NEWBORO.

Jan. 25.—George Taylor, ex.M.P., was visiting in this neighborhood a few days. ago looking after his interests for the next election. - Business is reviving rapidly since the railway company has paid off the claims of the men who worked and those who furnished supplies for the railroad. -Mr. Scott died in this illage at the advanced age of 104. It is said his age is authenticated .-The school board this year consists of Robert Webster, chairman; L. S. Lewis, secretary; with Messre. Tett, W. T. Preston, Joel Spicer and Haslitt. A fine large school house is to be erected. The skating rink this year is under the care of Mr. William Corsline. Since new year's there has been little opportunity for skating.

EMERALD.

Jan. 24. The ice between Bath and Fmerald, which was in a very poor condition wing to the depth of snow upon it is much stronger since the thaw and after the frost and is now capable of holding double teams. -The little son of George Ruttan's, who has been very, ill, is recovering rapidly. - Miss Mary Willard has returned after an extended visit. - David McCarthy and bride are visiting friends below Kingston. - A very enjoyable time was spent on Monday night at the residence of John Brown; dancing being kept up till an early hour. - Barney Burns had the misfortune to have his eye nearly put out while engaged in a scuffle at Stella. - Dancing school was re-opened at Stella on Tuesday night. The attendance was not large.

ODESSA.

Jan. 26. - The recent heavy rain reduced the snow and caused a rush of water to the cellars, doing considerable damage. - Mrs. H. P. Timmermans, Winnipeg, and Mrs. John G. Henry and son of Portage la Prairie, Man., are paying a visit to P. S. and Mrs. Timmerman. - Rev. John Scott, Emerson, Man., occupied the Methodist pulpit on Sunday. He delivered a splendid sermon. He has lost none of his renowned eloquence. - David Fraser, Emerson. Man., is spending a few days here. - Cadets McGurney and Robinson, of the salvation army have been ordered to Violet Capt. Graham is going to the North-West. - Thomas Mabee is seriously ill. The missionary services of the Church of England will be held in Beaver hall on Friday at 7:30 p.m.

INVERARY.

Jan. 25. On the 12th inst. Marian Day lish died at the residence of Mr. Joseph Toland, at the extraordinary age of 98 years. Deceased was born in Scotland. Fifty years ago she came to this country with her husband, D. McNeil. They settled on lot 18, 7th concession of Storrington. McNeil was a carpenter and took contracts for the erecting of houses, a great many of the present buildings in the township were built by him. For a short time he was in the employment of Mr. Matthews, who was then a prominent contractor in the city. Twenty years ago McNeil died. After his death his wife disposed of the property and went to live with Joseph Toland, and resided with him until she passed away. She was a strong, healthy and vigorous woman, and only sick three days. She was a strict follower of the Presbyterian faith. On Tuesday, 14th inst., her remains were followed to their last resting place by a large number of friends.

CATARAQUI.

Jan. 24. - The holes in the roads were very dangerous, but the tollman is filling them up, and the road is now passable. The worst part of the road appears to be where the wire fences are. How is that "-Mrs. Byers, who has purchased Mr. Cooke's property between the bridge and railroad, is preparing to make a wire fence. - The site on which Treasurer Vanluven is building his new residence is said to be the most commanding in the township. Herbert Purdy has gone to Kansas in the interest of his new patent wire fence. Miss Grand has been suddenly called home to Toronto, her sister being dangerously ill. The salvation army is about to open fire on the strongholds of the enemy in this village. The toboggan slide was formally opened on Thursday night. They had a jolly time. The committee, Messrs. W. Fly, G. Nicol and E. Northmore, deserve great credit for their energy in providing recreation for the young people. Its cost was between $60 and $70, and paid by the young people of the village. It was built by Mr. Ely, sr., is about 45 ft. high and has a run way of 500 ft., and a nice ante-room for the comfort of the guests. Those enjoying the fun pay 75c. for season tickets per couple.

HALEY'S STATION.

Jan. 25. — We have had almost continued storms during the last ten days. The weather took a turn on Friday night, a drizzling rain setting in and continued until Monday morning. The storm on Thursday night carried off the roof of Mr. Wesley Philip's house. A part of it fell over the bed in which his children were asleep. Fortunately no one was injured. - The quarterly meeting was held in the Methodist church on Sunday. The attendance was small on account of the storm. Rev. Mr. Robeson conducted the services and administered the sacrament, but announced that the regular sacramental service would be held in this place in two weeks, Feb. 6th. Some strange minister will likely be present to preach and assist in the service. - G. W. Hurst is quite ill with pleurisy. He expects to be able to take charge of his school at Douglas in a few days. - John McMullen is slowly recovering from his late illness. - Miss Dunlop, of Bakenham, is visiting friends at Northcote. James Findlay, the liberal candidate for the commons, is at work addressing the electors of North Renfrew on the great political questions of the day. He is announced person taking it if so desired. Send 6c. in for Haley's Station next Thursday. Discus- stamps, for book and testimonials from those sion invited. He comes out squarely as a who have been cured. Address M. V. Lu prohibitionist.
