

A MEDICINE, NOT A DRINK.

High Authority.

Hop Bitters is not, in any sense, an alcoholic beverage or liquor, and could not be sold, for use, except to persons desirous of obtaining medicinal bitters.

GREEN B. RAUM, U. S. Com'r Internal Rev.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24, 1884.

Dear Sir—Why don't you get a certificate from Col. W. H. W., of Baltimore, showing how he cured himself of drunkenness by the help of Hop Bitters. His is a wonderful case. He is well known in Rochester, N.Y., by all the drinking people there. He is known in this city, Cincinnati, New Orleans, New-York; in fact all over the country, as he has spent thousands of dollars for rum. I honestly believe his card would be worth thousands of dollars to you in this city and Baltimore alone, and make thousands of sober men by inducing the use of your bitters.

J. A. W.

Prejudice Kills.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best physicians, who gave her disease various names but not relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by Hop Bitters, that we had pooled at two years before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."—The Parents—Good Templars.

Milton, Del., Feb. 10, 1886.

Having used Hop Bitters, the noted remedy for debility, nervousness, indigestion, etc., I have no hesitation in saying that it is indeed an excellent medicine and recommend it to any one as a truly tonic bitters. Respectfully,

REV. MRS. J. H. ELLGOOD.

Scipio, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1884.

I am the pastor of the Baptist church here and an educated physician. I am not in practice, but am my sole family physician, and advise in chronic cases. Over a year ago I recommended your Hop Bitters to my invalid wife, who has been under medical treatment of Albany's best physicians several years. She has been greatly benefited and still uses the medicine. I believe she will become thoroughly cured of her various complicated diseases by their use. We both recommend them to our friends, many of whom have also been cured of their various ailments by them.

REV. E. R. WARREN.

Cured of Drinking.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for liquor that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady; and he has remained a steady and sober man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading R. K. Official, Chicago, Ill.

POMEROY'S PETROLINE POROUS PLASTER. Cures Backache, Lung Troubles, Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Etc.

A trial will convince the most skeptical that they are the best. They are medicated with capicum and the active principle of petroleum, being far more powerful in their action than other plasters. Do not be induced to take others, but be sure and get the genuine "Petrolin," which is always enclosed in an envelope with the signature of the proprietors, The P. W. P. Co., and directions in four languages; also seal on front and back of each plaster. Sold by first-class druggists, at 25 cents each.

PEDACURA CORN PLASTERS. Are the best known remedy for hard and soft corns, and never fail to cure. Price 25 cents. The Peleg White Proprietary Co. 113 W. Broadway, N. Y., U. S. FIRST-CLASS DRUGGISTS. J. G. KING, District Agent, Kingston.

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

What the Newspapers are Saying of Men and Women of Note.

Rossini's ashes have been taken from Paris to Florence, and a monument will be erected over them.

Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton, the well-known expert in insanity cases, is a grandson of Alexander Hamilton.

Lord Tennyson's eyesight is falling him to such an extent as to cause serious alarm among his numerous circle of friends.

Talking of dressmakers, Miss Clara Huntington paid hers $17,000 last year. How does that strike you? Civilization is a great thing, isn't it?

Editor Grady, of the Atlanta Constitution, is a brilliant writer, but an inconsistent worker. Sometimes he will come to the office and do as much work in a few hours as another man will do in a week, and then he will lay off for a month.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, has struck no such rich streaks of luck as lately represented. He has had no great stroke of fortune. He has done well in business, but has had nothing like the success which the numerous paragraphs printed have attributed to him.

The story is started in the newspapers that Ben Butler, who hanged Mumford in New Orleans for hauling down the American flag in 1862, found his widow in straitened circumstances after the war—and secured her a good clerkship in the interior department at Washington.

Mr. W. H. Beard, the artist, made a study for a large picture to be entitled "The Power of Death." Weirly depicted is a half clothed figure with a death's head, one hand grasping a tiger in the throes of dissolution, the other a withered tree, while one foot rests on the prostrate form of a dead elephant. In the background, which is desolate and gloomy, is a dead lion.

Emperor William, Count von Moltke, Gen. W. S. Harney, U. S. A., and Col. E. G. W. Butler, of St. Louis, are believed to be the oldest four military officers in the world. Between the last two there is a good deal of rivalry as to precedence. Butler went into the army before Harney—that is, at West Point. But Harney received his commission before Butler got his.

Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland may be fond of the New York press, but—she refused to be interviewed. Some three months ago, in answer to an editor proffering his columns for her use in any way, Miss Cleveland sadly and suggestively remarked, "I assure you, you are quite mistaken if you think that anything I could write of myself would be of interest to your readers."

Miss Grace Howard, daughter of "Joe" Howard, is going to Dakota next month to spend two or three years in instructing the Indians. Miss Howard is an exceedingly talented woman, with a somewhat strong mind. She has spent some time on the frontier, and quite a strong friendship exists between her and Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland, because of their sympathies in the same direction. She is now in Montreal with her father.

