMYS WARD. -- OUR readers have a double blessing, or a double dose of the far-famed Letters of Artemus Ward.' Not only those which are addressed to 'Mr. Puneb,' and published London, but those addressed to 'Mr. W and published in Kingston.

ARTEMUS WARD IN LONDON.

MY DEER MR. WRIG .-Here i am, enjoyen with dignitee the good fortune which the gods has decreed Trooly, trooly, a Profit is without hon again. By Sunday morning the sea was with a love for the subtime and benteeful, sheep and eleven lambs, and took a rowboat down a good deal, and by night telerably but you harkened not to the voice of the belonging to him as well as harvess. calm. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and to- | charmer, and refoosed to pay only 124 sents | brought no horses to the camp, hawks. But I wander. Let us return to day have been magnificent days; sea as for a site of my wax statuoury, an laffed a number away with them. I saw the entire smooth as a mill-pond, and lovely over head. my lecture to skorn.

seriously of the Spaniards usin thumbseriously of the Spaniards usin the World. I think the secution is satisfactores.

London is the Spaniard usin the Spani himself pleased with the general efficiency | 2 countries is satisfactores. I think I told of both the Artillery and Infantry. Owing | you beloar that i git 75 dollers a letter and to the cold bleak wind that was blowing, lound. Noospaper ritin pais better in Lonand which was keenly feit on the open | don than in Baldinsville.

Mrs. russel an Mr. russel is grate tritida Ameriky, and axed me to come tan nite and have some supper. I could on that perticler nite, but went the nix an they was in bed. I wint nixt day had a long talk with Mrs. russel. She expressed herself grately pleased with m conversashum, but when i allooded to Mr Beales an the row in hide park, a dethly if the result of the collections taken at the | pallor overspred her fase, an she nervisite centenary meetings has been published. Inquired my oppinion on the subject. Sais is Muntreal, Great St. James' Street contri | 'Mrs. russel, coming events cast their buted $1 400; Coburg is represented as | shadows sfore em, an Ingland will soon be good for $500; and Picton for the same | in the throws of a everissienice large reamount. Hamilton has contributed up. | volushin, that will overthro olegarkey an wards of $2,000; Kingston about $1,500; make the throne rock an totter like a inand Belleville nearly $1,000. Thus far, | toxicated man, as sure as my name's A. the expectations of the promoters of the | Ward; 'but,' continued i, with univer Centenary Celebration are fully realized, | sel suffrage and free institueshums, logland Thus far, all things considered, Kingston | Ameriky in the grate work of civilizashul takes the lead in the benevolent enter- | and progres, and the elevashun of the hoaman rase.' Mrs. russe azed me to sta a nite. I staid. And me an the butler TROOPS. - The Ottawa Citizen save that | amoosed ourselves in the cellar until a late Col. Lysons and other officers have arrived | hour. The british aristocrasy have good factoree. In haist,

London, Oct. 11th, 1866.

LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS.

E. H. C. L., Ottawa ; W. A., Mountain View, with rem.

AT TORUNTO. The following is the principal evidence ad officer, on Wednesday :--

Thomas Newbigging was called and exam ined by the Solicitor General-I Fort Eric and resided there on the 1st the 1st of June, that I went into the Fenian encampment on my father's farm. I went he | there for the purpose of seeing if I could A secure some horses belonging to my which they had taken. I asked the said Cel. Hoy was at Fort Erie but that could see Gen. O'Neil, and they referred me to Col. Lynch, the prisoner at the bar. saw him, and he directed me to Gen. O'Neil's adjutant, whom he pointed out. The prisoner was dressed in civilian's clothing. The coat was the same as that which he now wears. He wore a black fe t hat with a low crown. He had a sword suspended by his side from a belt worn around his coat asked him how long the Fenians would remain there, and he said he knew nothing about them. They might remain there two hours, two days, or two weeks, but he knew no more, he sad, than I did. I addressed him as Col. Lynch, and he andwered wi hou!

