This arrangement is different from all others. It is an undoubted saver of fuel, and it effectually prevents all cold drafts or snow drifts from entering in the winter. It is also equally effective in excluding rain or dust in the summer. It will securely bolt the door, is warranted not to get out of order from damp, heat or frost, and the longer it is used the closer the rubber fits. When the door is opened the strip raises up and frees itself from the threshold, and travels unobstructed with the door. Agents are canvassing the city with a working model. County rights for sale. Address communications or call at 171 and 173 Ontario Street, next Barnett House. Cost price for above $1.50. Nov. 9.

MERCIER GOVERNMENT.

FORMED AND ALL READY FOR ACTION ON WEDNESDAY.

The History of the Tallon Government—One of Deception From Beginning to End—Who will Have Offices in the New Administration—Mr. Mercier will Lead it as He Led the Opposition.

QUEBEC, Jan. 30.—Now that the Tallon ministry has gone its history has leaked out. When Dr. Ross and Mr. Flynn resigned they did so because they knew that the government would be beaten, and they did not care to stand the humiliation of defeat in the house. The government would have resigned long ago but for orders received from the Ottawa government who promised to find a majority for them and failed. When Dr. Ross resigned he recommended Mr. Tallon, and that gentleman, on being called to the government that he was able to form a ministry which would secure the confidence of the house. The government thereupon entrusted him with the task of the explicit understanding that he would meet the house. For three or four days afterwards Mr. Tallon ran around hunting for a majority but failed to obtain it. On the eve of the opening of the house he went to Spencerwood, and to enable him to face the house and assume responsibility therefor he was sworn in, together with Messrs. Blanchet, Lynch, Robertson, with Mr. Starnes as representative in the council. Mr. Flynn positively declined to be sworn, or to have anything to do with Mr. Tallon's proceedings, holding that they were altogether unconstitutional. Immediately after the cabinet had been sworn they advised the lieutenant-governor to reappoint Mr. De LaBruere speaker of the legislative council during the parliament, but this was so unconstitutional a demand on the part of a government which was not certain of being supported by the house, and he therefore appointed him only during good pleasure; so that the speaker, who is a bitter partisan and who has been illegally appointed, can be removed at any time. Besides, it is claimed that he does not possess the qualifications necessary for the office.

The Tallon administration also made a number of minor appointments on the same day. Mr. J. D. Brosseau, who was beaten in Portneuf, was appointed registrar of Quebec, a position which has been vacant for two years, and which was kept open for some of the ministers. It was claimed that it was with great reluctance that Mr. Blanchet consented to enter the Tallon cabinet, as he expected to be appointed to this position. Gustave Grenier, who was acting clerk of the legislative council, was appointed clerk at a salary of $2,400, and Richard, who gave up his seat in Montreal to Tallon, was named as assistant clerk at a salary of $1,200, being passed over Mr. Normandin, who was entitled to promotion. The new government would be perfectly justified in revoking all these nominations.

A few days before the house met, and during the interregnum between Ross and Tallon, the clerk of the house was asked to sign the ordinary printing contracts, which net the Montreal Gazette about $15,000, the Canadian of Quebec, $18,000, and the Courrier du Canada and Journal de Quebec about as much more, but he positively declined to do so until ordered by the speaker of the house. Judge Wurtele, who was the speaker of the last house, visited Quebec to help the government out of this quandary, but failed. It is stated, however, that Judge Wurtele did not visit Quebec uselessly, as he granted a bonus of $100 to each of the secretaries of the commissions for the codification of the statutes, Messrs. Parizeau, Oliver and Martin, and $50 to each of his messengers. It is claimed by some that he had no right to do this.

The New Ministry.

QUEBEC, Jan. 31.—Mr. Mercier is to be premier and attorney-general; Mr. Shehyn, treasurer; Mr. Duhamel, solicitor-general; Mr. Gagnon, provincial secretary; Mr. Garneau, commissioner of crown lands; Mr. McShane, minister of public works and agriculture; Hon. D. A. Ross and Hon. A. Turcotte, ministers without portfolio.