The death of Mme. Needham and the sale of her goods at the Hotel Drouet, Paris, make it plain that the lady shopped industriously. One hundred and fifty day and night chemises trimmed with Valenciennes and other lace, seventy petticoats in silk, muslin, etc., forty pairs of garters, twenty-four corsets, 300 lace handkerchiefs, forty pantaloons de soie peluche, and 165 pairs of silk stockings are among the items on the bill of sale.

A vivacious correspondent having described Miss Mattie Mitchell, the daughter of the senator from Oregon, as she appeared in a gray plush cloak at the theatre one evening as resembling "a malted kitten by moonlight," an admirer of the young lady sent her, with the printed paragraph, a moonstone carved to represent the head of a kitten with small emerald eyes, caught in the arms of a crescent moon made of diamonds. Miss Mitchell constantly wears this pin now.

Miss Anna Dickinson is slowly recovering her health, and a friend, writing of her, says: "Miss Dickinson has entreaties of plays from two well known stars, for a novel from a New York publisher, and for various magazine articles. She is considering them, but will decide nothing for a few weeks yet, till she is better." "I shouldn't wonder if they were declined ultimately, as she will want to carry out her own chosen projects as soon as she is well again."—Boston Traveller.

The Great Pension Building.

The interior of the great hall of the pension building will soon be finished. The immense stretch of wall has nearly all been plastered, and some idea can be formed of what the completed hall will look like. Whatever difference of opinion there may be as to the merits of the outside of the building, it will no doubt be generally admitted that this hall is a grand room. In point of size it is larger, with one exception, than any audience room in this country, and in point of capacity stands about fourth in the list of the large interiors of the world. The great Mormon tabernacle in Salt Lake City is said to have the largest capacity of any building in this country. It will seat about 15,000 people.

Gen. Meigs, the architect of the pension building, says that the hall in the pension building and the galleries surrounding it have a seating capacity of 11,307 men. The hall itself is 316 feet long and 116 feet wide, while it has two tiers of galleries extending all around it which are 19 feet in width. A third gallery, which encircles the hall, has a width of 5 feet. Gen. Meigs says he has estimated that 30,000 people can find standing room in this great space. St. Peter's church, Rome, which is in the same way, hold 54,000 people, while the Milan cathedral will accommodate 37,000; St. Paul's, Rome, 23,000, and St. Paul's, London, 25,000. Gen. Meigs says he has no doubt that the principal portion of the inauguration exercises will in the future be held in this hall, as well as public funerals and other exercises which attract large gatherings of the people.—Washington Star.

Indian Missionary Conference.

There was a missionary conference in Eufaula, I. T., recently, and an appeal was made to the Indian congregation for money to send the gospel to those that had it not. There were 300 persons in the congregation, and the collection amounted to $380, many of the Indians giving all the money that they had with them, and some of the girls throwing bracelets, rings and other jewelry into the collection baskets.—New York Sun.

In a Few Hundred Years or So.

The fall of Table Rock at Niagara Falls is the beginning of the end. The beginning, that is, of the disappearance of Niagara Falls as a beautiful natural wonder. In a few hundred years or so the river would rush down an inclined plane instead of falling over a cliff, and the sides of the river bed will be left high and dry, bare brown tables of rock.—Fall Mall Gazette.

Holloway's Pills.

Are remedies which should invariably be taken by travellers in search of health, pleasure or business. Many deleterious influences are constantly at work in foreign climes, tending to deteriorate the health; these and the altered conditions of life will entail on those who travel the necessity of carefully attending to early symptoms of disease, and they will find the use of these remedies to be highly necessary, the action of the pills being purifying and strengthening and of great service in cases of fever, ague, and all inflammatory diseases, whilst the ointment is a sovereign cure in cases of piles, bad legs, bad breasts, wounds and ulcers. Holloway's remedies do not deteriorate by change of climate.

Home Testimony.

Many hundred recommendations similar in character to the one given below have been received, and give proof of the great value of Polson's Nerviline as a pain remedy. Try it:

ATHOL, Feb. 20.—We hereby certify that we have used Nerviline in our families and have found it a most reliable remedy for cramps in the stomach, also for headache, and externally for rheumatic pains. No house should be without this invaluable remedy.—LUKE COLE, ELISHA COLE, J.P.

A Good Motive.

Harry Ricardo, of Toronto, agent of Fine Art Publications, states that he was so troubled with deafness for eight years that he could scarcely attend to business, until he tried Yellow Oil. He desires to make this cure known, for the benefit of others afflicted.

Tribute to the Czar.

BERLIN, March 8.—Emperor William has ordered that a deputation from the czar's Prussian regiment, equipped with new repeating rifles, present themselves before the czar at Gatchina on the emperor's birthday. The czar is highly pleased with the idea.

Satisfied Confidence.

J. B. H. Girard, of St. Edwidge, Clifton, P.Q., says, "I am well satisfied with the use of Burdock Blood Bitters; it has cured me of dyspepsia that I had for three years. I used five bottles, and shall tell every person I know that may be attacked with similar sickness, and should not be afraid to guarantee every bottle used."