correcting me. I should judge that there ed patiently to the Judge's lucid charge were about eight hundred men in the camp They all had arms, but at that time only the | and after a short absence from, Court repicquets carried them. Some of the men turned a verdict of Guilty. Justice Juwere washing, some bathing, some cooking, and others were employed in carrying rails | Wilson then proceeded to pass the and constructing breastworks. I saw arms about the camp-rilles, with bayonets at-SENTENCE OF DEATH. jached. The banti committed various out-The Solicitor-General-I move, r rages in the vicinity. They took three lord, the judgment of the court upon t His Lord hip-Robert B. Lynch, have you anything to say why the judgment body previous to their landing on the Ca. the offence of which you have been four The british Public is very sensitiv to nadian side. They crossed by means of guilty? eatire, an i hav ben a lashin of em at a canal-boats, on board of which they got at | The Prisoner (who spoke in a clear, mu- and in order that you may have the opporgrate rate; in fact i'm farely before the Praties dock on the American side. I was sight Irish accent tunity of doing so, the execution of the sen- hour afterwards. british Public as a literary awther, an if i called out of bed by a neighbor employed in upon some of the words)-Well, my lord, lence will be delayed till the end of next An official telegram from Cyrus W. only had my wax figgers heer i could amses the customs, who informed me about twelve you must have noticed the inconveniences, term, just as if the law had not been passe have associated Elizabeth with the Span | Field has been received in New York, stating | quite a kwantilee of means—as it is i'm | o'clock that night that the Fenians were or least the disadvantages, that my counsel authorizing immediate execution. It now ish Armady. She's mixed up with it at that after the first day of November the ekratshin out a very deesent livin ritin for crossing over. I then got up and dressed labored under in not being able to bring remains for me to pronounce the dread senthe Surry Theatre, where Troo to the Core tariff on all messages passing through the troops to be law. By the statute the crime of saw a bedy of Fenians land at the lower is being acted, and in which a full bally some found. Ingland and Ameriky, i say, agin the world. I think the relaishung between the court therefore is natisfactores.

When I got into the court therefore is satisfactores.

I the 2 countrees is satisfactores. The british peepil is remarkabil for 2 hear the shouting of the Fenishs I could this Province I state so now before your in the Fenishs I could things. Kloss is very cheep. I got my Pratt's dock, and hear the shouting of men present, that I had never, in any lot or check trows lor 4 shillins and tuppens, and the rolling of waggons on the dock.

but licker is remarkabil deer, and the ana Just before daylight, the tuga started from be have dock till you are dead—and was talking were Feman officers. The next tockrasy is a prayin on the vitals of the the dock, baving in tow each two capal the time I came into the country and may God have mercy on jour soul! They don't produce no Indean boats, loaded with armed Penians. They since; that I had no idea I was violating The prisoner received he sentence of the that day, when getting into a boat opposity Korn heer—the klimate aint adapted for steamed across to the Canada shore, and the laws of Canada or the neutrality laws court with a great deal or composure, and to our house with three other men. I beard England, we understand that Mesers. Me- it -nor squashes. The Ladies (they cal tags shut down steam as if seemingly at a of the United States, my own adopted bowed sughtly at the conclusion of His Lord- one of these say to the pri-oner, "come, of torbur, such as thumb-screws, throat-col- Dougall and Langevin will sail by the em weemen hear) is remarkabil good lookin, loss which place to proceed to. They ap- country; and that I was not aware there ship's affecting remarks, and then resumed Father, let us get into the boat." They are, etc., statin that these was conkered 'China' from Boston, on Wednesday next, only a leetle organish arms from Boston, on Wednesday next, on the leetle organish arms from Boston, on the leetle organish arms from Bosto rds was in them | tier, Howland and Galt, by the 'Australian' | singl i could marry into a remarkabil ritch | is 'called the Shingle dock, immediate- incidents and events of the action. Had I days—which eliessted from a bright-eyed on the 14th. The Hon. Mr. MaGee, whose and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairie and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairie and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairie and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairie and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairie and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairie and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairie and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectabil families, but don't mension be canada side to Prairies and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectabil families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectability families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectability families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectability families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectability families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectability families, but don't mension by opposite on the Canada side to Prairies and respectability families and respectabi that she that it was rich to talk about the London, will follow as soon as the articles neither. I say agin, ingland and Ameriky from the fact of there being a shingle—with regard to the manner in which the mill on the wharf. There they landed, I think the relashous be-should indee about a thought indeed a thoug