QUEBEC, Jan. 31.—The Hon. A. Ross and Garneau will find seats in the legislative council by the resignation of Hons. Remillard and Savage. The former will be appointed to a clerkship in the legislative council. The nationalists have been propitiated with three seats. Mr. Duhamel was recognized as one of the leaders in the Riel agitation in Montreal though until lately, like Mr. Garneau, a conservative. Messrs. Turcotte and Garneau were each the authors of series of resolutions proposed in the legislature at its last session condemning Riel's execution. It was at first reported that Mr. Garneau was to be simply minister without portfolio, but this was objected to by the Rielites, who finally carried the day. A rumour was current on Saturday that the offer of a portfolio had been made to and rejected by Dr. Cameron.

Shehyn, of Quebec, has been a harbour commissioner, and is now president of the board of trade, in which position he has rendered valuable service. The nationalists here have given a general opinion of satisfaction on the formation of the new cabinet.

It is said that after the reassembling of the house on Wednesday, it will be adjourned until 16th March.

So far as the protestant representation in the council is concerned it is known that the position was offered by Mr. Mercier to the Hon. Geo. Bryson, by whom it was also rejected. It was only offered to Mr. Ross after Mr. Bryson had declined it.

It is a curious coincidence and serves to show that politics sometimes makes strange bed fellows, that Mr. Garneau was in 1875 opposed in the county of Quebec and defeated by Hon. D. A. Ross, Mr. Joly's attorney-general, and now his colleague in the cabinet of Mr. Mercier.

Miscellaneous Notes.

John Waldie is the reform standard bearer for Halton.

John Small, the ex-member, is the candidate of the conservatives of East Toronto. A labour candidate, for the representation of the city in the commons, is talked of. Sir John Macdonald and Hon. Thomas White are expected in Toronto on Tuesday. James Conmee, M.P.P., for West Algoma, is the reform candidate for Algoma for the commons.

Mr. H. J. Cloran, the liberal candidate of Montreal, has received the endorsement of the labour union.

There is to be no change in the representation of Queen's N.B. Mr. King, liberal, will be returned. Sunbury N.B., true to liberalism, will return Charles Barpee with an increased majority.

Col. Marchand, speaker of the Quebec assembly, is, like Col. Clark, speaker of the Ontario assembly, a journalist.

Hon. Mr. Mercier will have formed his government on Wednesday. The speech from the throne will be delivered.

George Haddow, of Dalhousie, is to oppose Mr. Moffatt in Restigouche in the commons, and is running as a liberal.

A bet of $100 even was made at the National club, Toronto, that Mr. Cockburn would not be elected in Toronto Centre.

Sir Charles Tupper will not devote all his time to Nova Scotia, but will address a number of meetings in Ontario.

During their councils at Toronto the Roman Catholic church bishops were visited by Hon. J. S. D. Thompson and Hon. C. F. Fraser.

Campaign in Addington.

On Saturday Mr. H. T. Shibley opened his campaign in Addington by holding a meeting in Yarker. He was the principal speaker, and the only one to say anything upon the other side was Mr. Benjamin, whose hobby was that the dominion franchise bill gave votes to many who would be without them had the provincial been used in his election. Mr. Shibley showed that there was a fallacy, that the provincial franchise was more liberal and really the most beneficial to the young men. Rev. Mr. Bates asked Mr. Shibley's opinion on the prohibition question. Mr. Shibley said the Scott act as it stood was not an effective measure, at least it was not effecting that which it was designed to do; that the Crooks act as applied to the county of Frontenac more efficiently controlled the sale of liquor; that he was willing to have the feeling of the people tested upon legislation which aimed at bringing the whole country into harmony upon the liquor questions. Mr. Shibley's meetings for the balance of the week will be held as follows: Sydenham, Monday (this) evening; Perth Road, Tuesday evening; Fermoy, Wednesday evening; Parham, Thursday evening; Fitzgerald's school house, Bedford, Friday afternoon at 2 p.m.; Picadilly, Friday evening at 7 p.m.; Verona, Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m.; Enterprise, Saturday evening at 7 p.m.

