LOCAL

S Petroline Plasters. without the above valuable article. It is unquestionably superior to any other plaster. Sold by druggists and J. G. King, King-

B. Laurance's Spectacles.

The only sure aids to perfect vision, at J. G. King's drug store. Buy none other. See every pair is stamped "B.L." Imitations abound. The frame may sometimes be closely imitated, the lens never.

He Was Found Guilty. Sidney Higbie was found guilty of having passed bogus money on A. Walsh, bartender of the Union Hotel, and receiving therefor good money. The priscuer was committed for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction.

Music at the Asylum.

The glee club of Queen's university favored the patrons and employees of the asylum with an entertainment last evening. The whole programme was much appreciated. The local and instrumental music was all that could be desired.

Up With The Times.

does away with the old method of blowing | instruction to the satisfaction of all. by hand and bellows.

Raising the Prop. Myles.

Capt. Merriman, of Port Huron, is super intending the raising of the prop. Myles. The chains have been placed under the vessel, and an attempt will be made to raise her to-day. The general opinion is that the work as now proceeding will be a success.

Meeting in Victoria Ward.

I conservative meeting was held at the Grove house, King street, last evening. Several conservatives were present, and a great many reformers. The speeches were not well thought of. They were made by J. H. Metcalfe, G. M. Macdonnell, J. Hewton, J. Gaskin, T. Donnelly and R. T. Walkem.

He Had a Piece of It.

J. Strong, foreman, in Frost & Woods' foundry, Smith's Falls, is said to have won $15,000 in the Louisana state lottery. He held a tenth of the ticket No. 73,987 which | pine, held up by two papers, which swung | beverages, for Dr. Windthorst drinks chamcaptured the state prize of $150,000. The balance of the ticket was held in the United States.

A Pleasant Party.

On Tuesday evening last nearly one hundred of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. was read and a presentation made consisting of some handsome silver ware purchased in New York.

Passing the Accounts.

There was not a session of the streets committee yesterday in consequence of there not being a sufficient number of members business done was the passing of the pay list, $504 90, and a number of accounts. The chairman of the committee will, of course, sign these.

A Fatal Accident.

A sail accident occurred on Amherst Island or Saturday last. While Mr. Samuel Watson was engaged in drawing hav from Nut Island he fell from a load and was killed, having struck on his neck. Deceased was a member of L.O.L. No. 482. His body was followed to the vault on Monday by the members of the Orange lodge and 'Prentice Boys.

The Campaign is Booming.

The liberals are enthusiastic over the prospects. The Gladstone and the Reform committee rooms were crowded with electors last evening, all engaged in working up the final details of the contest. The canvass is well nigh over, and the final returns are being made up. Volunteers are now in request to work during election day, in carriage and on foot.

Sent up For Three Months.

To day Alexander Rushford, found guilty 1 of having stolen a silver watch from Hiram Harback, was sent to goal for three months. Since the prisoner sincarceration he has been complaining of ill-health. This morning he limped into court, holding one hand on his buck. Reaching the dock he lay down in the seat and looked very bad. The magistrate hope I he would lead a better life in the

They Were Not Good Counters.

The News its reporters we believe counted 126 sleighs in the liberal procession. We are surprised they could figure up so many. Their veracity, however, is strongly questioned. At Wade's corner 207 sleighs were counted, 235 on Princess street, and 203 on Gordon street. In going up Princess street a number of rigs crossed down Barrie and Clergy streets to meet the procession as it passed Earl street.

An Inquest Being Held.

An inquest is now being held anent the killing of five persons by the Wilbur mine accident. Yesterday a funeral service was conducted at the mines by Rev. Mr. Boyd. It was of a most impressive character. It is said that the families of the deceased are in destitute circumstances. Some kindhearted citizens should institute a relief movement. The inquest is being conducted by the county attorney of Lanark county and a Perth coroner.

There is Great Distress.

Mr. Machar and family are not the only ones who are sought out to assist the poor people of Kingston. We have it on the authority of several ladies that there is great destitution in the city, that dozens of men | Kingston, and at one time joint adminisare out of employment, that they can find | trator of the diocese with the late Vicar nothing to do and that their families are in General Dollard, but now of Montreal, will the greatest possible distress. In several leave for the south for the benefit of his cases families have been without food for several days, and in one case a mother was reduced to the necessity of splitting up her versary sermons at Amherst Island. Durtable to burn as fuel and so keep the little | ing the six years of Rev. J. Cumberland's ones from freezing.

