POMEROY'S

PETROLIN
POROUS PLASTER
 Cures Backache, Lung Troubles
Kidney Diseases,
Rheumatism, Etc.

A trial will convince the most skeptical that they are the best. They are medicated with capsicum and the active principle of petroleum, being far more powerful in their action than other plasters. Do not be induced to take others, but be sure and get the genuine "Petrolin," which is always enclosed in an envelope with the signature of the proprietors, The P. W. P. Co., and directions in four languages; also seal on front and back of each plaster. Sold by first-class druggists, at 25 cents each.

PEDACURA
CORN PLASTERS
 Are the best known remedy for hard and soft corns, and never fail to cure. Price 25 cents.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

They kill claim jumpers in the western part of Kansas.

A car load of ostriches from Africa arrived at Los Angeles the other day.

Los Angeles county, California, is larger than Rhode Island and Delaware combined.

There are said to be more beggars in Birmingham, Ala., than in any other city in the south.

Ninety per cent. of the travelers to eastern points from Butte, M. T., purchase second class tickets.

It is quite the fashionable thing now to run down from Washington to Old Point Comfort for a few days.

Certain New York women have exposed themselves to much criticism by reason of eccentricities in dress.

The fear that he would turn into a dog when he died and be owned by a bad man drove one Reynolds, of Virginia, to suicide.

Crush opera hats for ladies are popular in New York. They are made of cloth, in a conical shape, and are fitted with springs.

The Hawaiian government has just annexed Ocean island, which is described as a sand-bank 1,200 miles from the Hawaiian group.

The river Thames is said to have ebbed and flowed in a very double manner three times in one hour and a quarter one morning recently.

The water used in the White House for drinking purposes is conveyed to the mansion by pipes from a spring in Franklin park, several squares distant.

Mr. Labouchere thinks the queen could not mark her jubilee by a more graceful and popular act than writing an open letter to the Irish landlords calling upon them to treat their tenants humanely.

Apocryph of Tennyson.

There died this week at Margate, England, Mrs. Richard Jesse. She was Emily Tennyson, and was betrothed to Arthur Henry Hallan, whose death nearly broke her heart and gave to the world that most lovely, pathetic poem, "In Memoriam." Apocryph of Tennyson, he has just been presented with a tankard bearing the inscription, "A pint pot neatly graven." It was the gift of the last two landlords of the Old Clock Tavern at Temple Bar. The old tavern is now demolished—it is only memory—and Lord Tennyson has written an autograph letter to Messrs. Spiers and Pond accepting their gift and promising that it shall be preserved as an heirloom in his family.—New York Graphic.

Gathering Jack Rabbit Scalps.

In Grant county, Ore., where the bounty on jack rabbit scalps is five cents each, some of the farmers stretch a wire screen across the prairie, the screen having meshes just large enough for a rabbit to stick his head through. Then men and dogs round up the rabbits and drive them toward the screen, and in their hurry to escape they stick their heads through and are caught. Then the farmers scalp the captives and let them go, hoping that each will raise another five cent scalp before long. This is the story told by the Grant county News.

The Alaska Free Press.

I was shown by a friend, the other day, No. 1, volume 1, of The Alaska Free Press, issued Jan. 15 of this year. It is a weekly paper printed at Juneau, Douglas Island, Alaska. The paper is brimming full of reference to the wonderful mining prospects along the Yukon river, and looks upon Alaska as liable to become the greatest mining country in the world. The editor calmly says that six degrees below zero is the coldest yet experienced in his country, and no snow on the ground.—Cor. Pioneer Press.

Dress of Japanese Ladies.

The project of having Japanese ladies adopt European dress has met with much opposition on the score of expense. Some economists have drawn an alarming picture of the increased cost to the nation, but an English observer in Japan points out that the present style of dress permits extravagance, as Japanese ladies have been known to pay $600 for a small collar of old native lace embroidered in colors.—Harper's Bazar.

Warlike Craft for Spain.

There is an immense contract for torpedo boats and other warlike craft on Spain. The government of the queen regent intends to spend $45,000,000 for the purpose of placing the Spanish fleet on a proper footing. The money is to be raised by the sale of certain crown lands. Naturally, this is a process which requires time, and therefore a syndicate has been formed to sell these lands.

New Cable Railway System.

A new system of cable railway is being tried in Chicago, which has the cable carried along on little trucks through a box only about six inches square in cross section. Buttons on the cable enter indentations on the drum which propels it, and a forked wheel attached to the car catches the buttons at the will of the conductor, thus doing away with the grip.—New York Sun.

Canned Beef in Canteens.

Two of the three large beef canners of Chicago were recently offered a contract for 6,000,000 pounds of canned beef, to be put up in cans made somewhat like canteens. The contract was refused because if the goods were condemned they could not be sold without much difficulty.—New York Tribune.

It Was First Class.

Mrs. Wayback (to husband, who has brought home a verse of poetry with the author's signature attached)—Is this first class poetry, John? Mr. Wayback (enthusiastically)—First class poetry! I should say it was. I got that in a dime museum, Marlar. The fellow wrote it with his toes.—Life.

An Enthusiastic Supporter.

In Ontario, where all single women and widows with the requisite property qualification can vote at municipal elections, one young lady was so enthusiastic in support of the mayor that she postponed her wedding in order that she might be able to help to vote him into office.—Chicago Times.

A Light Fingered Mourner.

A woman who supported herself comfortably by picking pockets at funerals has been arrested in New Orleans. Her eminent respectability, as well as natural ingenuity and sense of appearance, made her much sought after as a mourner.—New York Graphic.

Tree Planting in California.

The good work of tree planting goes on rapidly in portions of California. Three firms in the state have sold 60,000 trees to Nevada county alone, and the present year will probably see 100,000 trees planted in that county.—Chicago Herald.

A Crematory Chapel.

The Crematorial association of Philadelphia is preparing to build the largest and costliest crematory chapel in the world. It will have a front of 66 feet, a depth of 105 feet, the distance will be 90 feet to the top of the dome, the material will be granite, pressed red brick and terra cotta, and the cost will be $40,000.—Chicago Times.

Modjeska's Last Year.

"I'm always thinking," said Mme. Modjeska the other day, "I will stay on the stage one year more, for there is this or that play I have not acted in yet. But now we think after next year we will go to southern California and make our home there. My husband wants to get me off the stage."

An English Philanthropist.

Miss Ada Leigh, the English philanthropist, who, a few years ago, started a home for young men, with a restaurant and reading room attached, is now in New York, bent on performing some work of a similar nature there.

Bothered by a corn.

A young man playing billiards in Sequel, Cal., was bothered by a soft corn on one of his little toes. He yanked off his boot, cut off the toe with a chisel, stopped the flow of blood with cobwebs, bound up the stump and resumed the interrupted game.

Few People

Consider how important and valuable a really good cough remedy is. Colds too often are allowed to develop into an incurable disease, and neglect which makes this possible is nothing less than criminal. Few remedies have given such universally satisfactory results as has Lanman's Balsam Syrup. This great cough remedy goes right to the root of disease and speedily removes every vestige of the trouble. Lanman's Syrup is a positive cure in all troubles of the throat, chest, and lungs. Sold by N. C. Polson & Co., and by country dealers everywhere.