and jackets or shirts; but there was no na- you now stand. You must have seen tin canteens, great numbers of shich were without intelligence. With regard to the Mahon were placed in the dock. The Hon. found in the camp the next morning. After officace of which you have been convicted, they left the camp I know nothing of their the evidence is perfectly clear and concern. J. H. Cameron, Q.C., Mr. R. A. Harrison, sence of three questions by an hour brought movements except what I have beard from sive that you were there at Fort Erie, not and Mr. McNab, County Attorney, were in a verdict or Gettery. His institute seven or eight I should think. They were all | and in some kind of goo mand. What that green flags. Some of they had a crown sur- command was does not distinctly appear. mounted by a harp, and others had different But if you were there only as a reporter, devices upon them. These flags were waving | you would have known, it you had r fleetright in front, and marched past in slow stoal my jacknile, led pensil and Betsy's down the river. They stated that they did claimed, that there was no war, that the particularly excel. At the tieneral's de- munny, as Betsy had carefully sowed it up | was the red-coats they were after. I saw country, and that you were there to report sire, the Brigade was drawn up in Light in the bac part of my trows before leaven among them several persons whom I after to others interested who would gloar and load suit of black, with white neck tie. He not guilty. At the time that Milligan and tended as skirmishers, advancing up the steep hill above the main road, whither the nitecaps. I've slep in a old straw hat iver teserve or main body followed. They were since. If you iver come to London and law, when I recognized him as the person I was not among them. The first time I saw the loss of my Karpit Bag and red flashing time as a prisoner was in jail on the 20th of loss of my Karpit Bag and red flashing time as a prisoner was in jail on the 20th of loss of my Karpit Bag and red flashing time as a prisoner was in jail on the 20th of loss of my Karpit Bag and red flashing time I saw the loss of my Karpit Bag and red flashing Thomas Ryle sworn-I was at Fort Erie vour case in the minds of the jury, I care- made an application on his behalf to defer your fordship's parcon if I -ay anything on the first of June last. I came from Buf- intry abstained from nitering it; but there the trial until Saturday next, Nov 3rd, to that is not pirasant or sign able. It I was talo. I came over early in the morning in a sens reason now why I should abstain from procure the attendance of material wit- | guitty I would submit, but it you execute. canal boat drawn by a tug. There were commenting upon your crime, because nesses, the Hev. Dr. Fuller, or Syracuse, me my blood will gry to heave, for venperhaps about three hundred on board of her. every presumption is that you are guilty, and Bishop Coxe, of Buffalo. The Crown grance upon those that is the cau e of my We walked down from Buff lo to black Rock and it does not lie upon me to extenuate Prosecutor desired to give the prisoners desired innocentry. I was going after my When we left land on the American side the your fault or affect not to see it in its pre- every advantage, in order to ensure them a brother's affairs to Montreal. I left my men had no arms. Ammunition was served sent dark light. You and those who were fair and imparital trial, and therefore did own house at half-past seven c'elock on out on the American side, but after we left with you proless to have come here to re- not oppose the application. His Lordship Wednesday, the 30th of May last to go on the shore arms were issued out to the men. dress the grievances of many centuries and granted the delay, when secured that the that journey I took the railroad out at Guns and bayonets were issued out. When to right the wrongs of an oppressed people, serion would in no way compromise the eight o'clock, went to bid, came on my we lauded on the Canadian side there was and you alleged that the iron heel of the Court's polition in regard to the trial. The way straight, and arrived at fen o check on Commons, very few spectators were on the I was introdocced a few days ago to Lord ammunition in boxes but I did not see arms | Saxon was pressed on the neck of the Celt | Prisoner was then remove ; and the Rev | Fiday night, the 31st of May, in Buffalo. russel and Mrs. Lord russel, and shook in boxes. They said they were coming over hundreds of years ago, and that your che John Mc Mahon placed on trial, to take Canada; that was their intention I jest was to free your land from that oppress. Mc Mahon is a Roman Catholic pricat, there, had bed and breakfust, went to visit believe. I saw Cot Lyuch in the morning ston. If you had reflected you would have about forty years of are, and of data set my brends, Mr Maurice Vaughan and his seem that you began to do this by attempt- countenance. He exhibited no signs of brother Lan Vaughan. It was the moment walking up and down among the men. About | we to inflict prot us the very injuries un- | treputation, and was perfectly composed. | of nine o'clock when I crossed over on the der which you complained your native is id H. was well dressed in a clerical suit of ferry-boat on my way to Montreal I was about 100 were sent out as ski-mishers. We was suffering. Why should your iron held black, and wore a white stock, similar to looking for the rational office to get a ticket, then waited till the main body came up. after which we then marched into the coun- be placed upon our necks? In what way that which is used by the Roman Cathone that with one exchement-here try about six o'clock. I then left. A cap- did we hart you should priesthood. Little time was occupied to his words were mandible) - so I am innotain came galloping up and said we were endeavor to do us this greeous harm, empannelling a Jury, the prisoner only cour, my lord. I cannot plead guilty. going into action. I then stepped aside and and why should our homes be made challenging a single juror. Mr. R. A. am innocent. (The prisoner, winner ianseveral others did the same thing. (Laughter.) desolate, our young men slain, and Harrison opened the case for the Crown in guage we have given as uttered, spoke I then went down to Colonel Peacocke's force. | our farms pillaged by you? Will any man | an able manner, and called the I of sense an-wer th se plain questions? Was it anything less than murder, was there any po-sible excuse for you to come here in the dead of night to kill our people, to rawage our homes and to lay waste our farms and habitations, it order, as you say, He was there with the Feniars, who num-