SAD DEATH IN BELLEVILLE.

Dr. Abbott Suddenly Passes Away.—A pleurisy is said to be the cause.

On Saturday morning Dr. S. A. Abbott, of Belleville, was, as the Whig has already announced, found dead in his bed. It was the custom of the doctor's servant to allow him to sleep until there was a call for his professional services. In the morning Wallace arranged the rooms, and once entered the doctor's sleeping apartment. The physician was lying on his side with his face to the wall. Shortly after 10 o'clock a man called at the office to settle a bill. Wallace then went to arouse the doctor, but found him dead. There was every indication that he had died from apoplexy. Dr. Abbott was born on Wolfe Island and was thirty-nine years of age. He was educated at the Royal medical college, and occupied a position in the front rank of his profession. His reputation extended throughout the province. He resided in Belleville with his two sisters. He was a kind-hearted man, a friend to the poor, and those who knew him best, loved him most. He had large insurances on his life, and was a member of the Masonic order.

This afternoon the doctor's remains arrived here and were conveyed to Cataragui cemetery, accompanied by a large number of friends belonging to Wolfe Island and the city.

Death of a Popular Young Man.

George Kelley is dead. This was the sad news whispered about the city yesterday. The young man referred to had been for many years a clerk in Clark Wright's hat store. At the beginning of last week he felt unwell, and on Wednesday he was confined to his bed. Physicians were called in. They informed his relatives that he was suffering from inflammation of the bowels. The condition of the patient grew worse. On Saturday his recovery was doubtful, and on Sunday morning he expired. Deceased was twenty years of age, a smart and intelligent young man, sober in habits and steady in business, and greatly respected by all who knew him.

A Friend Called Home.

Sincere sympathy will be extended to Mr. James Stacey, of the Daily News office, in view of the very great bereavement that has fallen upon him in the demise of his eldest son last night, aged twenty-nine years. Deceased was a sufferer from consumption, and throughout his illness manifested great patience and resignation. He was a young man of very fine parts and but for ill health would have made his mark in the commercial world. The sorrow that wells up in the hearts of the family is tempered by the thought that his end was peace. The public will condole with them in their grief.

After the "News" Man.

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—In consequence of Mr. Sheppard, of the Toronto News, not paying the $1,000 awarded to Major Dugas, for libel, a new move has been taken. On Saturday two officers of the 65th battalion made depositions against Mr. Sheppard in the police court for criminal libel, and High Constable Bissonette has gone to Toronto to execute the warrants and bring Mr. Sheppard back here.

Loss of Life at Sea.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The British ship Kapunda, which left London on Dec. 11th for Fremantle, Western Australia, with emigrants, came into collision, near the coast of Brazil, with an unknown vessel, and was sunk. Three hundred of those on board were drowned; the remainder were saved, and have arrived at Bahia. The Kapunda was an iron ship of 1,084 tons, commanded by Capt. Mason.

The Pope Particularly Pleased.

ROME, Jan. 31.—It is stated that the pope intends, in a special brief, to express his satisfaction at Germany's effort to establish the good relations with Holy See and the Vatican's intention to reciprocate.

RUCTIONS IN BELFAST.

A RENEWAL OF THE RIOTING—VERY SERIOUS RESULTS.

The Arrest of Some of the Offenders—Collisions With the Police—What an Unfortunate Country Ireland is!—Mr. Goschen Still Looking for a Seat.