Williamsville Sunday School.

The Williamsville church was crowded last evening by the scholars of the school and their friends, as the teachers had given an entertainment which proved both instructive and pleasant. Mr. William Neish gave stereoptican views of scripture scenes, leasons being given from each by the superintendent, in which the scholars took part by their ready answers. The literary part the entertainment was filled by the scholars giving choruses, readings, recitations, etc., closing with the gifts to the scholars of candy as they were leaving the church.

THE TRAINED ATHLETES.

Pence give it a trial you will never THEY GIVE A GOOD ENTERTAIN-MENT IN THE RINK.

> Sergt.-Major Morgans and his Pupils Have a Good Time-They Show. Themselves Off to Great Advantage-All Sorts of Difficult Feats Accomplished-A Sparring Exhibition.

Last evening Sergt.-Major Morgans, assisted by young men trained in his city gymnasium, gave an athletic entertainment in the roller rink that was well worth the price of admission to see. There were about 300 people present, and all of them were amused and interested by the performances of the different events. The sweet strains of the band of "A" battery, which played a number of lively airs, made everybody feel happy, even the performers. The programme was carried out as follows: Horizontal bar exercise —Several difficult feats performed by Morgans and his pupils, for which they were loudly applauded. Sword bayonet exercise—Executed by a squad of men belonging to "A" battery, in command of Sergt. Proctor. The reporter has seen this exercise before, but not as well Cockburn & Sons, shipsmiths, have placed | done as it was last evening. The members a fan blower in their shop. It is run by a of the squad are unusually well-drilled, and pony engine and feeds two fires. The air is | moved like machinery. They acted under forced through zine pipes to the fires. It command first, and then moved without

> Sword vs. bayonet A very exciting bat-Boutillier. The former carried a sword and | house of representatives, of the German the latter agun and bayonet. Of course empire. He is a great man intellectually, Morgans, who is an expert, was too quick an eloquent speaker, ready in repartee, fearfor his opponent, chased him and seized his less, holding by unquestionable superiority

> young men fought four rounds. Blood | size, and exceedingly disproportionate to his might have been drawn had not Morgans | tiny body. He wears spectacles to assist called "time." The young men are strongly | his weak eyesight, but has marvellously built and of the right weight for good boxing. McGrath is the heavier, and therefore had a great advantage during the sparring. He was tapped several times on the face, but on the whole he saved it well. Bureau's attacks were good, but his defence was weak. At the conclusion of the fourth round the men retired amid loud applause.

remarkable things with a sword. He cut with it paper, ribbons and handkerchiefs, while they were on the blade. A piece of on blades of razors, was cut in the middle. pagne and Prince Bismarck keeps to beer. The papers were not injured. Thirty bars of lead were divided as if they were chips. Several other difficult feats were then executed, which showed that Morgans was a swordsman of no mean order.

Illuminated Club-swinging The lights Gage spent an evening with them prior to were turned down and an excellent Indian was a lawyer practicing his profession at their departure for California. An address | club-swinging exhibition was given by J. McGrath. The applause were great when he retired.

Sword vs. Sword-This was both an interesting and exciting event. Morgans and ing officer for a time. In 1866, before the Boutillier struck and parried for about ten | battle of Sadowa, he was Minister of Justminutes before either of them made a safe

Single Sticks This contest was engaged present to form a committee. The only | in by Messrs. Turnbull and Perry, who | Windthorst from the Ministry of Justice proved to be well matched opponents. Parallel Bars Messrs. Morgan, Boutil lier, Conway, Swain and Kennedy did > several difficult feats. forded by a sparring exhibition given by have had in Windthorst a stremuous opsoldiers of A Battery, Messrs. Perry and ponent. Best. They were in the very best of humor, but notwithstanding this went at each other tiercely. Perry hit from the shoulder, and his fists fell frequently on Best's cheeks. The latter, during the struggle, got excited, and got in several heavy blows, which made Perry wince. He got even with Perry before Morgan called time.

An exhibition of defence and attack by the bayonet was given by Messrs. Morgans and Boutillier, and the entertainment came to a close.

CHURCH PARAGRAPHS.

The Services of o-morrow A Clergyman', Work at Amherst Island.

Prof. Mowat preaches at Morrisburg to

Rev. R. Whiting preaches educational sermons in Brockville on Sunday.