To Mr Martin-i was born in Ireland the county Kerry. I have been in the States about a year. I was in Penusylvania and by one McDonald. I forget the oath. Some part of it was that I would serve them, and at the last I was to help me God. (Laughter.) I have turned Queen's evidence and is about 5 feet 8 inches in height, and about 35 years of age. He had a big binck mus-Shields is about the oldest man I saw there, testify in your behalf. Why should they by our Volunteers a prisoner. Creek. I saw the prisoner on Friday, early could not have been carried out, because, | tor, the forenoon, in the Fenian camp. I do like all others who had committed crime. no know when he came over. I saw another and down where the Fenian arms were 'stackwere not long there when I saw the prisoner, | urged. But having been thus tried and | again.

On Thursday the Court resumed, wher he prisoner Lynch produced his witnesses whose evidence, however, was extreme weak, and benefited the case not a while The counsel for the prisoner, Mr. Martin then addressed the Jury, and was followe n an able speech by Solicitor-Genera der to shorten your existence one single hour. Fort Erie before. lockbarn for the Crown. The Jury lister And, moreover, as you had a right that law was passed to bring into court the whole question in appeal from the decision of this come before the Court, where the same evi- hailed the boat, and the boys came on ould if she'd been six years of will be placed on a footing of just equality with the britishers, altho the aristockrasy not know what time they left the camp, but | His Lordship. The reason I asked you dence applies to a number of the prisoners,

NOS. 258 & 44

THE FENIAN TRIALS AT TORONT

AND SENTENCED TO DEATH. Kenneth Mackenzie, Q.C., appeared for the prisoner if he had anything to say. He the American Government, and Mr. M. C. then made this statement : Cameron defended the pr. soners.