BELFAST, Jan. 30.—There was terrible rioting in the Peter's Hill, Carrick Hill, and Shank Hill districts of this city, Saturday. The trouble originated through soldiers belonging to the West Surrey regiment insulting several catholic civilians. The latter, in retaliation, stoned the soldiers, many of whom were injured. This was followed by wholesale arrests, over 100 persons being placed in the lockup. A constable engaged in this duty was seriously injured by the excited crowd. Finally military pickets were called out and quiet was restored. This evening the riot was renewed, and the police and mob exchanged shots. Many persons received gun shot wounds, and a large number of others were more or less bruised by being struck by stones. The town is now quiet. Fifty-nine rioters have been arrested. The trouble originated Saturday night in a row between Protestants and Catholics. The arrival of the police incensed the mob and led to a free use of revolvers and stones. The police were compelled to fire for their own protection. The mayor and other authorities did their best to prevent a renewal of the rioting to-night, but without success, although the affrays were small compared with those on Saturday. Only three persons were arrested to-night. The outbreak to-night was caused by the appearance of two constables who gave evidence before the rioting investigation commission. The constables were roughly handled and reinforcements had to be called out. Some prisoners were taken and the crowd tried to rescue them, when the police were again compelled to fire. One constable was severely wounded and was sent to an infirmary. The others who were injured were taken home.

BELFAST, Jan. 31.—The city is quiet. The rioters arrested on Saturday night and last night were arraigned and remanded for trial.

The Tenantry Troubles.

DUBLIN, Jan. 30.—Mr. McNulty and other farmers on the DeFryne estate, of French park, county Roscommon, have been committed to await trial for conspiring to collect rents by means of the "plan of campaign."

William O'Brien, speaking at Bolyke today, said if Irishmen could meet the police man to man and rifle to rifle, in the open field, he, for one, would promptly abandon speaking, and the next speech the destroyers of the people's homes would hear would be from the mouths of the people's guns.

The police had to abandon an eviction at Rathkeel yesterday on account of the resistance of the people, who had provided themselves with scythes and boiling water.

The mayor of Dublin, speaking at Bolyke to-day, said the people would be justified in offering armed resistance, but he would not advise that a resisting force be concentrated.

Discussing Home Rule.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Gladstone in another article in the February number of the XIX century contends that though Ireland, formerly gained concessions from England through fear of an attempt by Ireland to repeat her former tactics it would be like warring against heaven to do so now. England's strength compared with Ireland's is as ten to one. He would rather rely, he says, upon England's innate sense of justice. Gladstone defends American donations to Ireland on the ground that they have done much to stave off a famine. Foreign donations, he says, if in aid of a bad cause, make it a shade worse, but if in a good cause serve to remind us of our duty. As to the contention that the granting of home rule to Ireland would be to hand the government over to the nationalists, Gladstone replies that if nationalism is to prevail it is unwise to exasperate it to the spirit of vengeance.

Needed Irish Legislation.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Mr. Bright has written a letter, in which he says he deplores that men supposed to represent Irishmen and tenants never speak a word of counsel to their countrymen in behalf of industry, honesty or temperance, which would lessen Irish evils, though not increase Irish-American donations. The land act of 1881 gave the most complete security to the results of industry on the part of tenants, but their leaders condemned legislation so much in their favor and never advised them to make an honest use of their new position. Industry will have no chance while the people are led by a conspiracy, whose main objects are to plunder landlords and excite bitter hatred of England.

Unexpected Sympathy.

DUBLIN, Jan. 29.—The sheriffs, bailiffs and police have left Glenbeigh. The mother of Clifford Lloyd, who was a special magistrate in Ireland during Earl Spencer's administration as lord-lieutenant, and who was particularly severe in his enforcement of laws against the tenantry, has written a letter sympathizing with the persons who have been evicted at Glenbeigh.

Suggestion to Mr. Goschen.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The Pall Mall Gazette asserts that the liberals are urging Mr. Gladstone to abandon the round table conferences and all concessions to the liberal unionists, pointing out to him that he and his followers do not need to purchase, on any terms, the help of either the Chamberlaines or the Hartingtonites, as the liberal victory over Goschen shows that home rule is certain to succeed in the end.

Offer of a Seat to Mr. Goschen.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Mr. Goschen will probably accept the offer of Lord Alington Percy, conservative member of parliament for St. George, Hanover square, to retire in his favor.

Followed to the Grave.

This morning the funeral of the late Miss Eleanor Ferguson, daughter of Sheriff Ferguson, occurred. Service was held in St. George's cathedral and it was attended by a large number of citizens. Afterwards the casket was removed to Cataragui cemetery. As a mark of respect to the deceased the art school, in which she took such interest, was closed for the day.
