MORSE'S GLYCEROLE of CELERY COMPOUND

New Remedy for Teething Infants and Adults suffering from Nervous

Diseases, Etc. (CONTAINING NO OPIUM).

Celery Compound is a safe and pleasant sub stitute for opium and other powerful drugs, leaving no bad after-effects; in fact, acting as a tonic, building up the system.

See following letter we publish by permission of Mr. Morse:-

INFANT'S HOME AND INFIRMARY, TORONTO, 29th December, 1882. HAZEN MORSE, Esq. Dear Sir,—I must thank you for the bottles of Celery Compound. I have used it especially with the teething infants, and have found it a certain remedy for feverishness and every form of indigestion, and for the weak and sickly ones it was invaluable as a tonic, and I shall have the greatest pleasure in recommending its use to everyone. Wishing you every success, I beg to remain, yours very respectfully, M. WHITE, Head Nurse.

We recommend Celery Compound. Every mother should have a bottle in the house.

We have on hand constantly a fresh and complete stock of DRUGS, FANCY GOODS, PERFUMERY, ETC.

Also all the leading Patent Medicines, and a full stock of Paints, Oils, Etc. ter Prescriptions carefully dispensed. Good value guaranteed. Favor us with a call.

PRAYERS FOR THE BABIES.

The Chaplain is Not an Offensive Partizan -Mrs. Cleveland at Handshaking.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The chaplain of the house of representatives is nothing if not eccentric in his morning prayers. Since Dr. Milburn's petitions occasioned criticism last session he has been more conservative in his demands at the throne of grace, but a few days ago the rev. gentleman surprised the house by praying for the wife of Secretary

Whitney and the babe. This caused a certain congressman, whose infant daughter was the same age as the new "cabinet bud," to accuse the chaplain of "offensive partizanship," because he had neglected his wife and baby. So next day the other baby was prayed for. Never before in the halls of congress was the birth of any American citizen the occasion of official action. As both babies were girls the new departure was jocularly mentioned as a triumph for the cause of woman, to offset the snubbing that woman suffrage received in the senate last week The social world of Washington has been very brilliant for the past few week. Mrs. Cleveland has abandoned her semi weekly "at homes" however, because they were regarded by many as public receptions. They were instituted for the friends and acquaintances of the lady of the White House, but the opportunity was grossly abused by crowds of people whose respectful curiosity could be appeased at her fortnightly receptions to the public.

But Mrs. Cleveland evidently intends to keep up with the people's procession. She says she never feels tired from shaking hands, either at the time or afterwards, no matter how great the number of guests she greets. She laughed over a recent paragraph in a New York paper which reported her as completely exhausted after one of her threehour ordeals of hand shaking. A friend who was rather surprised at her powers of endurance remarked to Mrs. Cleveland that she had even equalled the great hand-shaking feats of her husband, as she had shaken hands with 327 people, by actual count, in an hour lately. "Yes," she answered, "of course I could not allow him to get ahead

His Own Rod in Pickle. Scottish American, New York.

Those who have taken any interest in and followed the dispute between Fr. McGlynn, the revolutionary priest of this city, and the superiors over him in his church, could not fail to anticipate that the squabble was bound to end in one of these two ways, that McGlynn should either humble himself and say peccari, or that he should be summarily turned out of his church. He has simply lost his head over the adwintion of Henry George, and others, and so has not adopted the former course, and in consequence the latter has befallen him. The treatment which he has thus received is just what he desired to administer to all landowners, and yet strange and contradictory as their conduct is, those who believed with him in this, and desired to aid him in ousting out all proprietors, are now up in arms and indignant at McGlynn having thus got a taste of his own whip.

KNEELING AT HER KNEE. A Brilliant Service in the Chapel of Lambeth Palace by Americans, LONDON, Feb. 7. On Sunday the centennial of the consecration of Bishop Provoost, first bishop of the Anglican church in America, was celebrated. Bishop Henry C Potter, of New, York, preached. His pero-

ration was as follows

"And so, as the children come to-day to kneel at their English mother's knee, they thank her first for that godly and far seeing man whom she gave back to them as their primate across the sea. To-day those children send in greeting their homage and love. And surely they, too, may be permitted to remind themselves that this jubilee year of yours is this morning doubly theirs: that half of their first century has been covered by the reign of a single sovereign who, whether as wife, mother or ruler, has en deared herself to the people of two hemispheres, and who, in each of these relations, has pre-eminently illustrated those distinctive traits of fidelity to duty, reverence for right and exhaustless sympathy with misfortunate and sorrow which have been among the chiefest graces of the church of England.

"And so, as some of them have come back to this historic spot to keep this their first centennial birthday, this is the prayer they breathe for their honored mother. Hither to you have been pre-eminent in christen dom for scriptural faith, sound learning and pure manners. Already you have borne witness in many lands to the Catholic doctrine in all its primitive simplicity and power by lives of unselfish and heroic devotion. May it be so more and more in all the centuries to come, and when another hundred years have gone and our children's children gather here may you still be found in all the plentitude of ever advancing triumphs, rich in the treasures of your hea venly head, clear as the sun, fair as the moon, and terrible as an army with ban ners.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

Some time since an action was brought in Brussels against the English dealers in extract of meat, to prevent them from using the title of "Baron Liebig's Extract" or from using the photograph of the late Baron Justus Von Liebig on their jars or in any way using the name or title of Baron Liebig. The action was brought by the Liebig's Extract of Meat Company, and was successful. The English dealers thereupon took the case into the court of appeal. The judgment was given last week, confirming the decision of the tribunal of commerce and condemning the English dealers, who were defendants in the action, to pay damages and also restraining them from making any further use of the name of Liebig or Baron Liebig, or of the photograph, this right being de-
