WORK OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL.

A Saint Given to Great Charity-His Spirit Animating Young Men Now.

After vespers last evening, in St. Mary's cathedral, the Very Rev. Fr. Sigil, superior of the order of Dominicans, Toronto, delivered an eloquent panegyric on the life and work of St. Vincent de Paul. The speaker commenced by quoting the words of St. Paul, "that all who wished to be saved must be made to the image of the Son of God." There were many who came up to the ideal, while there were others whose lives were but a faint resemblance. Every saint of God-must have loved poverty and suffering, and one of these saints was St. Vincent de Paul. What a vast field was opened to their eyes when they thought of the great work he had accomplished? Behold him bringing the gospel to the heathen, working in chains as a galley slave, or in the confessional bringing salvation to the souls of men. His work must be remembered principally for the service he rendered to the corporeal man. As a child he was mark ed for his love for his fellow man; indeed in his very infancy he gave up his dainties to the suffering. When he become a priest he was appointed almoner to the queen of France, and was thus enabled to render valuable aid to the distressed in any form. Having been shortly afterwards appointed pastor of a parish in France he was brought more intimately into contact with the distress of the people and became convinced that some systematic method should be devised for the giving of charity and thus alleviating suffering humanity. He then formed an organization of pious women to aid him in his work, and thus in 1630 was formed the germ of the order of the sisters of cha rity. The order has penetrated the whole world. Many of the sisters, endowed with wealth and high stations in society, gave up all to devote themselves to the sick and suffering, to the horrors and terrible scenes of the battle field. The saint's interest in the foundlings of Paris was narrated, as well as service rendered by him during the invasion of Ireland under Cromwell and the establishment of the order of Lazarus in Limerick. No king was mourned more than was St. Vincent de Pau! when he died. In 1833 conferences of young men were formed and to-day 6,000 of them succour and sustain the poor and neglected. The spirit of St. Vincent de Paul animates and inspires the young men; his labours live after him. The speaker closed with an elequent ap peal for aid to carry on the work of charity as carried out under the auspices of the conference of St. Vincent de Paul. A general response was made by the congregation. The benediction of the holy sacrament was then imparted. There was a very large at tendance, and much interest was evinced in the proceedings.

SUFFERING FROM COLD

An Appalling Loss of Life Expected. The Worst Blizzard on Record

Chic voo, Feb. 12. A special from Livingston, Montana, says there is serious an prehension that there will be an appalling loss of life in Montana. There are snow drifts to enormous depths, and the people, living at mountain bases, are in imminent langer of meeting a horrible fate beneath an avalanche, or freezing to death. Should another protracted storm occur it is believed that hundreds would succumb to its horrors ; as it is more people have been frozen to death this winter than for a quarter of a century In the vicinity of Little Jennie and Grand Central mines. in Bald mountain, the snow is eight feet deep on a level and the travel is in possible except on snow

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—A special from Fort Keogh, Montana, says: "In round numbers there were, on July 1st, 200,000 head of cattle and 25,000 sheep on the the ranges north and south of the Yellowstone river, with a radius of 100 miles of this point. Up to that date stock had not suffered much from the severity of the winter, but during January, and half of February just closing, the losses have been enormous, in some places amounting to practically theannihilation of whole herds. The Indian ter ritory special says the reports from all parts of the Indian territory state that the stock has wintered well and is in fair condition.

A SWINDLER AT WORK.

HE DELUDES AND ROBS A NUMBER OF POOR LABOURERS.

Penniless at Prescott-The Scamp Parsued to Ogdensburg, but He Adroitly Eludes Them There-Arrival of Ten of the Victims Here.

A scheme, which took six weeks to carry into effect, and by which forty-seven poor labouring men, of Toronto and vicinity, were swindled out of over $400, has been brought to light. Ten of the victims arrived here from Prescott yesterday, penniless, and on their way west. They were given railroad passes from Brockville to Kingston by the mayor of the former place, and expect Mayor Carson to pass them on to Toronto to-day. Having no money they sought shelter in the police cells, where they were interviewed by a reporter. Some time ago a real estate agent in Toronto, named Hugell, said to be worth $13,000, advertized on behalf of C. M. Brown & Co., railroad contractors, for 260 laboring men, to work on the Northern Mexican railroad, their wages to be $2.50 per day. This notice had been published on the authority of one Wilson, while in Toronto, who represented himself to be chief engineer of the road in question. Soon after the advertisement appeared Hugell's office, on York street, was besieged by men desirous of se curing work. They were told by Hugell before starting they would have to pay him $2 each as a commission for his services. Each man received a receipt for his money, signed by Hugell. He marked on the receipt the words: "Report on the 10th." The men were required to sign a contract, purporting to be between them and C. M. Brown & Co., and to the effect that they were to receive $2.50 per day, wages to be paid every two weeks in gold or its equivalent, they to be boarded for $4 per week. Forty-seven men reported at Hugell's office on the 10th, but he was not in. They were told that he had gone to Montreal on business, and to see C. M. Brown & Co. They waited until Hugell came back, when he told them that they had better make arrangements immediately to start, for they had to report at Brown & Co's. office at Prescott on the 11th. Wilson, who had boarded at Prescott for six weeks, but who had made frequent visits to Toronto, was on hand when the men started. He made arrangements with the G.T.R. to carry the laborers from Toronto to Prescott for $5.50 per head, which money came out of their pockets, and Wilson, it is said, did not have to pay a railroad fare. He rode with the men to Prescott, and during the trip gave them pointers about the proposed trip to Mexico. He warned them to provide themselves with tobacco and pipes when they got to New York for they would be unable to get those things in Mexico. He impressed upon their minds, however, that they could get a good cigar in that place. When they rea ned Prescott they called at the office of C. M. Brown, alias Wilson, for the former was the name Wilson adopted there. Wilson exacted from the men $8 apiece, which he alleged was to be spent by him in transporting them to their destination. They understood that he would pay their board during the journey. Each man received meal and transportation tick ets, thus