Rev. G. D. Bayne, of Morrisburg, is the preacher in convocation hall to morrow. Rev. S. G. Bland preaches at both services in Queen street Methodist church to

Rev. A. C. Nesbitt, of Smith's Falls, has been appointed high school trustee in that Rev. A. F. McFayden, participated in a missionary meeting at Lanark a few evenmgs ago. The Episcopalian congregation at Balder son has decided to build a new church. will be of cut stone. Principal Grant will assist at the opening services in the Presbyterian church, Gananoque, on March 7th. Rev. G. D. Bayne, of Morrisburg, will preach morning and evening in Chalmers' church to-morrow. Rev. Richard Whiting, president of the Montreal conference, has been notified that the next Methodist ecumenical with be held in the United States in 1891. At the meeting in the city hall, to-morrow (anada. evening, Rev. Dr. Grant and Rev. S. Bland will talk on political morality. There will also be hearty singing. Services in the Methodist church, Portsmouth, to-morrow as follows: At 10:30 o'clock, F. W. A. Meyer; at 2 o'clock, Sunday school; 3 o'clock prayer service, led by Mr. Bolton; at 6:30 preaching, Mr. Arthur Macpherson. Rev. J. W. Sparling, B.D., will officiate at both services in the Sydenham Street Methodist Church to-morrow. Subject for the evening sermon, "Saul the deserted man and the witch of Endor."

The Rev. Father Lonergan, lately of

Recently Rev. J. Mackie preached anniincumbency thirty-seven names have been added to the roll. He has also officiated at thirty-one funerals, fifty-six baptisms, twelve weddings. The new church opened two years ago. Mr. Mackie pronounces it the finest country church he had seen in Cana-

Mark Your Ballot Thus:

ALEXANDER GUNN. Resident Merchant, Shipowner, and largest tax payer in the city.

SIR JOHN MACDONALD. Resident, Voter, and citizen of Ottawa.

MEN OF THE HOUR.

The Leader of the Ultramontane Party In the German Reichstag.

LUDWIG WINDTHORST. Ludwig Windthorst is Prince Bismarck's the opposition leadership. His personal Sparring -J. McGrath vs. Bureau. These appearance is striking, his head being of vast acute hearing to help his quick perception. A witty French writer describes Windthorst as extremely ugly to look at, with a mouth stretching from ear to ear, and 'frog's eves. He draws an animated picture of Prince Bismarck and Windthorst face to face in the reichstag - "the one (Windthorst) a dwarf, the other (Bismarck) a giant; the one re-Sword feats Sergt. Morgans did some | fined and polished, the other brutal and overbearing; the one an ardent Catholic, the other an austere Protestant. The antagonism is carried out even in the master of After this we need not be surprised to learn that Prince Bismarck has big cuirassier's hands and is inordinately proud of their size and strength, while Dr. Windthorsthas very When Windthorst was first heard of he small hands and is "coquet" about them. Osnabrueck, Hanover. Later he was appointed one of the judges of the Court of Police at Zella. He was elected to the legislature of Hanover, and was its presidice to the King of Hanover, and also "Procurer General." It was the annexation of Hanover and the consequent dismissal of that turned him into the bitter foe of Prince Bismarck he is known to be. He is the leading "unreconstructed German statesman of to-day. The Falk laws, intended to The greatest fun of the evening was af. | abridge the power of the Catholic Church,

PERSONAL MENTION.

People Whose Movements, Savings and Doings Attract Attention.

Mrs. E. W. Rathbun, of Descronto, is Dr. McCormack, late of Douglass, has settled in Renfrew. Miss Ada Knight, formerly of Westbrooke, was recently married to H. T. Campbell, of Stratford. J. Ruxton and family, who have been living in Ompah, left to-day for Nebraska, where they will reside in future.

John Pottenger, of Montreal, late chief inspector of Merchants' bank agencies, has been appointed manager of the Hamilton

Dr. A. M. Rosebrugh, of Toronto, will be at the British American hotel, Kingston, Wednesday and Thursday, the 2nd and 3rd

Misses Louisa and Eda Folger, daughters of B. W. Folger, who have been attending school at Berthier, Quebec, are home on a

R. Crugan, of Amherst island, had one of the ribs in his right side fractured while unloading hay in the Queen's hotel yard on Tuesday

William Leary, formerly of Napanee, has just died in South America. He was conducting a theatrical company down there when taken ill, and died at Port Agabello where he was buried.

Sir John Macdonald will leave here on Monday night for Ottawa where he votes. And he thinks he should supplant Mr. Gunn, who lives here, votes here, and has all his interests here. Modest, isn't he?