The prisoner Lumsden was the first me, if it was true, I would have nothing to

EVIDENCE FOR THE CROWN. John Ray, aworn-I live at F rt Erie. I was there on the 1st of June. I saw the prisoner at the bar there on the 1-t of June. to relieve the condition of Ireland? What | bered over 900 men. They had arms. The | you guilty upon evidence which I think right had you or who could have authorized prisoner had no arms. I saw him about 9 admits of no doubt that you were present any man to commit such a wrong as you o'clock in the morning. He was dressed in with those propie and less them all perpetrated upon us? It is putting the black, the same as he is now. I saw him the countenance and a sistance to your marter in a very plain and clear light, just in the village or Fort Erie. The Femans power, is very clear; and it is a pity that the duty. If I could I would. As the law had a conversation with him when he told the 13th day of December next, and on that now stands you might be entenced to imme- me that they would not harm us, only the day to be taken from thence to the place diste execution. The law puts that disc e- redecuts. He said they did not mean to of execution, and there to be hanged by the tion in my hands; but inasmuch as that law stay there long or hurt the sahabitants of neck sutil you are dead, and may foot have was ex post facto as to you, I shall certainly | Fort Erie. The Reeve of the village got | mercy on your out ! not exercise any discretion I may have, in or | their breaktast. Have heard he was at | court, if there was any think, wrong in the a saloon. They asked me to drink and 1 evidence or improper in the rulings of the asked them, but they would not let me pay tore. court, God forbid that I should deprive you for it, as they said they could better afford of that opportunity. You shall be dealt with it. I had several drinks with them, four Februar prisoners will be tried before Wedjust as the law was when you committed the or five I should say. I did not see the offence; so that if there has been anything prisoner when he went away. I heard the needs y next, Mr. Mackenzie, who has been wanting in justice during your trial, or if in | priest say "Boys, take care of yourselves." | retained by the American consul to defend the opinion of my learned brothers, the evi- I can't say that I was "hale fellow, well such of them as are American citizens, not dence does not sustain the conviction, you met" with those Fenians who came over will have time and opportunity to appeal that morning. I certainly did drink with being ready to proceed with their trials. against it. If I have received evidence that | them. The Fenrans moved away from the I ought not to have received, or if I have put | viliago between nine and ten o'clock. The | SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE QUEBEC jury, it will be open to you to complain of it; | 1st of June, between five and six o'clock it the morning, and I next saw him about an Joseph Newbiggen, sworn-I live on the Niagara river, about two miles from Fort Erie. On the morning of the 1st of June 1 is, that you, Robert B. Lynch, be taken to our farm about mid-day. He was standing time I saw him was about three o'clock of started on the u-ual course for Black Rock dam (on the American side). I saw the Thos. L. Newbiggen, sworn - I saw the prisoner on the alternoon of the 1-t of June and compelled by the Fenians to go to was to Sontreal to receive a leavey. -The Bon J. H Cameron tollowed it an ship charged the Jun fairly ain impartially. At the opening he remarked :--

THE PRIEST MCMAHON FOUND GUILTY

The July then retired, and after an abpresent representing the Crown; Mr. then proceeds to pass sentence, and ask d

According to the te-tim my given against called up. He professes to be a clergyman | say, my lord; but I do declare bere that I with a strong frish " rogu," and showed himself by his language to be an illiterate

His Lordship then proceeded to pronounce the dread sentence of the law to-John McMahon-The Jury have found

