PASSING EVENTS AS RECORDED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Movements of Ruralists—Doings and Sayings in Neighboring Villages—Spicy Bits of Country Gossip—The Festival Operations Very Successful.

WILTON. Jan. 4.—Mr. Townsend, of Trenton, is visiting friends here.—Mr. Robinson, of Newington, who is visiting at Rev. G. Robinson's, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church on Sunday morning.—Miss Jessie Wallace has returned home after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Topping, of Elgin. Harry Storms, of Sydenham, has been visiting friends here for the past week.

GLENBURNIE. Jan. 5.—School will commence on the 10th. Mr. Corkhill, B.A., has been engaged as teacher for 1887. At the annual school meeting, held on Dec. 29th, W. M. Spooner was elected trustee.—Mack Reid goes to Kingston to-day to have a surgical operation performed on him. His case is a critical one.—We congratulate Mr. Chas. Hay for his success in being elected councillor.

ODESSA. Jan. 4.—School opened on Monday with Mr. Bourne, principal, Miss Murray, of Kingston, second, and Miss Henzy, third departments.—We regret to lose the services of Miss E. McManus, a lady of high scholastic attainments, who taught the young idea for five years here. We wish her success in her new field.—Rev. Mr. Bates, of Yarker, ably filled the appointment Sunday evening.

MORTON. Jan. 4.—Mr. McDonnell is with us during the holidays.—After a long and painful illness Mrs. Arden Kilbourn died on Sunday night. She will be much missed here.—Mr. F. B. Faber and wife have arrived home from their wedding trip, and will soon take possession of their house, which has just been completed and is one of the finest in this section.—The skating rink is well patronized.—We expect to have a mixed council this year.—The new bridge is completed all but the plank.

SEELEY'S BAY. Jan. 5.—Mr. Reid, the new teacher, opened school on Monday. Mr. Berney, the ex-teacher, having removed to Lyndhurst.—W. Richardson and W. Coleman have left to resume their studies at Queen's and Royal colleges.—Samuel Coleman, who left six years ago to farm in the north-west, is paying a visit to his friends.—At a trotting race on the 4th inst., between James Niel's "Queen" and Donoghue's "Blind Bess," the former won easily. A good deal of betting was done.

WASHBURN. Jan. 4.—Tenders have been sent to the Rideau Canal office, Ottawa, for the building of the piers of the Brass' Point bridge, and the work is expected to commence at once.—Mr. Hutton polled 94 votes at the Brewers' Mills polling place, and his opponent only 2. Pittsburg's sympathies don't pull together, and it is expected Mr. Graves will in future only run for the front.—Large crowds of girls and boys find the skating rink here a great enjoyment. The best time is expected on Friday night.

PITTSBURG. Jan. 4.—Springfield Methodist church Christmas tree entertainment, notwithstanding inclement weather, was well attended.—The congregation presented their pastor, Rev. Mr. Henderson, with a pair of seal driving gauntlets, and the junior pastor, Rev. Mr. Irwin, with a Persian lamb cap.—Next Sabbath, the 9th inst., Rev. Mr. Stillwell, of the Fourth Methodist church, Kingston, will preach in Springfield church at 10:30 a.m.; at Pine Grove church at 2:30 p.m., and at Zion church at 6:30 p.m.—Missionary meetings will be held at Pine Grove church at 7 p.m. on Monday, 10th inst., and at the same hour on Tuesday, 11th, in Springfield church; speakers, Revs. Stillwell and Myers, Kingston.

CATARAQUI. Jan. 24.—Notwithstanding the night was unfavourable the Christmas ship in connection with the Methodist Sunday school was beautiful and successful. It was heavily laden with presents for the children and friends; fruit was enjoyed by the children and audience and a nice amount was realized.—Rev. Mr. Haylock, of Verona, gave us a very interesting discourse in connection with our missionary meetings, and we expect that the proceeds will exceed those of last year.—The Catarauqui toboggan slide will be ready for use in a few days. It will be a splendid one.—Mr. Fairbanks' steam thrasher is doing fine work. It will turn out about 100 hundred bushels an hour. He says if the farmers will give him any encouragement he will run a grain crusher in connection with it.

POINT ROAD. Jan. 5.—Barriehfield school opened on Tuesday with a good attendance and Mrs. Busch as teacher.—The opening assembly, which took place on the evening of the 29th in the new town hall, Barriehfield, was well attended. Mr. Hutton gave the young folks an "At home" in the hall on the evening of his election to the reeveship. Byrne's orchestra furnished the music for dancing, which was kept up until a late hour. Speeches were delivered by the reeve, and a few of our most prominent gentlemen. E. J. LeHeup also gave a concert and hop in the town hall on Tuesday evening, which was well attended by Kingstonsians.—G. Rickey has returned from Mill Haven looking greatly refreshed.—Mrs. Dinahan, of Montreal, is visiting relatives here.—Mr. Hickey, of Glenburnie, is visiting friends here.

LATIMER. Jan. 4.—The Christmas holidays passed off pleasantly, notwithstanding the severe cold weather.—The Latimer tea-meeting was a decided success both financially and otherwise.—A social was announced for the following Friday evening, but owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was small. The programme was furnished by the young people. J. Claxton, jr., occupied the chair.—T. Greenwood is visiting friends here.—The school meeting passed off quietly this year. F. M. Campbell was elected trustee.—J. Curran had his valuable dog shot on New Year's day.—F. H. Spooner is lessening the fat cattle in this neighborhood.—B. S. Wirtman is again tanning deer skins and making buckskin mittens and moccasins out of them.—E. C. Spooner is attending the cheese convention at Brockville.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell celebrated