Mrs. D. J. Campbell, of Bath, has arriv ed home safely from Baltimore and Wash. ton, after having spent a few months very pleasantly with friends and acquaintances, in a climate somewhat milder than that of

THE PRICE WAS VERY LOW

Mr. McGuire Challenged to Prove Peter Ryan of Toronto a Liar.

T. H. McGuire, Q.C., was one of the speakers at the nominations in Renfrew. He there encountered Peter Ryan of Toron to, who scorched the Kingstonian in great style. Mr. Ryan told the electors that the question was not between Blake and Sir John, but between Blake and Sir Charles Tupper. Respectable conservatives were not going to swallow Sir Charles as the lead er of the party. In proof of this he read a letter in the Globe from a conservative M.P., repudiating Sir Charles. As he read it, Mr. McGuire made some remark.

Mr. Ryan-Do you deny it was written by a conservative ?

Mr. McGuire (scornfully) - Yes ! Mr. Ryan I say it is true. Do you Wright, R. M. Waddell, John T. White,

Mr. McGuire (sarcastically) - Yes, I do !

Mr. Ryan-I say I can prove it. Do you

Mr. McGuire (confidently) Yes : Mr. Ryan-Then-it was Mr. Farrow, M.P., for East Huron. Do you-deny it ?

Mr. McGuire (hesitatingly) - Yes-s. Mr. Ryan-Twenty-five cents will take a telegram to Mr. Farrow. Twenty-five cents will bring an answer back. Fifty cents to prove me a liar, and wipe out all the good I can do for my party on any platform in the country. I challenge you to send that telegram. Gentlemen, I don't sell out as cheap as 50c. Mr. McGuire's head dropped, as the cheers rolled out of the audience.

POLITICAL AGREEMENT.

IT GUARDS AGAINST THE EXPENDI-TURE OF BOODLE.

How the Thing Came About Both Parties Profess a Desire for a Pure Issue Who Pledge Themselves to Stand by the Arrangement.

whereas it is the desire of both political important to say. parties in the city of Kingston to prevent, at the pending election for the house of commons of Canada, in the said city, any viola. tion of the provisions of the election act respecting corrupt practices at dominion elections, and to see that the provisions of the said act, to wit 37 Victoria, chapter 9, are faithfully carried out, and that there is no breach, especially of section 92 respecting bribery, of section 94 respecting treating, of section 95, respecting intimidation, and of section 96 respecting the hiring of vehicles and carrying of votes to the poll;

Therefore, we, the undersigned supporters of Sir John A. Macdonald, the conservative candidate, agree to do our utmost in every way to prevent any violation, direct or indirect, of any of the said provisions of the said act, by any of the supporters of the said candidate; and we agree that this document, with our signatures, shall be published in the DAILY WHIG and News of this tle was carried on by Messrs. Morgans and redoubtable adversary in the reichstag, or the reform association, do advertise a reward of $200, to be paid by him to each and every person furnishing such information as to lead to the conviction of the said conservative candidate, or of any of his agents, or of any persons who sign this agreement, of any violation of any of the provisions of the said act:

And we do hereby jointly and severally promise and agree to and with the said John . Baker, that we will repay and reimburse him, and all said rewards which he may be come liable to repay, under and in pursu mee of the said advertisement. THE CONSERVATIVE LIST.

Samuel Anglin, Samuel Angrove. Philip Bajus, Jacob Bajus, John Branmgan, James H. Brickwood, J. Bastow, S. G. Brown, George Brown, J. W. Brown, L. W. Breck, I. A. Breck, E. A. Booth, Robert Baird, jr., John Baird. George Creeggan, Henry Cunningham, E.

Chown, W. J. Crothers, G. Y. Chown, A.

Dandy, John Dodds, jr. B. W. Folger, M. H. Folger, F. A. Fol ger, Dr. T. M. Fenwick. John Gray, John Gaskin, Capt. Geogehan.

James Gowdy, D. A. Givens, R. W. Gar-P. R. Henderson, John S. Henderson, George S. Hobart, S. Harkness.

Samuel Jenkins, John Jones, Joseph Jamieson. S. J. Kilpatrick, George A. Kirkpatrick.

William Lesslie, John Laird, William Langdon, Thomas Lemmon. Donald M. McIntyre, A. McConaghy, William Muckler, B. McConville, G. M. gaged for the str. Hero. Macdonnell, William McKee, James H. Metcalfe, William McCammon, John Mc-Cammon, John Muckleston, William Murray, James Minnes, Thomas D. Minnes, G. A. McGowan, Themas Miller, sr., Thomas Miller, jr., Thomas Mills, John McIntyre, John McMahon, Armstrong McCormack, Thomas McCormack, J. T. McMahon. Isaac Noble, William Newland, jr., George Newlands, William Newman.