"Check for meals -This check when taken up must be presented to the foreman in charge of men, for payment of meals, when it will be cashed by same. Not good unless stamped with official stamp of C. M. Brown, general manager, on back of check. "Transportation ticket Issued by C. M. Brown & Co., railway contractors and build ers. The individual, in accepting this check for transportation, agrees to be governed by the rules of the different railway and steam People Whose Movements, Sayings and boat lines over which he is to be furnished transportation to our works, as per contract with holder of check. Baggage not to exceed (*) Ibs. to each man. Said check to be produced when baggage is checked, and at all other times when it may be rendered necessary in order to be identified as an employee of the firm of the said C. M. Brown & Co. Not good unless stamped - C.M.

Brown, general manager, Prescott. Wilson, alias C. M. Brown, also agreed to hire a team to carry the baggage to the steamboat landing. but it only got as far as Bradley's hotel, where Wilson had been stopping, and at which house he had directed his victims to stop. The men sat down to breakfast, and when it was over handed the meal tickets to the waiter. He was satisfied to take the pasteboards, saying that C. M. Brown was a responsible person, that his word was as good as his bond. The men stopped around the hotel for several hours, waiting for C. M. Brown to turn up. The hotel people, who had previously held such a high opinion of the alleged C M. Brown, became anxious as well as the men about him, and after waiting vainly for his return made each man pay 25c for his breakfast. It now dawned for a certainty upon the men that they had been fooled, and steps were taken to capture the swindler. The chief of police was notified, and he, in company with Mr. Young and another young man, two of the victims, went across to Ogdensburg in search of Wilson. They learned from the customs officer that their man had passed here, and that he had searched his valise and found in it a package of money. "That was our boodle the villain had," remarked Young. The assistance of the chief of police of Ogdensburg was secured, and the quartette searched that place for Wilson. The only tidings they could glean of him was that he had left a certain hotel at 12 o'clock on Friday. What direction he took no person could tell. Those who pursued him had, therefore, to return to Canada without him and without the money he had robbed them of. On Friday night, while the council of Toronto was in session, Mayor Howland received a telegram from Mayor Carruthers, of Prescott, notifying him that forty-five citizens of Toronto were in Prescott without money, giving particulars of how they had got there, and asking if they could be sent back at the expense of the Ferente corporation. Mayor Howland stated to the council that he had tried to dissuade the men from going to Mexico, but they had not taken his advice. The council expressed sympathy with the men, and hoped that those who defrauded them would be captured, but it was felt that city money should not be used for that purpose. The mayor answered the telegram by stating that the corporation could not devote funds for the purpose of relieving suffering arising from the actions of swindlers outside of their own limits.

The loss to each of the laboring men connected with the circumstances is $15.50, be sides what they have paid for board since-Friday. They state that the people of Prescott used them well.

The men interviewed Mayor Carson today relative to securing from him railroad passes to Toronto. He refused their requests, holding that he had no right to expend the city's money in their behalf.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

The Outlook Promising for the Liberals-The Government will be Defeated

Hon. M. Bowell spoke at Picton on Satur-C. H. McIntosh is going to be defeated in Angus Buchanan has been nominated the liberal candidate for North Leeds and Grenville.

Ex-Mayor Whiting speaks at the nomination in Napance in the interest of D. W. Allison. The liberals of East Durham have agreed to support John Fallis in opposition to H. A. Ward in East Durham. L. E Joneas, candidate for Gaspe, will probably be elected by acclamation. Mr Joneas is an independent conservative. J. W. Bell of Addington is still too ill to leave his house, and will be unable to attend the nomination at Harrowsmith.

Mr. McAuthur has retired from the contest in Winnipeg, leaving only Mr. Scarth and Mr. Sutherland in the field.

Sir John Macdonald held meetings at Carp and Stittsville to-day. He will be present at the nomination here to morrow.

Owen Murphy, M.P.P. for Quebec West, is quite confident of the party prospects in Quebec. He believes Mr. Blake will have a majority of at least forty in the new house. Mr. A. Robillard, M.P.P. for Russell, says that the representatives from the different parts of the province are confident that Hon. Mr. Blake will be the premier of Canada after the 22nd.

Reports from all the constituencies in the Quebec district predict a sweeping victory for the opposition on the 22nd. Even Langevin at Three Rivers and Ceron in Quebec county will very likely be defeated.

Mayor Langelier's election in Quebec Centre and of Laurier's in Quebec East, by immense majorities, are certain. In Quebec West the contest between Hearn and Mc Greevy will be very close, but Hearn's friends are confident of a good majority.

In Rimouski a large number of electors complain that they were struck from the lists at the final revision by Judge Pelletier. The victims intend to immediately institute actions against Judge Pelletier for the re covery in each case of the penalty of Levis and Bellechase will go opposition by about 500 majority each : Dorchester by about 250; Montmagny by about 200; Portneuf by about 300; Lotbiniere by about 400; and Drummond and Arthabaska, by acclamation; Montmorency, by about 100; Kamouraska, by about 80 to 100; Rimouski by about 500, leaving Temiscousts, L'Islet, Gaspe and Bonaventure doubtful.

Very well informed conservatives admit that the government out look is very gloomy. The Toronto dispatch says: The liberals are confident of winning West York, holding East and North York and of carrying Central Toronto. The labor canvass in East and West Toronto is more formidable than was expected at the start. The liberal and labor combination in Hamilton are hopeful of electing Messrs. Burns and Walter, and the liberal labor temperance combination in Lincoln are equally hopeful of defeating Mr. Rykert.
