THE CELEBRATED
COOK'S FRIEND

BAKING POWDER
IS A PURE FRUIT ACID POWDER.
It contains neither alum, lime, nor ammonia, and may be used by the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety. Its great success arising from its being intrinsically THE BEST VALUE IN THE MARKET, as well as thoroughly adapted to the wants of the kitchen, has excited envious imitations of its name and appearance. Beware of such.
No addition to or variation from the simple name:

WHAT SHALL WE WEAR?

ATTRACTIVE, CONVENIENT AND DU-RABLE WATERPROOFS.

Fine Enamelled Jewelry With and Without Gems—A Stylish Jacket Admirably Adapted for Both Misses and Young Ladies—Mourning Goods.

An especially stylish jacket, and one that may be worn with equal propriety as an independent garment or as one to complete a costume made of the same fabric, is represented in the accompanying cut.

FAYETTE JACKET.

The illustration shows a jacket made in heavy cloth of dark blue color. The edges are bound with black silk braid; the fronts are faced with black silk serge, which shows on the revers; the four fancy buttons, linked in pairs and passed through the buttonholes, secure the front at the waist line. The vest is made of the same dark cloth, similarly bound on the edges.

When the Fayette jacket is made of the same fabric as is the dress with which it is designed to be worn, the vest and vest collar should be of velvet of the same color and the fronts faced with velvet, so that when turned back they will show revers entirely of velvet.
The rolling collar ought also to be of velvet.
Suit materials should be lined throughout with twilled silk or farmer's satin, also light cloths if intended for the demi season. Chevlots and similar goods designed for spring wear will present an attractive garment if made after this model.

The vest must be joined in the side and shoulder seams and the back of the collar that belongs to it is to be tacked inside the neck of the jacket. The extensions on the side fronts are to be lapped over the back pieces.

A jacket made after this pattern, in medium size, will require four yards of goods twenty-four inches wide or two yards forty-eight inches wide, and three-quarters of a yard of serge to face the fronts, or, where silk or velvet is used, an equivalent amount of these fabrics.

Mourning Dress Goods.

There are several very attractive weaves in diagonals and armure goods. A fine quality of armure diagonal has the cords, or twills, quite prominent, and set about one-eighth of an inch apart, and the space between is filled with the finest powder grain armure. The goods is of medium weight, but the threads are extremely fine, and the result is a fabric of unusual beauty. A diamond diagonal is also new, and excellent in grade. A fine camels' hair stuff has tiny dots scattered over the surface, others have heavy threads of high luster mohair on soft, dull wool grounds.
Silk wrap camels' hair is in fairly heavy quality, and shows a very wide diagonal twill.
It is one of the most desirable of all of the new black fabrics, and is used for tailor costumes and wraps.

Waterproof Garments.

Every man, woman and child ought to be the possessor of at least one waterproof garment. In the selection of these storm protectors, care should be exercised, for there are waterproofs and waterproofs, some worth less, others only tolerable, while others again are the perfection of garments.

"STORMY PETREL" CIRCULAR.

There is not only wide choice as regards the grades of waterproofs, but in the matter of convenient and becoming shapes. The cut shows an admirable garment for ladies' and misses' wear. This waterproof, which has been christened "Stormy Petrel," is made in what is known to the trade as fine canton, and comes in black, blue, brown, drab and dark plaid, with an attractive steel gray or silver finish coating of rubber. It is not only far more serviceable than the many worthless imitations of gossamer waterproof on the market, but it is decidedly pleasing in appearance and devoid of the disagreeable odor observed in some waterproofs.

Prohibition and Politics.

The anti-liquor question is a strong plank in the political platform, and one safe to lay hold of. All intoxicating beverages are safest when let alone, even in medicine.
Burdock Blood Bitters is not a bar beverage but a strictly pure medicine, reliable for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood, and will not aid in making drunkards.

The amount of money lost by the New York strikers in forfeited wages, in January, was $1,920,000.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

Bubear, the English Oarsman, and His Proposed American Trip.
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.

By his victory over Perkins on the Thames championship course, England (which, by the way, was predicted by me), George Bu-bear has unquestionably earned for himself the title of "champion oarsman of England." Bubear will visit America this spring and will endeavor to arrange matches with our best men. He will probably first arrange a meeting with James Ten Eyck. If Ten Eyck should defeat him Bubear would be wasting time to remain longer in this country, but if, on the other hand, he should be successful, he would be no mean foeman for either Teemer, Gaudaur, Ross or Hanlan.

Jimmy Faulkner and Hermann Burkhardt, a herculean Buffalo wrestler, are to meet in private at Buffalo during the latter part of this month for an announced purse of $500.
Faulkner will probably weigh, at least, fifty pounds less than his burly antagonist, but from what I have heard of Burkhardt I should say that Jimmy will throw him as often as he likes, and with very little effort at that.

George H. Hosmer, the oarsman, who by recently defeating Dennis Driscoll, of Lynn, Mass., has acquired the ten mile heel and toe walking championship of America, is out in a challenge to walk any man in the world, square heel and toe, ten miles, for $500 (or more) a side. Hosmer is a fine oarsman, a fine walker and a fine fellow. He richly deserves the great success he is enjoying. Dennis Driscoll, by the way, has another engagement on his hands in which the championship would also have been involved had not Hos-mer defeated him. He will walk John Menninger, the ex-champion, ten miles, heel and toe, at Worcester, Mass., Feb. 25.

Either Mike Conley, the "Ithaca giant," who was so unceremoniously knocked out of time in one round last year by Frank Heard (himself a "no good"), has improved wonderfully of late, or else he has struck an "angel" whom he has made believe that he really does know the least mite about fighting. Why, the big, good natured and conceited fellow actually wants to fight Jake Kilrain, the "Old Reliable," to a finish.
It would not even give Jake exercise to whip "Jubs" like Conley, and the idea of matching the latter against Kilrain is on a par with the offer of Duncan C. Ross to back Mervine Thompson, the "Cleveland Thunderbolt," against the "Old Reliable." The only way to find even matches for Conley and Thompson is to put them against one another. They are both "off the same piece of cloth."

John L. Sullivan is at present in Boston, and is continuing to believe in the most exaggerated manner, thus refuting the calumnies which his detractors have circulated about him. It is a very great mistake to assume that Sullivan is a brute. He is a good natured fellow, above the average in intelligence, and when he is keeping himself "straight," an agreeable companion. I fear that his arm will not be all right for three or four months yet. As soon as it is strong again the public will see with what alacrity Mr. Cardiff will refuse to again trust him in front of it.

GLEANINGS.

Pain cannot exist when West's World's Wonder is applied. Cheapest and best, 25 day morning?" "I didn't hear it. Mrs.

Jarvey's bonnet was so loud that I didn't really know the minister was talking."

For rheumatism, neuralgia, cuts, wounds or burns use West's World's Wonder. All druggists.

"Yes," said Mr. James, "I did consent to have my son named James, but I must insist that it shall never be shortened to Jim.
Who would enjoy a boy named Jim Jams?"

West's Cough Syrup stops tickling in the throat, stops that hacking cough and gives perfect relief; it is certainly worth a trial.
All druggists.

The standard remedy for liver complaint is West's Liver Pills; they never disappoint you. 30 pills 25c. All druggists.

It was a horrible slip of the tongue when a Philadelphia lady, instead of saying that her church was going to have a cantata, remarked that it was going to have a can-can.

Why will you cough when Shiloh's cure will give you immediate relief? Price, 10c., 50 and $1. W. J. Wilson, wholesaler and retail agent Kingston.