A. S. Oliver, George Offord, John O'Brien. Samuel Phippen, R. S. Patterson, Joseph Power, Thomas Power. Joseph Quigley.

George Richardson, William Robinson, jr., William Rigney, H. W. Richardson. E. H. Smythe C. F. Smith, William Saunders, John Smith, Charles Smith, Thomas Sullivan, James Swift, Joseph F. Swift, L. B. Spencer, H. B. Savage, P. Smith,

Michael Sullivan, Lewis Shannon. D. Thomson, J. H. Taylor. James Wilson, R. T. Walkem, J. B. Walkem, H. Wilkinson, George Wilkinson, H. P. Wells, R. Waldron, John Welch, William Waddington, jr.

THE REFORM LIST. The document signed by the reformers is worded the same as that signed by the con servatives, the reward having being offered by Charles F. Smith, secretary of the conservative association.

William Allen, Isaac Asselstine. J. F. Baker, B. Bird. W. Cannem, John Carruthers, Percy Clark, J. B. Carruthers, W. C. Carruthers,

Geo. Cliff. Thomas Calvert, W. Corrigan, R. J. Carson, John Carson, W. Carson, T. A. Carson, Martin Clayton, R. Crawford, W. G. Craig, James Crawford, Allan C. Chadwick. Edward J. Dwyre, Patrick Delaney, James

Daly, George Dodds.

R. J. Eilbeck.

R. M. Ford, Wm. Fee, S. H. Fee F. H. Fraser, Samuel Fraser. James Galloway, William Glidden, R. Gardiner, C. F. Gildersleeve, W. H. Godwin, J. P. Gildersleeve, Thos. Gallagher, jr. William Harty, Samuel Harper, Joseph Hiscock, Wm. Harkness.

C. A. Irwin. James Jackson, Charles Lyons, Edward jr., W. J. Livingston, Charles Livingston, Thomas G. Lewis.

Sam. Marshall, George Menary, Charles F. Maund, J. M. Machar, W. H. Miller, John Maloney. George B. McCreadie, W. R. McRae, W. D. McRae, J. B. McIver, John McKelvey, J. T. D. Mackenzie, James McManus, J. F. McEwen. R. Newlands, Isaac Newlands. Paul Ohlke.

William Robinson, James Redden, Paul Reid, Christopher Robinson, W. Robinson, jr., T. D. Robinson, W. H. Rodgers, Andrew Robinson.

George Power, N. C. Polson, Daniel Pha-

Saunders. T. C. Tillinghast, Owen Tierney, James Duncan Thompson, George Thompson. W. A. VanTassell, William Wilson, John

James Stewart, Archibald Strachan, John

How It Came About.

John L. Whiting, James Walsh.

The agreement above detailed is the development of a conversation which two electors, Messrs. J. McKelvey and H. B. Savage, had upon the street on Thursday. They said it would be a good thing it some thing like this could be brought about. The matter came before the committees and was endorsed. Conferences of leaders followed. and with the result announced.

At the glee club concert on Friday even ing the chorus, 'The Heavens are Telling, trom Hayden's creation, will be sung by the club, accompained by the orchestra.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

Paragraphs of Interest as Picked Up by

Our Busy Reporters on the Street. Go to the Royal rink to night. The ice is in good condition."

Thomas Gaskin, a government official, is in the city; so is Robert Craig, of Ottawa. Fresh print butter, fresh roll butter, early rose potatoes, fresh and salt fish. Jas. Crawford.

The opera house should be crowded tonight. Tait and Mowat will have something Dried pitted cherries, 20c per lb ; Califoraia plums, 20c; blackberries, 15c; raspberries, 25c. Jas. Crawford. If you have not procured Battersby's railway guide for February (Montreal), you are not fit to travel.

12-1 MAY

The general hospital has received a donation of $25 from the directors of the K. & P. railway company. Dr. Stewart, we learn by tickets issued, lectures in the city hall on Monday evening, on the political crisis. There were numerous pilgrimages made to Sir John's par to-day. The prominent tories went down in twos and threes. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the salvation army meetings will be exclusively for soldiers. A young man for drunkenness was given a month in gaol this morning. He had the option of paying a fine of $5, but couldn't - raise it. Let the liberals make a Waterleo of King And that John F. Baker, the secretary of | ston on Tuesday. Every man who wants to see Mr. Gunn elected should take off his. coat and work.