turnkey that I knew some of the prisoners, such a light as you must have perceived it landed about 14 miles from the village. - a clergyman of your church, which up n and he told Mr. Harrison. I expect to get in if you had thought for a moment before They then may ched through the village, all occasions has discouraged thousand off I did not expect to be hanged. I will going into this mad and wicked enterpri e. They then hatted near my house, within 60 and war, should be found in such a sunanot say that the Fenian society was a secret You tand there surrounded by the friends feet of it. I saw the prisoner after they had tion. It is a pity that you so far forgot the society. I do not know that we were to keep and relations of the men you slayed on that taken breakfast. I don't know where the traditions of your Church have be engaged their secrets. I saw Gen. O'Neil at Fort Erie. occasion. If you were there as a reporter prisoner had breakfast. They stopped at in an enterprise of such a nature. If you He was dressed in a black Carolina hat and even, you were not guiltless, because your the village a couple of hours, when they had not gone there, as you would have us Pennsylvania, with the 100th on board, and Ameriky agin the world. I think the him again. I do not know Col. Hay, nor Col. if the attack was successful, or keep them behind, when the prisoner ordered them to of the dying, you would not stand in the Sing, I belonged to McDonald's company, away if the reverse. You could have had take up their values and said "for the boys" petil you now do. If you had staid till a but was not long with them. I came over in no other object than to slay our prople and may want them, as we don't know how conflict had taken place, and then gone the first boat, about four o'clock; but do not | destroy our homes. Now, looking at it in | long we may have to stay in Canada;" and declared what were your intentions, no know who had command, except Captain that light, you cannot be surprised that the they picked up their values and followed one would have molested you. However law should be en oreed and that you should the main body. This was about 9 o'clock, inimical to your church he might be, not a suffer its dread penalty, as I am very much | they came up before seven. I then saw | man in the Province would have said no to afraid you will; for how could we punish him on Saturday efter the fight at Fort Erie, your mission in that respect. But you aid tache. McDonald was acting as captain .- the young unreflecting, rickless men who between a portion of our Volunteers and not come in that way, but came to give He was a young man and was dressed in were brought here by you and others like the Fenians. Cen't say how many we encouragement and help to m n who had light clothes. The most of the officers were you, who placed confidence in you, who killed or wounded as the Femans took me faith in your power and authority, and they in civilian's clothes. I did not notice any put faith in what you said-how, I s y, I resoner. I hey landed on Friday. I saw went boldly on in the knowledge that you body with a sword over civilian's clothes, could we, in justice, punish them if we air the prisoner at the bar when they took me | were there to help them and give them the Many of them had black rowdy hats. I saw lowed you, the greater criminal, to escap ? prisoner on Saturday. He then was ex- consolutions of religion of they felt. How a lieutenant—a broken nused chap (laugh- You complain unjustly that those in com- amining a wounded Fenian. I next saw sad it is that you could encourage men ter) with a black hat and dark sacque coat. mand were not permitted to come here and the prisoner on Sunday while he was taken who believed to much in your power, to I saw Lynch at Fort Erie. There were some | be allowed to come here? I endeavored | Cross-examined by Mr. M. C. Cameron- | I have a paintal duty to perform which I officers with grey bair around the Fesian to explain to the jury, and you must have I first saw prisoner on the Friday; he had a sould like to avoid. But I am but the camp, but I did not see them talking to the seen it clearly, that I could not pervert one value of his own. Did not see the prisoner humble instrument of the law. You will prisoner. They were heavier men than law, and that if the Crown had pledged in jail until this week. He was dressed in bave every opportunity if I have given any Lynch, I saw some more at Frenchman's itself to give these men safe conduct, it black, and I took him for a priest or doc- | wing sirection to the July or made any mistake, to make application for infras. I Alfred Wilcox, sworn-I remember see | will not exercise the power which is given growd coming over at seven o'clock. They they were amenable to the law. In the lag the presponer on the law and passed since the commission struck shore. The prisoner was walking up course of your trial you have had all the was standing talking with the Femans who of the offence of which you have been justice that could possibly be expected; were left behind. The main body had bound guity, to have the sentence of the The first I noticed of him was in Fort you have had the advantage of a strict ob left. There was some satchels left, law carried out immediately. There is servance of all the forms of law; and every and he was giving orders to take them after | no necessity for 100 m diage | no was formed. I saw no washing going on one abstained from urging too hardly against the others, as he said the "poor boys might You have had an imparital tria", and the I saw cooking. We had dinner there. We you that which might fairly have been want their clothes." Did not see him Jury I think have come to a right condid not see him coming. He had a hat on found guilty I would fail in my duty it I Alexander Milligan, sworn-I saw a wish to harrow up your leelings by any him, and a sword on. I never knew him be- did not point out your crime in its true con-iderable body of men at Fort Erie on observations I could make. These could fore. I came to give evidence against the light. Now that I am about sentencing the 1st of June. I reside in the village of be of hille use to you now, and the return I prisoner because I saw him there. I am you to appear before a Judge who sees Fort Erie. I saw them about five in the will ofrain, But I will say this tired if you coming to give evidence against some others things as they are. It is a very pasts. I saw the presoner at Fort Erie. had acted as the elergyment of your circulent ful thing, the most painful thing I saw him first in a saidon where he ried to | have in all ages done, you would tave med that a man could be called upon to do, to induce the men to take care of themselves. to dissuade those men from the course they do m a fellow cresture to death; but the life had on a dark coat. He did not look took. I have no further observations to requirements of society whose rules you have like a clergyman. He had a revolver by make. The sentence of the Court upon you outraged area it on me, and the law of the line suite. I he and him tell the men to take is, that you be taken to the piece from land demands that I should not shrink from care of themselves when he went out. I whence you came, there to be detained till

> The prisoner received his sentence with Cross-examined by Mr. Cameron-Lasw an air bordering on indeff-rence showing them in the morning. I first met them in far less emotion than many of the spec a-

> > It is not likely that any other of these

FIRE RELIEF FUND.

SYDENHAM WARD. J. Carruthers & Co. $250 C. F. Gildersleeve.... d. Watkims. Kirkpatrick & Sous, Cildersleeve & Walkem Bishop of Onvario..... 9 Mrs. Macaulay G. At. Kinghorn Martier & Waddell France & George R J. Cartwright. E. H. Hardy 17 Chown & Cuntingham James Kiddell G Chaffey & Bros. . R. M. Moore James Fisher M. Sweetnam Samuel Muckieston If W. R. McRae & Go. N. Masnard Anderson & Ford G. Harper A. McAilister