

MEDICINES.

POROUS PLASTER
Cures Backache, Lung Troubles, Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Etc.

A trial will convince the most skeptical that they are the best. They are saturated with capicum and the active principle of petroleum, being far more powerful in their action than other plasters. Do not be induced to take others, but be sure and get the genuine "Petroline," which is always enclosed in an envelope with the signature of the proprietors, The P. W. P. Co., and directions in four languages; also seal on front and back of each plaster. Sold by first-class druggists, at 25 cents each.

CORN PLASTERS
Are the best known remedy for hard and soft corns, and never fail to cure. Price 25 cents.

PASSING EVENTS AS RECORDED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Movements of Ruralists—Doings and Sayings in Neighboring Villages—Spicy Bits of Country Gossip—The Festival Operations Very Successful.

STELLA.

March 2.—Robert Lawson was taken ill on election night from inflammation of the lungs, and passed away rapidly. His funeral occurred to-day.—Miss Katy Lark was carried to her long rest on Monday last.

ODESSA.

March 1.—James L. Wright met with a painful accident while feeding his stock. One of the cattle suddenly raised its head, jabbing its horn into Mr. Wright's eye.—After a lingering illness, patiently borne, Chester Hicks, a young man universally liked, passed to that better land. The funeral sermon was preached on Sunday by Rev. C. L. Thompson, in the Methodist church, to a large audience of friends.

CALABOGIE.

March 1.—Rev. A. A. Radley has received a unanimous invitation from Methodist church to remain in charge of the mission for a second year.—F. Ostler is erecting a large tenement house for renting in view of the probable influx of population at the opening of the saw mills and other industries in the spring.—John Wilson has nearly completed his contract of 'crawling ore from the Wilson-Martell mine to the railway. There will be about 800 tons.

BURNT HILLS.

March 1.—The new bridge at Brass' Point will be completed before the ice is out. A great many applications are in for the keeping of the bridge. Whose man will get it, Storrington's, Joyceville's, or Brewer's Mills? We hope Hon. Geo. A. Kirkpatrick will not put them all to attend to that bridge.—The trotting match on Bass Lake was largely attended. The Joyceville lady had better bet her small change first.—Our school is improving rapidly under J. J. Shortell.

ARDEN.

March 1.—The roads are in a bad condition.—Bowes & Bissette are doing a thriving business in dry goods.—The pioneers of Kennebec seem to understand the great fall of toryism in the last contest, and are not likely to be a piece of machinery any more.—A sad accident happened at Maloney's shanty in Kennebec. George McCauley, teamster, was coming down a hill with a stick of timber, twenty feet long and seven inches at the top end. John Miller went to jump on the stick, slipped and fell. The stick was drawing with one end on the sleigh and passed over his head, cutting the left ear totally from the head.

WASHBURN.

March 1.—The trotting match on Bass lake last week was largely attended, and considerable interest prevailed. Ladies were seen offering to put up money on "Sir John," and the ladies were right. In first race the entries were "Sir John," "Blossom," "Lightning," and "White Rose." "Sir John" won in two straight heats. "Blossom" second, "Lightning" third. The next race was between "Black Jack," "Forwarder," "Express," and "Cornucopia." "Black Jack" won in two straight heats. "Cornucopia" second. The boys said, "Well done, Charlie." Then there was a race free to all, which "Sir John" also won, "Grand Bounce" coming in second. Another race is expected on March 12th.

YARKER.

March 2.—The Tories are uneasy over the four majority reported in the Whig. They think there ought to be a 0 behind that four.—George Dear has lost a valuable horse.—Lieut. Laidley, of Yarker, will return to her home this week.—Thomas Furrz was married to Miss Agnes Cambridge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. J. Bates at the residence of the bride's father. Congratulations.—Alexander Allison is with us again.—Rev. M. J. Bates is reported to have been at four weddings last week.—There is need for that Kingston branch to connect with Yarker as the merchants here and vicinity are compelled to haul from Kingston as freight rates are so high.—John Fry is visiting his friend McKim at Catarqui.—Every reformer should take a deep interest in the welfare of his country, and he cannot do so in any better way than to look well after the assessment of his township and see that every young man twenty-one years old, who favours reform principles, is placed on the assessment roll.

BATH ROAD.

March 2.—Mrs. John Baker is still on a visit to friends at Goderich. P. W. Day has been lumbering on his wood land near Hartington.—Miss Beach, of Kingston, was the guest of Miss Alice Day this week.—A number of the young folk attended the stereoscopic lecture at Collinsby on Tuesday night by H. S. Williams, of Hamilton.—Mrs. J. Ward has returned from an extended visit to her daughter at Farmersville.—William Welborn attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, George Scott, at Napanee on Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. Clark, of Enterprise, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Day this week.—On Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's father Emma M., youngest daughter of John Grass, Front Road, was united to Frank Murton, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Simpson, of Catarqui. The bride was supported by Miss Bessie Day and the groom by D. Murton, of Murvale. The guests were only a few near relatives. The presents were superb, showing high esteem for the bride. After the wedding supper the happy couple left by the midnight train for a trip to Ottawa and Montreal.

BATTERSEA.

March 3.—Election excitement has again ceased, but Bawden's majority at this division surprised the conservatives.—Miss Maud Steenburg has been absent two months among friends near Napanee. Her friends are delighted over her return.—Mr. J. Redpath, who has rented H. Vanluven's farm, took possession last week.—Penny readings are no more. Success did not attend the efforts of the organizers.—A number of the village sports attended the races on Bass Lake. A great many flyers were entered and some good work was done.—Mrs. Dougall has returned from a visit to relatives in Elgin.—Miss Nush Hughes is visiting friends in the city.—On Monday evening the young people of Battersea organized themselves into a surprise party and drove to Mr. J. M. Hodgson's, Ida Hill. They were royally entertained by the genial cheese king and his amiable wife.—Death has again been to our quiet village, and three have passed over to the silent majority.

Mrs. Seward, for many years a resident of this section and highly respected by all, passed away at the ripe age of 77 years. More touching still is the demise of the little son of Mrs. Mayhew, who suffered from a brain affection.—Mr. F. Jarrles mourns the loss of a loving helpmate. Heartfelt sympathy is extended by all in their sad bereavements.

Few People Consider how important and valuable a really good cough remedy is. Colds too often are allowed to develop into an incurable disease, and neglect which makes this possible is nothing less than criminal. Few remedies have given such universally satisfactory results as has Lanman's Balsam Syrup. This great cough remedy goes right to the root of disease and speedily removes every vestige of the trouble. Lanman's Syrup is a positive cure in all troubles of the throat, chest, and lungs. Sold by N. C. Polson & Co., and by country dealers everywhere.

A Cure for Drunkenness. Opium, morphine, chloral, tobacco, and kindred habits. The medicine may be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it if so desired. Send 6c in stamps, for book and testimonials from those who have been cured. Address M. V. Lahan, 46 Wellington St. East, Toronto, Ont. Cut this out for future reference. When writing mention this paper.

More Than Claimed. "For the past four or five years," says Mrs. Emery, of Cottam, Ont., "I have been subject to kidney troubles. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters. It has done me more good than what was claimed for it. I can recommend it to all sufferers from like diseases."

Special Attention Should always be given to the hair and scalp. Dr. Dorenwind's "Hair Magic," used once in a while, will keep the hair and scalp in a clean, healthy condition. In cases of baldness where the roots are not gone, it will produce a good head of hair. It will restore gray hair to its original color, prevent all falling of the hair, and remove all traces of dandruff. A. Dorenwind, sole manufacturer, Toronto. J. G. King and A. P.