> F. B. McNamee, of Montreal, a prominent government contractor, is still here. He has been a guest at the British American hotel since Thursday. The roller rink will be closed on Monday evening. A private party will be held in the building that night. Mr. Gunn is doing stalwart work in the wards. He is meeting with unexampled success. With big work by the liberals the city is safe for their candidate. Every man who loves Kingston should help to elect Gunn to parliament. Let the cry be "Kingston for Kingstonians," not

"Kingston for Macdonaldism." Diphtheria is very prevalent in Sorel. Two of Mr. Gunn's boys were attacked by the disease, and have suffered considerably from it. They are, fortunately, recovering. Three clerks in the employ of J. C. Hardy, displeased at a paragraph which he recently inserted in the papers, asked him to-day to Michael Doran, Thomas Donnelly, John apologize. He refused and they left his Donnelly, jr., W. M. Drennan, William employment. James Steacy is on the road to patent fame and wealth. His sales of "Balm of Life," a cure for every ill, are so lively upon

Wolfe Island that he goes into wholesale manufacture. . McLeod, who has the contract, to supply sashes and doors for the new C.P.R. round house at Smith's Falls, shipped the goods to-day. This house is being built to accommodate twenty engines at once. The str. Hero will have about $3,000 ex pended upon her before the opening of the season. Mr. Stewart, Deseronto, formerly engineer of the str. Resolute, has been en

The balance of the season we will sacrifice our stock of choice furs at greatly reduced prices to make room for the largest and most stylish stock of stiff and soft hats ever brought into the city of Kingston. -J. B. Page & Co. Among the district deputy grand masters elected by the A.O.U.W. grand lodge are: St. Lawrence district, N. H. Beecher, Toledo; Kingston district, Dr. Beeman, Centreville; R. G. Wright, Napanee, was elect ed trustee. A runaway team of horses ran into a train at the foot of Johnson street this morning.

The horses fell with their heads under the cars, and would have been cut off had not the train been stopped. Composite photography, the curious process by which is produced the average of an indefinite number of portraits, will be de scribed by Prof. Stoddard, of Smith College for women, in the next Century. The illus trations will have a weird fascination. . The annual concert of the Queen's college glee club will be held in convocation hall on Friday evening, 25th inst. The programme will consist of selections by the college or chestra, solos and choruses by the glee club. Assistance of Madam Kingsbury, of London. Eng., and Miss Fralick, of Kingston, has also been secured which will add much to the concert. Admission 50c and 35c.

The cars were moving slowly at the time.

The Berlin News, daily, has reached its tenth year. This is not a ripe old age, it is true, but it means a deal in this case. The News is a conservative paper, in a strong reform centre, and that it has managed to prosper and do yeoman service at all times for its party does it credit. It is another proof that party does not build up a paper. but that industry and good management do so in spite of politics.

The Willard tract depository, of Toronto. have produced a Canadian edition of the jubilee volume of Queen Victoria, which has reached the fifth edition, or 25,000 copies in all, in England. It gives a detail of the scenes and incidents of her majesty's life. with ninety four illustrations, 244 pages, $1; for sale by John Henderson & Co., Kingston. Accompanying is a cabinet photo of the royal family, the leading statesmen of Law, George W. Leslie, Charles Livingston, England, and leading royal palaces. A jubilee souvenir.

Endorsing the Address.

Mr. Henry Bawden had a satisfactory meeting on Wolfe Island last night. He made an address which was so truthful that S. Going, who appeared for Mr. Kirkpatrick, endorsed it. Mr. Bawden found his opponent's address so flattering to himself that he did not reply.

She Had Reasons

For using oranges and lemons, because at 20c per dozen they are cheaper than any other fruits. These can be had at Jas. Crawford's.

Weather Probabilities.

Strong winds and moderate gales from the west and north-west, decreasing by night; cloudy to partly cloudy with light snow falls and colder.

Chicago, Feb. 19. - A special from Huron, Dakota, says the storm that commenced Thursday has not yet ceased; the waggon roads are mostly impassible; no effort can be made to clear the railroads until the storm subsides. LONG BRANCH, N. J., Feb 19, -The storm of last night was the heaviest that has visited this section in many years. The wind damaged several cottages in the course of construction. The high sea made inroads in ocean avenue Bluff.